CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (In Unison)

Almighty and most merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But you, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore those who are penitent according to your promises declared to mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

STATEMENT OF FAITH
In the form of a doxology

We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being create persons in your own image,
and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior,
you have come to us
and shared our common lot,
conquering sin and death
and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit,
creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ,
binding in covenant faithful people of all ages,
tongues, and races.

You call us into your church
to accept the cost and joy of discipleship,
to be your servants in the service of others,
to proclaim the gospel to all the world
and resist the powers of evil,
to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table,
to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you
forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace,
courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
your presence in trial and rejoicing,
and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS (see insert)

CHILDREN'S MOMENT

OUR MUTUAL MINISTRY

(Please record your names on the green pads and greet those sharing the pew with you.)

ORDER FOR THE RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS

(At the invitation of the minister, the new members will come forward to the foot of the pulpit platform.)

Minister: Friends, we welcome your decision to be one of us. We do not meet here as those who consider themselves better than others, but rather as those, who admitting their unworthiness, are glad to declare together "the wonderful deeds of him who calls us out of darkness into his marvelous light." Christian faith is never purely private. Christ began his work by gathering a community of discipleship. So today "God calls us into his church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be servants in the service of the whole human family, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory."

It is on the basis of this call that the church becomes the body of Christ, a royal priesthood, God's own people. To join that body is to enter into a covenant second to none in its solemnity. The vows of loyalty you are about to make are as binding in God's sight as those of marriage or any oath of allegiance. May his Spirit strengthen you in your pledge.

I ask you now, will you strive to be faithful to our Lord and to his universal church, and will you uphold Pilgrim Congregational Church by your prayers, your presence, your labor, your gifts, your constructive criticism and your love?

Answer. I will.

Minister: I read to you now the covenant of this church:

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord made known or to be made known to us. We therefore join and covenant with each other to worship, work and serve together as loyal disciples of Jesus, to live with in the human community a life of righteousness and neighborly love, and to do all within our power to promote the reign of God's will in all human relations.

Do you accept this covenant as your own?

Answer: I do.

The Welcome

(The new members will turn and face the congregation. The members of Pilgrim Church will then stand and join in this welcome:)

We then as members of this church, gladly welcome you to be a part with us in the hopes, the labors, and the joys of the Church of Christ. We promise to walk with you in Christian love and sympathy, and to promote, as far as in us lies, your growth in the Christian life.

ALL: MOST HOLY AND MERCIFUL GOD: WE CONFESS TO YOU AND TO ONE ANOTHER THAT WE HAVE SINNED BY OUR OWN FAULT IN THOUGHT, WORD, AND DEED, BY WHAT WE HAVE DONE AND BY WHAT WE HAVE LEFT UNDONE.

Minister: We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.

People: HAVE MERCY ON US, LORD.

Minister: We have been deaf to your call to serve, as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.

People: HAVE MERCY ON US, LORD.

Minister: We confess to you, Lord, all our past unfaithfulness: the pride, hypocrisy, and impatience in our lives,

People: WE CONFESS TO YOU, LORD.

Minister: Our self indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people,

People: WE CONFESS TO YOU, LORD.

Minister: Our anger at our own frustration, and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

People: WE CONFESS TO YOU, LORD.

Minister: Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work,

People: WE CONFESS TO YOU, LORD.

Minister: Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,

People: WE CONFESS TO YOU, LORD.

Minister: Accept our repentance, Lord, for the wrongs we have done: for our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

People: ACCEPT OUR REPENTANCE, LORD.

Minister: For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,

People: ACCEPT OUR REPENTANCE, LORD.

Minister: For our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

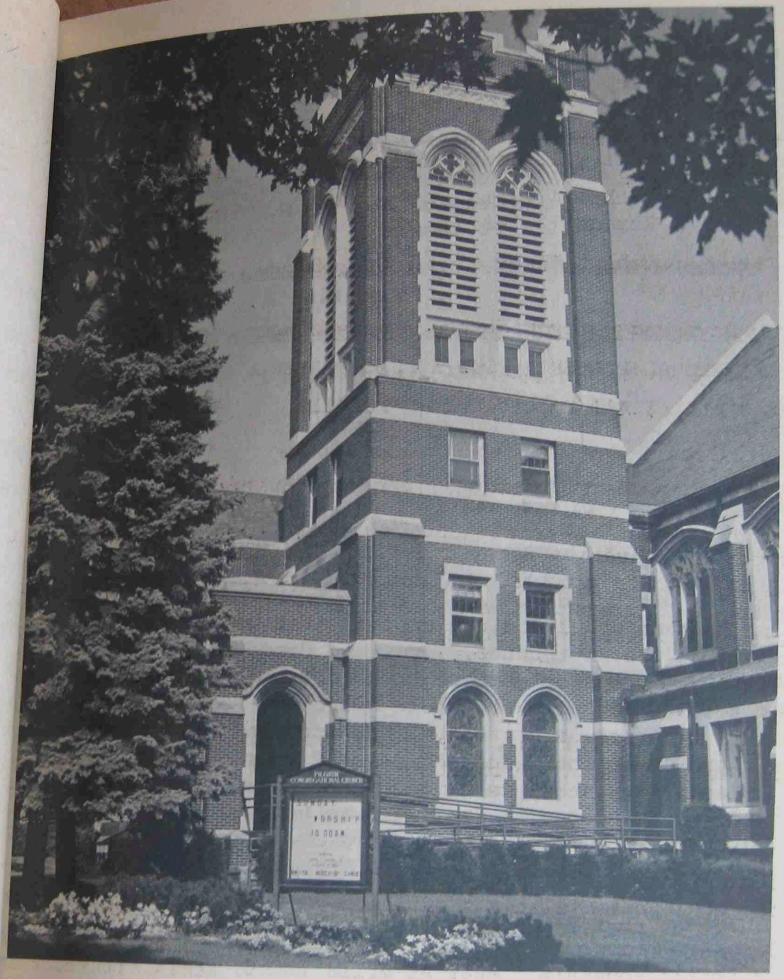

People: ACCEPT OUR REPENTANCE, LORD.

