WE BREAK NEW SEAS TODAY

We break new seas today—
Our eager keels quest unaccustomed waters,
And, from the vast uncharted waste in front,
The myotic circles leap
To greet our prows with mightiest possibilities;
Bringing to us—what?
Dread shoals and shifting banks?
And calms and storms?
And clouds and biting gales?
And wreck and loss?
And valiant fighting times?
And, maybe, Death!—and so, the Larger Life!

And, maybe, Life—Life on a bounding tide,
And chance of glorious deeds;
Of help swift-borne to drowning mariners;
Of cheer to ships dismasted in the gale;
Of succor given unasked and joyfully;
Of mighty service to all needy souls.

And, maybe, Golden Days,
Full freighted with delight!
And wide, free seas of unimagined bliss,
And Treasure Isles, and Kingdoms to be won,
And Undiscovered Countries, and New Kin.
—John Oxenham.

CHURCH NOTES

A good New Year to all.
Base Ball Thursday evening.
If you must miss an Annual Meeting miss the one next year.
The Anniversary Volume will be ready sometime next week.
Room for fifty new scholars in the Sunday School. And then some.
If you are going to send for your letters you ought to write today.
Pilgrim Church needs you as it begins the last lap of its first century.
Whatever else happens to you don't miss the Annual Meeting this year.
The New Members committee meets at the church this afternoon at five o'clock.

Reports for the Annual Meeting January 18th should be beautiful and brief. Anyway brief.

Y. W. C. A. service around the fire place this afternoon at 4:30. All young women invited.

Will those who secured their Christmas trees from the church remember that the church would like to have the stands back again?

The Standing Committee meets this noon and next Sunday to confer with those who plan to unite with Pilgrim Anniversary Sunday.

Three hundred and fifty dollars have been turned into the treasury of the European Relief Council as part proceeds from the Masque.

There were almost twice as many men as women at the midweek service last Wednesday. Drop in next Wednesday and see for yourself.

Will you be one of the fifty new members Pilgrim Church needs as it begins its second fifty years? Meet with the Standing Committee this noon.

Duluth is asked to give $75,000 toward the Hoover Barnes Fund for the Hungry Children of Europe. The First Methodist Church gave $2000 last Sunday.

The Standing Committee of the church meets at the close of this service in the parlors to confer with any who plan to unite with Pilgrim on Anniversary Sunday (January 16th).

Envelopes are distributed today for those who wish to share in the Hoover-Barnes Fund for the Hungry Children of Europe.
Ten dollars will keep a youngster alive until the next harvest.

The service Wednesday evening will have for discussion the topic—"An Awakened Church". In what respects is the church asleep? What are some of the things you think it ought to be doing?

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Union will be held in the Church parlors Wednesday, January 5, at 3 o'clock.
Election of officers for the year 1921 will be held. A large attendance is desired.

There will be a special baptismal service in the church at 4:30 this afternoon for Mrs. John W. Neukom and her two children—Marjorie who is four years old and William Madison who is two years old.

Mrs. G. A. Taylor is treasurer of the Ladies' Union. As treasurer she is under some compulsion to make a report at the time of the annual meeting. There is money in the treasury so that outstanding accounts can be paid. Owners of outstanding accounts should govern themselves accordingly. Also there is room in the treasury for more money. Those who owe the Ladies' Union anything are requested to interest themselves in the situation.

The men of the church are asked to remember an important engagement at the church Thursday evening.

Three hundred years ago next Tuesday (January 4th) the first house in Plymouth settlement was begun.

There are thirty-one in the group that will unite with Pilgrim Anniversary Sunday. Nineteen places are left.

Mr. Field is gathering some very interesting historical material for the Anniversary. Look around in your attic.

WILL RETURN FOR JUBILEE

Dr. Patton and Other Pastors of Pilgrim Church Here Jan. 16.

REV. CORNELIUS H. PATTON.

Rev. Cornelius H. Patton, D. D., pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church from 1898 to 1904, will be in Duluth for the church Golden Jubilee, which is to take place from Jan. 16 to 25. Pilgrim church was founded Jan. 18, 1871, with Rev. C. C. Salter as pastor.

Dr. Patton is now home secretary for the American board of commissioners for foreign missions. On leaving Duluth, he became pastor of the First Congregational church at St. Louis, where he remained for six years. He then assumed his present place. Dr. Patton was the minister here on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary in 1896, and he is still remembered with great affection by members of the church today who attended his classes for young people.

Dr. Noyes Coming, Too.
Dr. E. M. Noyes, another pastor of Pilgrim church in its earliest days, will also be here for the celebration. Dr. C. N. Thorp, who left about a year to assume the pastorate of the First church at Holyoke, Mass., has been urged to return. His final decision is not yet known.

The observance of the fiftieth anniversary will begin Sunday, Jan. 16, with a reception for new members. It had been hoped to add fifty persons, but this number will probably be exceeded. The new communion plate will be used for the first time at this service.

On Monday, Jan. 17, the brotherhood will entertain the Boy Scouts at dinner. The annual meeting of the church will be held on Tuesday, exactly fifty years from the date of the organization. On Wednesday the Girl Scouts will meet. Herbert M. Irwin of Wales, Turkey, will address the meeting of the two missionary societies on Thursday. Friday has been designated as Christian Endeavor day, and Saturday is Sunday school day.

On Sunday, Jan. 23, Dr. Patton will preach at the morning service and Dr. Noyes will preach in the evening.

Install Dr. Elderkin.

Installation services for Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, the new pastor, will be held Monday evening. President O. S. Davis of Chicago Theological seminary, will preach the sermon. Dr. Patton will deliver the charge to the people, and Dr. Noyes will deliver the charge to the minister. Mr. Irwin will give the installation prayer. Dr. Charles N. Pace of the First Methodist church will extend the right hand of fellowship. Albert Baldwin will speak on behalf of the congregation.

The annual banquet will be held Tuesday evening, with Oscar Mitchell presiding. The guests of honor will include the new members; Mrs. C. C. Salter, wife of the first minister, and four charter members of the church, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball.

Three of the ministers at Pilgrim—Dr. Patton, Dr. Thorp and Dr. Elderkin—are all graduates of Amherst college and Yale Theological school, and members of the Chi Phi fraternity.

January, 13, 1921.

SEVENTY-EIGHT WILL JOIN PILGRIM CHURCH

Fiftieth Anniversary Jubilee Will Begin With Adding of Host of New Members and Unveiling of Memorial Window.

Seventy-eight new members will be added to Pilgrim Congregational church at the services next Sunday morning, which will mark the beginning of a ten-day jubilee celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the church.

At this service, a memorial window presented to the church by Townsend W. Hoopes in memory of his wife, Mrs. Abbie Goodale Hoopes, who died Feb. 12, 1920, will be unveiled. Mrs. Hoopes was a member of Pilgrim church for thirty-three years.

The remainder of the jubilee program includes sessions of various organizations each day. The annual meeting of the church will be held Tuesday, Jan. 18, just fifty years from the day it was founded. On Sunday, Jan. 23, Dr. C. H. Patton and Dr. E. M. Noyes, former pastors here, will preach. Installation services will be held the following Monday night for Dr. Noble S. Elderkin and the annual banquet will take place Tuesday, Jan. 25.

PILGRIM CHURCH, 50 YEARS OLD HALF CENTURY'S HISTORY TOLD

Pilgrim Congregational church, which will observe its fiftieth anniversary, Jan. 15 to 25, has issued an illustrated booklet containing a historical sketch of the church. For 50 years, the growth of the church has been coincident with the growth and development of Duluth. For half a century it has continued in its work without interruption. Even in the trying period following the financial panic of 1873, Pilgrim Congregational continued its services although several other churches of Duluth discontinued services during that time. The first pastor of the church was the Rev. Charles C. Salter, who is remembered in Duluth as the founder of the Lake Avenue Bethel. The first church building, a picture of which is reproduced herewith, contained a bell which was used for many years, not only for church services, but also for calling the children of Duluth to school on week days. Judge J. D. Ensign was a member of the first board of trustees, later joining the Presbyterian fold.

Two of the former pastors will return to participate in the jubilee ceremonies. They are the Rev. Edward M. Noyes, who was pastor from 1883 to 1894, and the Rev. Cornelius H. Patton, who succeeded him. The Rev. Alexander Milne, who succeeded Dr. Patton, died in 1912.

The present home of Pilgrim church at Twenty-third avenue East and Fourth street, was built during the pastorate of the Rev. Charles N. Thorp. It was dedicated free from debt Dec. 23, 1917.

Besides the historical sketch of the church, the anniversary booklet outlines the scope of the church's activities.

News Tribune Jan. 12, 1921

A Half Century.

Today marks the beginning of the observance of the semi-centennial of Pilgrim Congregational Church. Great oaks from little acorns grow and one has but to see the magnificent edifice which houses the work of the organization founded 50 years ago this month to realize how true the saying is. In architectural beauty, there is nothing exceeding it in the Northwest.

Unquestionably, Pilgrim Church has had its problems like unto all churches which finally gather unto themselves a firm foundation and then spread out with many activities. There are very few people who know what a comparative wilderness Duluth was in 1871, and there are therefore very few people who can conceive how great the difficulties must have been in those early days for the church in the founding of which Rev. C. C. Salter had so large a part. Pilgrim Church had its charter membership necessarily made up of pioneers, and pioneers are of necessity pilgrims in the first instance.

As Duluth developed, the church grew with it. When its congregation erected the structure at Lake avenue and Second street, it was supposedly housed for many years to come. In that building the earnest Alexander Milne did some of the most useful work of a markedly useful life and made Pilgrim Church of Duluth better known among the Congregationalists of the Northwest.

The new church building has within it all the high traditions of its predecessors. Everything about it spells success in pursuance of the Lord's work. The new Pilgrim edifice is one in which every Duluthian takes great pride, and the observance of the semi-centenary during the coming week will attract great interest.

1131 EAST FIRST STREET

REV. NOBLE

Dear Mr. Collins:

I need not say that we are very glad to have you as one of our Fiftieth Anniversary Group. I tried to tell Emmons that I did not think it ^{very} often that churches were permitted to have three generations coming at one time. I know that you are going to be of great help to us.

I am printing your name in the bulletin Sunday after this manner:

Edwin James Collins, 2501 East Fifth Street.

You won't forget that on January 25th we are expecting you as our guest.

Dear Emmons:

It is going to be mighty fine to have you and your father and your grandmother coming to us Sunday. I think this is the only group representing three generations. I do not imagine that happens very often.

I guess that you understand about the Anniversary dinner. We are expecting all of you to be our guests except your mother. She will have to pay for her ticket.

I am printing your name on the bulletin Sunday like this.

Emmons Williams Collins 3501 East Fifth St.
I hope that these days in Pilgrim church are going to be very fine days for you. We are very glad to have such a lad come to us.

Members of Pilgrim Church:

This is a letter intended primarily for members of the church.

Two matters of great importance are mentioned.

The first concerns Sunday.

Next Sunday (the 16th) is the first day of our Fiftieth Anniversary celebration.

Seventy-nine new members are to be received at the morning service.

More than twenty of these are young folks from our Sunday School.

I am sure you will agree with me that it is especially fitting that you should help welcome these new members into YOUR church.

I need not tell you how this may be best done.

The new Communion plate will be used for the first time.

A new and beautiful memorial window will be unveiled.

It will be a service to which you may care to invite your friends and neighbors.

That is the first matter.

I have not stressed it as it needs to be.

Rather leaving it to you to see how much depends upon you and your part in the service.

The second matter has to do with the Anniversary Dinner.

It is not possible to issue a general invitation nor to place tickets on general sale.

We wish we might ask all our friends in the community to come in and rejoice with us. We regret the state of affairs that forbids this hospitality.

Mrs. Nichols and her committee have done everything possible to increase the available seating space. Three hundred and seventy-two can be cared for.

Our new members and the charter members of the church are to be our guests.

It looks as though young folks in our families under eighteen who are not members of the church could not be provided for.

An application card is enclosed.

Please send this immediately to Mrs. Grawn.

Ask for the number of tickets you will want for your family.

Write in the names of those for whom the tickets are intended.

Enclose the amount necessary to pay for all the tickets applied for.

In case tickets cannot be issued you will be notified and your money refunded.

Applications may be made until January 19th.

Tickets will be issued January 20th.

It will help much if you will attend to this matter NOW.

And then start in getting things fixed so that you can be at church Sunday morning.

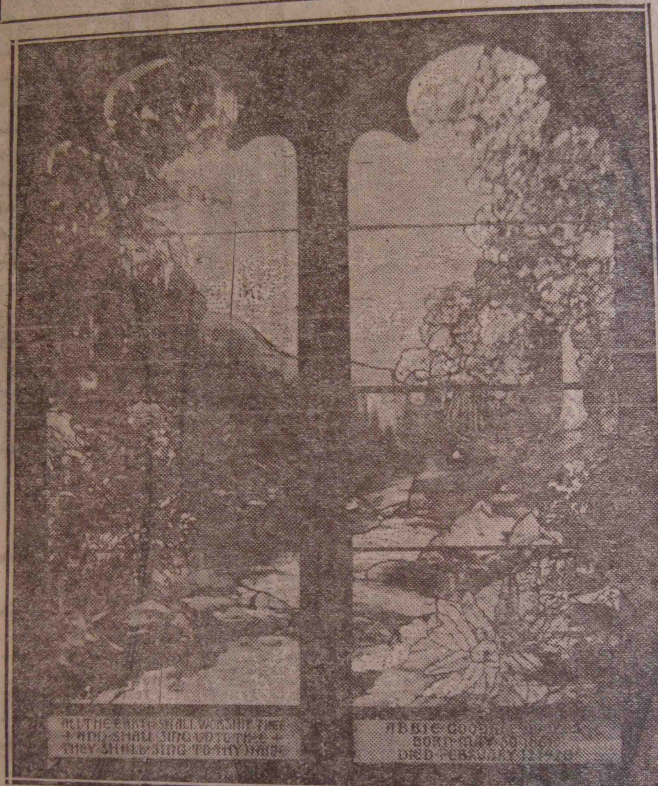

Cordially,

NOBLE S. ELDERKIN.

BEAUTIFUL WINDOW TO BE UNVEILED AT PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN MEMORY OF LATE MRS TOWNSEND W. HOOPES

HOOPES MEMORIAL WINDOW.

A beautiful favrile glass landscape window, given to Pilgrim Congregational church by Townsend W. Hoopes in memory of his wife, Mrs. Abbie Goodale Hoopes, will be unveiled tomorrow morning as a part of the anniversary Sunday service. Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, pastor, will be in charge of the ceremony.

The window is made up of two panels, illustrating in a striking manner its text: "All the earth shall worship Thee, and shall sing unto Thee, they shall sing to Thy name." In the foreground a swift mountain stream flows down between steep, rocky banks, from which tall dark pines rise on one side and oaks and birch, bright with autumn tints, on the other. In the distance is a lofty mountain, its foot darkened by the shadows of a deep forest, its crest crowned with sunlight and outlined against the cloud-flecked sky.

Into the color scheme has gone the richness of abundant life, the dark blues and greens of the forest and tall, sombre pines contrasting strongly with the brilliant sky and radiant autumn coloring and into the composition has gone the deep quiet of the mountain and the peace of the woodland.

At the base of the left panel appears the text. The right panel bears the inscription: "Abbie Goodale Hoopes, born May 30, 1861; died Feb. 12, 1920."

The window was made at the Ecclesiastical department of the Tiffany studios of New York city.

Anniversary of Church Will Be Observed

Celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Pilgrim Congregational church begins today with the special communion service at which new members will be received. The new communion plate will be used for the first time and 76 persons will join the fellowship of Pilgrim church.

The Hoopes Memorial window will be unveiled at this service. The window, an exquisite example of Tiffany's art, is presented to the church by Mr. Townsend W. Hoopes in memory of his wife, Abbie Goodale Hoopes, who died Feb. 12, 1920. This window was on exhibition in the studio of Tiffany and company during the holidays and received much favorable comment from New York artists.

Memorial Window Is Unveiled at Pilgrim Church

Golden Jubilee Services Opened; 79 New Mem- bers Received

Unveiling of the memorial window, given by Townsend W. Hoopes in memory of his wife, Abbie Goodale Hoopes, marked part of the fiftieth anniversary services yesterday morning at the Pilgrim Congregational church.

As Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, the pastor, read Bible passages descriptive of the scene pictured in the glass, the covering was removed and disclosed a beautiful landscape.

Harmony of Color.

The rich blue of the picture harmonized with those of the Barnes memorial and the Field memorial windows in the same wall, while brilliant autumn colors gave the needed contrast. The Barnes window is a memorial of Maj. Lucien J. Barnes, father of Julius Barnes, and was presented in February, 1918, by members of the Barnes family.

The Field window was given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius A. Field and their daughter, Elizabeth, by their son and brother, E. A. Field, and other members of the family.

79 Join Church.

Seventy-nine new members were received into the church in the anniversary day services. Twenty-five of the new members were young people of the Sunday school.

Dr. Elderkin in his anniversary sermon declared the chief aim of the Pilgrim church to be the building of the spirit of Jesus into the life of its members. "What is involved in this may not always be clearly understood," he said, "but that it has to do with the inner life is certain. There can be no conflict between faith and works, for upon the depth and richness of the inner life depends the depth and richness of the external."

THE SENSE OF PILGRIMAGE.

We break new paths today.
Our eager souls press on toward distant visions.
That seem like mist and vapor.

And from the vast and charted reach in front
Come glorious beckoning voices.
Telling of dangers and despairs
Of long hard toil
And bitter disappointment.
But singing most of victory
And of the waters that do freshen life.

They broke new paths one day
And from their distant vantage
Do they assure us the "Golden Days"
Full freighted with delight"—
Of kingdoms they have won
Of countries well discovered
And new found kin
But pleading most of all
That those who follow after Should never lose the sense of pilgrimage
Nor be content with paths already marked.

The Boy Scouts stage a half hour of their work tomorrow evening.

Whatever else happens to you don't miss the Annual Meeting this year.

Mark your ballot and bring it to the annual meeting Tuesday evening. It will save time.

Mrs. S. F. Stewart had another accident last Wednesday and is now in St. Mary's Hospital.

The district Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Pilgrim Church February 4-6, 1921.

Look in the south parlor today and see what Mr. Field and his committee have gathered together.

A different annual meeting. Ten dollars if you are bored a single minute. Tuesday evening at 7:30.

The small parlor is being used as the Historical Room during the Anniversary. Mrs. Field is in charge.

The Girl Scouts and their mothers are entertained at dinner by the Ladies' Union Wednesday evening.

The Thursday evening service at which Mr. Irwin speaks begins at 8 o'clock. It will be held in the church.

Most everything will delight your soul at the Annual Meeting Tuesday evening. Mrs. T. J. Davis has planned the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin will be at church for the next two Monday evenings. For that reason the Parsonage Monday Evenings are omitted.

Fifty years ago Tuesday, Pilgrim Church was organized. On that night the annual meeting occurs. If you hate and despise a good time stay away.

If you are not receiving your church mail regularly speak to Maurice Hart. He has charge of the Addressograph. Use the Information Boxes if you care to.

Ten tickets are available for the Brotherhood dinner to the Boy Scouts tomorrow night. They may be had for 75 cents. See Mr. Carlson or Mr. Mattocks.

The special collection usually taken on Communion Sunday for the Parish Aid Fund is again omitted. You are asked to place your gifts in the Information Boxes.

Mrs. H. W. Nichols, Mrs. Paddock, Mrs. Hegardt, Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Hadden and Mrs. Grawn are in charge of arrangements for the Fiftieth Anniversary Dinner.

The new Pilgrim Tercentenary postage stamps are on sale at the Post Office. During the anniversary use them on your mail. You will have to ask for them.

Mr. Kimball leads the Men's Class today. Fifty years ago today Mr. Kimball was busy arranging for the organization of Pilgrim. The men of the church will want to crowd the study.

The speakers at the Brotherhood dinner tomorrow evening are C. W. Hadden, "The Boy Scouts of America"; O. J. Larson, "Welcome to Our Boys" and R. A. Kent, "The Conservation of Boyhood".

The Brotherhood Anniversary Committee consists of C. E. Carlson, chairman, C. W. Hadden, J. S. Prisk, C. H. Dunning and Brewer Mattocks, Jr. They have arranged the evening for the men of the Church and the Boy Scouts.

The information Boxes are not ornaments. The names of new people in the parish and of the sick ought to be put in every Sunday by those who have the information. This morning they are used for gifts to the Deacons Parish Fund.

The Fiftieth Anniversary Historical Sketch was put in the mails last Thursday. Extra copies may be had free of charge upon application to Mr. Sanford. In case you did not receive a copy place your name and address in the Information Boxes—today.

The Abbie Goodale Hoopes Memorial window which is unveiled at this morning's service is the gift of T. W. Hoopes. It was made by Tiffany. "Into the color scheme has gone the richness of abundant life and into the composition the deep quiet of the mountain and the peace of the woodland." One panel bears the legend "All the earth shall worship thee and shall sing unto thee, they shall sing to thy name." The other panel carries the inscription "Abbie Goodale Hoopes born May 30, 1861; died February 12, 1920."

The annual meeting of Pilgrim Church for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held in the Parish House of the church Tuesday evening, January 18, 1921, at 8 o'clock.

OSCAR MITCHELL,
Chairman Board of Trustees.

TO THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY GROUP

It is the custom in Pilgrim Church to partake of the bread and the cup as they are passed.

Do not try to purchase tickets for the Anniversary Dinner. They will be sent to you next Thursday.

Come to the church next Sunday morning and evening and hear two of the men who helped to make this church that now is yours.

The young folks from the Church School will take their places before the Communion Table. The older members of the group on either side.

One of your group suggests that you keep your group together. Mr. Bondelid is appointed temporary president. Be ready for a special meeting in February.

PILGRIM CHURCH BEGINS GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATION

With the reception of seventy-nine new members, Pilgrim Congregational church yesterday opened its fiftieth anniversary celebration. The unveiling of a memorial window, given by T. W. Hoopes in memory of his wife, Abbie Goodale Hoopes, also took place during the morning services.

The golden jubilee will last for ten days. Tonight the Brotherhood will entertain the Boy Scouts. The annual meeting of the church will be held tomorrow evening, fifty years from the date of founding. The ladies' union will be in charge.