Minister: Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us;

People: FAVORABLY HEAR US, FOR YOUR MERCY IS GREAT.

Minister: Accomplish in us the work of your salvation,

Janet McLeod, Guest Organist

The flowers on the communion table are given by Ray G. Palmer in loving memory of his wife Ruby.

Visitors are invited to join us for fellowship and coffee after the service and for the adult programs.

At the adult program in Fellowship Hall there will be a slide presentation by Sister Mary Charles, widely known Duluth artist/teacher.

Study of the Letter to the Hebrews will continue in the parlor.

About Today's Organ Music

Franck's Prelude, Fugue and Variation was written in the 1860's. It is pianistic in conception and orchestral in sound. "Veni Creator" by Durufle'(1930) is part of a larger organ work. The melody of these variations can be found in the Pilgrim Hymnal, No. 575.

An Invitation

The Fourth and Fifth Graders invite you all to an "OPEN ROOM" next Sunday, March 28, from 11:00-12:00. Come and see how they have painted and redocorated their classroom. Coffee, tea and goodies will be provided.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Adult Fellowship will be holding a "Game Night" on Friday, March 26, at the home of Steve and Peggy Downing, 4104 Pitt Street. The festivities will begin at 7:30 p.m. Come equipped with your favorite beverage, your favorite hors d'oeuvre and your favorite game. Sign up in Salter Hall today!

Easter lilies and hydrangeas will again decorate the sanctuary on Easter Sunday. To order a plant in memory of a loved one, call the church office. Following the Easter service plants may either be taken home or sent to a shut-in.

A reminder. So that the observance of Holy Week will not be interrupted, the next meeting of the Women's Fellowship will be Wednesday, March 31, rather than the first Wednesday of April.

LOOKING TOWARD HOLY WEEK

PALM SUNDAY (April 4) will provide the opportunity not only for free palm leaves but to purchase bunches of daffodils in support of the fight against cancer. Bi-monthly communion will be celebrated.

MAUNDY THURSDAY (6:15-7:30 P.M., April 8) will be marked by a communion service linked to a shared meal and the traditions of the Passover.

GOOD FRIDAY (April 9) Pilgrim Church will host a union service from 1:00 to 2:00 P.M.

EASTER (April 11) The Pilgrim Fellowship is planning a sunrise service, time and place to be announced. The service at the church will be held at 10:00 A.M.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

"Lord, when did we see you sick?"

St. Mark writes early in his Gospel, "And he healed many who were sick." Helping persons to become whole was basic to Jesus' ministry. When Jesus sent out his disciples, he charged them to heal the sick. So the charge remains for us today.

• Through One Great Hour of Sharing, you help to heal the sick. For instance, in the village of Hodal—between Delhi and Agra in India—you have helped to establish a rural health clinic. Run by our partner agency, the YMCA, the clinic served 7,776 new patients in a period of 6 months last year!

• Through One Great Hour of Sharing, you help to prevent illness. In this same 6-month period at the Hodal clinic, 1,027 persons were innoculated against polio. The clinic also innoculated 1,058 children under 5 years of age against diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough) and tetanus.

help the 16 million refugees in the world, ab half of whom are women and children. All churches have been working together to br relief to the most seriously afflicted of th refugees, those in the Horn of Africa. One our first efforts was to provide medical p

M. When Israel went forth from Egypt,

strange language,
A: Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.
M. The sea looked and fled,
Jordan turned back.
A: The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.
M: What ails you, O sea, that you flee?
O Jordan, that you turn back?
A: O Mountains, that you skip like rams?
O hills, like lambs?

at the presence of the God of Jacob,

THE FIRST COMMUNION

At the time of the sharing of the bread, please break off a piece of Matzoh then pass the rest to your neighbor. When all have been served, we shall eat together.

At the time of the sharing of the cup, please pour yourself a small amount of grape juice, then pass the pitcher. When all are ready we shall drink together.

A PSALM OF THANKSGIVING READ IN UNISON

Psalm 118:19-29

Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them
and give thanks to the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord;
the righteous shall enter through it.

I thank thee that thou hast answered me
and hast become my salvation.
The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
This is the Lord's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.
This is the day which the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.
Save us, we beseech thee, give us success!

Blessed be he who enters in the name of the Lord!
We bless you from the house of the Lord.
The Lord is God,
and he has given us light.
Bind the festal procession with branches,
up the horns of the altar!
Thou art my God, and I will give thanks to thee;
thou art my God, I will extol thee.
O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures for ever!

In the form of a doxology

We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being
create persons in your own image,
and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior,
you have come to us
and shared our common lot,
conquering sin and death
and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit,
creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ,
binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church
to accept the cost and joy of discipleship,
to be your servants in the service of others,
to proclaim the gospel to all the world
and resist the powers of evil,
to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table,
to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you
forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace,
courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
your presence in trial and rejoicing,
and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

in other words, all women and girls. We offer fun, prizes, good food, and good company. But in order for this to work we need volunteers to submit pictures of themselves in their younger years--the younger the better! The pictures will be used for decorations and games and will be returned to the owners if they come to us in an envelope clearly marked. Pictures can be left in the box in Salter Hall anytime between now and the tea. Kick up your heels, get rid of the winter blahs and join us!!
$1.00 charge, babysitting available.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty and All-holy Father, we confess ourselves unworthy of your inexpressible gift. We have not loved you as we ought; nor have we always been loving to one another, kindhearted, forgiving one another as you have forgiven us. We have lived in selfishness and pride, and the good gifts you have bestowed upon us we have not used to relieve the burdens of others. Pardon our offenses, we pray. Let the spirit of Christ be born in us. Amen.

OUR MUTUAL MINISTRY (Please record your names on the green pads and greet those sharing the pew with you.)

"Neither shall they learn war anymore..." Isaiah 2:4

Isaiah's ancient vision of peace yet eludes us, and "learning war" is still a frightening preoccupation in our restless world. Educational institutions related to the United Church of Christ seek to contribute to a more peaceful world through a variety of programs which "teach peace" by promoting understanding across cultural and national lines.

All of the campuses are hospitable to students from diverse cultures and countries; many of the institutions provide opportunities for students to live, study, and serve overseas; and curricula include significant intercultural and international components.

For example: Study-travel in Africa, Tougaloo College; Grinnell-in-London; Asian Studies, Hawaii Loa College; School Year Abroad, Mercersburg Academy; Studies in Latin American Culture and Society, Ripon College; "The Nazi Holocaust," course at Lakeland College and at Olivet College; India Semester, Cedar Crest College; Russian Studies, Carleton College; courses in African history and culture, Fisk University; Native American Studies, Rocky Mountain College and Northland College; International Management, Drury College; Bi-lingual Teacher Education Program, Pacific University; Program for Hispanic Women, Hood College; African and Afro-American Literature, Dillard University and LeMoyne-Owen College; Midwest Institute for International Studies at Doane College; summer study abroad, Elon College and Ursinus College; summer service in Africa, The Defiance College; International House, Heidelberg College; Institute for International Students, Westminster College; January Interterm Study Abroad, Yankton College....

Dr. Peter M. Schmiechen, Dean of Elmhurst College, has said: "Church-related colleges have always sought to cultivate all of those things which make us human and to prepare people for responsible roles in society. It is time to renew our understanding of education in the light of the idea of Christian vocation as the service of God and neighbor. We must enunciate a philosophy of public service that transcends self, corporation, nation...."

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

You might also want to check with others of your church to arrange having friends along or to pool travel arrangements.

YOUTH CAMPS

For many youngsters, camp is the high spot of the entire summer—especially a week of summer camp at Pilgrim Point near Alexandria. Camp weeks are available for boys and girls from 4th grade through senior high, plus a special 4-day introductory "Kids' Kamp" for youngsters who've completed 3rd grade.

Ride the bus, and leave the pick-up to us. If you don't care to drive, or pool travel to Pilgrim Point for your child's summer camp, a bus ticket may be just the ticket. Free camp transport to and from the Greyhound depot in Alexandria is available upon request. Just let us know. (Child's grade is the one completed in '81-'82)

CO-ED CANOE TRIPS

If you're in Jr. or Sr. Hi and you can swim 100 yards, read on. You're eligible to join the fun in the Boundary waters. You leave from Sawbill Lake 22 miles north of Tofte, and return there after 6 exciting days of fun and friendship. Eight canoers and two counselors each trip. They fill up fast, so register now.

Our camps are open to all regardless of race, color, or national origin.

Some folks think summer camp is just for kids. Not so. It's for families, for senior citizens, for men's and women's retreats; in fact, we sometimes think the adults enjoy camp more than the youngsters (who would maybe like to sleep in tents and fix their own food over an open fire).

BACKPACKING TRIP

One week only—July 18-24! If you enjoy backpacking trips with other young people, sign up before it fills up: Backpacking on Isle Royal. Cost is just $85 plus transportation, so reserve your spot now. Confirmation and further details will be mailed to you.

SENIOR CITIZENS CAMP

No one under 60 need apply. This is a 4-day outing for Senior Citizens only. It's at Pilgrim Point, our U.C.C. Summer Camp near Alexandria. Here's a chance to get out and enjoy the wonders of nature in a place that nature favors shamelessly. Good food, good times and good activities planned. So register now.

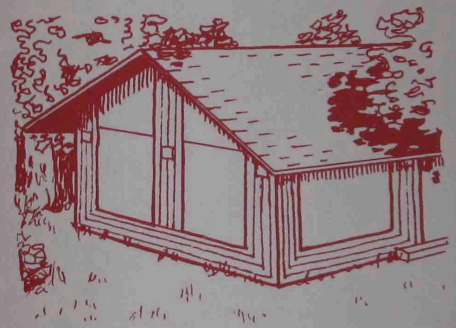

WEEKEND EVENTS

Opportunities to spend a weekend at camp are listed on the camp schedule to the right. If you wish to participate—work, tent, weekend with the family, or retreat—just check the appropriate box and mail the registration form with your deposit.

FAMILY CAMPS

Want to know what a family week at camp is really like? Well, there's no daily maid service, but this is about the only thing you'll miss unless you crave luxury. You bunk in a cabin, eat furnished meals in the Dining Hall, and between times enjoy space to be free in and an opportunity to be accepted and appreciated.

Summer is coming (at least, it always has). So make your summer vacation plans now—for a week of family enrichment and just plain fun at Pilgrim Point. Register soon. Three weeks to choose from.

NEW GAZEBO DEDICATION

The new mosquito-proof gazebo at Pilgrim Point will be dedicated in a special ceremony at 4 p.m. Sunday, May 30, Memorial Day weekend. Everyone welcome. Come join in if you can—and stay for a free camp dinner at 5:30.

The key to growth and enrichment This Summer Is right here—in your hands!

Poised like a jeweled ring on a finger of land, jutting out into Lake Ida, our Pilgrim Point Summer Camp is protected on three sides by clear blue lake and on the fourth by shady woods. It's a vacation hideaway just a few miles north of Alexandria. Here, one can truly relax in the midst of natural splendor.