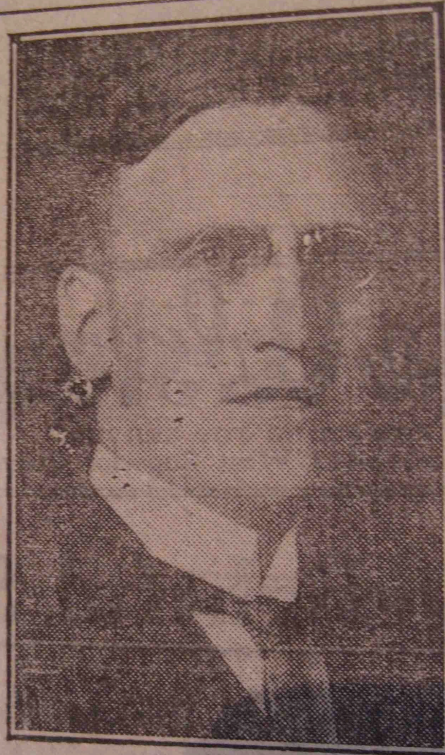

Girl Scouts will hold their meeting on Wednesday. The Women's Missionary society and the Friends in Council will observe the anniversary on Thursday. Herbert M. Irwin, missionary to Turkey, will speak at the evening services. Friday has been designated as Christian Endeavor day, and Saturday is church school day.

Noyes to Speak Sunday.

On Sunday, Dr. E. M. Noyes, pastor of Pilgrim church from 1899 to 1911, will speak at the morning service. In the evening, Dr. Cornelius H. Patton, pastor from 1895 to 1898, will be in charge. Dr. Patton was here upon the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary.

Installation services for Noble S. Elderkin, who has been here since Sept. 15, will be held Monday evening, Jan. 24. President O. S. Davis of Chicago Theological seminary will preach the sermon. Dr. Patton will deliver the charge to the people, and Dr. Noyes will deliver the charge to the minister. Mr. Irwin will give the installation prayer. Dr. C. N. Pace of the First Methodist church, will extend the right hand of fellowship. Albert Baldwin will speak on behalf of the congregation.

The annual banquet will be held

REV. NOBLE S. ELDERKIN.

Tuesday evening, Jan. 25, with Oscar Mitchell presiding. The honor guests will be the new members; Mrs. C. C. Salter, wife of the first minister, and four charter members of Pilgrim: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball.

Herald Jan. 17, 1921

Pilgrim Congregational Church

Duluth, Minnesota

To Members and Friends of Pilgrim Church:

Here is a program for our Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration.

It is not as complete as it ought to be.

It is as complete as it is possible to make it.

There are of course meetings that will appeal only to special groups.

Attendance at those meetings will be governed by circumstances.

But there are five gatherings that are for all.

Of those I speak.

The Annual Meeting tomorrow evening with its report of the years work and its attempt to appraise the possibilities of the new year might well gather together all the church and parish.

The fact that it is the real anniversary of the founding of the church ought to create some enthusiasm.

Information of many types will be thrown upon the screen.

Perhaps that is all I need to say.

I am told to look for 200.

I should rather look for 500.

Thursday evening Mr. Irwin comes back to us. It may be a long time before he can come again. He belongs to us in a very definite sense.

The meeting at which he speaks has been arranged for the whole church.

For this occasion I suggest a general response.

The Sunday services will be of special interest to the entire city. Two former ministers of Pilgrim Church will occupy the pulpit. Mr. Noyes in the morning and Dr. Patton at a special evening service.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock there will be a Recognition Service for the present ministry. With a notable group of speakers it seems as though that service would care for itself.

I am not greatly worried about the Anniversary Dinner on the 25th.

I think I understand that crowds don't mean everything.

But speakers who have come from distances and at great sacrifice can't be expected to do their best with a lot of empty pews dancing in front of them.

I guess I am pleading for CROWDS.

You and your family and your friends gracefully assembled in one or two pews on the evenings specified and at such times as are set down by a strange magic constitute what I am pleading for.

The glory and the honor and the beauty and the joy of the Fiftieth Anniversary of Pilgrim Church in Duluth are in your hands.

Cordially,

NOBLE S. ELDERKIN

January 17, 1921.

Four of Original Charter Members on Church Records

The fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of the Pilgrim Congregational church Jan. 18, 1871, was celebrated at the church last night. The church now has a congregation of 158 as compared to 16 when the church was first established in Duluth. The only remaining charter members are: Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson.

Officers elected were as follows: Deacons, D. C. Wade, C. A. Duncan, George A. Gray, and H. I. Pinneo; trustees, Oscar Mitchell and W. O. Haggard; treasurer, H. W. Nichols; assistant treasurer, W. S. Horst; clerk, Brewster Mattooks Jr.; standing committee, Mrs. Albert Baldwin and Mrs. B. E. Adams.

Rev. Noble S. Elderkin recommended the appointment of a trained, paid worker to superintend the Sunday school activities and a committee was appointed to consider the proposal.

PILGRIM CHURCH'S ANNUAL MEETING

Pilgrim Congregational church has increased its membership from 16 to 637. Brewer Mattocks, Jr., clerk of the congregation, reported last night at the fiftieth annual meeting. The new figure includes the seventy-nine members admitted last Sunday. Four of the original charter members are still members of the church. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball.

Officers elected were as follows: Deacons, B. C. Wade, C. A. Duncan, George A. Gray and H. L. Pinneo; trustees, Oscar Mitchell and W. G. Bergardt; treasurer, H. W. Nichols; assistant treasurer, W. S. Horr; clerk, Brewer Mattocks, Jr.; standing committee, Mrs. Albert Baldwin and Mrs. C. E. Adams.

Rev. Nor'e S. Elderkin recommended the appointment of a trained, paid worker to superintend the Sunday school activities and a committee was appointed to consider the proposal.

Today has been designated as Girl Scout day in the Golden Jubilee anniversary which began last Sunday and will end next Tuesday. Tomorrow night Rev. Herbert M. Irwin, representative of Pilgrim church at Talas, Turkey, will speak on "The Missionary Enterprise and Problems of the Near East." His work covers an area of 375,000 square miles. During the war Rev. Irwin was obliged to stay in Constantinople. He was a member of the first party of relief workers who visited the Armenians after the armistice.

REV. H. M. IRWIN.

Church Groups to Hear of Near East Problems

Rev. Herbert M. Irwin, for 15 years representative of the Pilgrim Congregational church in Talas, Caesarea, Turkey, will speak at the church Thursday night on "The Missionary Enterprise and Problems of the Near East." This is the fourth day of the church's 10-day celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of its founding.

A decade of almost constant war in Turkey has passed under the speaker's eye, including the struggle with Italy over Tripoli, the first and second Balkan wars and the World war. When the United States broke with Turkey, Rev. Mr. Irwin was obliged to go to Constantinople where he taught in Robert college. He was in the interior with the first party of relief workers for the Armenians after the armistice.

"The call of duty seemed plain enough, so we decided to remain," Rev. Mr. Irwin said of himself and wife when asked why he remained in Turkey when the danger to an English subject was so great. He is a native of Canada.

Rev. Mr. Irwin's missionary field in Caesarea covers an area of 370,000 square miles, bringing him in contact with hundreds of young Moslems.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO CUT CHURCH BIRTHDAY CAKE

Two large birthday cakes, each decorated with 50 candles, will be cut today by members of the Sunday school department of the Pilgrim Congregational church in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the church.

The first cake will be cut by members of all the lower classes, including the juniors, during the activities in the afternoon, while the second cake will be cut by the members of the intermediate and senior classes as part of the evening's activities.

Today was reserved as "Sunday school day" of the 10-days' anniversary celebration.

To the Members of the Fiftieth Anniversary Group:

With this ticket to the Fiftieth Anniversary Dinner go the good wishes of Pilgrim Church and our hope that the years ahead may be very happy years.

We are glad to have you as a member of Pilgrim Church.

We hope you will always be glad to be a member of Pilgrim Church.

Next Tuesday evening if you can possibly arrange to be at the church at 6 o'clock we'll try to have a sort of reception for you.

At the dinner which is supposed to begin at 6:30 there will be a seat reserved for you at the center tables.

In case any of your family or your friends care to sit there with you room will be provided.

If by some chance it is not going to be possible for you to attend the dinner will you please tear up your ticket and then telephone Mrs. F. A. Grawn (Hemlock 488) that you have torn up your ticket?

But don't let anything short of making out your income tax schedule keep you away.

It is going to be a great night.

Cordially,

NOBLE S. ELDERKIN.

CHURCH NOTES

Dr. Patton preaches tonight.

Six o'clock Tuesday evening.

Bring a couple of friends tonight.

Fill the church tonight at 8 o'clock.

Tell your friends about tomorrow night's service.

The ball game Thursday will be called promptly at 7:30.

President Davis of Chicago Seminary Monday evening.

The service tonight is at 8 o'clock. Dr. Patton preaches.

The Men's Class this noon in the study will have Mr. Kimball for its leader.

The services tonight and tomorrow night are for all. Eight o'clock.

Baseball Thursday night. Those over 60 will play those under 60.

Miss Donna Riblette and Mrs. Philip J. Frost are assisting the choir today.

Installation service for the present minister tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Messrs. Davis, Patton, Noyes, Pace, Irwin and Baldwin share in the services tomorrow evening.

Look in the south parlor today and see what Mr. Field and his committee have gathered together.

The district Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Pilgrim Church February 4-6, 1921.

The small parlor is being used as the Historical Room during the Anniversary. Mrs. Field is in charge.

"The Changeless Message in Changing Accent" is the topic of President Davis' sermon tomorrow night.

Special anniversary exercises in the Sunday school today. Dr. Noyes, Dr. Patton, Mr. Irwin and others will speak.

Mrs. W. W. Sanford, who has been Church Publicity Committee since October 1, is the same for the year 1921.

It is not possible to print the names of all who have helped to make the anniversary a success. Nor is it possible to thank those who ought to be thanked.

The information Boxes are not ornaments. The names of new people in the parish and of the sick ought to be put in every Sunday by those who have the information.

Those who are planning to attend the anniversary dinner Tuesday evening are asked to come at 6 o'clock. Welcome the fiftieth anniversary group and our visiting friends and our charter members.

Pilgrim Church welcomes its distinguished former ministers to its pulpit today. It rejoices in the success which has come to them. And is glad they had it in their hearts to take long journeys to be present at the anniversary.

The Fiftieth Anniversary Historical Sketch was put in the mails last week. Extra copies may be had free of charge upon application to Mr. Sanford. In case you did not receive a copy place your name and address in the Information Boxes—today.

Pilgrim Church sends fiftieth anniversary greetings to Mr. Thorp today. It regrets his inability to be with us. But it wishes him to know that it can never repay him for the great service he rendered in leading the church to the faith which created the present beautiful building.

The attendance at the annual meeting was very fine. The reports were brief and some were beautiful. Massasoit's speech was the great hit of the evening. The cards with photographs of Pilgrim church in 1871 and 1921 were done by Mr. Paddock. The Ladies' Union committee left nothing undone to make the evening a success. It was therefore a success.

There will not be any meeting of the Ladies' Union in January. The next meeting will be the last Wednesday in February (the 23rd). Until then the circles will remain as they are. A plan worked out in every detail for reorganization will be presented at this meeting. A luncheon for all the ladies of the church will be served. Mrs. Collins requests that all the ladies keep this date in mind and make their plans so as to be free February 23rd.

TO THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY GROUP

Come tonight at 8.

Bring your friends tonight.

The center tables will be reserved for you Tuesday evening.

Come at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Call it a reception if you care to.

There will be a special meeting of the group next Sunday morning at the close of the service.

Your tickets for the anniversary dinner were sent to you last Thursday. Tell Mrs. Grawn if they did not reach you.

At the annual election held last Tuesday evening the following were elected:

Deacons—C. A. Duncan, B. C. Wade, George A. Gray, H. I. Pinneo.

Trustees—Oscar Mitchell, W. G. Hegardt.

Treasurer—H. W. Nichols.

Assistant Treasurer—W. S. Horr.

Clerk—Brewer Mattocks, Jr.

Standing Committee—Mrs. Albert Baldwin, Mrs. C. E. Adams.

Editors Bulletin—W. B. Matter, W. W. Huntley.

Music Committee—E. D. Field, Mrs. P. J. Frost, S. E. Matter.

Missionary Committee—Mrs. F. A. Grawn, Mrs. H. W. Nichols, Mrs. W. W. Sanford.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Pilgrim Church, held in the parish house on the evening of January 18th, was of especial interest. It was the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the church. There were about 250 in attendance. Three of the sixteen charter members were present—Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball and Mr. J. P. Johnson.

The minister of the church, Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, presided.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read by the church clerk, Brewer Mattocks, Jr., and approved as read.

The report of the clerk, his eleventh report, showed a membership of 558 at the close of 1920. The 79 new members received into the church on Sunday, January 16, 1921, the largest single accession in the history of the church, are not included in these figures.

Before giving his report Mr. Mattocks, in the character of Massasoit, cleverly portrayed as the vision of the aged Indian the growth of Pilgrim Church made possible by the faith and spirit of sixteen men and women of 1871.

A summary of the financial reports of the treasurers of the various organizations will be found elsewhere in the Bulletin.

The report of the Christian Endeavor Society, made by the president, Maurice Hart, shows an active membership of thirty. Forty-two meetings were held during the year, two at the county poor farm and one at Nopeming sanitarium. The society contributed $10 to the Hoover fund for starving European children and $5 to the State Christian Endeavor Union.

The report of the superintendent of the Church School showed an enrollment of 282 members and an average attendance of 230 since September, when the present superintendent, Mr. Paul Favor, took the office. The nominating committee of the Church School through its chairman, Mrs. W. K. Daugherty, recommended the employment of a trained and paid superintendent and by such action of the church Mr. Favor, whose term of office had expired, was asked to continue as superintendent until such an arrangement had been made.

The report of the Woman's Missionary Society showed that besides the regular contributions to the church missionary budget the society had expended $475, $137 of which was a thanks offering; $220 was spent in outfitting a family in northern Minnesota and for clothing sent to a school for negroes in the south. The report of the Friends in Council, made by Miss Gertrude Longstreet, showed that they had raised $197.29 during the year and had contributed to the missionary fund of Pilgrim Church $100, $18 to the Serbian relief and $10 each to the Schauffler School, the Berry School, the Bethel Home, Ministerial Relief and Women and Children of the Orient.

Mrs. C. F. Colman, president of the Ladies' Union, made a verbal report.

The report of Boy Scouts, Troop No. 8, showed an active membership of 17. Several of the members have taken prizes in athletic contests, first aid, life saving and knot tying.

The report of the Girl Scouts was made by Gertrude Hegardt, lieutenant. The Girl Scouts troop of Pilgrim Church was the first organized in Duluth. It has 19 active members. The troop contributed during the past year to the support of a French orphan and assisted in the financial drive in November for the national Girl Scouts organization.

The report of the Board of Trustees showed that all church property, including the parsonage, is free from indebtedness and that all bills and current expenses are paid. Insurance on church buildings and contents is carried in the sum of $150,000.

The church treasurer, H. W. Nichols, reported total receipts for 1920 for general fund $15,524.38; the disbursements $15,511.05; cash balance, $13.33.

The Benevolent treasurer, W. S. Horr, reported receipts $3,497.55; disbursements $3,497.55.

The minister's message consisted of certain recommendations:

1. That a year book be published annually in January, the names of members to be kept in type for use at any time.
2. That a children's church be established under a paid leader.
3. That an investigation be made as to the need of a second service.
4. That some organization be maintained among the men of the church which shall provide for frequent gatherings.
5. That the New Members committee be made a permanent committee.
6. That Mr. C. E. Carlson be asked to form a committee to block the parish.
7. That an invitation be extended to the State Conference to meet here in 1922.
8. That Pilgrim Church take a greater interest in nearby Congregational churches.
9. That Church Night be made a time when the various groups of the church report as to their activities.
10. That the appointment by the advisory committee of Mrs. Sanford as publicity chairman for one year be confirmed by the church. (Adopted.)
11. That the membership list be kept alive by an annual roll call.
12. That a trained religious work director be employed as superintendent of the Church School and other activities of the young people. (Referred to Ladies' Union.)

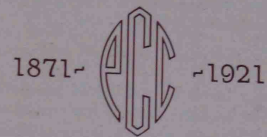

A summary of the financial reports shows the following amounts raised and disbursed for the year:

General fund		$15,111.05
Benevolent fund		3,497.55
Ladies' Union	$2,822.40
Includes paid to General fund.....	207.90—	2,614.50
Friends in Council	168.00
Includes paid to Benevolent fund.....	100.00—	68.00
Ladies' Missionary Society.....		475.00
Total		$21,766.10

After the business session light refreshments were served by the Ladies' Union.

Interesting souvenirs of the occasion, miniature cuts of the first church and the present building were distributed. These were the work of Mr. E. L. Padack.

FORMER PASTORS TO SPEAK.

Dr. Noyes and Dr. Patton to Preach at Congregational Anniversary.

Two former pastors of the Pilgrim Congregational church will speak tomorrow in observance of the fiftieth anniversary Sunday. Dr. E. M. Noyes of Newton, Mass., will deliver the morning sermon. He was pastor of the Duluth church from 1883 to 1894. In the evening Dr. C. H. Patton, pastor here from 1895 to 1898, will deliver an address. Dr. Patton is now secretary of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions.

Two large birthday cakes, each decorated with fifty candles, were cut today by members of the Sunday school department. The anniversary celebration began last Sunday and will end next Tuesday night. Installation services for Dr. Noble S. Elderkin will be held Monday night and a banquet on Tuesday will bring the ceremonies to a close.

TWO FORMER PILGRIM CHURCH PASTORS TO GIVE SERMONS

As a special feature of the 10-day celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Pilgrim Congregational church, which will conclude Tuesday night, two former pastors have been procured to deliver sermons Sunday morning and evening. They are Dr. Cornelius H. Patton and the Rev. Edward M. Noyes. Rev. Mr. Noyes will deliver the morning sermon, while Dr. Patton will speak in the evening.

Dr. Patton was pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church from 1895 to 1898. He is now secretary of the American board of commissioners for foreign missionaries. Rev. Mr. Noyes occupied the Duluth pulpit from 1883 to 1894. He left Duluth Sept. 10, 1894, to take charge of the pastorate of the First Congregational church of Newton, Mass. He is still pastor of the Massachusetts church.

Pilgrim Church Golden Jubilee Services Held

Installation services for Noble S. Elderkin, present minister of the Pilgrim Congregational church, will be held tonight at the church. "The Changeless Message in Changing Accents," is the subject of the sermon to be delivered by President O. S. Davis of the Chicago Theological seminary.

W. W. MacMillan, senior deacon of the church, will preside. The installation ceremony is being held in connection with the fiftieth anniversary ceremonies. The Scripture lesson will be read by Rev. Reed Taft Boyne, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church of Superior and moderator of the Wisconsin state conference.

Sermon by Dr. Noyes. The fiftieth anniversary sermon was preached yesterday morning by Rev. Edward M. Noyes, who was minister of the church from 1883 to 1894, and who for 26 years has been pastor of the Newton Mass., Pilgrim Congregational church. "Perfecting the Past," was the subject selected for the sermon yesterday.

The Rev. Cornelius H. Patton of Boston, who was the pastor of the church from 1895 to 1897 gave the fiftieth anniversary address in the church last night. "The Spirit of the Apostles in the Modern Church," was his subject.

In the installation ceremonies to be held tonight, Dr. Charles N. Pace, pastor of the First M. E. church, will bring the greeting of the Duluth church. Albert Baldwin will speak for the Pilgrim church. Messrs. Patton, Noyes, Boyce and Irwin, as well as the Pilgrim choir and organist will share in the services. Four hundred reservations have been made for the anniversary dinner to be held tomorrow night.

CELEBRATION NEARS CLOSE

Dr. Elderkin to Be Installed Pastor of Pilgrim Congregational Church.

Dr. Noble S. Elderkin will be formally installed as pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church at services to be held tonight. The speakers will include President O. S. Davis of the Chicago Theological seminary, Dr. E. M. Noyes, Dr. C. H. Patton, Dr. C. N. Pace, Rev. Herbert Irwin, Rev. R. T. Boyne, and Albert Baldwin. W. W. MacMillan, senior deacon, will preside.

The fiftieth anniversary celebration will come to a close tomorrow night with a dinner, at which Oscar Mitchell will preside. The charter members of the church will be the guests of honor.

"Perfecting the Past" was the subject of the anniversary sermon yesterday morning by Dr. E. M. Noyes, pastor of Pilgrim church from 1883 to 1894. He called attention to the fact that no one can ever really begin or end his work in this world. Each man, he said, must take up the burden where another has left it. Dr. Noyes also asked for a revival of the idealism that prevailed during the war.

Spirit of Apostles. In an address during the evening on "The Spirit of the Apostles in the Modern Church," Dr. C. H. Patton, pastor of Pilgrim church from 1895 to 1898, declared that he had listed fifty-six different characteristics of the apostles. The three which impressed him most were their enthusiasm for God, their idea of individual freedom, and their passion for service. He declared it to be the present-day task of the church to get back to these ideals of the apostles. The program for the installation services tonight follows:

THE SERMON. "THE CHANGELESS MESSAGE IN CHANGING ACCENT."

I marvel that ye are so quick'y removing from him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a different gospel; which is not another gospel: only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach unto you any gospel other than that we preached unto you, let him be anathema. As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which he received, let him be anathema.— Galatians 1:6-9.

What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to use to the full my right in the gospel. For though I was free from all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; to them that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak; I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. And I do all things for the gospel's sake that I may be a joint partaker thereof.— I Corinthians 9:18-23.

CHARGE TO THE PEOPLE.

By Rev. Cornelius H. Patton.

We Congregationalists are but one unit in the forces of the Kingdom, but we have our history, our traditions and our God-given genius. I am sure we shall make our largest contribution to the good of the whole by being true to ourselves, just as we hope other unites will be true to themselves. In my estimation our special genius runs in the direction of intelligent spirituality. There may be some who are more intellectual than we and others who are more spiritual, but in the endeavor to keep a proper balance between the two, we have something of value to give to the world. I ask you to be true to this ideal and to enable your minister to be true to it by making it possible for him to preach an intelligent Gospel. I do not refer to allowing him liberty of utterance, but to allowing him time to think and study and brood and pray, to live with great authors and to draw inspiration from the highest sources.

There is grave danger of a modern minister becoming a man of all work, a sort of hack-horse for the neighborhood. The modern church has become a highly complex social organism and the man does not exist who can perform all the functions of such a church successfully. The minister should be an expert on religion and you should make it possible for him to apply himself to the things which no one else can do. It is poor economy to have his time absorbed in a multitude of small tasks. I suggest that you apply this principle to the matter of parish calls. A minister should not be expected to call merely for the sake of calling, merely for sociability. Let him, like the Doctor, call as an expert in helpfulness. I leave you to make other applications.