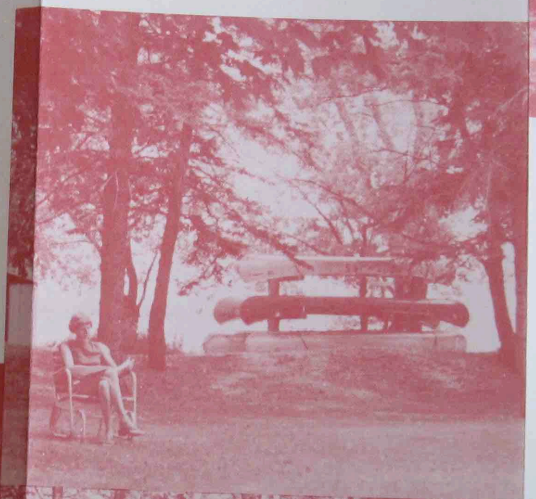

Long used as a private vacation estate, Pilgrim Point is now the site of our U.C.C. Summer Camps for children, for families and for a variety of weekend and mid-week outings. Along with summertime fun, each camp session is dedicated to a special kind of togetherness. You might call it close encounters of the shalom kind. And, you are welcome to attend. Just mail the registration form with a $10 deposit.

—ONE PERSON PER ACRE— We all like a bit of solitude on occasion—to get off alone, by ourselves.

Some of us don't like to be alone. Others want to be by ourselves on occasion, to soak up equal measures of peace and contentment, away from the crowd awhile. This is easy to do at Pilgrim Point, where there is usually close to an acre of camp per person.

This year, find your own acre, your own "secret" place. After 50 weeks or so battling jostling crowds, maybe this is just what you need on your vacation; one of God's little acres at our Pilgrim Point Summer Camp.

Getting Settled at Camp

When you first arrive at camp, what an exciting time it is. Your round-the-clock enjoyment starts almost from the moment you arrive—torn between getting settled in your cabin first, or dashing off to explore or hunt up friends.

Relax! For the first time . . . in a long time . . . there's plenty of time. Get yourself comfortable. Take time to get acquainted.

One feature of the camping experience that makes it so special is sharing it with some very nice people—your fellow U.C.C. members from other churches. You'll find it's fun to share your vacation days with friendly, shalom-minded people like yourself.

MINNESOTA SHARES IN CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Many churches might never have come into existence had it not been for the evangelization and missionary efforts of others.

Is your church one of those which have benefitted in the past from outside assistance?

How would you answer the following?

1. When and by whom was your church organized?
2. Did an already established, nearby church help with the organizing?
3. How much salary did the first pastors receive? Were they partly paid with home missionary society or synodical funds?
4. When and where was the first church building constructed? Was it built with financial help from a church building society, a synodical mission fund, or the Congregational Unions of Minneapolis or St. Paul?
5. When did your church first become self-supporting?

Almost every church in the Minnesota Conference of the United Church of Christ received some kind of help in its early years, like the help your gift to Minnesota Shares in Church Development will make possible.

bulletin insert #2

ORDER FOR THE RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS

(At the invitation of the minister, the new members will come forward to the foot of the pulpit platform.)

Minister: Friends, we welcome your decision to be one of us. We do not meet here as those who consider themselves better than others, but rather as those, who admitting their unworthiness, are glad to declare together "the wonderful deeds of him who calls us out of darkness into his marvelous light." Christian faith is never purely private. Christ began his work by gathering a community of discipleship. So today "God calls us into his church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be servants in the service of the whole human family, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory."

It is on the basis of this call that the church becomes the body of Christ, a royal priesthood, God's own people. To join that body is to enter into a covenant second to none in its solemnity. The vows of loyalty you are about to make are as binding in God's sight as those of marriage or any oath of allegiance. May his Spirit strengthen you in your pledge.

I ask you now, will you strive to be faithful to our Lord and to his universal church, and will you uphold Pilgrim Congregational Church by your prayers, your presence, your labor, your gifts, your constructive criticism and your love?

Answer. I will.

Minister: I read to you now the covenant of this church:

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord made known or to be made known to us. We therefore join and covenant with each other to worship, work and serve together as loyal disciples of Jesus, to live with in the human community a life of righteousness and neighborly love, and to do all within our power to promote the reign of God's will in all human relations.

Do you accept this covenant as your own?

Answer: I do.

The Welcome

(The new members will turn and face the congregation. The members of Pilgrim Church will then stand and join in this welcome:)

We then as members of this church, gladly welcome you to be a part with us in the hopes, the labors, and the joys of the Church of Christ. We promise to walk with you in Christian love and sympathy, and to promote, as far as in us lies, your growth in the Christian life.

THE ORDER FOR CONFIRMATION

(Before confirmation the elders or diaconate shall be satisfied that the confirmands have been properly instructed in the Christian faith and desire to receive the rite. Confirmation shall be administered in the presence of the worshiping congregation, except in cases of extremity when it may be administered privately in the presence of elders or diaconate.

After the sermon has been preached an elected representative of the church shall announce the names of the confirmands and invite them to stand before the congregation, saying:)

Dear friends in Christ: The church bestows on those who have been received into the fellowship of Christ through baptism the rite of confirmation. These persons have studied the word of God and have been instructed in the practice of the Christian faith. They are here to profess their faith and to be confirmed by God for service in his world.

(The minister shall say to the confirmands:)

You have come that God may claim you publicly for his service, confirm you in his covenant, and invoke upon you the Holy Spirit by whose help alone you are able to fulfill your vows.

Hear the Great Commandments:

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."

Matthew 22:37-39

(The minister shall ask the questions and the confirmands shall answer:)

Do you confess your faith in God and pledge yourselves to live as disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ?

I confess my faith.

Do you promise, according to the grace given you, always to remain a faithful member of the church of our Lord Jesus Christ, to come to the Lord's table, to love and serve God in the world, bearing witness to the risen Lord?

I promise.

THE OWNING OF THE COVENANT

(The confirmands shall join the congregation in affirming the church covenant:)

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord made known or to be made known to us. We therefore join and covenant with each other to worship, work and serve together as loyal disciples of Jesus, to live within the human community a life of righteousness and neighborly love, and to do all within our power to promote the reign of God's will in all human relations.

(The confirmands shall kneel and the minister, laying a hand on the head of each one by one, shall say:)

Strengthen, O Lord, this your servant with your heavenly grace, that (he-she) may continue yours forever; and daily increase in (him-her) your Holy Spirit, until (he-she) comes into your everlasting kingdom. Amen.

Let us pray.

We give thanks, most merciful God, for the goodness you have shown toward (these persons) by moving them to affirm their baptism. Help them to live not for themselves but for Christ and for those whom Christ loves. Keep them steady and abounding in hope, never giving up, pressing toward the goal of life with God, in Jesus Christ. Amen.

(The minister and a representative of the congregation shall extend the hand of fellowship, and the representative shall say:)

In the name of Jesus Christ and on behalf of Pilgrim Congregational Church we extend to you the hand of Christian love.

(Another representative shall say:)

We pledge to you our friendship in the Lord, and will give you our support in prayer and service that you may continue to grow in the knowledge and love of God and be witnesses to Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

(The newly confirmed members shall take their places in the worshiping congregation. A hymn may be sung. The service shall continue in the usual manner and may conclude with these words:)

Go forth into the world in peace; be of good courage; hold fast to that which is good; render to no one evil for evil; strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak; help the afflicted; honor all people; love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God and of his Son Jesus Christ, our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

MINNESOTA SHARES IN CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

The stark reality of the 1980 census is that the traditional areas of U.C.C. strength are the losers; the areas of our sparseness are the gainers.

When our U.C.C. forebears pioneered in Minnesota 100 years ago, vigorous campaigns "back home" were launched to provide necessary funds for new church starts. Seventy-five cents of every dollar invested in Minnesota United Church of Christ congregations in the 19th century came from congregations in OTHER states.

Now it is our turn. By each one of us purchasing as many $20 shares as possible, we share in making possible new congregations and new opportunities for old churches.

Minnesota Shares in Church Development enables us to do for others what was done for us. It is a test of our commitment to church and mission.

STATEMENT OF FAITH
In the form of a doxology

We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being
create persons in your own image,
and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from alienness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior,
you have come to us
and shared our common lot,
conquering sin and death
and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit,
creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ,
binding in covenant faithful people of all ages,
tongues, and races.

You call us into your church
to accept the cost and joy of discipleship,
to be your servants in the service of others,
to proclaim the gospel to all the world
and resist the powers of evil,
to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table,
to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you
forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace,
courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
your presence in trial and rejoicing,
and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

CELEBRATING TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

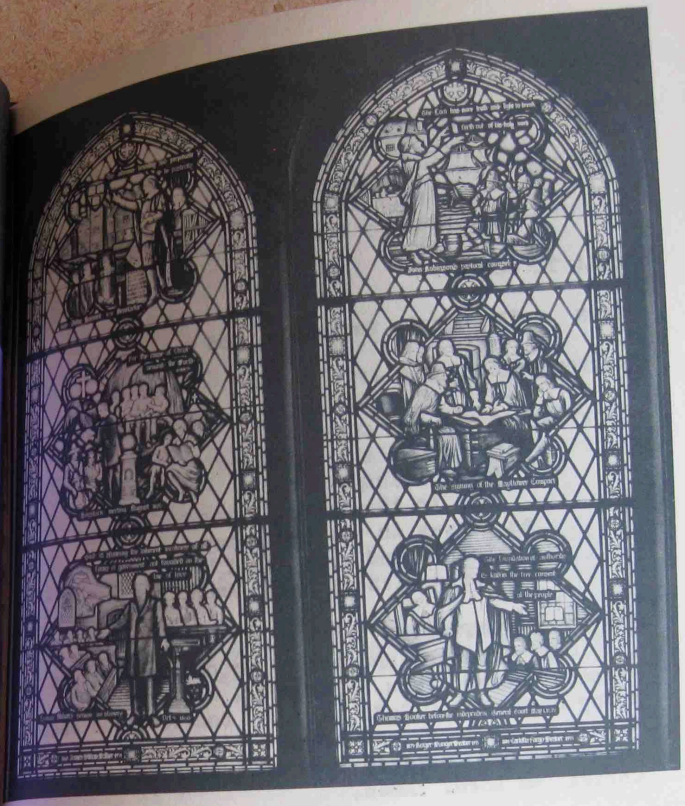

As we celebrate the twenty-fifth birthday of the United Church of Christ in 1982, I hope that we will be preoccupied chiefly with the grace of God. We look back to appraise the pilgrimage of our United Church and to meet our mothers and fathers in acts of thanksgiving and memory.

In all of that, we sense the grace of God. We are extraordinarily conscious not only of the present life and mission of our beloved United Church, but of our utter dependency on the grace of God.

Throughout this year, we will be scanning the next decade as well as developing plans, and will see that the grace coming to meet us from God's future is indeed the grace that will lead us on.

I call you to a lively and joyous celebration of the first twenty-five years of the United Church of Christ. I deeply hope that in each celebration that takes place there will be prayerful moments of contemplation of the mission of God and a committed offering of gifts of our United Church of Christ to the gracious God of Jesus Christ.

Minister: We believe that Jesus of Nazareth was born and lived in the midst of the people of Israel. Weighed down by sin and grief, the people awaited liberation.

Congregation: In the midst of that people, Jesus announced the Reign of God and exhorted to personal conversion.

We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. CALL TO WORSHIP

*HYMN NO. 72 The Spacious Firmament on High

*RESPONSIVE PSALM Psalm IV

Leader: Answer me when I call to you, O God, my justice.
People: You have received me in the past when I was in distress.
Leader: Be gracious with me, and hear my prayer.
Tell me, children of earth, how long will I suffer disgrace?
People: How long will you love empty words and delight in lies?
Leader: Know that the godly belong to God alone.
People: Yahweh hears my cry for help.
Leader: Be angry but do not sin.
People: Look to your own hearts on your beds, and be silent.
Leader: Make sacred your gifts to God;
People: Place your trust in Yahweh.
Leader: Many say, "Oh, that better days would come;
People: "Shine on us with the light of your presence, O God."
Leader: As for me, I remember the joy you have already put in my heart, greater than the joy they have when their barns are full of grain, and their veins are full of wine.
People: In peace, I will lie down and sleep, for in your care alone, O God, I rest secure.