There are Companies which insure about everything under heaven - our lives, our health, our houses, our plate glass windows, our pocket books, our autos, but I know of no company which insures a minister's time. I ask you to become such a company for the sake of this minister you have chosen. Make out a policy here and now insuring him against needless interruptions and enabling him to inculcate intelligent spirituality. In so doing you will also protect yourselves and be able to draw rich dividends which will increase through the years.

DR. ELDERKIN IS INSTALLED

Fiftieth Anniversary Services Held in Pilgrim Church.

The Rev. Noble S. Elderkin was installed as minister of Pilgrim Congregational church Monday night at a service in connection with the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the church. W. W. McMillan presided.

The Rev. Ozora Sterns Davis preached the sermon on "The Changeless Message in Changing Accents." That old words and figures and ideas cannot fit our present day, that vaster vision and deeper reach of thinking are needed in this generation, that there must be a new application of Christianity as new questions arise for solution—these, according to Dr. Davis, are the accents which our time is placing upon the changeless message of the gospel. Acceptance of these changing accents, he said, requires heroism. The working of them out requires both love and loyalty.

The Rev. Charles Nelson Pace of the First Methodist church, brought greetings from the churches of Duluth. Dr. Pace welcomed Dr. Elderkin to the fellowship of the Duluth ministry and referred wittily to the length of time which may elapse between pastorates in congregational churches, a thing unthinkable in the Methodist demonstration.

The charge to the minister was given by the Rev. Edward M. Noyes of Newton Center Mass, former pastor of Pilgrim church. Mr. Noyes declared that the problem before the church today require of its ministry an unbounded enthusiasm and an understanding sympathy.

The charge to the people was given by Dr. Cornelius H. Patton, also a former pastor of the church. Dr. Patton pointed out that in the present age everything a man owns may be insured except his time; and he appealed to the people to become the insurers of their ministers time. The pretty demands of society and the telephone cannot be met if the pulpit and pastoral work of a minister are to be adequately accomplished, said Dr. Patton.

Greetings from Pilgrim church were extended by Albert Baldwin. The Rev. Herbert H. Irwin, foreign representative of the Pilgrim church, of Talas Turkey, offered prayer. The music of the evening was rendered by the church

Mr. Bartmister, Ladies and the Men:-

We all realize that we have been reveling for two wonderful days in rejoicing - Our fiftieth Anniversary; rejoicing; planned by the men and carried out by the women. The men have given us glorious speeches, which we never can forget - but they have lost sight of one important fact, our great power, and that great power we wish now to recognize -

Mrs. Noble S. Eldenkin - We, the ladies of this Pilgrim Congregational Church, greet you! We welcome you! It took us a year to find you - but you are worth more than a year. When the new minister was spoken of, this refrain was heard, "let us see his wife!"

We all know the tender, loving care which envelops Mr. Eldenkin; the quiet, well oiled machinery of his household, which, with you as engineer, runs so smoothly for him. Mr. Eldenkin would not be and could not be as he is, but for you - the power behind him. With out your loving care and watchfulness, his enthusiastic life and spiritual simplicity could not be maintained.

Mr. Eldenkin, we welcome you and your family quickly into our very midst. May you live long and prosper - keep us Mr. Eldenkin with us. We stand by you now for and service. May you never feel our deep appreciation and at all times know that we are with you and yours as you sing "A New Song in A Strange Land."

CHURCH ENDS ITS JUBILEE

Pilgrim Congregational Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration Closes With Banquet.

Reminiscences covering half a century were intermingled with happy predictions of future progress at the fiftieth anniversary dinner of Pilgrim Congregational church last night. The dinner marked the close of a ten-day golden jubilee celebration.

Dr. E. M. Noyes, minister at Pilgrim church from 1883 to 1894, paid tribute to the unanimity of spirit among the congregation. Its optimism, he predicted, would carry it far along the road of cheerful accomplishment. Dr. Noyes' stories of amusing incidents of thirty years ago were entertaining.

The building of character and good will toward humanity are more vital than the building of a fine church. Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, the present minister, reminded the congregation. One of the most entertaining speeches of the evening was given by Mrs. E. J. Collins, who paid tribute to Mrs. Elderkin.

Credit to Pastor's Wife.

"There has been too much praise of our pastor, altogether," she declared. "The credit belongs entirely to Mrs. Elderkin for bringing him up properly."

She also accused the men of the congregation of assuming too much credit for the success of the anniversary celebration. Admitting that the men may have planned the meetings, the women carried it all out, she asserted.

Other speakers were Miss L. Ella Roe, with the topic, "Our Heritage;" Rev. Herbert M. Irwin, "Our Neighbors;" Rev. Everett Lesher of Minneapolis, Mrs. C. H. Dunning and Russell Duncan, both of whom spoke on "Our Immediate Past," and Jeremiah Kimball and J. P. Johnson, whose topics were "Our Remote Past."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Kimball are charter members of Pilgrim church. Together with Mrs. C. C. Salter, the wife of the first pastor, they were the guests of honor.

A letter was received from Rev. Charles N. Thorpe, a former pastor, now in Massachusetts, and a telegram was sent in reply. Letters were also received from absent members of the congregation.

About 400 persons were present. Oscar Mitchell was toastmaster.

Dr. C. H. Patton, a former pastor, who has been here attending the jubilee for several days, had to leave for Chicago yesterday afternoon and was most regretful because he could not be present at the closing event of last evening. Dr. Noyes left this morning for the East.

Jan. 23, 1921

One of the most brilliant events of the week was the golden jubilee banquet held at Pilgrim Congregational church, Tuesday night, when 400 guests were served an elaborate menu in a beautiful setting. The dinner was superintended by Mrs. R. W. Nichols and the decorations were the work of Mrs. C. W. Hadden.

News Tribune Jan. 30, 1921

The fiftieth anniversary celebration of Pilgrim Congregational church had its culmination Tuesday night in an elaborate banquet served by the Ladies' Union under the leadership of a committee headed by Mrs. Henry Nichols. The decorations planned by Mrs. E. J. Collins were carried out in a color scheme of yellow and green. The east windows of the Parish house dining room were banked with cedar boughs upon which were outlined in yellow the dates 1871-1921 and in the center the Pilgrim church monogram. The ceiling lights were softened by yellow shades and the same color appeared in the candle sticks, bonbon holders and program cards upon the table.

Upon the platform at a circular table sat the after-dinner speakers and the only living charter members of the church, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson and Mrs. C. C. Salter, whose husband was the first pastor. These and the 79 who joined the membership on the first day of the anniversary were honored guests of the evening.

An interesting feature of the occasion was the bringing in, amidst the cheers of the diners, of birthday cakes surrounded by yellow candles. The cake for the speakers' table held 50 candles and was cut by Mrs. Elderkin.

Oscar Mitchell was toastmaster. Toasts were responded to by Mr. Kimball and Mr. Johnson on "Our Remote Past," by Mrs. C. H. Dunning and Russell Duncan on "Our Immediate Past," by Miss L. Ella Roe on "Our Heritage" and by the Rev. Edward M. Noyes, former pastor of the church, on "Our Church." Pervading all of these speeches were two notes. One of rejoicing in the inheritance of the spirit of the Pilgrims and one of congratulation that that spirit had perpetuated itself in Pilgrim church of Duluth. Mrs. Dunning told of events during the pastorate of the Rev. Alexander Milne and related some of his amusing stories. Mr. Duncan spoke of the building of the present church, as a demonstration of the efficacy of prayer.

The Rev. Herbert M. Irwin of Talas, Turkey and the Rev. Everett Lesher, superintendent of the Congregational conference of Minnesota, responded to the toast, "Our Neighbors," the one telling interesting anecdotes of our foreign neighbors and the other relating humorous and serious stories of our neighbors nearer home. The Rev. Noble S. Elderkin, recently installed minister of the church, spoke of "Our Future."

The program closed with the presentation by Mrs. Collins, the president of the Ladies' Union, to Mrs. Elderkin of a bouquet of flowers representing the welcome of the women of the church to the wife of the pastor.

A telegram of greeting was sent to the Rev. C. N. Thorp, under whose pastorate the present church was built.

News Tribune Jan. 26, 1921

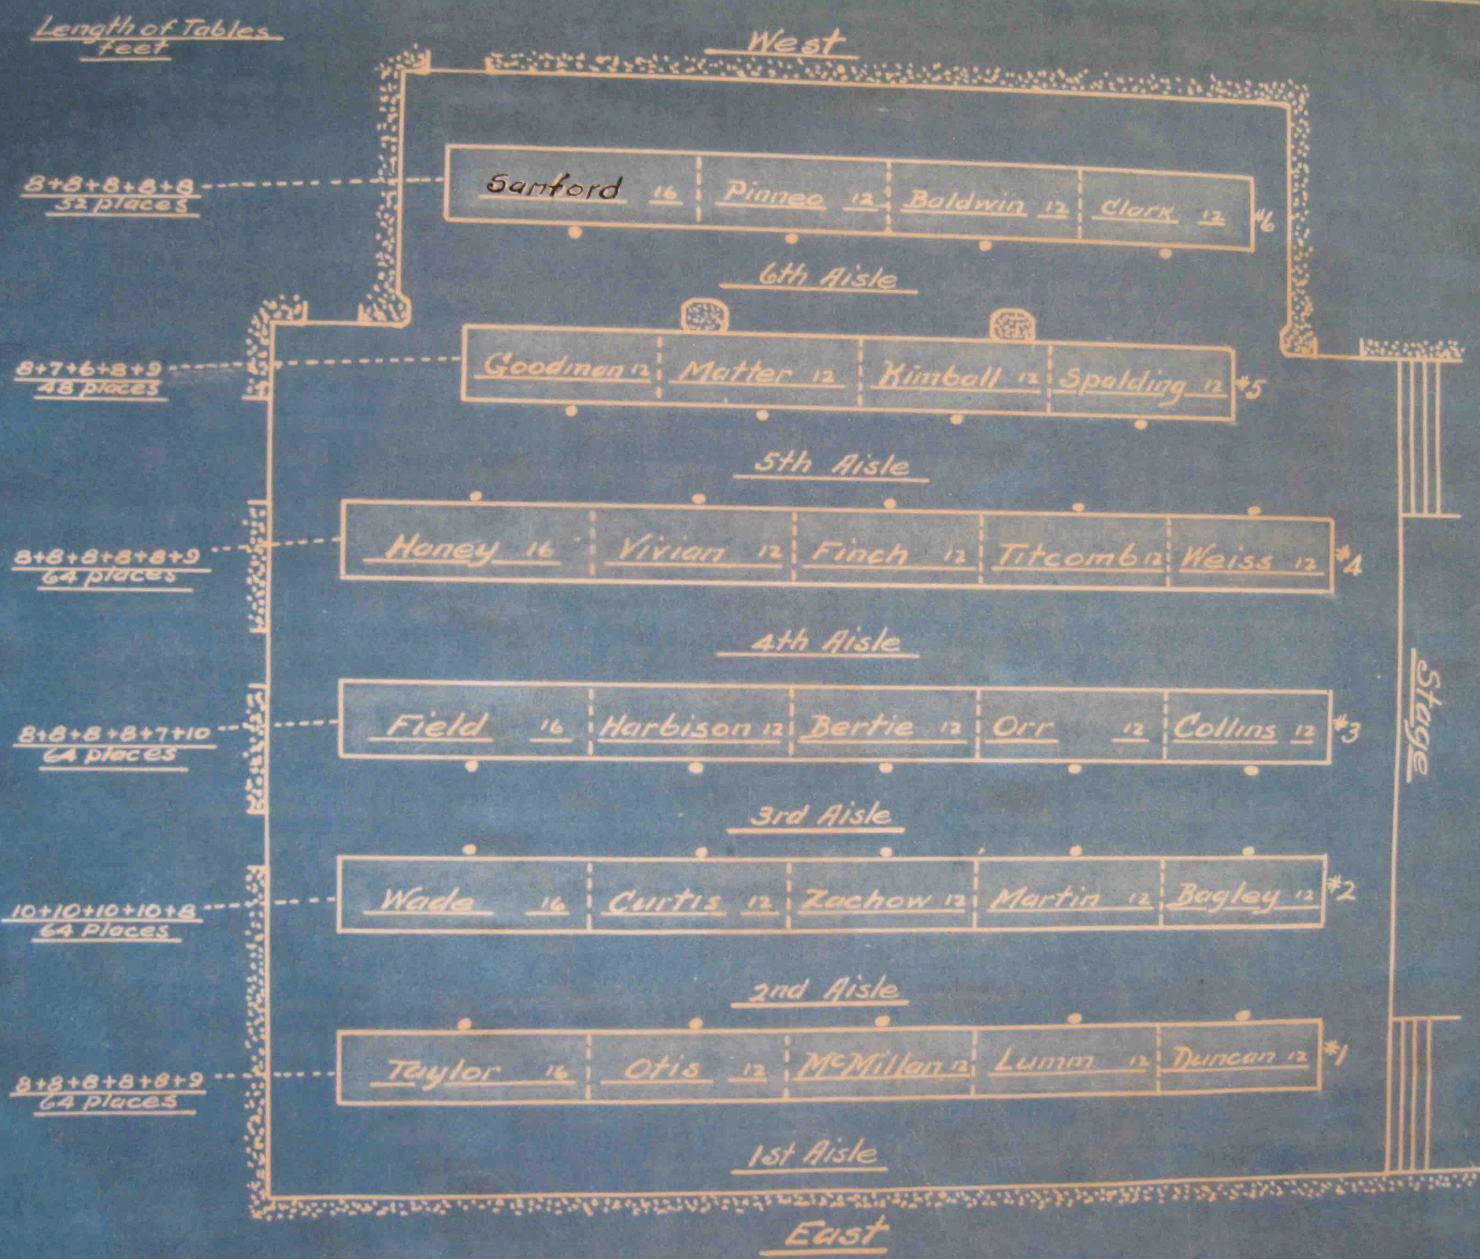

It will be of general interest to know that Mrs. Nichols and her committees so managed the Anniversary Dinner that after charging but fifty cents for tickets and providing complimentary tickets to the Fiftieth Anniversary Group and the Charter Members there was a deficit of but $20.00.

 50th Anniversary Banquet.

East.

32 places in Scout room-12 at round table, 20 at largest extension table with addition of two S. S. tables. 2 hostesses here.

16 places on platform-banquet top used over small extension table. 2 hostesses here. 8 servings carried to Scout room. This makes even 12's for serving everywhere except 5 end-sections near kitchen. 404 places all together

3rd and 4th aisles are opposite kitchen doors.

5th aisle is opposite hallway door.

ASSIGNMENT OF TABLES.

14 tray wagons are needed if platform and Scout room are used. Otherwise 12.

Hostesses having 16 places (5 of them at end sections nearest kitchen) are not served by the tray wagons. They have special waiters serving from kitchen.

Serving.

Trays must be lined up in the right order in the kitchen, two lines going opposite ways. They cannot pass each other in the dining-room. Each tray has complete servings for 2 hostesses at once, except No. 12 which serves any one. 2 Platform (and Scout room) trays go first, entering 3rd aisle and return in 4th aisle.

Trays 1 and 2 enter 3rd aisle door, go along 2nd aisle serve 4 hostesses at table 1, skip Mrs. Taylor. Return in 4th aisle.

Trays 3, 4, 5 and 6 enter 3rd aisle door, go along 3rd aisle, serve 8 hostesses at tables 2 and 3 skip Mrs. Field and Mrs. Wade. Return in 4th aisle.

Trays 7, 8, 9 and 10 enter from hall, go along 5th aisle, serve 8 hostesses at tables 4 and 5, skip Mrs. Haney. Return in 4th aisle.

Trays 11 and 12 enter from hall, go along 6th aisle, serve 3 hostesses at table 6 skip Mrs. Sanford. Return in 4th aisle.

Two special waiters working together from kitchen, without tray wagons, serve the 5 end-hostesses, enough for 16 each. Platform trays and 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 enter by 3rd aisle door and in that order. Trays 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 enter from hall, and in that order.

Removing.

Trays will line up in a different order.

Hostesses are supposed to empty their serving dishes. The trays can make their first trip for removing then, as soon as serving is finished.

When ready to remove plates, etc., have on your tray a large empty pan for scraps, a few paper napkins to wipe scraps into the pan, a bowl or dish for butter drippings (butter and all). In removing plates each waiter might ask for an assistant, someone at the table. Ask hostesses not to let people

The north dining-room door will be closed. Please come at six o'clock through foyer and south stairway, and put napkins and two sharp knives at your place, coffee pot in kitchen. After the reception please return $\frac{7}{8}$ by 6:20 sharp. Doors cannot be opened until you are ready.

Your section includes space between candles.

Dr. Elderkin suggests that you have each person introduce himself by speaking his own name.

Please try not to let sugar, cream, rolls, salt, pepper, jelly, celery, go out of your section.

SECOND COURSE: You might ask the person at your right to serve the potatoes. Try to serve all the chicken pie and potatoes and come out even. No second helpings planned for.

THIRD COURSE: Cakes will have a few candles. They might burn a few minutes only, then cut cake for your section, second helpings if enough. Serve slice on plate and pass to your assistant who serves -- $\frac{1}{2}$ slices ice cream.

When waitress brings coffee, tell her whether you have asked some one else to pour it.

Put out candles in candlesticks when dessert is finished.

Please care for your napkins and knives at once, and get coffee pot.

stack up anything. You and your assistant wipe scraps off the plates and pile them up. Your number of places to be cleared is given below, most of them are 32. This means 32 in on trip.

Special waiters for 16's, please act as general assistants. Trays 8, 9, platform, 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 enter by 3rd aisle door, and in that order. Trays 6, 7, 10, 11 and 12 from hall, and in that order.

Important - Trays 8 and 9 must go first, to clear 4th aisle.

Trays 8 and 9 - To clear 4th aisle in one trip (be sure to finish up).
Enter 3rd aisle door, go way through 3rd aisle, Returning by 4th aisle, no. 8 goes down halfway, clears remaining 32 places, 16 at each table, No. 9 begins at north end, does 32 places, 16 at each table.

2 Platform trays - Enter 3rd aisle, do all platform and Scout room places at one trip, return by 4th aisle.

Tray 1 - To clear 1st aisle in one trip (be sure to finish up) side, 32 places, return to kitchen by 4th aisle.

Trays 2 and 3 - To clear 2nd aisle, (both sides of aisle). Enter 3rd aisle door, go to 2nd aisle. No. 2 goes half way down, clears remaining 32 places, 16 on each side, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle. No. 3 begins at south end, does 32 places, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle.

Trays 4 and 5 - To clear 3rd aisle (both sides of aisle). Enter 3rd aisle door, No. 4 goes half way down, clears remaining 32 places, 16 on each side, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle. No. 5 begins at south end, does 32 places all at one trip. 16 on each side. Return by 4th aisle.

Trays 6 and 7 - To clear 5th aisle (both sides of aisle). Enter from hall in 5th aisle, no. 6 goes half way down clears remaining places, about 30 all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle. No. 7 begins at south end, does remaining places, about 30, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle.

Trays 10, 11 and 12 - To clear 6th aisle (75 places, because you do both sides of table 6 and west side of table 5.) Enter from hall, go to 6th aisle, no. 10, takes about 25 places farthest north, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle; No. 11 takes next 25, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle. No. 12 takes 25 nearest south, all at one trip. Return by 4th aisle.

Do not fail to wipe the plates and stack them in the dining-room. In that way there will be confusion in the kitchen.

The Landing of the Pilgrims

The breaking waves dashed high
On a stern and rock-bound coast
And the woods against a stormy sky
Their giant branches tossed;
And the heavy night hung dark,
The hills and waters o'er,
When a band of exiles moored their bark
On the wild New England shore.

What sought they thus afar?
Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?
They sought a faith's pure shrine!
Ay, call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod!
They have left unstained what there they found Freedom to worship God.

PROGRAM

PROLOGUE

AT DAWN the flute call is heard in the distance, summoning the Indians to their worship of the Sun. The Tribal Chief repeats the call and sings to his people in the forest, who advance and lay down their offerings in solemn worship.

NOTE:—The words and music of the "Sunrise Song," sung by Mr. Reigert, were obtained from the Indians by Mrs. Stella Stocker.

EPISODE ONE: THE DEDICATION OF AN ALTAR TO LIBERTY:
A Wooded Glen in the New World.

In the New World Hope dedicates an Altar to Liberty kindling upon it a flame which is to become a guiding light to Freedom. Drawn by the light of Hope and led by Faith, our Pilgrim Fathers seek their Promised Land.

EPISODE TWO: A WARNING TO THE PILGRIMS.

On the old North Road outside the Inn at Scrooby, England, 1608.

The hand of the Law asserts itself on William Brewster, the Spiritual leader of the Pilgrims. Realizing their danger, the Pilgrims decide to leave England. Hope relates to the Voice of Him Who Asks, the journey to Holland and thence to the shores of this New Country.

EPISODE THREE: THE LANDING OF THE PILGRIMS,
PLYMOUTH, MASS., 1620.

The Indians witness the approach of the Mayflower and steal away.

The Pilgrims land and decide to make Plymouth Plantation their home. The blessing of the Lord is invoked upon their new dwelling place.

EPISODE FOUR: HOPE AND FAITH TRIUMPHANT.

The figures of Famine, Cold and Pestilence, symbolic of the hardships of that first winter on these shores seek to overcome the Pilgrims, but are driven away by the aid of Faith and a glimpse of brighter days.

EPISODE FIVE: A TREATY WITH THE INDIANS,
PLYMOUTH, SPRING, 1621.

A visitor of importance.

A treaty with the Indians is entered into by Massasoit. The pipe of peace is smoked by Indians and white men.

NOTE:—Squanto, kidnapped by an English trader, was carried to England where he lived for some time and learned the language before returning to America. Samoset and Massasoit learned some English from Traders along the Coast.

PILGRIMS

The Puritan movement came first.

The Puritans wanted to stay within the church and correct such abuses and wrongs as they happened to detect.

They met with a certain success. But some were impatient.

The method was too slow. "Boring from within" is always a slow method.

In time the impatient folk became convinced that the "purifying" method would get them nowhere.

They decided that the thing to do was to "come out."

To separate; and to build their own kind of a church.

It was not as easy to separate from the church then as it is now.

The authorities did not encourage separation. They opposed it.

But in spite of their opposition groups of Separatists multiplied.

In Lincolnshire at Gainsborough and Scrooby there were two very active groups.

The opposition to their movement encouraged them to conclude that the proper thing for them to do—seeing that they "could not enjoy their own liberty in their Native Country without offense to others that were differently minded," was to "take up thoughts of removing."

The first group to act on the "thoughts of removing" was the one in Gainsborough where John Smyth was pastor. They went to Amsterdam in 1606.

The next year the Scrooby group, under the leadership of William Brewster and John Robinson, tried to leave England by way of Boston. But their plans were discovered and Elder Brewster landed in jail.

Other companies sought to leave but were intercepted.

So many were thrown into jail that the counties supporting the jails began to object to the expense of feeding these crowds. Their protest at length became so loud that the authorities decided to let the Separatists go where they would.

By August, 1608, these troublesome folks were in Amsterdam.

When it was determined to organize a company that should go to Leyden, Edward Winslow and John Carver and Miles Standish headed the one hundred who elected to plant the colony there.

Shortly it began to appear that there were certain dangers and losses in this Dutch arrangement and the leaders began to look toward Virginia in the new world.

In July of 1620 they left Holland.

The boats chartered for the sea voyage gave a good deal of trouble. It was not until September 26, 1620, that the Mayflower finally got away from Plymouth with its one hundred and two Separatist passengers.

On November 19th she came in sight of land.

In the party that came in the Mayflower there were seventy-three men and twenty-nine women.

John Carver was elected their first governor.

The first winter was very severe. Half their number died.

In April the Mayflower started back home, but it carried none of the less than fifty Pilgrims who had survived the rigors of the terrible winter.

In the fall after a good summer Robert Cushman came with thirty-five recruits.

EPISODE SIX: THE FIRST THANKSGIVING,
PLYMOUTH, AUTUMN, 1621.

The table is spread for the feasting. The Indians bring gifts. A joyful surprise follows. A bearer of good tidings makes this day sacred to our commonwealth.

NOTE:—History tells us that three days after the signing of the treaty with the Indians, Governor Carver died. William Bradford succeeded him as Governor.

EPISODE SEVEN: AMERICA, THE LAND OF BROTHERHOOD.

America appears before Elder Brewster and portrays the future of this great land. She reveals to him "that the road the Pilgrims trod, now winds about the earth, a bond of Brotherhood for all the world." The flame kindled by Hope becomes the torch of liberty.

Edwin Dewey Field
1858-1921

The following tribute to the memory of Edwin D. Field was adopted by a rising vote at the church service Sunday morning, February 20th, 1921:

It is with deep feelings of sorrow that Pilgrim Congregational Church is called upon to record the death of Edwin D. Field, and to pay a tribute of affection and appreciation to his memory. In January, 1887, he brought to this church his letter from Dartmouth College Church, Hanover, New Hampshire, and with it the culture, refinement and enthusiasm of his young christian manhood. His relation to our church has been of unusual value on account of the quality of service rendered. He was loyal and faithful in his quiet service and devotion to the church, and as was so fittingly said by our Pastor, "It is such attainments as his that the Church is builded upon." He was elected a deacon in 1912 and has continued to serve in that capacity to the time of his death. In appreciation of his service to the Church, and his devotion to the cause of the Master, and in remembrance of his kindly, gentle, considerate life among us, the church desires to express these sentiments and to convey to his wife and family our individual and united sympathy, and commend them to the Master, whose he was and whom he served.

EDITORIAL

Devoted to Public Service; In City, State and Nation

EDWIN D. FIELD

Duluth suffers a great loss in the death of Edwin D. Field. A man of quiet manner, with the dignified reserve which more frequently is found in New England's sons, Mr. Field was an enthusiast at heart about Duluth's future. He showed interest not only by his investments here and by his counsel to others but by the stand he took in all that concerned Duluth's betterment.

It is men of Mr. Field's character who, not seeking notoriety, are always sought for their advice, material aid and encouragement for every worthy public project and such men form the foundation on which a city is built.

Those who mourn today are not only his personal friends, although this would mean practically every one who knew him well, but also many of the younger generation whom he had helped either materially or by sympathetic encouragement and the members of Pilgrim Congregational Church with which he affiliated soon after arriving in Duluth many years ago. He had served this church in many capacities and always with honor and it had come to look upon him as one of the foundation stones of its great success.

Duluth has lost a friend, a stalwart helper, a true and gentle man.

 ing this evening.

CHURCH NOTES

All seats in Pilgrim church are free and unassigned.
 Men's Bible Class this noon. For study and discussion.
 "Choose the best life and habit by and by will make you like the best."
 Mrs. F. C. Murphy entertained the Girl Scouts at dinner
 Thursday, the 17th.
 "Brighten the Unit where you are! Your very best friend is in the Unit with you. Find her!
 The men of the church will remember that Thursday evenings are to be spent in the Recreation Room.

The minister's Lenten Class for young folks will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Please note the change in hour.

If you letters are somewhere else and you plan to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday you ought to send for them today.

A Church-time Kindergarten is maintained to care for little children during the morning service. Mrs. McDonald has charge.

Efforts are being made to find a Director of Religious Education in Pilgrim Church. Pilgrim Church Assembly is back of the venture.

Anyone desiring a bound volume of last year's bulletins kindly drop name with request in the Information Boxes. The binding cost is $3.00.

The Standing Committee of the church meets in the North
 Parlor this noon to greet those who wish to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday morning.

Josephine Gude, Evelyn Coe, Frances Lyness, George Netherly and Charles Kerr constitute the supper committee for the young people's meeting this evening.

Dr. Homan, who gave the illuminating talk about Psychological Clinics a week ago, will give a Laboratory Mental Test next Wednesday evening. Promptly at eight.

The Women's Assembly luncheon last Wednesday was in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. Haney, Mrs. D. C.
 Duncan, Mrs. Dinsmore and Mrs. David Davis.

Pilgrim Church by special vote last Wednesday evening gave its endorsement to the plans looking toward a larger and better equipped St. Luke's Hospital. Much more will be said later.

On February 18th the Pilgrim Masque Caste were entertained with a turkey dinner by the Women's Assembly of the church.
 The young folks of the Normal School delighted the company with one of Lady Gregory's plays. ("Spreading the News.") And then through the pleasant evening various individuals and groups of individuals sang and read and gave imitations.

The women of Pilgrim Church last Wednesday adopted a plan of reorganization suggested by Mrs. Collins. Mrs. Hart, Mrs.
 T. J. Davis, Mrs. Paddock and Mrs. McGonagle are to be known as supervisors. Each has three directors heading smaller groups.
 For this year the directors are: Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Frost, Miss Simonds, Mrs. Hanev, Mrs. C. E. Carlson, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Gochey, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. D. C. Duncan, Mrs. Funck and Mrs.
 R. E. Johnson.

A recent letter from Rev. Ray E. Phillips, who belongs to Pilgrim in a special way and who is now the foreign representative of Mr. Thorp's Church in Holyoke, writes of the new spirit coming to life in the soul of the native African. He calls it "a boiling, seething spirit of resentment hidden away in the heart of the outwardly docile black man." He quotes a newspaper writer who intimates that the black man is not to blame, for they "landless, voteless, helots, pariahs, social outcasts in their fatherland with no future in any path of life" see that "of all the blessings in this world they have nothing while the white man has everything."
 Mr. Phillips is trying to be another kind of white man to these resentful natives.

EDWIN D. FIELD

Duluth suffers a great loss in the death of Edwin D. Field. A man of quiet manner, with the dignified reserve which most frequently is found in New England's sons, Mr. Field was an enthusiast at heart about Duluth's future. He showed it not only by his investments here and by his counsel to others but by the stand he took in all that concerned Duluth's betterment.

It is men of Mr. Field's character who, not seeking notoriety, are always sought for their advice, material aid and encouragement for every worthy public project and such men form the foundation on which a city is built.

Those who mourn today are not only his personal friends, although this would mean practically every one who knew him well, but also many of the younger generation whom he had helped either materially or by sympathetic encouragement and the members of Pilgrim Congregational church with which he affiliated soon after arriving in Duluth 35 years ago. He had served this church in many capacities and always with honor and it had come to look upon him as one of the foundation stones of its great success.

Duluth has lost a friend, a stalwart helper, a true and gentle man.

EDWIN D. FIELD

Edwin Dewey Field was born in Montpelier, Vermont, January 25th, 1858, and was the son of Cornelius A. Field and Maria D. Field. He spent his boyhood days at his birthplace and at Hanover, New Hampshire. He graduated from Dartmouth College in 1880. After his graduation he went west to Rockford, Illinois, where he was in business for five years. He came to Duluth in 1885, and for a short time was in the grain business but soon entered the real estate and insurance business alone and later with his father, the firm being C. A. & E. D. Field. After his father's death he conducted the business himself until six years ago he organized the Field-Frey Company of which company he was president at the time of his death. He was married April 30th, 1917, to Miss Henrietta Barnes of Duluth, who survives him. He also leaves one daughter, Elizabeth Field.

Mr. Field was a member of the various clubs of the city, both business and social, and for two years was president of the Board of Realtors.

In his family life he knew only peace and joy. His friends were many who sought his companionship more as they knew him better. He had an unusually keen sense of humor from which he gained much pleasure for himself and his friends. There was a poise and serenity about his life which could only be accounted for through companionship with the unseen.

He was a loyal citizen, believed in his city and in its future and worked faithfully for its advancement both moral and material.

In business he was attentive, faithful and reliable, and enjoyed the confidence of a large clientage who had entrusted their business with him.

Edwin Field was genial, unselfish and charitable, he never complained, he had a fine sense of honor and integrity; it was these characteristics that bound him close to his friends. His summons came with little notice but so upright and consistent had been his life that he was as well prepared for it as though he had been fully warned of its approach. We feel a keen sense of loss in his departure, but with that loss comes the consciousness of the value of true Christian manhood and a richer and firmer faith in the life beyond.

Pilgrim Congregational Church

Duluth, Minnesota

How do you do! Women Members and Women Friends of Pilgrim Church:

Were it possible for me to make a really truly call upon each one and just have a nice cozy visit, I would enjoy that very much, but as it is impossible in the short time before the 23rd, we will have a "paper visit".

A simple luncheon for you will be given the last Wednesday in February, the 23rd. This is my first luncheon as your president and I want to meet you then. The time is 12:30. Come fifteen minutes earlier and let's visit—you and I. There will be others there, who want to visit with you also. If you have a relative, friend or neighbor who may become interested in Pilgrim Church, please bring her with you. Also bring your correct name and address. You will be asked for it.

After the luncheon there is to be a special meeting, when a reorganization plan will be presented. Bring the accompanying diagram—then you will have the seeing part before you. Every detail of this plan is worked out—even unto the Recommendations for the election next year—that is the hearing part—do not miss it!

After the reorganization plan is settled the regular February meeting will be called. There is interesting business to discuss.

Webster says: "Assembly—a collection or company of persons brought together in one place and for a common object—a meeting, a congregation."

This is Thursday afternoon—now if you will be kind enough to return my visit by Saturday afternoon's mail—the 19th—you will help out. If I do not receive a paper visit from you in the mail on the 19th—Saturday afternoon—someone will have to call you on the phone Monday, the 21st, because the questions of this visit must be answered by you. You see how you can help!

We are getting out a new List. We hope it will be out the 26th. Is your name and address of this paper visit correct? You want it correct! We do also.

Oh! Are you coming to the luncheon the 23rd? Are you bringing Someone or Sometwo?

Now do come the 23rd at 12:15. We are both interested in your work and mine.

Very cordially,

MRS. EDWIN J. COLLINS, President,
2501 East Fifth Street.

Thursday, February 17th.

LY MORNING — The Duluth News Tribune ELECTED SUPERVISOR OF ASSEMBLY

MRS. T. J. DAVIS

Mrs. Davis was elected one of the four supervisors of the women's assembly of the Pilgrim Congregational church at a meeting yesterday.

WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY IS NAME CHOSEN BY CHURCH WOMEN

Ladies' Union of Pilgrim Congregational Church Is Reorganized.

"The Women's Assembly was the name decided upon by the women of the Pilgrim Congregational church for their reorganized 'Ladies' Union' at a meeting held yesterday noon at the parish house. The name was suggested by Mrs. Edwin Collins, the new president of the society, and is a part of a plan worked out by Mrs. Collins to systematize and simplify the church work that the growth of the church now makes necessary.

The "Calendar Plan" was adopted and four season groups, headed by supervisors, will be divided into month units headed by directors.

The spring group for this year will be supervised by Mrs. W. N. Hart and Spaulding, F. J. Frost and Miss Belle of Mrs. T. J. Davis, supervisor, and Messdames C. L. Haney, C. E. Carlson, and George Gray, directors. Autumn group, Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, supervisor, and Messdames F. D. Orr, M. J.

Gochey and F. N. Allen, directors. Winter group, Mrs. E. L. Paddock, supervisor, and Messdames David Duncan, H. W. Nichols and R. E. Johnson, directors.

An advisory board was named, composed of Mrs. Collins, president; Mrs. C. F. Colman, vice president; the four supervisors and the leaders of circles under last year's plan; Mrs. W. G. Hegardt, Mrs. C. A. Duncan and Mrs. George Spaulding. It is the plan to make the supervisors of one year members of the advisory board for the next year. All the women of the church are included in the personnel of the units.

The assembly will meet once a month and the units at the request of the directors.

The meeting yesterday was preceded by a prettily appointed luncheon in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. C. L. Haney, chairman, and Messdames David Duncan, A. T. Dinmore and David Davis. One hundred eighty women were served.

ADOPTS PRESIDENT'S PLAN FOR REORGANIZING PILGRIM CHURCH WOMEN

A comprehensive plan for the reorganization of the women of Pilgrim Congregational church was unanimously adopted at an after-luncheon meeting held Wednesday noon in Pilgrim parish house.

The plan had been carefully worked out by the new president, Mrs. Edwin Collins, and was presented in the form of a graph blocked out upon a blackboard. The central feature of the plan insures a working unit for each month of the year, grouping three units together for a season's work under supervisors who have been carefully chosen because of their ability and experience. The supervisors for the present year are Messdames E. L. Paddock, W. N. Hart, T. J. Davis and W. A. McGonagle. It is planned that the supervisors of one year shall automatically become members of the advisory board for the next year. The advisory board will then include the two sets of supervisors and the president and vice president.

For this year the former circle leaders, Messdames W. G. Hegardt, C. A. Duncan and George Spaulding, will act on the advisory board. The directors of the twelve units are as follows: December, Mrs. David Duncan; January, Mrs. R. M. Funck; February, Mrs. R. E. Johnson; March, Mrs. George Spaulding; April, Mrs. P. J. Frost; May, Miss Belle Simonds; June, Mrs. C. L. Haney; July, Mrs. C. E. Carlson; August, Mrs. George Gray; September, Mrs. F. D. Orr; October, Mrs. M. J. Gochey; November, Mrs. F. N. Allen.

The other officers of the "assembly," as the new organization is to be called, are: Vice-president, Mrs. C. F. Colman; secretary, Mrs. B. C. Wade; auditor, Mrs. W. B. Matter; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. R. Dougherty. Each group has its own treasurer.

There were 180 women present at the luncheon. The affair was in charge of a group of young matrons, Messdames C. L. Haney, David Duncan, A. T. Dinmore, David Davis.

MRS. EDWIN COLLINS

MRS. C. A. DUNCAN

Mrs. Duncan was elected last week to the advisory board of the recently organized women's assembly of the Inglewood Congregational church, which takes the place of the Ladies' union. Mrs. Duncan is at present at the Hotel del Arroyo in Pasadena, Cal., where she will sojourn for several months.

CHURCH NOTES

Base ball Thursday evening.

Midweek service Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

All seats in Pilgrim church are free and unassigned.

Men's Bible Class this noon. For study and discussion.

"Try today to pray for the one whom you most dislike."

"Nothing else can ever be right in a man's life if he is not sincere."

"Life and Death" is the topic for Wednesday evening's service. Read John 12.

The minister's Lenten Class for young folks will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

"Face squarely all your nourished spite against any one and see how contemptible it is."

If your letters are somewhere else and you plan to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday you ought to send for them today.

A Church-time Kindergarten is maintained to care for little children during the morning service. Mrs. McDonald has charge.

The Standing Committee of the church meets in the North Parlor this noon to greet those who wish to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday morning.

The Winter Group (Dec., Jan. and Feb.) of the Women's Assembly will meet in the Kindergarten Room at 12:30 on Thursday for luncheon. Directors of the Units will telephone members Monday giving full particulars.

The Friends in Council anticipate a very interesting program Monday evening at the supper hour. We are to hear "first hand" from those in charge of the "Little Grey House" at Gary, and Miss Victoria Ericson will tell us something of her work as State Factory Inspector. Supper at 6:30 sharp. If you wish to engage a seat at the supper, see Miss Leopold or Miss Longstreet after church this morning.

The Westminster Presbyterian Church Ball Team will play a return game with our team Thursday evening at Pilgrim Church. A few reserved seats on the bleachers for those who desire to witness this exciting contest.

The Autumn Group of the Women's Assembly, composed of the September, October and November Units, will meet Friday, March 11, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Orr, 2420 East Fifth Street. The organization of the group and the units will be perfected at this meeting.

The Spring Group of the Women's Assembly, consisting of the March, April and May Units, will meet with Mrs. W. N. Hart, 1831 East Second Street, Monday afternoon, March 7, at 2:30.

The Summer Group of the Women's Assembly, consisting of the June, July and August Units, will meet with Mrs. T. J. Davis, 2104 East First Street, Tuesday, March 8, at 2:30 p. m.

Women's Missionary meeting, 3 o'clock Wednesday, March 9. Devotional, Mrs. Adams. "Our Church and the Community," Dr. Elderkin. Hostesses, Mrs. Lovett, Mrs. Cole.

WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY.

Mrs. Edwin Collins, President.

Spring Group, Mrs. W. N. Hart, Supervisor.

March Unit, Mrs. George C. Spalding, Director.

On March 1st a slight tremor was recorded at Washington. On the same day Mrs. Hart took charge of affairs for the spring season.

If any one wishes to call a doctor; to lift a mortgage or to know the exact time when Sunday morning service begins, see Mrs. Spalding about it during the month of March.

Each one who heard Dr. Homan Wednesday evening wishes to hear him again, so he has very kindly consented to give a lecture on Friday, March 18th, at 8 o'clock in the Church School room. All who have never heard Dr. Homan, come and find out what they have missed—something intensely interesting. The Normal School Glee Club will take care of a part of the evening.

There are meetings of the Groups Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, as one may see who reads this bulletin. If any one wishes to work in all the Groups, come to all the meetings, then make it good measure and come to the Missionary meeting, Wednesday, the 9th, at 3 o'clock in the church parlors.

We are very much indebted to Dr. Homan for a very enjoyable evening Wednesday. The laboratory mental test was very edifying and greatly appreciated by all who watched it. Over an hour went by on wings.

REGULATIONS OF THE WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY.

The Women of Pilgrim Congregational Church meeting and working together, shall be known as "The Women's Assembly" of Pilgrim Congregational Church.

The Women's Assembly shall work according to the Calendar Plan.

Officers.

This Calendar Plan shall consist of twelve units, each unit named for one month of the year. Each unit shall have a director. Three of these units together shall constitute a group. Each group shall be named respectively, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter group. Each group shall have a supervisor.

The other officers of the Women's Assembly shall be President, Vice President, Secretary, Auditor and Corresponding Secretary. There shall be an Advisory Committee to confer and advise with the President upon request of that officer.

The Autumn Group shall meet the 1st Wednesday of each month.

The Winter Group shall meet the 1st Thursday of each month.
Each Unit shall meet at the request of its director.

The President shall call a meeting of the supervisor and her three directors immediately preceding their Season of active duty, to discuss the work of their Season. The three directors of any group shall constitute a committee with the supervisor of that group as chairman whenever the supervisor shall request.

The Advisory Committee shall meet at the request of the President.

All women joining Pilgrim Church and those women interested in the Church who so desire, shall be placed in a unit. If any unit loses members, that unit is considered first, as to placing new members. The President and Advisory Committee will assign the new members to the proper unit.

The Election of New Officers.

The nominating committee shall consist of one supervisor, as chairman, and four directors, all appointed by the President, to nominate President, Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Auditor.

The nominating committee shall nominate four supervisors from the twelve directors.

The nominating committee shall meet before the last meeting in January and report at that meeting.

The directors must be chosen by their units before the last meeting in February and reported at that meeting.

The Vice President shall be the person who was President the preceding year. When the new President assumes office, the outgoing President automatically becomes Vice President.

The Advisory Committee shall consist of the President, Vice President, the four past-supervisors of the previous year and the four new supervisors. Seven members shall constitute a quorum.

After the work of February is completed the four groups shall change places. (The Spring Group shall change to the Winter Group), (the Summer Group to the Spring Group), (the Autumn Group to the Summer Group) and (the Winter Group to the Autumn Group).

All officers shall hold office from last meeting in January until new officers are elected last meeting in January, year following.

Sunday January thirty
Nineteen hundred and twenty-one

Duluth Endeavorers will observe the fortieth anniversary of the founding of Christian Endeavor with a special convention to be held in Pilgrim Church Friday, Saturday and Sunday next.

The Associated Charities are desperately in need of a few "Good Neighbors". If you want to be of real help in the city just at this time see Miss Irma Richards in the Parlors at the close of this service.

The Duluth Herald and the Duluth News Tribune gave generous space to Anniversary news. Members of Pilgrim Church appreciate these courtesies and will try to pay their subscriptions more promptly.

The rules for beginning the game on Thursday evening are not quite the same as the rules covering Sunday morning. But there is a tendency toward confusion at this point. It is "anytime" Thursday evening.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Union will be held the last Wednesday in February (the 23rd). Until then the circles will remain as they are. A plan worked out in every detail for reorganization will be presented at this meeting. A luncheon for all the ladies of the church will be served. Mrs. Collins requests that all the ladies keep this date in mind and make their plans so as to be free February 23rd.

Names of the sick ought to be placed in the Information Boxes.
Mr. Sanford will talk about the origin of the Bible in the Men's Class this noon.
The district Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Pilgrim Church February 4-6, 1921.
The Reverend S. T. Willis of the First Christian Church speaks in Pilgrim Church next Sunday evening.
Read Ephesians 4:1-16 and Hebrews 11:39-40 for the Wednesday evening service you are planning to attend.
President E. A. Bess of Macalester College, St. Paul, speaks at the Endeavor convention in Pilgrim Church next Friday.
Extra copies of the Fiftieth Anniversary Historical Sketch may be had free of charge upon application to Mr. Sanford.
All young people are invited to the young people's meeting this evening at 6 o'clock. Supper will be served at the close.
Members of Pilgrim Church are invited to all sessions of the Christian Endeavor convention to be held here February 4-6, 1921.
Shortly you will be asked to give information for the new Address List of Pilgrim Church members. Be getting ready to be prompt.
Sally Finch, Elizabeth Adams, Frances Ann McCarthy, Bruce Scott and Noble Elderkin provide the supper for the Young People's meeting this evening.
Next week's bulletin will carry a story of the Fiftieth Anniversary written for the information of those who will handle the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary.
All the men of the congregation are invited to attend the meeting of the Men's Class today. Some aspects of the early history of the Bible will be discussed.
Miss Margaret Bradt, Field Secretary of the Minnesota Union, presides at the banquet to be given in Pilgrim Parish House next Friday evening. President Bess speaks.
All members of the Fiftieth Anniversary Group are asked to meet in the center of the church at the close of the morning's service. The meeting will be short and sweet.