Minister: O most high, almighty, good Lord God, to Thee belong praise, glory, honour, and all blessing!

Congregation: Praise be my Lord God with all His creatures; and specially our brother the sun, who brings us the day, and who brings us the light; fair is he, and shining with a very great splendour: O Lord, he signifies to us Thee!

M: Praised be my Lord for our sister, the moon, and for the stars, the which He has set clear and lovely in heaven.

C: Praised be my Lord for our brother, the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather, by the which Thou upholdest in life all creatures.

M: Praised be my Lord for our sister, water, who is very serviceable unto us, and humble, and precious, and clean.

C: Praised be my Lord for our brother, fire, through whom Thou givest us light in the darkness; and he is bright, and pleasant, and very mighty, and strong.

M: Praised be my Lord for our mother, the earth, the which doth sustain us and keep us, and bringeth forth divers fruits and flowers of many colours, and grass.

C: Praised be my Lord for all those who pardon one another for His love's sake, and who endure weakness and tribulation; blessed are they who peaceable shall endure, for Thou, O most Highest, shalt give them a crown!

M: Praised be my Lord for our sister, the death of the body, from whom no man escapeth. Woe to him who dieth in mortal sin! Blessed are they who are found walking by Thy most holy will, for the second death shall have no power to do them harm.

C: Praise ye, and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto Him, and serve Him with great humility.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION
Author of life, we humbly confess that too often we fall short of your intentions for us and of our expectations of ourselves. We would touch the world with goodness, but often we withdraw in anxiety and self-concern. We would live with integrity and stand for truth, but we are torn with uncertainties. We would warm the lives of others with our love, but we hesitate, wondering if they will love us in return. We would go about our daily tasks with confidence and joy, but find ourselves struggling with self-doubt. We need your presence, O God, if we are to be what we could be and want to be. Let our worship heal us, renew us, strengthen us, that we may go out in joy and be led forth in peace. Amen.

INTROIT — Psalm 84 — Heinrich Schutz
The Quartet (sung in German)

To me, in joy returning, how fair thy temples be:
O Lord of hosts, with yearning my soul thy courts would see.

My prayer to thee unfolding, the Living God beholding, my soul's desire is he.

How happy he who raises, Lord God, in this thy place,
Unceasingly his praises of all thy love and grace.
How happy whom thou guidest, who in thy strength abidest, seeing thy holy face.

Each year the Neighbors in Need offering received in United Church of Christ congregations is used to help needy people throughout our nation.

ousands of people have been aided through r gifts to the Neighbors in Need offering. Here only a few examples of the neighbors you have ched through your gifts:

our gifts have helped to support centers for the elderly that had suffered severe budget cut-backs at the state level. These important centers provide senior citizens with nutritional information, transportation and escort services to health-care facilities, and guidance in contacting government agencies and social service organizations that may meet their needs.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

■ In Indianapolis
your gifts have helped to support an interdenominational organization that created a "Welcome Baby" program aimed at preventing child abuse. In an effort to understand and prevent child abuse, parents in this program are educated regarding basic child development and the development of their own feelings as new parents. These new parents are also made aware of the existence of a network of other parents sharing similar experiences with their new children.

■ In Massachusetts
your gifts have helped to monitor the care of persons in nursing homes, and to provide these residents with regular visitation by trained volunteers. Older persons in the community are also being helped to act as advocates for better nursing home care and improved rights for the elderly.

■ In Washington, D.C.
your gifts have helped to provide congressional testimony on new employment programs for unemployed youth (see picture other side). The United Church of Christ was the only Protestant group invited to present this testimony. In addition, your gifts helped to enable representatives from several UCC-supported local employment projects to meet with the Vice-President's Task Force on Youth Unemployment.

■ In the Great Plains Region of the United States
your gifts have helped to support ranchers, farmers, and small-town residents as they fight for their land, water supplies, and rural way of life. Companies extracting coal, oil, and oil shale from the area are creating tremendous environmental and social impacts on these rural communities.

These are only a few examples of the important programs that you have helped to make possible in past years through your gifts to the Neighbors in Need offering.

Please remember these neighbors as you give generously to this year's Neighbors in Need offering.

Through your gifts to the Neighbors in Need offerings in past years, the UCC was able to help new "neighbors" in our country tell their stories in an important new book entitled New Immigrants: Portraits in Passage. Written by Tom Bentz, a UCC minister, this book brings to light the transitions and needs of immigrant families in the U.S.

One of the persons who told her story to Rev. Bentz was Mirella Diaz, a woman who left Cuba with her husband and son to join relatives in Miami. This is her impression of her new home:

"In Cuba, I'd been a slave. I feel more at home on this strange soil. Americans opened their hearts. Everybody clasped our hands like real brothers and sisters. If the young people would only know how hard it is in other places to be free, filled, clothed, to have everything in hand. How precious freedom is! . . . I still can't believe it."

Thank you

Through your gifts to the Neighbors in Need offerings in past years, the UCC Council for American Indian Ministry was able to determine the need for and help to start the first urban UCC American Indian church. All Nations Indian Church came into being during the fall of 1981 to meet the needs of American Indians in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

The gathering pastor, Rev. Harry Stroessner, has this to say about his new ministry:

"Because one-third of the Neighbors in Need offering goes to support Indian ministry, the Council for American Indian Ministry was able to start its first urban Indian congregation in the Twin Cities of Minneapolis/St. Paul.

"All Nations Indian Church is cooperating with the Native American Theological Association (N.A.T.A.) and United Theological Seminary in providing a field work experience for Native American Seminary students who are being trained for urban ministry.

". . . it is the challenge for all of us in the Christian community to be involved in this first urban Indian congregation of the United Church of Christ."

Today, you are asked to aid these neighbors and other neighbors throughout the nation through the 1982 Neighbors in Need offering. Will you do so?

A REFORMATION DAY PRAYER (in unison)

Eternal God, we are ashamed. We confess that we have tried to hide our sins. We have injured our families and ourselves. We have given in to unjust anger and degraded our neighbors. We have gone along with mean prejudice and mass evil, and have let low desires rule us. We are selfish and have forgotten thee. God have mercy upon us, and forgive us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. YOUR CHANCE TO VISIT BATH

Pilgrim Church has received an invitation from Central United Reformed Church in Bath, England to send up to twenty people for a two-week visit to the Bath area in 1983. Visitors would be accommodated in the homes of church members and taken on trips around the area. Central (formerly Argyle Church) is the same church that exchanged ministers with us in 1980 and that sent ten people to visit Duluth in 1981.

One of England's oldest and most beautiful cities, Bath has preserved many of the gems of Georgian architecture from the days when it was England's most fashionable resort. Of great interest are the excavated Roman Baths, the Pump Room, Assembly Rooms, the Royal Crescent, Pultney Bridge, Bath Abbey and many other spots within the city. Bath is close to Stonehenge, Wells and Exeter Cathedrals and to Bristol and South Wales. London is a ninety minute train ride and Oxford and Stratford are not far away.

The invitation extended to us is for the Easter season in April. However, the church there can arrange for for a summer visit if that proves convenient for more people.

A chair and coordinating committee will be chosen from among those people making the trip.

If you are interested, please sign below.

I (we) am interested in joining the trip to Bath in 1983.

CANTATA No. 61 for the First Sunday in Advent

"Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland"
(Now Come, the Gentile's Savior)

by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
composed for December 2, 1714

* * * * * *

Choral Overture - Recitative - Aria - Recitative - Aria - Chorale

* * * * * *

I. Choral Overture

Nun komm, der Heiden,	Now come, the Gentile's Savior
der Jungfrauen Kind erkannt,	(You, who are also known as the Virgin's Child)

This overture to celebrate the arriving of Jesus among mortals is based on the famous Latin hymn associated with the first Sunday in the church year, Veni redemptor genitum. Martin Luther's German translation is depicted in this first section of the typical slow/fast/slow arrangement of a French Overture. The Messiah's arrival is a royal occasion, but is announced and fulfilled in a gentle way (by strings, and not by trumpets and drums). His descent to mortals is depicted by the movement downward of the choir sections: Sporano down to Bass. Together, the sections join in the second phrase of the hymn.

dess sich wundert alle Welt	The whole world marvels at His arrival

This faster, fugal section expresses the wonder and amazement of the receivers of the gift of the Christ-child from heaven. Here is illustrated the reaction which we exhibit as we experience God's gift: praise and joy and worship; and it is "catching" - the sopranos begin it, the altos catch the spirit, the tenors join in, and then the basses also sing of this inexpressible feeling.

Gott solch' Geburt ihm bestellt	God chose such a birth for Himself

The majesty of this text is reflected, once again, in the slow section which is the same melody as the first phrase which also has, as its subject, God and his actions among mortals.

II. Recitative and Arioso (tenor)

Der Heiland ist gekommen, hat unser armes Fleisch und Blut an sich genommen und nimmet uns zu Blutsverwandten an.	The Savior has come, He, who took on our own flesh and blood and made us His own kin.
O allerhochstes Gut, was hast du nicht an uns getan?	Oh, You, the highest good, what have You not all done for us?
Was tust du nicht noch täglich an den Deinen?	And what all do You not continually do for your own?
Du kommst und lässt dein Licht mit vollem Segen scheinen.	You come and let Your light shine upon us with many great blessings.

The rhetorical questions of the recitative move into the flowing of the arioso section - the flowing of blessings down to us, as illustrated again in the final downward sweeping scale passage of cello and bass.

III. Aria (tenor)

Komm, Jesu, komm zu deiner Kirche und gib ein selig neues Jahr.	Come, Jesus, come to Your church, and provide a blessed new year.
Befördre deines Names Ehre, erhalte die gesunde Lehre, und segne Kanzel und Altar.	Move forward the honor of Your name through sound teaching, and bless Your holy place and altar.

The flowing melody line is played in unison by the four top strings. The most important blessings that could be offered and received by the Church are expressed in the continual joyful, relaxed structure of this aria.

IV. Recitative (bass)

Siehe, siehe, Ich stehe vor den Tur und klopfe an,
So jemand meing Stimme
hören wird und die Tur auftun,
Zu den werde ich eingehen
Und das Abendmahl mit ihm
halten
Und er mit mir.

Behold! Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone will hear my voice and open the door, to him will I go in and commune with him and he with me.

The text, from Revelations 3:20, is pictured by the pizzicato strings - knocking on the door of our heart and, also, the pendulum-like passing of time in anticipation of the Apocalypse for which we wait, but which we also have begun to experience when Jesus communes with us. As is typical of Bach, he gives the words of Jesus to the bass soloist as he interprets this somewhat sinister feeling anticipating the Last Judgement.

V. Aria (soprano)

Öffne dich, mein ganzes
Herze
Jesus kommt und ziehet ein.
Bin ich gleich nur Staub
und Erde, will er mich
doch nicht verschmach'n seine Lust an mir zu seh'n, dass ich seine Wohnung werde.
O, wie selig werd' ich sein!

Open my heart to Jesus, He will come and enter there.
Tho' I be dust and ashes, He will not forsake me; He will be delighted that I will be His dwelling place.
Oh! how blessed will I be!

The sinister feeling portrayed in the bass solo gives way to the purest radiance and child-like devotion as the Soul (normally given as a solo to the soprano by Bach) welcomes exuberantly the entrance of Jesus to this world and to our heart.

VI. Chorale

Amen! Komm, du schöne Freudenkrone, bleib' nicht lange! Deiner wart' ich mit Verlangen.

Amen! Come, You beautiful crown of joy, and please do not wait too long! I await Your arrival with great anticipation.