"That this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

The Fellowship of Prayer—a calendar of daily devotions for the Lenten season—is on the table in the vestibule. It is hoped that all the copies will be put to use in Pilgrim homes.

The China Famine Fund is designed to help China over what is called the worst calamity in her history. Fifteen millions are facing death by starvation. Place your gifts in the Information Boxes today. One dollar will carry a person through a whole month.

The Fiftieth Anniversary Group and their fathers and mothers and husbands and wives will hold their first rally next Friday evening (February 11th) in the Parish House. Mrs. Frost heads the committee on refreshments and Dr. Wilson the committee on entertainment.

Such gifts as you may care to make toward the National Relief Fund for Chinese famine sufferers may be placed in the Information Boxes today. Conditions in China are very serious. President King of Oberlin, moderator of the National Council, asks that our churches share in the Fund.

It will be of general interest to know that Mrs. Nichols and her committees so managed the Anniversary Dinner that after charging but fifty cents for tickets and providing complimentary tickets to the Fiftieth Anniversary Group and the Charter Members there was a deficit of but $20.00.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Union will be held the last Wednesday in February (the 23rd). Until then the circles will remain as they are. A plan worked out in every detail for reorganization will be presented at this meeting. A luncheon for all the ladies of the church will be served.  preach. His subject is: "A DEFINITE PROVIDENTIAL PRO-GRAM FOR THE CHRISTIAN."

CHURCH NOTES

Lent begins Wednesday.
 Base Ball Thursday evening at 7:30.
 Easter Sunday is March 27th this year.
 "Christ Our Light" is Wednesday evening's topic.
 "With malice toward NONE, with charity for ALL."
 Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are home Monday evenings.
 All seats in Pilgrim church are free and unassigned.
 Read John 1:1-18 before coming Wednesday evening.
 The Boy Scouts meet every Tuesday evening in their rooms.
 Names of new people ought to be placed in the Information
 Boxes.
 Names of the sick ought to be placed in the Information
 Boxes.
 The Minister's Lenten Class for young folks will begin to meet shortly.
 Next Friday evening for all members of the Fiftieth Anniversary Group.

The first of the Lenten Wednesday evenings comes this week.
 The Girl Scouts meet every Wednesday afternoon in the Recreation Room.
 The Friends in Council have postponed their regular meeting until February 14.

An important meeting of the men in the Recreation Rooms
 Thursday evening at 7:30.
 A largely attended midweek service during Lent would mean a good deal to the church.

Rev. S. T. Willis of the First Christian Church will preach in this church at 7:45 o'clock tonight.

Miss Hegardt's Sunday School class will have a party in the Parish House Tuesday afternoon, February 15th.
 Join the Fellowship of Prayer during the Lenten season. Use the special booklet. On the table in the vestibule.

Extra copies of the Fiftieth Anniversary Historical Sketch may be had free of charge upon application to Mr. Sanford.
 Emerson said of Lincoln, "His heart was as great as the world but there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong."

The Men's Class meets this noon in the Study. Mr. Sanford continues his talk about the origin of the Bible. All men invited.
 Shortly you will be asked to give information for the new Address List of Pilgrim Church members. Be getting ready to be prompt.

The fame of our Ball Team is abroad in the land. Another church team has suggested a visit to their grounds. The matter grows serious.

All the men of the congregation are invited to attend the meeting of the Men's Class today. Some aspects of the early history of the Bible will be discussed.

The closing session of the Duluth District Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in Pilgrim Church this evening at 7:45. Mr. Willis of the First Christian Church is the speaker.
 Pilgrim Choir assists in the service.

The Pilgrim Masque Caste will be entertained at dinner by the Ladies' Union Friday, the 18th. If it is known that the turkeys for the occasion are coming all the way from North Dakota life may begin to take on new interest.

Anyone who feels that life will be incomplete without one of the Birthday Cake Boards used at the Anniversary ought to speak to Mr. Anderson, the janitor. Twenty-eight are available.
 It will be best to take a quarter along.

On a table in the vestibule are one hundred copies of a booklet designed especially for use during Lenten days. The life of the church will be much helped if one hundred families or individuals will join in the fellowship.

Boy Scout Week begins today and lasts through the week.
 The Fourth Annual Review and Inspection of Duluth Troops will be held in the Armory next Friday night at 8 o'clock. All interested are invited. No admission charge.

On the second Wednesday of each month the meeting of the women of Pilgrim Church will be given over to a series of studies in applied Christianity. The program for the next five months appears on the last page of this bulletin.

Perhaps leaders of church organizations will see that no arrangements are made for entertainments or social gatherings during Holy Week—March 20-27. It is expected that services will be held each evening during that week.

DULUTH, MINN.

"The Paper That Covers Two Cities Seven Days a Week."

We are mailing you this clipping from The Duluth

News Tribune of... February 11, 1921... because it is an announcement of interest to you. The circulation of the News Tribune is growing every day. Service of the greatest news-gathering organizations, special cables, and products of the greatest artists and special writers combine to make the News Tribune a complete metropolitan newspaper, the best for Duluth that money and enterprise can produce.

DULUTH CHURCH CITED AS MOST BEAUTIFUL IN WEST

"Front page" publicity is hard to obtain in any newspaper by any person or thing unless there is an exceptionally interesting story in connection with it to be told the public. With this concrete fact, the Pilgrim Congregational church can feel itself proud.

A "three column" cut of the structure accompanied by a column-length story telling of its modernness and architectural beauty appeared on "page one" of the "Congregationalist and Advance" in its issue of Feb. 2, according to Duluth subscribers. The paper is published in Boston, Mass. The Duluth church is referred to as one of the most beautiful in the central west.

Fiftieth Anniversary Group Entertainment at Pilgrim

Relatives and friends of the "Fiftieth Anniversary Group" of Pilgrim Congregational church will be guests at an entertainment this evening. The fiftieth anniversary group consists of seventy-nine new members of the church who became members on Jan. 16, the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the church. The program will include games and music. The games are arranged under the direction of Dr. C. M. Wilson and J. R. Batchelor. Musical numbers will include Violin solo by Miss Grace Currie. Mrs. Philip Frost is in charge of serving the refreshments.

Pilgrim Church Ball Team having whipped itself into the pink or red of condition journeys to the West Duluth "Y" next Thursday evening to play the team of the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The Congregationalist for February 3, 1921, carried on its front page a large picture of Pilgrim Church with ice and snow decorations. A column story about the church appeared in the same number.

Perhaps leaders of church organizations will see that no arrangements are made for entertainments or social gatherings during Holy Week—March 20-27. It is expected that services will be held each evening during that week.

A call has come for bandages to be used in our Congregational Hospital at Humacao, Porto Rico. Women of the congregation are asked to meet in the Parish House Wednesday at 2 P. M. Come prepared to work on surgical dressings.

"The Temple", a book of prayers by W. E. Orchard of London, used in last Wednesday evening's service can be secured from the Pilgrim Press, 19 West Jackson Street, Chicago. Rauschenbusch's "For God and the People"—prayers of the social awakening—can be secured from the Pilgrim Press also.

The Minister's Class for Pilgrim Young Folks will hold its first meeting next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the parlors of the church. All young people of the Church and Sunday School who are thinking of uniting with the Church Easter Sunday are asked to be present. Those who united with the Fiftieth Anniversary Group are asked to attend the class.

"No knowledge of ours is without some darkness."
Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are home Monday evenings.
All seats in Pilgrim church are free and unassigned.
New members will be received at the Easter Morning service.
"We are all frail but do thou esteem none more frail than thyself."
The Philathea Class spent last Sunday evening with Mrs. Hawkes.
A largely attended midweek service during Lent would mean a good deal to the church.
Remember the luncheon on the last Wednesday in February, the 23rd, for all women interested in this church.

Miss Hegardt's Sunday School class will have a party in the Parish House Tuesday afternoon, February 15th.

The Men's Class meets this noon in the Study. Mr. Sanford continues his talk about the origin of the Bible. All men invited.

The Information Boxes last Sunday yielded $133.29 for the China Famine Fund. This has been sent to the American Board.

W. R. Dougherty is captain of the ball team that meets Westminster next Thursday evening at the West Duluth "Y". Game at 7:45.

The history of Congregationalism in Minnesota which was expected off the presses December 1st is now promised for March 1st.

"If we have closed and barred the door of our hearts against unwelcome truth, may it steal back by secret paths and find its way within."

Mrs. Duncan McDonald is organizing the Church-time Kindergarten which meets in its first session today. Every Sunday at 10:30 o'clock.

A Church-time Kindergarten where children of parents who wish to attend the morning service may be cared for is holding its first session today.

Mrs. Hart and her committee provided dinner for 260 young people attending the Duluth District Christian Endeavor Convention Friday, February 4th.

Not enough copies of the "Fellowship of Prayer" booklet were provided last Sunday. Fifty extra copies are on the table in the vestibule this morning.

All the men of the congregation are invited to attend the meeting of the Men's Class today. Some aspects of the early history of the Bible will be discussed.

To begin in step and keep in step with all on and after February 23, do not miss hearing and seeing the reorganization plan. It is ready. It means a big change.

If any members of the church or congregation have hymn books at home they will be doing the community a service by loaning the books temporarily to the church.

The Standing Committee of the church will meet next Sunday morning at the close of service to confer with any who wish to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter morning.

The Philathea Class under the leadership of Mrs. Hawkes meets this noon in the south parlor. All young women of the congregation may be sure of a welcome.

All members of the Pilgrim Masque caste will want to remember that they reunite on Friday evening of this week. The turkey dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

More than one hundred people remained after the service last Sunday morning to discuss the lecture of S. S. McClure given the night before in the First Methodist Church.

On Wednesday, February 23rd, your president needs YOU! She must explain the reorganization plan to YOU!

Dr. T. B. Homan speaks at the service Wednesday evening. He speaks upon a subject to which he has given very careful attention, "The Municipal Value of a Psychological Clinic".

Edwin D. Field, since 1912 a deacon of Pilgrim Church, died very suddenly last Wednesday evening following an attack of pneumonia.

The young folks who joined Pilgrim Church January 16th are asked to meet the minister this afternoon at five. In the north parlor.

All men in the congregation will find themselves in the midst of an interesting discussion if they attend the men's class this noon in the study.

The Standing Committee will meet this noon in the north parlor to confer with any who wish to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday.

Anyone desiring a bound volume of last year's bulletins kindly drop name with request in the Information Boxes. The binding cost is $3.00.

Dr. Homan's talk at midweek service Wednesday last was packed with interesting information. Those who came through the storm were amply rewarded.

Pilgrim men took their famous ball team out to West Duluth last Thursday and learned more about the game from the men of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Samuel Huntington Boyer, Jr., and Kendall McClure, who were unable to be present Anniversary Sunday were welcomed into fellowship last Sunday morning.

The Philathea Class under the leadership of Mrs. Hawkes meets this noon in the south parlor. All young women of the congregation may be sure of a welcome.

Tell your friends who have little children in the home that Pilgrim Church maintains a Church-time kindergarten where their children will be cared for while they themselves are at church.

"In the morning fix thy good purpose; and at night examine thyself what thou hast done, how thou hast behaved thyself in word, deed and thought, for in these perhaps thou hast oftentimes offended both God and thy neighbor."

The Fiftieth Anniversary Group reunited on February 11th in rather hilarious fashion. Mr. Batchelor refused to let things lag for a single moment. Dr. Bondelid and his committees saw to it that everything else went along all right.

Perhaps leaders of church organizations will see that no arrangements are made for entertainments or social gatherings during Holy Week—March 20-27. It is expected that services will be held each evening during that week.

Pilgrim defeated Westminster Presbyterian Church Thursday evening on the West Duluth Y ball grounds. The score was 18 to 16. For the benefit of those who will want to know about the matter one hundred years from now it should be said that the victorious team was composed of Dougherty, R. E. TOPIC: "New Work Our Committees May Do." Rev. 3:7-13.
Leader, Charles Kerr. Music, Ethel Zachow.

CHURCH NOTES

Base Ball Thursday evening.

The Sunday School is growing.

The Boy Scouts meet Tuesday evening.

Come to the Wednesday evening meeting.

The Girl Scouts meet Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are home Monday evenings.

All seats in Pilgrim church are free and unassigned.

The hour of the luncheon Wednesday is 12:30, but come at 12:15 and visit.

The New Members committee will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the study.

Little children may be left in the Church-time Kindergarten during the morning service.

"None walks alone. We have for company the countless millions that we cannot see."

The victorious ball team will be on exhibition next Thursday evening on Pilgrim Church ball lot.

Mr. Sanford will sum up his previous talks on the Bible at the meeting of the men's class this noon.

Miss Reynolds and Miss Bates are helping Mrs. McDonald in the Church-time Kindergarten today.

A largely attended midweek service during Lent will mean much to the deeper life of the church.

There are some who have been misinformed regarding the time for beginning the morning service.

Maud Eveline Gillette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gillette, was baptised February 15th at a special service.

Luncheon next Wednesday, Feb. 23, for all women interested or who wish to become interested in Pilgrim Church.

If you letters are somewhere else and you plan to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday you ought to send for them today.

All members who are out of the city but who have had the organization plan explained to them are quite enthusiastic over it.

"Jesus the Lord of Life" is the topic for Wednesday evening's meeting. Read over pages 6 and 7 in the "Fellowship of Prayer".

The minister's class for young folks who plan to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday will meet at five o'clock this afternoon.

Don't forget that the hymn book which is blissfully reposing on your piano at home can do some honest work hereabouts Sundays.

CITY BRIEFS

Church Teams Will Clash

Women's basketball team will meet Pilgrim Congregational church on Thursday evening at the latter's gymnasium. This will be the second game between the two teams. Pilgrim has won the first contest, which was played at the West Duluth Y. M. C. A.

Observation of the Last Supper will take place at Pilgrim Congregational church at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

The March unit of the Women's Assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church will meet with Mrs. Noble S. Merwin, 1121 East First street, tomorrow at 7:30.

The church is planning to have a special service on the occasion of the church's anniversary. The service will be held on the evening of the anniversary and will be a most interesting and profitable one. Religious Director for Church

A director of religious education will be selected Wednesday night at a meeting of the congregation of Pilgrim Congregational church. Dr. Noble S. Elmerin, the pastor, returned Saturday from a trip to Chicago, where he interviewed several candidates. The majority of the congregation has voted to select a Chicago or New York man. The women's assembly has voted to raise a major part of the director's salary for the first year.

To the Parents of Children in Pilgrim Church Sunday School:

The Sunday School is the chiefest of Pilgrim Church's interests.

The most we can do there is little enough. We want to provide the best instruction and guidance available.

We are asking a young man who has been preparing himself as a Director of Religious Education to assume charge of all our young people's activities.

We are doing this for YOUR children. We feel that those whose children are in Pilgrim Sunday School will wish to have a special part in gathering the fund.

We have set as a minimum for the Easter Sunday offering $1000.

Will you not indicate your approval by a generous Easter gift?

AN EASTER OFFERING

In this envelope is to be placed such a gift as you care to make toward a special fund now being gathered to provide Pilgrim Church with a Director of Religious Education.

It is hoped that these envelopes when opened Easter Sunday will show that Pilgrim Church friends believe most heartily in the new future.

At least one thousand dollars ought to be raised now.

Bring this envelope to church next Sunday morning (10:30) or afternoon (3:00).

Or mail to Mrs. Willard B. Matter, 3009 East First Street.

DO

Please look upon this not as an extra appeal—which it does not wish to be—but as an opportunity to give larger effectiveness to your usual Easter gift.

Your check should be made payable to Mrs. Willard B. Matter, Treasurer. It may be sent to her at 3009 East First Street or placed in this envelope and sent—or better brought—to the church Easter Sunday morning or afternoon, where you will find a hearty welcome.

To the Womens' Assembly of
Pilgrim Congregational Church:

You who were at the February meeting know that the important work for the coming year is to provide funds for the employment of a religious director.

The trustees, following their usual custom, have given the Easter offering to the Womens' Assembly. The officers of the Assembly have voted to use this collection toward our big object of this year - a religious director.

Will you as a member of the Assembly make an earnest effort to see and talk to those who have an interest in Pilgrim Church providing for this splendid religious instruction for her children.

The larger we make this offering and the more interest you stimulate in the idea, by talking for it, the less will the Womens' Assembly need to do as a body toward completing the fund.

An envelope is enclosed for your convenience. All checks should be made payable to Mrs. Willard Matter, 3109 East First Street.

HERALD, FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1921.

March 19, 1921.

Pilgrim Congregational Church

Duluth, Minnesota

To Members and Friends of Pilgrim Church:

Three matters are mentioned in this letter.

I.

NEW MEMBERS.

Pilgrim Church needs 400 new members.

Within three years they must be found.

They will have to be recruited from those who believe in the things the church is trying to do. They cannot come from those who have no sympathy with the plans and purposes of the church.

The doors of Pilgrim Church are open to all those who care to share in the adventure of building a world that believes and trusts in the method and manner of Jesus.

Pilgrim Church refuses to quibble over detail and technicality. It seeks a spirit of life and an outlook upon life that will give us the new world of good will and brotherliness.

It summons all those who care to share in the enterprise of building such a world.

Custom and tradition within the church have provided a welcoming group which happens to be called the Standing Committee. This committee will meet next Sunday (March 20th) at noon to confer with the grown-ups and at one o'clock to confer with young folks from the Church School.

Your part is plain. Speak to someone who needs us and whom we need urging them to meet the Standing Committee next Sunday. That will make Easter a happier day for you.

Holy Week

—1921—

II.
THE NEW DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

He will have charge of all young people's activities in the Church.

He will manage and direct the Sunday School.

He will assist the leaders of our various scout organizations.

He will act as councillor to the Christian Endeavor Society.

He will be in charge of all recreational work in the Parish House.

He will be the minister of the Children's Church to be held Sunday morning.

He will have charge of the Daily Vacation Bible School in Pilgrim Church.

He will be instructor of various teacher training classes.

He will be our leader as we undertake to do everything our church ought to do for the young folks of the parish.

To provide for this new leader we shall need some extra money.

The Women's Assembly of the church are undertaking to gather this special fund.

It is hoped that at least $1000 will be raised Easter Sunday.

III.
THE PALM SUNDAY SERVICES.

In the morning promptly at ten thirty.

In the afternoon very promptly at five.

This vesper service will be a musical service. Pilgrim Choir will sing Dubois' "The Seven Last Words of Christ."

There are hosts of folks who do not go to church at any other time of the year.

Many of these folks may become permanently interested in Pilgrim Church through a single contact during Holy Week.

There are about six hundred of us.

Suppose we made it part of our business today and tomorrow to invite one person in an earnest and cordial way to the Palm Sunday Services.

Don't say anything about Easter now.

Let's work for the two services next Sunday.

And don't try to invite ten.

Work on ONE.

Make Sunday a banner Sunday.

Cordially,

NOBLE S. ELDERKIN.

March 18, 1921.

Pilgrim Congregational Church

Duluth, Minn.

To Members and Friends of Pilgrim Church:

The way in which you helped to build up attendance at the Palm Sunday services encourages me to ask your help again.

Will you not help to spread the news of the Holy Week services that have been arranged for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week?

The services will begin promptly at eight o'clock. Miss Rogers and our choir will help each evening. There will also be a brief sermon.

Wednesday of his last week Jesus spent with his friends in Bethany. It may help us to think a little about our modern Bethanys.

On Thursday evening of his last week Jesus sat at table with his disciples and talked with them of the new world yet to be built. It will help us to gather about His table.

On Friday evening of that last week the disciples must have heard from varied sources of the last words of their Master. It will help us also to hear those words. Pilgrim Choir will sing for us Dubois' "The Seven Last Words of Christ."

If you can attend only one service during the week will you not select the Thursday evening Communion Service? And feel free to invite any friends you think might care to share such an hour with us.

Pilgrim Church unites with the other churches of the city in the Three Hour Service from 12 until 3, Good Friday, at the First Methodist Church.

And if it is not asking too much I crave your help on Easter Sunday. I wonder if you realize how many people in our parish may be waiting for a personal invitation to our services. And perhaps that invitation will never reach them unless you give it. Coming once, they may come again.

At the morning service we shall welcome twenty-six new members into our fellowship. Quite a number are young folks to whom your greeting will mean a good deal. And perhaps the grown-ups will appreciate a word also.

At the five o'clock service Duluth Commandery No. 18 Knights Templar will attend in a body.

Miss Rogers and the choir have prepared very fine musical programs for both services.

Your Easter offerings have always been generous. The enclosed envelope urges the continuance of a good custom.

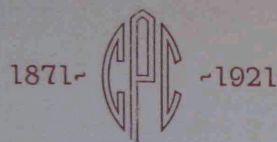

With every good wish.

It is generally supposed that they meant to get fifteen runs. It so happens they got nine which was not enough seeing that the Westminster Presbyterian folks got fifteen.  Was e'er sorrow like unto my sorrow?"

Tenor and Baritone Solos and Chorus.
 "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."
 "And the people clamored:
 'He is death-guilty, take him, take him,
 Let us crucify him!
 Be his blood, ay, be his blood on us then, and on our children!'"

Then they did crucify Jesus and the two thieves,
 One at His right hand, and the other at His left hand."

Baritone, Tenor and Soprano Solos and Chorus.
 "See, O woman, here behold thy son beloved."

"See, yon mother, bow'd in anguish,
 Who beside the cross doth languish,
 Where on high her son is borne;
 Is there mortal, who not feeleth
 To behold her where she kneeleth,
 So woeful, so woeful and all forlorn?"

Baritone Solo.

"God, my Father, why hast Thou forsaken me?"
 "All those who were my friends, all have now forsaken me, and they that hate me do now prevail against me; and he whom I have cherished, he hath betrayed me.
 Even the vine that I have chosen, and that I have planted;
 wherefore art thou now so strongly turned into bitterness, that I by thee am crucified?"

Tenor and Baritone Solos and Chorus.