Bach reverts to a chorale verse to finish off the work. However, this portion of a chorale is from a hymn most normally associated with the Epiphany season which comes after the Christmas season. (See last half of hymn 145.) The sopranos carry the melody in longer notes to the end, holding the word "Verlangen" for a very long time, while the strings climb to a pitch height near the end which Bach saves for only very special word painting situations. Here he perceives the Soul as winging its way, in joyful anticipation, to union and communion forever with the long-awaited Messiah.

Gracious God, Light of the World, you caused light to shine out of darkness in the advent of Jesus our Christ: you continually open to us the ways we are to prepare. We confess our unwillingness to see the light and to walk in your ways. We have not always opened our eyes to the needs of others, and our feet have wandered from the paths of justice and peace. NOTES ON THE MUSIC

The Medieval Carol represents an interesting and oftentimes fascinating look into our musical and theological past. You have heard two English Carols and a Spanish Villancico, which is carol-like in format.

The texts deal with the mystery that a person senses when faced with concepts not readily explained. Our modern bent for reason tends to be absent and is replaced by a beautiful sense of drama and joy in the gifts we are presented. This sense of drama is common to both the liturgical drama and the carol. The term "Macaronic" is used to describe the texts because of the mixed Latin-English usage.

Musically, the form tends to be burden (refrain), verse, burden, etc. The music materials remain but it is the text which changes in the verse. In these performances I have coupled textually related verses to shorten their length.

The instruments used are reproductions of early instruments. The instrumentation is speculative at best, for the concept of the composition including an exact orchestration, had not yet taken hold.

The offertory composition is from the final movements of a solo cantata composed by Telemann during the late (high) Baroque period. It was composed for the fourth Sunday in Advent. The scoring is Telemann's. The text of the cantata is from Philippines 4: 4-7.

The point of all of this is that a series of events occurred that baffle science. A beauty became a shared experience, a mystery was revealed. The ministry of this music will, I hope, help one regain that sense. To God's glory we offer our humble gifts.

YOUR CHANCE TO VISIT BATH

Pilgrim Church has received an invitation from Central United Reformed Church in Bath, England to send up to twenty people for a two-week visit to the Bath area in 1983. Visitors would be accommodated in the homes of church members and taken on trips around the area. Central (formerly Argyle Church) is the same church that exchanged ministers with us in 1980 and that sent ten people to visit Duluth in 1981.

One of England's oldest and most beautiful cities, Bath has preserved many of the gems of Georgian architecture from the days when it was England's most fashionable resort. Of great interest are the excavated Roman Baths, the Pump Room, Assembly Rooms, the Royal Crescent, Pultney Bridge, Bath Abbey and many other spots within the city. Bath is close to Stonehenge, Wells and Exeter Cathedrals and to Bristol and South Wales. London is a ninety minute train ride and Oxford and Stratford are not far away.

The invitation extended to us is for the Easter season in April. However, the church there can arrange for a summer visit if that proves convenient for more people.

A chair and coordinating committee will be chosen from among those people making the trip.

If you are interested, please sign below.

I (we) am interested in joining the trip to Bath in 1983.

THE LIGHT FORETOLD Dr. Shepard and Congregation

Minister: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.
People: Those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined.
Minister: For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called "Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."
People: Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and for evermore.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN "O Come, All Ye Faithful"

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him, born the King of angels;
O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God, all glory in the highest;
O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord!

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning,
Jesus, to thee be all glory given;
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing;
O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord! Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL CAROLS

"Angels, from the Realms of Glory"

Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye who sang creation's story, now proclaim Messiah's birth:
Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the newborn King.

Sheperds, in the fields abiding, watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing, yonder shines the infant light:
Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the newborn King.

"O Little Town of Bethlehem"

(The choir will sing the second of these verses alone.)

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in; be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel!

*CONGREGATIONAL CAROL "Angels, We Have Heard on High"

Angels we have heard on high sweetly singing o'er the plains,
And the mountains in reply echo back their joyous strains. (Refrain)
Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth the angels sing;
Come adore on bended knee, Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Refrain: Gloria, in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN (seated)

(Bells accompany congregation on verse 2.)

"Silent Night, Holy Night"

Silent Night, Holy Night
All is calm, all is bright,
Round yon Virgin Mother and Child.
Holy infant so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent Night, Holy Night,
Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing, Alleluia;
Christ, the Saviour, is born!
Christ, the Saviour, is born!

Silent Night, Holy Night!
Son of God, love's pure light.
Radiant beams from thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

*RECESSIONAL HYMN "Joy to the World"

Joy to the world! the Lord is come:
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the earth! the Savior reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks,
hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders, wonders of his love. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, we cannot worship you honestly unless we say what is wrong with us. We confess that sometimes we let our minds get filled with thoughts that block you out. We do things we should not do. We refuse to do things that we should do. Forgive us, and show us how to do better. Help us to love both you and our neighbor and to trust your love for us. We pray as disciples of the Lord Jesus. Amen.

PRAYER FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

SILENT PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Good King Wenceslas look'd out
On the feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about,
Deep and crisp and even;
Brightly shone the moon that night,
Tho' the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight,
Gath'ring winter fuel.

"Hither, page, and stand by me,
If thou know'st it, telling;
Yonder peasant, who is he?
Where, and what his dwelling?"
"Sire, he lives a good league hence,
Underneath the mountain;
Right against the forest fence,
By Saint Agnes' fountain."

"Bring me flesh, and bring me wine,
Bring me pine logs hither;
Thou and I will see him dine
When we bear them thither."
Page and monarch forth they went,
Forth they went together;
Thro' the rude wind's wild lament
And the bitter weather.

"Sire, the night is darker now,
And the wind blows stronger;
Fails my heart, I know not how,
I can go no longer."
"Mark my footsteps, my good page,
Tread thou in them boldly;
Thou shalt find the winter's rage
Freeze thy blood less coldly."

In his master's steps he trod,
Where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod
Which the saint had printed;
Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
Shall yourselves find blessing.