"I am athirst!"
 "And the Jews then passing by him, all did rail upon him, and wagging their heads at him, they said unto him: 'Thou wouldst fain destroy the temple; if thou be Jesus, Son of the Father, now from the cross descend thou, that we behold it, and believe on thee when we behold it. If thou art King over Israel, save thyself, then!'"

Tenor Solo and Chorus.

"Father, into Thy hands I commend my soul."

Soprano, Tenor and Baritone Solos with Chorus.

"And with a loud voice Jesus cried, exclaiming: 'It is finished!'"

And He did bow His head, and rendered up His spirit.

And it was about the sixth hour; and the sun was darkened, and the darkness covered the earth, until about the ninth hour; and the veil of the temple was rent, and all the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent, and all the graves were opened wide."

Organ Interlude.

Prayer for Chorus:

"Christ, we do all adore Thee, and we do praise Thee forever; for on the holy cross hast thou the world from sin redeemed."

A CALL TO WORSHIP, "The Lord Is in His Holy Temple."

AN EASTER HYMN, No. 152. "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today."
Christ the Lord is risen today,
Sons of men and angels say;
Raise your joys and triumphs high,
Sing, ye heav'ns and earth reply.

Lives again our glorious King:
Where, O death, is now thy sting?
Dying once, he all doth save;
Where thy victory, O grave?

Soar we now, where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise,
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

Hail the Lord of earth and heaven!
Praise to thee by both be given:
Thee we greet triumphant now:
Hail, the Resurrection thou!

A HYMN, No. 474. "Jesus Thou Joy of Loving Hearts."
Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts,
Thou fount of life, thou light of men,
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
We turn unfilled to thee again.

Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on thee call;
To them that seek thee thou art good,
To them that find thee all in all.

Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest when our faith can hold thee fast.

CHURCH NOTES

There will be no Men's Class today.

Lost articles should be reported to Mr. Anderson.

All seats in Pilgrim church are free and unassigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are at home Monday evenings.

All are invited to the opening exercises of the Sunday School today.

"A man can avoid making up his mind but he cannot avoid making up his life."

Midweek service Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Topic, "Missionary Motives."

Pilgrim Choir will sing four special numbers at the Vesper Service this afternoon.

Regular meeting Women's Assembly, Wednesday, March 30th. Luncheon 12:30.

The April Church Night supper is planned for April 20th. The Es, Fs and Gs will have charge.

Pilgrim Church welcomes at the Vesper Service this afternoon Duluth Commandery No. 18, Knights Templar.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Avery have the sympathy of their new friends in Pilgrim Church in the loss of their firstborn.

Strangers at the service today are asked not to rush to final conclusions. Many things may not be to your liking. Come six times.

Little children will be cared for during the hour of the morning service in our Church-time kindergarten. Mrs. McDonald has charge.

To those worshiping with us for the first time we extend a very hearty greeting. Don't make up your mind about us today. Come six times.

All offerings today outside the regular duplex envelopes will find their way into a fund to provide Pilgrim Church with a Director of Religious Education.

On Friday, March 18th, the October Unit, Mrs. M. J. Gochey, Director, spent the afternoon at the Parish House sewing.

Dr. M. S. Rice of Detroit lectures on Ireland at the First Methodist Church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. His many friends in Pilgrim Church will wish to greet him.

Ionic Lodge No. 186, A. F. and A. M., and Keystone Chapter, No. 20, Royal Arch Masons, have through their officers accepted invitations to attend the Vesper Service this afternoon.

Pilgrim Church plays Westminster Presbyterian church next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the diamond of the West Duluth "Y". Those who plan to go should speak to Mr. Dougherty.

The March Unit thanks Dr. Homan and the Normal School Glee Club for the splendid entertainment of last Friday evening. $22.25 is thoroughly appreciated as the first contribution to its treasury.

A sort of social get-together afternoon was enjoyed by the May Unit at the home of the Director, Miss Simonds. All sorts of schemes, ways and means were discussed. This was Thursday, March 17th.

Mrs. F. D. Orr, Director of the September Unit, is out of the city for several weeks. Mrs. Colman, vice president, has charge of the Unit in the absence of Mrs. McGonagle, supervisor of the Autumn Group.

Those interested in the question of High School fraternities are invited to remain again today after the Vesper service for further discussion. It is hoped that young folks from the High School will express their point of view.

The men of the Duluth churches will lunch together Tuesday noon. Dr. M. S. Rice of Detroit will be the speaker. Pilgrim Church's share of tickets was bought up last Sunday. But Mr. Harry George may be able to secure a ticket for you. Speak to him.

Mrs. Elderkin entertained the March Unit at the Manse, Friday, March 18th. We gathered round a big pile of stockings from the Children's Home. They were all darned and returned that afternoon. Sixteen present enjoyed dainty, delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Field, Mrs. Newell, Mr. Blodgett, Mrs. McKenney, Mrs. Pearce, Mrs. Mitchell, Miss Paddock, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Boyington, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Northup and Mrs. Grochau are responsible for the attractiveness of the Church this Easter Day.

The attention of the Friends in Council has been called to the need of clothing for a family of six children of the following ages: Boys 7, 8, 9 and 10 years, girls 5 and 2 years. The mother is a widow and at present ill in a hospital. Any who care to give clothing call Douglas 62.

Has any one a name or names to add to the list of the Women's Assembly. Has any one a correction to make in a name—initials or address—already on the list? Extra lists will be printed after Easter and any corrections or additions can be made at that time if you speak to Mrs. Collins.

The March Unit, Mrs. George C. Spalding, Director, will have charge of the regular Wednesday meeting of The Women's Assembly, on Wednesday, March 30th. A luncheon will be served at 12:30. The arrangement of the tables will be according to the diagram plan, a table for each Unit—12 tables—3 Unit-tables to a group. So be in your place and aid in making your group lead in members present.

Overflow Crowds at Easter Services in All Parts of City.

Duluth's churches were unable to hold the thousands of worshipers yesterday who attended to hear the story of the resurrection.

Crowds that overflowed into aisles and halls and stairways packed the churches. Easter Sunday is always the best attended of any day in the year, but the crowds of yesterday were the largest ever known here.

Special Easter services were held in all churches. The musical programs were adapted for the occasion. More than 500 Duluthians joined the churches yesterday.

Even the stairs leading to the pulpit were occupied. Twenty-five babies were baptized and 100 members were received.

At Pilgrim Congregational church, 800 people were present in the morning, and almost 1,000 at vesper services when the Knights Templar were the guests. It was the largest attendance the since he came to Duluth, Dr. Noble Sch Elderkin said.

In the West end, Rev. Gudmund Kluxdal, pastor of the Zion Norwegian Lutheran, and Rev. Alfred Erikson, pastor of the First Swedish Baptist church, both declared that the greatest crowds in years attended services in all churches of the section.

Bishop G. G. Bennett spoke at Trinity cathedral in the morning and chairs had to be placed in the aisles to accommodate the throng.

ROBERT DRUMMOND, BASS

Sunday April three
Nineteen hundred and twenty-one

Mrs. McGonagle, the supervisor of the Autumn Group, has returned from her Western trip and wishes to welcome all members of her group at her home at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 6th.

At the midweek service April 13th Mr. Clyde Durgin, Director of the Associated Charities in Duluth will speak. Pilgrim Church's interest in every good work will provide Mr. Durgin with a large audience.

Mrs. St. John, Mrs. Field's sister, spoke of famine conditions in China at Wednesday evening's meeting. Pilgrim Church sent in the first contribution to the National Famine Fund from Duluth. But more will need to be done before long.

Duluth Commandery No. 18 Knight Templar—160 strong—attended Pilgrim Church's Easter Vesper service. Pilgrim Church does not easily forget the courtesies extended by the Masons when the congregation was without a church home.

An all day meeting of the Spring Group will be held at the Parish House on Friday, April 8th, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Zachow, Mrs. De Forest, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Whitmore are the hostesses. Come prepared to work on aprons. Every one of this group expected.

Mrs. Spalding served one hundred and ten with a delicious luncheon when the March Unit entertained The Women's Assembly last Wednesday. At the regular meeting which followed, it was voted to have a Fair this year. So each member don her thinking cap.

The attention of the Friends in Council has been called to the need of clothing for a family of six children of the following ages: Boys 7, 8, 9 and 10 years, girls 5 and 2 years. The mother is a widow and at present ill in a hospital. Any who care to give clothing call Douglas 62.

The Carleton College Glee Club, composed of twenty-two voices will give a very enjoyable concert in this church auditorium Thursday evening, April 7th, at 8:15 o'clock. After the concert there will be an informal reception in the Parish House, when all will have an opportunity to greet the young men.

Did you visit the Good Will Industries this week? Rev. Adair will tell more about it tomorrow night at the supper of the Friends in Council. Mrs. Adair will tell about the Free Clinic in connection with the movement. If you wish to engage a seat at the supper table see Miss Paddock or Miss Bowen after church this morning. The hour is 6:35. Come and hear more about this splendid movement.

Last Sunday's special offering amounted to $1,302.82. The plates in the morning carried $973.61 and in the afternoon $104.31. The Sunday School offering totaled $84.70. The special collection of the Knights Templar had $59.00 in it, while $81.20 came in through the mail. This does not include amounts in regular envelopes.

DR. ELDERKIN DISCUSSES BEST IN READING

Readers were singled into three distinct groups by Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church, when he addressed the monthly meeting of the Business Women's club at the Commercial club last night, namely, those who read for pleasure or entertainment, readers who seek information and those who strive for breadth of vision and viewpoint.

In discussing the art the speaker emphasized the importance of disregarding personal opinions or other influences working to destroy fair thinking, and put oneself in the atmosphere expressed in order to get the writer's point of view.

Particular reference was made to the high standard of excellency of The Herald's editorial page, shown in excerpts from standard works and world-renowned authors and generosity and fairness of the editorial policy.

Books recommended to put women in touch with progress in the world at large were those on the Interchurch movement, books dealing with the Russian situation, Harper's Weekly, the Freeman, Atlantic, Industry and others.

Carleton Glee Club Will Sing Thursday

Duluthians who enjoy hearing college glee clubs as well as alumni of Carleton college are especially interested in the announcement that the Carleton Glee club will give a concert in Pilgrim Congregational church Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The program follows:

"The Trumpeter," (Dix); "Absence" (Beck); "It Was a Lover and His Lass" (Engelsberg). Glee club; reading, selected, Mr. Robert Calderwood (of the Carleton faculty); "O Solo Mio" (De Capua); "Wait Till I Put on My Crown," (Reddick). Glee Club; reading, selected, Mr. Calderwood; College songs, Glee Club and Quartet; "The Americans Come" (Fay Foster), glee club.

DRAMATIC READER AT PILGRIM CHURCH CONCERT

ROBERT CALDERWOOD.

One of the interesting features of the Glee club concert to be given at the Pilgrim Congregational church on April 7 will be the readings and impersonations of Robert Calderwood, member of the Carleton college faculty. The Cincinnati Inquirer gives Mr. Calderwood credit for having "the keen sympathy and the dramatic instinct" that are necessary for character acting. The Indianapolis News speaks of his "insight into character" and his "poetic sympathy."

Mr. Calderwood is able to change abruptly from an old man to a little boy and is a master of dialects, gestures and facial expression. He has spent some time on the chautauqua circuits in the East and was everywhere enthusiastically received.

Besides Mr. Calderwood's numbers, the program will include the following: "The Trumpeter," "Absence," "It Was a Lover and His Lass," "O Solo Mio," "Wait Till I Put on My Crown" and "The Americans Come" by the Glee club and a group of college songs by the quartet with Glee club accompaniment.

Robert Calderwood, Reader and Impersonator

THE success of the Carleton Glee Club in the past has been largely due to the readers appearing on its programs. Mr. Robert Calderwood, a member of the Carleton faculty, will again accompany the club on the spring tour. His selections last year were most enthusiastically received, and the club is fortunate in having him as one of its members. His experience on the platform in lyceum and chautauqua courses guarantees that his part of the program will be worth while.

Mr. Calderwood's part of the evening was a delight. Essentially a "character" actor, he has the keen sympathy and the dramatic instinct that would make him one of the best actors of that type on the stage.—Cincinnati Inquirer.

"He has a most mature insight into character and a most poetic sympathy."—Indianapolis News.

Edmund Sereno Ender Director

MR. Edmund Sereno Ender, who has had extensive experience with such organizations, is personally directing the Glee Club. His ability has been shown in his previous work with the Glee Club at South Dakota State College, and in his long association with the Apollo Club of Minneapolis.

"Mr. Edmund S. Ender of the school of music, director of the club, came in for considerable favorable comment as a result of the pleasing manner in which he conducted the chorus and because of the evidence of the painstaking work shown in the work of the organization."

Announcement

TWENTY-FIVE years ago the first Glee Club was organized at Carleton College for the purpose of cultivating part singing and for the development of the appreciation of good music written for male voices.

In its twenty-four previous tours the club has made for itself a reputation of which it is justly proud. As the school has grown larger the material has become more plentiful for such an organization, and this year the club is well prepared to live up to its reputation.

A program consisting of a pleasing variety of numbers has been arranged. High class musical selections, old time college features, modern college melodies, popular songs, and readings are all included, so a concert by the Carleton College Glee Club is really more than a mere entertainment.

The twenty members of the club have been carefully chosen and trained to assure proper balance of parts and purity of tone.

It is with great pleasure, therefore, that the management offers to your community an organization of unusual quality, and which for twenty-four years has never failed to make good.

Minnesota Press Comments

"A capacity audience greeted the club at their appearance, and a more enthusiastic audience could not be found."—Mankato Daily Free Press.

"Well balanced in its ensemble, delightful in its spirit and finished in its execution, the Carleton Glee Club compares favorably with the best of similar organizations."—Wabasha Standard.

"In every number their attacks and phrasing were even and there was a general precision about the singing that showed excellent training."—Fairmont Sentinel.

"The Northfield chorus proved to be unusually well balanced in its organization, fortunate in its talent and finished in its execution, comparing favorably with the best in college glee clubs in the middle west and northwest."—Winona Republican.

"There has been nothing in Faribault this season which an audience enjoyed more than did the big crowd which heard the Carleton College Glee Club at the High School last night."—Faribault News-Republican.

"There was a purity of intonation and a clear strength of four-part harmony."—Minneapolis Journal.

Carleton College Glee Club Gives Concert in Church

A capacity audience which attended the Carleton College Glee club concert last evening in Pilgrim Congregational church heard all the clever songs for which college glee clubs are famous and was given a rare treat in a group of organ numbers not announced on the program, played by Edmund Ender, director.

A quartette of voices that blended unusually well was enthusiastically received. A banjo song in which the tenor imitated the strumming of a banjo was especially pleasing.

Mr. Calderwood of the Carleton faculty gave several interesting readings, his best being one in which he impersonated old Scrooge who was unhappy on Christmas eve.

"The Grand March" from Aida, played by Mr. Ender, brought out the rich tones of the church organ, which is considered one of the best in the city.

The Glee club was repeatedly honored for its college songs. "Wait Till I Put On My Crown," a negro melody with marked rhythm, was a tuneful number. Larry Krause proved a capable accompanist.

Following the concert a reception was held in the parlors of the church for the alumni and former students of Carleton college and their friends.

Carleton College Glee Club Gives Program of Clever Songs

A capacity audience crowded Pilgrim Congregational church last night when the Glee club from Carleton college entertained with a most refreshing program. College songs always have a certain distinct charm and proved especially popular last night. The time-worn stereotyped form of concert was discarded and the boys carried away the crowd with groups of old harmonious melodies. A quartet of well-blended voices won much applause on its banjo song in which the tenor imitated the strumming of a banjo. During the evening Mr. Calderwood of the college faculty gave several dramatic readings of merit and Edmund Ender, the director, played a number of selections on the organ. He played "The Grand March" from "Aida" especially well.

The evening's musicals carried the older people back to the days when they were collegians and were gaily singing the same songs, and younger boys and girls who have not yet experienced the thrill of college were given a peep at college spirit and good times through the medium of college tunes and melodies.

Messrs. H. L. George, P. J. Frost, W. S. Horr and Maurice Hart will be in the foyer at the close of service today to help you to tickets for the April Church Night Supper. No tickets procurable after the 17th.

The two beautiful ferns which decorate the pulpit are gifts to Pilgrim Church from Mr. G. E. MacComber of Combercroft Nurseries. This gift was very much needed and is thoroughly appreciated by all.

The midweek meeting Wednesday will be held in the Sunday School room. Mr. Durgin speaks. He knows a lot of things Pilgrim Church folks want to know about. Look upon this notice as a personal invitation.

At the midweek service April 13th Mr. Clyde Durgin, Director of the Associated Charities in Duluth will speak. Pilgrim Church's interest in every good work will provide Mr. Durgin with a large audience.

Thirty-one of the Summer Group enjoyed an afternoon of sewing for the Associated Charities at Mrs. T. J. Davis' Tuesday last. Those who were not present at this meeting will finish the garments before the next meeting.

The women of Pilgrim Congregational Church will meet on Wednesday at 3 P. M. in the Parish House for the Study of Applied Christianity. The following is the program: Devotional Service, Mrs. H. I. Pinneo; Current Events, Mrs. W. R. Dougherty. Work of the International Institute at Gary will be presented by one of the workers. Hostesses, Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Hawkes.

Pilgrim Church might not have held the respectable end of the 14 to 10 score if a Kind Providence had not sent N. J. Pearce into the gallery of the West Duluth Y Thursday, March 31st. What the Westminster Presbyterian folks think about that sort of gallery contrivance cannot be printed in anything going through the Huntley presses. But Messrs. Dougherty, R. E. Johnson, Colton, Scott, Favor, Russell Duncan, Halsey, McGonagle, Crawford and Prisk tremble when they realize in what deep disgrace they might have been held for all time in Pilgrim history if a man named Pearce had gone to Cloquet that night. The victorious team will be present in their uniforms at the April Church Night Supper.

Nearly 700 fortunate folks heard the fine aggregation from Carleton College Thursday evening when they gave their twenty-first concert on their twenty-fifth annual glee club tour. The Commercial Club was host to the young men at luncheon after which the Glee Club rendered a few numbers. The Glee Club gave generously of their voices by singing at Denfeld High, Lincoln Junior and Central High Schools during the afternoon. Those who had the concert in charge desire to thank the members of the congregation who so kindly gave the use of their automobiles and who opened their homes for the entertainment of our visitors. A detailed statement showing the financial success of the concert will be given in next week's bulletin.

Not only was the Carleton Glee Club Concert a rare musical treat well enjoyed, but it was also a social and financial success, due almost entirely to the splendid work of Mrs. Philip J. Frost, who had full charge of all details.

Women's Assembly, Wednesday, April 27th, 2:05 P. M.
The men of the Duluth Churches lunch together next Tuesday noon at the City "Y". Pilgrim Church's twenty tickets (50 cents each) are in the hands of Mr. George who will be in the foyer at the close of service today.

The information Boxes contained $79.00 last Sunday as a second Pilgrim Church offering for the China Famine Fund. Contributions may be deposited in the Information Boxes until June first. They should be properly marked.

Mr. F. L. Berkheimer assumed charge of the Sunday School last Sunday. A record attendance for the year greeted him. From now on there is to be no let up until we have 500 in attendance every Sunday. And then we won't stop.

Pilgrim men met last Wednesday and appointed Messrs Sanford, Arndt and Wallace a committee to draft plans for an organization. The report next Sunday at the close of service should be heard by all the men of the congregation.

Each member of the May Unit is requested to meet at the home of Mrs. David Davis, 1518 1/2 Jefferson St., at 2:30 Monday afternoon, April 25th. Mrs. Simonds, the director, wishes to discuss and plan with her Unit for their work during May.

Many were interested last Sunday in the old Luther Bible which Mr. Grochau allowed us to inspect. It was printed in Wittenberg in 1589. The wood cuts bear dates from 1550 to 1558. Family records from 1621 to the present time have been kept in it.

The committees in charge of Church Night deserve a good deal of praise for the fine way in which they managed the whole evening. The group conferences actually happened and the short reports at the general meeting which closed the evening fairly dripped with encouragement. But best of all were the fine talks by Mrs. C. E. Adams announcing the Y. W. C. A. campaign and Miss Bertha Hanford concerning the Lighthouse.

The principal event of the coming week, is the May Day Tea, given by the Winter Group, Mrs. Paddock, supervisor, at the Lighthouse for the Blind, on Friday, April 29th. Mrs. R. W. Northrup, Mrs. Albert Baldwin, Miss Christine Johnson, and Mrs. Oscar Boyles, are the general committee for the tea. Mrs. C. A. Duncan has charge of the May Baskets, which are to be filled with flowers generously donated by the Duluth florists, and which are to be on sale all day Friday. Mrs. Hadden has charge of the decorating of the room for the tea. Hostesses will be in charge of the tea tables, and an excellent program will be given during the afternoon. The blind workers are to be our guests, and the entire proceeds of the tea and May basket sale, are to go to the Light House. There will be no admission charged, but a silver offering will be taken. Come and bring your friends.

The regular April meeting of the Women's Assembly will be held at five minutes past two the afternoon of Wednesday, April twenty-seventh. Pleasant work for all will be provided in the church parlors. Members of the April Unit will serve tea.

The midwives who are receiving more than $100,000 in aid from the church will be in town, at the home of Mrs. Scott, to receive their church-organized efforts for several days this Saturday. The church will be happy to campaign for the famine, and will be interested in funds that will appear in the next few days and again at the famine fund. The several churches, including the Lutheran, Methodist, Episcopal, and others, are holding a campaign for the famine fund. The church will be interested in funds that will appear in the next few days and again at the famine fund. The church will be interested in funds that will appear in the next few days and again at the famine fund.

TAG DAY FOR RELIEF WORK

Saturday will be tag day for the China famine relief fund and the Near East relief.

Women chairmen representing the largest churches in the city developed their plans at a meeting this morning at the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. H. Y. Josephs will be in charge.

The tag day work will continue from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., along Superior street. Booths will be set up in the leading department stores and other central points, to receive more substantial subscriptions.

Large Sum Already In.
W. L. Smithies, executive secretary, reported today that $12,537.04 has already been contributed, while money keeps pouring in daily at the office of Bishop J. T. McNicholas. It was stated that more than $7,000 had been collected and sent to the starving people of China, Ireland and Austria. Both agencies will continue to receive subscriptions.

Speakers already obtained for tag day and their assignments are as follows: Mason Forbes, Spaulding hotel and Congress cafe; George M. Peterson, St. Louis hotel; George D. McCarthy, Glass Block; J. R. Batecher, Miller's cafe; J. L. Prince, Commercial club, and A. A. Farrington, Baltimore lunch. Booths will be set up at the Union depot, courthouse, postoffice, Spaulding hotel, St. Louis hotel, the Glass Block store, George A. Gray's, Silberstein & Bondy's, J. Freimuth's and the electrical exposition.

The women present at the conference this morning drew lots for assignments. Committee chairmen, the churches they represent and their stations will be as follows:

Captains Appointed.
 Mr. H. H. Harolinson, Trinity cathedral, Montclair, N. J., is to be assigned to St. Paul's Episcopal station; to be assigned; Mrs. J. A. Changes of address should be placed in the Information Boxes so that Maurice Hart may keep the addressograph records correct.

Mr. Paul Favor retires from the superintendency of the Sunday School today after very faithful service. He is succeeded by Mr. F. L. Berkheiser.

Today is the 400th anniversary of Luther's appearance before the Diet of Worms and is being observed quite generally throughout the Church.

At Spring Park, Lake Minnetonka, July 12 to 19 the first Congregational Camp and Training School is to be held. Pilgrim Church ought to be well represented. Those interested in young people's work as well as the young people themselves will find a welcome and much help. Twelve dollars will pay for board and room and registration.

The Information Boxes are open today for such gifts as you may care to make toward the Chinese Famine Fund and the Near East Relief Fund. In February Pilgrim Church contributed a small sum. There is still very great need. Duluth has organized a special committee which offers to see that your gifts are sent forward as speedily as possible and to those places where they will do the most good.

On Friday, the 29th of April—save the day and tell your friends—the Winter Group will give a May Day Tea at the Lighthouse for the Blind. Home made candy and May baskets will be for sale, and an excellent program has been arranged. As all the proceeds of the tea and sales will be given to the Lighthouse and as the tea is to be an entertainment for the blind workers who will be our guests, we hope that everyone will come, and make the tea the success it should be.

LIGHT.

As long as there are glasses that are dark—
And there are many—we see darkly through them;
All which have I conceded and set down
In words that have no shadow. What is dark
Is dark, and we may not say otherwise;
Yet what may be as dark as a lost fire
For one of us, may still be for another
A coming gleam across the gulf of ages,
And a way home from shipwreck to the shore;
And so, through pangs and ill and desperations,
There may be light for all. There shall be light.

—Edwin Arlington Robinson.

We would willingly have others perfect, and yet we amend not our own faults. We would have others severely corrected, and will not be corrected ourselves. The large liberty of others displeaseth us, and yet we will not have our desires denied us. We will have others kept by strict laws, but in no sort will ourselves be restrained. And thus it appeareth how seldom we weigh our neighbor in the same balance with ourselves.

—Thomas a Kempis.

Entire proceeds of the tea to be given by the women of the Pilgrim church at the Lighthouse will go to the Lighthouse fund. An interesting feature will be the May baskets that will be on sale under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Duncan. The baskets are made of willow and are most generous in donations. Flowers for some of the baskets will go to the sale of the Lighthouse fund that provides for hospital service to the very poor.

There will be no admission charged. But a silver offering will be asked for at the tables. During the afternoon a musical program will be rendered by a trio consisting of Mrs. Harry George, flutist; Mrs. Bruce Ter Bush, violinist; Miss Mildred Evans will sing; also Miss Myrtle Hobbs, soprano, will offer a group. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Albert Baldwin, Miss Christine Johnson, Mrs. Oscar M. Boyles and Johnson, Mrs. W. Northrup, the hostess. Mrs. R. W. Faddock, Mrs. E. A. Grochow, Mrs. H. Moe, E. A. Grochow, Mrs. E. J. Collins, Mrs. S. Elderkin and E. J. Collins.

DULUTH SOCIAL CALENDAR IS CROWDED WITH BENEFITS WHICH RIVAL DAYS OF WAR

May Festival for Lighthouse, Theater Night for Students, China Relief Program, Included in Events During Next Six Days.

No one week since the close of the war has been crammed with so many delightful social events which, at the same time, have been arranged with the idea of serving as a benefit for some worthy cause, as will be the next six days.

It has been the custom for the workers at the Lighthouse to call Friday "open house day." This week, Friday, the workers themselves will be guests of the winter group of the women's assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church, from 2 to 6 p. m. at a tea, the entire proceeds of which will go to the Lighthouse work.

Tyler has been established for the Lighthouse a "friendly fund" for the purpose of giving hospital service to the poor blind and for this fund there will be a sale of May baskets under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Duncan. There will be 50 baskets in the collection, some filled with flowers donated by Duluth florists, others filled with homemade candies. These will be on sale during the morning hours as well as at the tea. A silver offering to be taken at the tea will go into the general fund of the Lighthouse.

A trio consisting of piano, flute and violin, by Mrs. Leonard Bradley, Harry George and Bruce Ter Bush will give a musical program. Miss Mildred Evans will entertain with a reading. No admission will be charged. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Miss E. L. Faddock, Edward Burg, Benjamin Finch, R. E. Johnson, A. H. Moe, E. A. Grochow, Noble S. Elderkin and E. J. Collins. Mrs. Albert Baldwin, Miss Christine Johnson, Mrs. Oscar Boyles and Mrs. R. W. Northrup are members of the general committee in charge of the affair.

A May day tea will be given next Friday afternoon at the Lighthouse by the winter group of the Pilgrim Congregational church. The proceeds will go to the Lighthouse fund and afternoon.

A SUM OF $100.00 the proceeds realized from the May basket sale and was handed over to the Lighthouse committee yesterday by Mrs. L. E. Faddock, supervisor of the winter group of the women's assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church.

Benefit Concert for Blind to Be Given at Lighthouse Tea

A musical program will be given this afternoon at the Lighthouse. The women's assembly of the Pilgrim Congregational church will hold a tea for the workers and friends of the Lighthouse.

May baskets prepared under direction of Mrs. C. A. Duncan will be on sale and the proceeds together with the silver offering to be taken at the tea will go to the "friendly fund" which provides hospital service for the blind.

Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. E. Finch, R. E. Johnson, A. H. Moe, E. A. Grochow, Noble S. Elderkin and E. J. Collins. Miss Mildred Evans will give a reading and the musical program is as follows:

"Before the Lights Are Lit" (Branscombe); "Deep in the Heart of Me" (Wells); "Lindy" (Neidlinger); "The Cuckoo Clock" (Grant-Schaefer); Miss Hobbs; "Chinese Mother Goose Rhymes" (Bainbridge); "What the Old O'Neil" (Nevin); "Of What Use Is a Girl" (Miss Hobbs, accompaniment); Mrs. McKinley; "Love Song" (Nevin); "Panquiti" (Spanish serenade, Mrs. George, flute); Mrs. Ter Bush, cello; Mrs. Grisley, piano.

ONE OF CITY'S OLDEST RESIDENTS SUCCUMBS

One of the oldest residents of Duluth, Mrs. Sarah F. Stewart of 703 East Third street, succumbed to the ills of old age this morning at her home. She had just reached the age of 82 years, of which forty-three had been spent in Duluth. She was well known in Duluth, having been active in women's clubs and church work for many years. She was one of the original members of Pilgrim Congregational church, and the funeral will be held from there tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Noble S. Elderkin, the pastor, conducting the services.

Mrs. Stewart was born in New Hampshire. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and an honorary member of the local chapter of the Association of College Alumnae, having been affiliated with Knox college and Mount Holyoke academy. She is survived by her grand-daughter, Miss Winifred Warner. The late Dr. Charles Stewart was her stepson.

Sunday May one
Nineteen hundred and twenty-one

We have a brand new set of ushers today. Barring accidents Messrs Manley, Dunning, Gordon, Hegardt and Blodgett will see that Pilgrim folks do not overcrowd the front pews the next three months.

The National Council meets in Los Angeles, July 1-8. In case any member of Pilgrim Church plans to be west at that time Duluth Association would like to ask such to represent this section of Minnesota.

Pilgrim men met last Wednesday and appointed Messrs Sanford, Arndt and Wallace a committee to draft plans for an organization. The report today at the close of service should be heard by all the men of the congregation.

Messrs Sanford, Arndt and Wallace have been doing some heavy thinking and have reached the stage where they have to talk. They order every man in the congregation to wait after service today to hear them talk. Forward in the center.

Pilgrim Church is entitled to five representatives at the State Conference. Unless the larger churches take an interest in these gatherings the smaller churches cannot be expected to. Pilgrim as the second church in the state ought to help set an example.

Messrs Prisk, McGonagle, Crawford, Halsey, Russell Duncan, George, Ashley, Blodgett and Daugherty ran around the bases of the City "Y" diamond 19 times while the team that represented St. John's English Lutheran Church tired with 10 trips. This all happened when April was but 22 days old.

The following are to be received into the fellowship of Pilgrim Church at the morning service:

THE SET OF THE SOUL.

One ship drives east and another drives west,
With the self-same winds that blow;
'Tis the set of the sail and not the gale
Which tell us the way to go.

Like the winds of the sea are the ways of Fate,
As we voyage along through life;
'Tis the set of the soul that decides the goal,
And not the storm or the strife.

CHURCH NOTES

Base Ball Thursday evening.

June 5th is Children's Day this year.

Don't miss the next Vesper Service—May 29th.

Mr Mattocks has charge of the group conferences May 25th.

Mrs. Martin heads the Reception Committee next Church Night.

The Information Boxes yielded $70 last Sunday for the China Famine Fund. They are still open for that Fund.

The storm Wednesday evening did considerable damage to the prayer meeting.

The next Church Night will occur May 25th. The letters J K L and M will worry.

Heads of Sunday School departments meet at the parsonage Monday evening at 7:45.

Frank W. Falk and Miss Louise Frick were married in Pasadena California, March 16th.

Delegates to the State Conference at Winona, May 17-19 will be elected Wednesday evening.

The Minnesota State Conference of Congregational Churches meets the Winona Church May 17-19.

Fifty new hymn books are needed. Speak to Mrs. Frost if you are minded to place a copy or two in your pew.

Mrs. Jenks and Miss Moody will see that the Church Night dinner is what it ought to be. Both belong to the Anti-Opium Union.

The Kindergarten Department has had to buy new chairs. Which may indicate how one section of our Sunday School is growing.

Little children will be cared for during the hour of the morning service in our Church-time kindergarten. Mrs. Macdonald has charge.

Dr. Carl G. Storberg and Miss Edith A. Curtis were married at the home of the bride, April 26th. Both are members of Pilgrim Church.

Martha McGonagle is the new member of the Sargent McGonagle family. She will observe April 22nd as her birthday from now on.

The Wednesday evening service will be given over to Sunday School matters. Teachers and officers are asked to note the appointment. Promptly at eight.

Messrs C. W. Hadden, E. G. Chapman and C. W. Ericson are a committee to select delegates to the State Conference which is being held this year at Winona, May 17-19.

Honoring Miss Ella Roe, who leaves this week for Europe, a delightful time was enjoyed by Friends in Council, on evening of April 30, at the home of Miss Jean Thompson.

- PROLOGUE -

Since that fateful luncheon on the 9th of March,
My brain has become fagged, my very throat parched,
I've struggled and struggled my gifts to turn
A fruitful way my dollar to earn.

Perhaps my actions may win your praise,
Perhaps your blame to the end of my days,
So I plead for charity e'er I start
And trust for response in all your hearts.

Perhaps you have done this very same thing
For the very same reason your conscience may sting
And you can picture a similar scene
And for just as good a cause, I ween.

To earn - just means - a will to possess -
A few words will tell you about the rest.
The time - the place - the girl ('twas me)
Midnight - my boudoir - the rest, you shall see.

How to possess a $1 - Interrogation
How to do it - meditation
Up from my couch - inspiration
My husband's vest pocket - examination
A neat folded bill - exultation
A sense of duty, well done - relaxation
In the arms of Morpheus - capitulation.

The morning after - machination
To interest my spouse my - salvation
With artful phrase and - adulation
In willing ears pour my - admiration
Till he's so puffed up in his - estimation
He thinks he's the lord of all - creation
A hurried good-bye and - osculation.

Ache walks to the car - rumination
Of his charming help-meet - appreciation
Feeling his vest-pocket - hesitation
A car whizzes by - agitation
Back to his home - indignation
Addressing his wife - insinuation
Her guilty face - revelation
----- - peroration
The rest I shall leave to your - imagination
But here's the dollar and my - explanation.

Plans about earning dollars.

J.H.

HOW I EARNED MY DOLLAR.

I dreamed a dream in the midst of my slumbers,
And as fast as I dreamed it, it seemed to run into numbers;
My one dollar so quickly I earned, I became avaricious
And for more dollars I yearned; "Oh Boy" the shock I received
When I awoke and found it was only a dream.

So to "tell the world" what I could do I made up my mind was the course to pursue, and this is what I said:-
Dimes for rhymes, rhymes for dimes, I'll write you good rhymes for dimes; china painting is in my line; I can dress my ladies hair right fine; I can daub in oils, point lace I can make,
Oh, I am an artist there's no mistake; cakes I can bake, likewise doughnuts make; and darn a stocking that to a critic would not be shocking.

In drawwork with the Mexican I'll compete and at bead work the Indian I'll beat. Of my versatile talents why enumerate me more if to earn a paltry dollar none will help me put it o'er.

However one kind soul listened and gave me a nickle plus two dimes, when I wrote for her, her rhymes.

Then for manouring a gentleman's nails, a nickle and two more dimes with joy I hailed.

I have also made doughnuts galore and sold them by the score.

A penny saved is a penny earned, so my own shoes I shined Thereby saving a nickle and a dime, but I did not need my shoes to shine, for I had already earned more than my ten dimes.

Long, long ago old Father time and I started on a race.

Despite a good start, which he promised to give me, he wagered a dollar that he would win. I skipped off ever so merrily determined to down the old braggart and to win that dollar. He nearly caught me a number of times, but I still held my own, and I laughed as I heard him wheeze and puff when he called, "Hold on there, here's your dollar". I took the well earned dollar and I am happy to hand it over to the "Winter Circle". -

Mrs. C. J. Rachmuth

S. A. E.

Just earn one dollar--that seems so small
If you're going to earn any money at all,
But I found it hard work to sell my skill
For anything like a dollar bill.

Three weeks went by and the days were spent
And I had earned not a single cent.
We soon would be meeting to give account
Of the way we each raised this small amount.

When out at Assembly lunch one day
I chanced to hear Mrs. Johnson say
She had earned her dollar and lots more too
Making doughnuts for the folks she knew.

I came right home and called up a few
Who liked my cakes and would buy I knew.
I sold two dozen that very first day
And I thought that scheme was going to pay.

They said my doughnuts could not be beaten-
That they were the best they ever had eaten-
But they never asked me to bake any more
And I only made seventy cents to score.

My Husband grinds scissors and knives for the neighbors
And I turn the grindstone to lighten his labors.
He never asks for one cent of pay
But I can't afford to do that way.

HOW I EARNED MY DOLLAR.

To earn a dollar or not to earn a dollar was not the question, but how to earn a dollar.

Straightway I decided a to-be serial artist I'd be and to friend husband did say: "Sir, for twenty five cents per, I'll relieve the back of your neck from the hair that grows there by the peck.

Friend husband replied; "If you will tell the ladies how t'was done, I'll pay you the money to swell your fund".

So without further concern my dollar was earned.

Mrs. J. L. Crawford.

Just earn one dollar--that seems so small
If you're going to earn any money at all,
But I found it hard work to sell my skill
For anything like a dollar bill.

Three weeks went by and the days were spent
And I had earned not a single cent.

My Husband grinds scissors and knives for the neighbors
And I turn the grindstone to lighten his labors.
He never asks for one cent of pay
But I can't afford to do that way.
He trusts they'll play even one by one.
I got a quarter for what I'd done.

I walked up town twice to save a dime
But my conscience troubled me all the time
And I'd rather hang on to the gates or a strap
Than try to save money by a mean trick like that-
For we're told the Street Railway must make or break
And we feel we must give all the nickels they'll take.

Just to earn one dollar--it proved quite a worry
And before 'twas all in I was quite in a flurry-
But here is the dollar I earned for the Aid
And a true account of the way it was made.

The entertainment given by the Girl Scouts May 6th yielded $62.00 toward the China Famine Fund. The girls appreciate the help given them by Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. E. G. Harbison, Mrs. B. F. Davis, and the scout leaders Miss Elwell and Miss Hegardt.

Pilgrim Church is entitled to five representatives at the State Conference. Unless the larger churches take an interest in these gatherings the smaller churches cannot be expected to. Pilgrim as the second church in the state ought to help set an example.

Miss Moody has built up the machinery for the biggest and best of all Church Nights. When the inside story of what is going to be on the table that night gets out the 400 available tickets will not be enough. Folks that are wise beyond their years will get their tickets today.

Messrs. Howard Manley, Willard Matter, Brewer Mattocks 3rd and H. U. Moore are the men you will want to see at the close of the service. They will be in the vestibule with tickets for the May Church Night dinner. Don't put the matter off until next Sunday. The 400 tickets may be gone. Fifty cents.

Hadley's ode "The New Earth" will be sung by the choir of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening May 17 (8 p. m.) at that church. No admission charge. Every one invited.

Mrs. Sarah F. Stewart, since 1891 a member of Pilgrim Church, died Friday morning at four o'clock. The service was held yesterday afternoon from the church. A fuller mention of her long and useful life will be made in next Sunday's Bulletin.

A concert will be given at Pilgrim Church, Monday, May 16th, at 8:15 o'clock. The proceeds of this concert will be applied on furnishings for the beautiful new Afterno Home for the Aged which is located just above the boulevard and east of Chester Park. Those who have kindly donated their services toward this benefit are the Cantave Quartette, Valborg Finkelson, Violinist; Agnes Johnson Sprecht, Reader; Ruth Alta Rogers, Organist; Robert Drummond, Baritone. Accompanists Gudrun Thrana and Miriam Virginia Smith. Admission 50 cents.

Forenoon and afternoon and night—forenoon,
And afternoon, and night—

Forenoon, and—what!
the empty song repeats itself. No more?
Yea, that is Life: Make this forenoon sublime,
This afternoon a psalm, this night a prayer,
And time is conquered, and thy crown is won.

CHURCH NOTES

Base Ball Thursday evening.
 If you have moved the clerk ought to know it.
 Don't miss the next Vesper Service—May 29th.
 Mr Mattocks has charge of the group conferences May 25th.
 Mrs. Martin heads the Reception Committee next Church Night.
 New members received at the last communion service will be guests Church Night.
 Those who have helped to clear the lot east of the church will eventually receive their reward.
 Little children may be presented for baptism Children's Day June 5th. Speak to the deacons or the minister.
 Mr. Hart, chairman of the house committee, will answer all inquiries regarding the use of Pilgrim Church, for meetings or gatherings by outside organizations.
 Little children will be cared for during the hour of the morning service in our Church-time kindergarten. Mrs. Macdonald has charge.
 Items for next Sunday's Bulletin should be sent to Mr. Huntley, 25 Lake Ave. N. or telephoned to Melrose 1802. Dr. Elderkin will be out of the city during the week.
 The 5000 China Famine stamps that Mrs. McGonagle brought to church last Sunday were sold. Returns ought to be made promptly if the money is to do the most good.
 Wednesday evening's meeting will be a good one to attend. The topic is "Great Experiences" Read Isaiah 6:6-8; Philippians 3:8-12; Romans 1:14-16 and 2 Corinthians 5:14, 15.
 About this time of the year church treasurers begin to polish up haloes and crowns to be placed on the heads of those who pay up their pledges before leaving for their summer vacations.
 The May Church Night Dinner will be the last until September. Get your Church Night Dinner tickets today. Next Sunday may be too late. The dining room cannot accommodate more than 400.
 The silver tea planned for next Friday May 20th from 3 until 5 is being managed by the May Unit of the Assembly. Every one is invited. The committee intimates that there may be more than Tea.
 The National Council meets in Los Angeles, July 1-8. In case any member of Pilgrim Church plans to be west at that time Duluth Association would like to ask such to represent this section of Minnesota.
 Mr. Jeremiah Kimball and Mr. W. W. McMillan represented Pilgrim Church last Tuesday evening when the Finnish Congregational Church of Duluth discussed the matter of seeking admission to the Duluth Association.
 The State Conference meets this week with the First Church Winona. Pilgrim Church will be represented by Mrs. J. T. Davis, E. G. Chapman, and the minister. They will carry the invitation of Pilgrim Church to hold the next Conference in Duluth.

Sarah Frances Stewart

Sunday May Twenty-two
Nineteen hundred and twenty-one

SARAH FRANCES STEWART.

1829—1921.

The death of Mrs. Stewart, which occurred on Friday, May the thirteenth, takes from Pilgrim Church one who had been a lifelong congregationalist, a friend of missions and during her membership here, a teacher in the Church School, president and honorary president of the missionary society and a faithful attendant at all church services.

Mrs. Stewart was born in New Hampshire but her father, Abner Little, was one of those New Englanders of faith and vision who, in 1837, moved on to western Illinois. There he built the first log cabin in Henry County on a site which is still in the possession of the Little family and is now a part of the city of Kewanee.

It is difficult for us to visualize life in a pioneer community at that period. We know that it was a time of great national financial distress. We know that the question of slavery was already looming large; that Abraham Lincoln, a member of the Illinois Assembly, was protesting against it and that his speeches were appearing as news in the papers of the day.

No doubt something of all this sifted through to the country school house where the Little children were being educated.

At sixteen, Sarah Frances was teaching in that same country school during the summer months and attending Knox College in the winter.

At twenty she was married.

Her husband, the Reverend Alanson Alvord, a congregational minister, was much older than his youthful bride and the father of three children through a former marriage. To these children the young wife was always loyally devoted.

The years of her early married life were spent in Oberlin. There her three children were born and it was to Oberlin that her thoughts most often turned as age came upon her.

After Mr. Alvord's death, in 1862, she undertook the preparation of students for Oberlin College and proved a capable teacher.

Later she was married to Hiram Stewart and came to Duluth to live.

Since Mr. Stewart's death, except for a brief period spent in Oberlin, she has lived in Duluth.

None of her children survive her; but her granddaughter, Winifred Warner, has been for many years her constant and devoted companion.

A former pastor, Mr. Thorp, once said, "Mrs. Stewart may not be spoken of merely as an honored member of Pilgrim Church. She is an institution." So to us today her death seems strangely like the fall of a lonely pine upon the hilltop. More than one generation has looked to it as something steadfast and trustworthy. It was there before we came and has seemed a part of the surrounding country. Little children have played happily under its protection. Wayfarers have stopped to rest within its shade. Travelers have looked up to it and by it have found their way home again. Its fall has left "a lonely place against the sky".

Dear Mrs. Leelan,

Mrs. J. J. Davis spent a whole lot more than $19.25 in going to the State Conference of Congregational Churches at Wisconsin. But that is the amount she saved me after repeated urging.

PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Duluth, Minnesota.

May 26, 1921.

TO SUCH MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF PILGRIM CHURCH AS THIS MAY COME,

GREETING:

I have six things to say.

The FIRST has to do with next Sunday.

It is going to be hard to gather our congregations next Sunday. Many will be going away for Memorial Day. Those who remain in the city may be willing to help us advertise our afternoon vesper service. It is set for five o'clock.

The SECOND concerns itself with Sunday, June 5th.-

Which is Children's Day.

Our special service is at ten thirty.

This is the day most generally used in our churches for the baptism of little children. If parents of little children will telephone me, I shall be glad to print the record in the Bulletin. The Bulletin goes to press Thursday evening. In the event of failure at this point do not hesitate to bring the children to the service of baptism.

Promptly at ten thirty.

The THIRD is this:

We have as yet no Director of Religious Education. I think we are not to blame. Mr. Cross decided to accept the offer of our Church in Appleton Wisconsin. Since his refusal I have been in correspondence with several others. Mr. David Duncan while in New York gave liberally of his time looking for a man. I have been in Minneapolis and St. Paul following leads. I am to see a few while on my trip East.

Your response to the appeal at Easter for funds to make possible securing a Director was highly encouraging. The money is now drawing interest and will be used as you designated. But the man we want and need is not easily found. We feel that haste ought to be made slowly.

The FOURTH is this:

Our new committee of Religious Education which is to undertake the correlation of all young people's work in Pilgrim Church will be made up of Judge Funck, Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. Finch and Mr. Weaver. When our Director of Religious Education arrives he will be under this committee.

Affairs in the Sunday School are in good hands.
I think we do not yet realize how fortunate we have been in finding a man like Mr. Berkheiser to act as general superintendent.

The FIFTH mentions the name of our summer preachers.
They are Rev. J. W. Powell formerly minister of Endion Church, Rev.
A. S. Henderson of St. Paul and Rev. T. M. Shipherd of Milwaukee.

The SIXTH is an appeal for $175.
I have eliminated special appeals from the pulpit as much as I could.
There has been no second collection during the year. We have used the Information Boxes where only those who cared to give gave. No pressure has been employed.
I shall be happier about going off on my vacation if three items can be provided for.

One of our workers in India - Rev. E. W. Felt - has been using his own money to pay for extra helpers in his field around Sirur. I wrote him that Pilgrim Church objected to his using his own small salary for this work. And that he would understand later when he received a check from us. I suppose if no check arrives he will understand that the objection was somewhat feeble. I should like to send Mr. Felt a check for $60.00.

Pilgrim Christian Endeavors plan to send two delegates to the State convention at Willmar next month. They are raising some of the money themselves.
I told them I was sure the church loved them enough to help a little. This little ought to be about $40.00.

The first summer conference of the Congregational Young Folks of the state will be held at Lake Minnetonka, July 12 to 19th. Those who have been at the Y. M. and Y. W. conferences will understand how much this kind of gathering may mean to the Congregational Churches of the state.

Pilgrim Church ought to have three representatives. One from the Endeavor Society, one from the older young folks of the Sunday School and one Sunday School Teacher.

Twelve dollars will cover all expenses at Tipi Wakan. To this must be added railroad fare and certain travelling expenses. There ought to be at least $25.00 for each representative. Three times 25 used to make 75.

Please do not give more than a dollar.

If you plan to be away next Sunday thrust a dollar bill or something into an envelope addressed to the minister and write your name on a piece of paper and tell me you are tickled to death to have this sort of a chance and that if I need more to march right up to you and then let your Uncle Samuel do the rest.

If you plan to be at either of the services Sunday use the Information Boxes.

That's all.

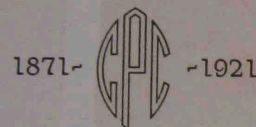

Be thinking of those who ought to unite with Pilgrim Church at the communion service September 4th.

The happiest of summers to you and all of yours.

Noble S. Elderkin.

SUMMER PREACHERS

June 12th and 19th—The Reverend John W. Powell of the University of Wisconsin Extension Department. Formerly minister Endion Church Duluth.

June 26th and July 24th—The Reverend Arthur S. Henderson minister St. Anthony Park Church, St. Paul.

July 3rd, 10th, and 17th—The Reverend Theodore M. Shipherd minister of Plymouth Church, Milwaukee.

THE SIXTY SIXTH STATE CONFERENCE

Was held at Winona May 17th to 19th.

May 17th and 18th were given over to rain.

There dropped into the Conference treasury this past year $273,000 which marks a new high level.

The Chamber of Commerce supplied a million automobiles for the trip down the Mississippi Thursday afternoon.

The Methodists served a very grand banquet Thursday evening at which President Cowling cracked some jokes.

Mrs. T. J. Davis and Mr. E. G. Chapman were Pilgrim Church delegates. They "delegated" in the latest and finest fashion.

As fine a missionary address as any human being ever made was made by Rev. W. F. English, American Board representative in Chicago.

The next Conference comes to us. So that 1922 will be set beside 1891 and 1904 as red letter years in the history of the Conference.

Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of New York thought that our talk might be less about the amount of money we have raised and more about the people for whom it is raised.

Mr. Leshar reported a net gain in membership in the Minnesota churches of 1099. This is one tenth of the total gain for the whole denomination throughout the United States.

Rev. H. W. Gates of Boston gave every church a chance to have plenty of missionary interest among its young people. He did not tell what might be done. He told what had been done.

Mr. Chapman made a very clever speech inviting the Conference to come to Duluth for its next meeting. As evidence of the success of the speech note the unanimous vote for Duluth.

Mr. Voss showed some pictures on the work in Northern Minnesota Wednesday evening and managed to point part of his story with two pictures of Pilgrim. The first building was set over against the present building.

The vested choir of the church—fortynine strong—shared in the Tuesday evening service. It did what few choirs have been known to do—it sat through a two and a half hour service without moving an eyelash. And many in the choir were young folks who are at the wiggling, giggling stage.

Professor Vernon's address Thursday morning concerning the ability of the minister to be both prophet and priest delighted some and angered others. He pointed out that the minister was tolerably safe as long as he remained priest but that anything might happen to him when he undertook to turn prophet.

CHURCH NOTES

The Girl Scouts meet Wednesday afternoon.
The Boy Scouts meet every Tuesday in the church.
Pilgrim Church welcomes all to the exercises of Children's Day.

It takes $25.00 to start a new school and maintain it for a year.
By vote of the church the midweek services will be omitted until September.

The next year in Pilgrim Church will be devoted especially to the Sunday School.

Pilgrim church in all its departments wishes to serve the community. Help it to.

Bulletin copy for the summer should be sent to Mr. Huntley, Lake and First. (Telephone Melrose 1802)

Dr. Powell, formerly minister of Endion church will preach in Pilgrim Church June 12th and June 19th.

The Sunday School exercises are to be made especially attractive during the summer. Keep coming.

If you will provide an automobile for the Nopeming trip this afternoon speak to Maurice Hart or the minister.

Pilgrim's Endeavor Society will send two delegates to the State Christian Endeavor Convention in Willmar next Month.

The offering received on Children's Day is always used to help establish new Sunday Schools in places where there are none.

If you have young folks in your home old enough to be connected with the Scouts ask Mr. Prisk or Miss Hegardt some questions.

Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. Finch, Judge Funck and Mr. Weaver are the members of Pilgrim Church's new Committee on Religious Education.

The young people hold service this evening at 6:30 at Nopeming. The automobiles will leave the church promptly at 5:30. Room for all. A beautiful drive.

Parents of little children may be glad to know that Mrs. MacDonald has charge of a Church-time Kindergarten which cares for children during the morning service.

Tipi Wakan is the name of the place where the Congregational young people of Minnesota will hold their first state conference, July 12 to 19. Pilgrim Church hopes to have at least three representatives.

There will be no meetings of the Groups during June. This is a much deserved holiday. Later during July there will be social-out-of-doors meetings for each Group. Details for which will be announced later.

Note carefully that Mrs. Haney, June Director, has planned a combination Women's Assembly regular meeting and picnic for the last Wednesday in June, the 29th. Begin to-day to plan to be among those present.

On June first began the reign of Mrs. T. J. Davis, Supervisor of the Summer Group, and her three Directors, Mrs. C. L. Haney, June; Mrs. C. E. Carlson, July; and Mrs. George A. Gray, August. Kindly see that all troubles are righted by them.

THE AUTUMN GROUP of Women's Assembly at the home of H. B. White, at Saint Lake. The Winter group of the Women's assembly will meet at the summer home of Mrs. Johnson at Ten Harbor this afternoon.

THE GIFT OF GOLD

The Wise Men brought their gift of gold
To the Holy Child:

And when He saw its radiant glow
Like a bit of the Home He had left to go
To his manger bed on the earth below—
The Baby smiled!

And the gold that we offer our Lord today,
(If in love 'tis given),

To the lame, the lepers, the blind, the old,
To the children lost in the dark and cold
Who wander outside of His tender fold
May still bring Heaven!

—Lois Johnson Erickson.

THE PILGRIM

Staff and sandals and bell,
Fountains of bitter tears,
Wanderings far have availed me naught;
Where is the God who hears?

Leprosy gripped him fast;
Leprosy stood between
Me and the one loved more than life,
And cried, "Unclean! Unclean!"
I trembled with fear at his voice
And fell in wild despair;
I prayed to the gods of the land and the sea;
I prayed to the gods of the air; [woe;
There was none who would hark to the voice of my
There was none who would answer my prayer.

I wept and worked by day
And cried aloud in the night,
But the loathsome thing more loathsome grew
And deeper the deadly blight,
Till I who had hung on his every glance
Grew pale at the sickening sight.

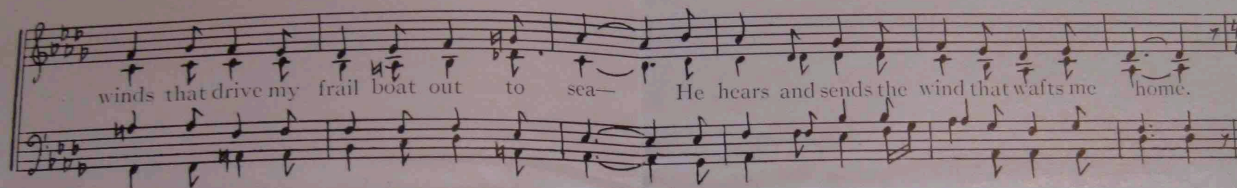

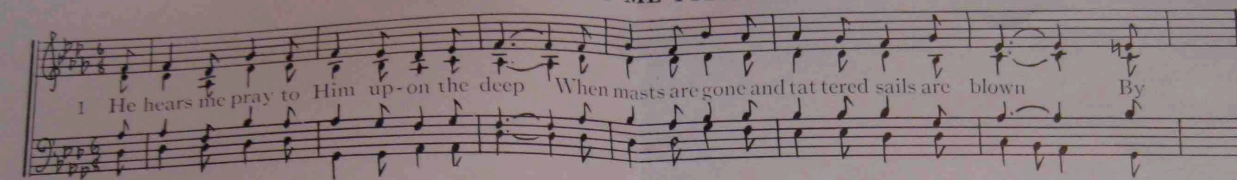

I went to the priest, and he said,
"Do you think that the great gods see
What comes to the homes of the poor and foul
Where lepers and blind men be?
You must go on the pilgrimage;
When you climb to a holy place

HE HEARS ME PRAY TO HIM

Refrain

- 2 He hears me pray to Him when I am lost
Amid wild mountains and no path can see;
He saves me from the beasts and from the night,
And gives the comfort of His strength to me.
- 3 He hears me pray to Him when my tired feet
Are toiling o'er the desert's burning sand;
Through his own blood revives my thirsting soul,
And to green pastures leads me by the hand.

- 4 The limits of the earth are wide and vast—
And vaster still its smiling dome of blue—
Yet through this space I always hear His voice:
"O, little one," He says, "I died for you."
- 5 My Lord in me has found a dwelling-place,
And I in Him. Oh, glorious crown to gain
To be His temple! Gladly will I face
In His great strength all bitterness and pain.

標正可 上山崎屋 雄殿古平源 (嵯峨)

You must tell your beads as you chant your prayers
And gaze on the Buddha's face;
If you suffer much pain for the great god's name
It may chance they will grant you grace."

I bound our child to my back
And started in haste to go;
But his mother bravely said,
"I am aged and weak and slow,
If I add my pain to all you will bear
The gods cannot say us no."

How can I tell what we bore
As we toiled over mountain heights,
Of the blistering heat of the days
And the bitter cold of the nights?
Of the days when no coins were flung
Into our beggars' bowl?
Of the days when my baby ailed
And added new dread to my soul?
There were shrines on the mountain tops;
There were shrines on the isles of the sea;
There were shrines near the haunts of men,
And in places where gravestones be,
And ever the way was weary and long
And the journey was cruel to me.

And the poor old mother's fate?
Her every breath was a groan
As we slowly wended our painful way
Up the endless steps of stone.
Her weak old hands were clenched
And her aged back was bent,
The strength of love toiled bravely on Though the body's strength was spent.

We did not speak of our pain
As we toiled from place to place,
For ever there went before our feet
The thought of our loved one's face,
And the words, "If you suffer much pain for them
The great gods may grant you grace."

Day after day went by
And our journey was almost done,
Of all the shrines of our pilgrimage
There remained at the last but one,
And our hearts were light at the hope of reward
When our mighty task should be done.

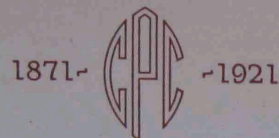

Why are the steps so long
For stumbling, tired old feet?
Why was an added anguish given
To make my woe complete?
Why did I dream when her life went out
That at last the prize was won,
That none could suffer more for the gods
Than I, myself, had done?
That the sacrifice of her life made sure
That the curse was removed from her son?

I wept for the heart that was gone,
As I bore her ashes to rest;
But the star of hope shone before my eyes,
And joy filled my aching breast.
I hastened back to my home
To gaze on my loved one's face,
I had borne to the full the wrath of the gods
And I longed to taste of their grace,
And I thought again of the peace and love
I would find in my dwelling place.

"The Need of Vision."
Proverbs 29:18. Where there is no vision the people perish.
Since July 31st the minister of Pilgrim Church has preached.
His topics and texts have been:
July 31st—
"Indoors on a Day like This."
Ezekiel 42: 11. All their goings out were according to their doors.
August 7th—
"Twenty-five Men with their Backs toward the Temple."
Ezekiel 8: 16. Between the porch and the altar were about five and twenty men with their backs toward the temple of Jehovah.
August 14th—
"Walls and an Upper Gate."
2 Chronicles 27: 3. He built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah and on the wall of Ophel he built much.
August 21st—

of the light.
August 28th—
"Balak Has an Idea."
Numbers 23: 13. And Balak said unto him (Balaam), Come,
I pray thee, with me unto another place from whence thou mayest see them * * * and curse me them from thence.

MYRON FRANCIS CRANDALL

Myron Francis Crandall died in Duluth, Minnesota, July 1st, 1921.

He was the son of Frank A. and Leta M. Crandall. He was born in Superior, Wis., May 13th, 1901. He spent his boyhood days there, where he attended school and graduated from the Superior High School in 1919. He then moved to Duluth with his parents; and in that same year he began the study of dentistry in the Northwestern University Dental School, Chicago, Illinois.
He had just completed his second year and would have graduated in two years more.

He united with the Pilgrim Congregational Church in May, 1919. In his death the church loses one of its most promising young men.

Although Myron had spent but a brief time in Duluth, he made a strong place for himself among the young people he met.
He was earnest and possessed of a happy disposition and was continually striving for the best things in life; and these characteristics impressed themselves upon all who knew him.

His sudden departure seemed like a striking fulfillment of the Apostle's statement: "We shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye." And so Myron passed from this life to the life beyond in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye; and in remembrance of him we wish to record these statements and to express to his father and mother, his sister and brothers, our sympathy in their sorrow.

CHURCH NOTES

The Church School resumes its noonday sessions today.

Midweek services will be resumed after the harvest festival.

Rally Sunday in the Sunday School is set for September 25th.

Communion services and reception of new members next Sunday morning.

About three hundred attended the Church and Sunday School picnic in Lester Park, August 19th.

Miss Bessie G. Mars represented Pilgrim Church at the meetings of the National Council in Los Angeles July 1-8, 1921.

Harvest Dinner is planned for Tuesday, Sept. 13. Save this date for an enthusiastic Fall Reunion—by request of the Autumn Director.

The Standing Committee meets this noon in the parlors to confer with those who wish to unite with Pilgrim Church next Sunday morning.

During the week members of the church will receive letters asking for certain information. It will help furiously if the replies are fairly prompt.

Donald Berkheiser in a fair field of 150 who attended the Parcel Post Party June 3rd, played high finance and bought all that was left for 99 cents.

If you have anything in your garden that some one else would like, please save it and tell Mrs. McGonagle about it for the harvest Sale to be held Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Mrs. McGonagle is the supervisor for Autumn. On September first Mrs. Orr took charge of affairs for September which include the Brotherhood dinner Friday, Sept. 2.

The Reverend E. W. Felt of the American Board Mission in Sirur, Poona District, India, acknowledges receipt of 109 rupees gathered in the Information Boxes on May 29th.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae will give their annual lecture course in Pilgrim Church this year using the dates October 29th, November 5th, and November 22nd.

Fill the church this afternoon at 4:30 when the Piney Woods School Jubilee Singers conduct the Vesper service. Mrs. Laurence C. Jones will speak briefly of the work the school undertakes to do.

On July 31st the Reverend Swann Ericson, formerly a member of Pilgrim Church, now a missionary of the Southern Presbyterian Church in Japan addressed the Sunday School and the Church.

Oscar Mitchell chairman of the Board of Trustees was welcomed home from his trip through the Central Empires by the men of the church last Friday. After a fine dinner Mr. Mitchell reported impressions and findings.

Pilgrim's Children's Day exercises were held June 5th. The weather was perfect. The church was crowded. The children did remarkably well. The Junior department ought to have some sort of special mention. Mr. Berkheiser gave diplomas to 83 children.

On June 5th, twenty-seven Pilgrim young folks held service in Nopeming. Bruce Scott led. Miss Stewart played and Mr. Drummond sang. Automobiles were furnished by Mr. Marble (Whose car was driven by Russell Duncan), Maurice Hart, Bruce Scott, and John Larson.

The Jubilee Singers of the Piney Woods School (Braxton, Mississippi) will sing in Pilgrim Church this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. A silver offering will be taken. You and your friends will enjoy hearing "Swing Low", "It's me O Lord, standing in the need of prayer", "I've got a robe", "Keep inching along", "Walk in Jerusalem just like John".

The last Bulletin appeared June 5th. That will explain some of the items published today.

To the list of baptisms published June 5th, should be added: William John Sutherland Born August 17, 1919.

Son William Irvin and Gertrude Blesener Sutherland.

Walter Northey Trenerry, Jr. Born January 11, 1917

Son Walter Northey and Ruth Carmichael Trenerry.

Brewer Mattocks, Jr., and the minister represented Pilgrim Church officially in the council which ordained Mr. William Hokkanen to the Christian ministry Sunday, August 28th, in the meeting house of the Finnish Congregational Church. The sermon was preached by the Reverend Everett Leshar of Minneapolis, the ordaining prayer was offered by the Reverend R. T. Bayne of Superior, the charge to the minister was given by the Reverend Risto Lappula of Virginia (in Finnish), the charge to the people was given by the Reverend Henry M. Bowden of New York. The Reverend E. B. Dean of Northfield and the minister of Pilgrim Church shared in the service as well as the choir and orchestra of the Finnish Baptist Church. Mr. Hokkanen assumes charge of the Finnish Congregational Church in Astoria, Oregon, today.

I should like to suggest that next Sunday would be a good Sunday to take in the "Vacation" sign from the spot where you start yourself to church.

There is always some danger that the sign may constitute itself a permanent part of the landscape.

I therefore suggest a concerted attack upon those signs next Sunday morning.

You will want to welcome the new families who are moving into the parish.

You will want to share in the first Communion service of the new year.

Will you not therefore resolve to do all that you can to make the coming Sunday a good Sunday?

On Tuesday evening at 6:30 (September 13th) we shall have our annual Harvest Dinner. The Autumn Group, with Mrs. McGonagle directing, will be in charge. This is a great occasion in Pilgrim Church. And tickets ought to be reserved right away. The thing to do is to call Mrs. Hegardt telling her the number you wish reserved for you and your family. The price of the tickets is fifty cents.

But whatever you do, don't forget Sunday morning.

CHURCH NOTES

Church School at noon today. All welcome.

Midweek services will be resumed September 21st.

Rally Sunday in Church and Sunday School is September 25.

Mr. Mitchell speaks at the Harvest Dinner Tuesday evening.

Don't make up your minds about Pilgrim Church today. Come six times.

On Rally Sunday (September 25th) there will be a special Vesper service at 5 o'clock.

The Church-time Kindergarten resumes its sessions next Sunday with Mrs. McDonald in charge.

Professor and Mrs. T. B. Homan have gone to Cedar Falls, Iowa, to live. Pilgrim Church will miss them greatly.

Fall Reunion Dinner—Tuesday, September 13th, at 6:30 evening, Parish House—See Mrs. Hegardt about tickets.

Pilgrim Church wishes the very happiest of years to the young folks leaving for school and college and university.

The Duluth Association meets with the Aitkin Church October 10th and 11th. Pilgrim Church ought to send six delegates.

Harvest Sale—Tuesday, September 13th. Everyone at The Reunion Dinner can take vegetables home with them to last a week.

The deacons assisting in the Communion Service this morning are: W. W. McMillan (Senior Deacon), Albert Baldwin, H. I. Pinneo, C. G. Scott, C. A. Duncan, B. C. Wade and George A. Gray.

The Piney Woods Jubilee Singers delighted the company that gathered in the church last Sunday afternoon. The offering yielded $80.72.

Social gathering of the Spring Group at the home of Mrs. W. R. Bagley, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 14th at 2:30 o'clock. This is your opportunity to tell how your dollar was earned. Red Cross Sewing.

Eighty-two men of the church and parish gathered in the church on Friday, September 2nd, when Mr. Mitchell reported his trip to Europe. No one will forget the splendid dinner Mrs. Orr and her helpers prepared nor the gracious way in which they took care of the extra attendance.

The Women's Missionary Society will resume their meetings in October. The annual thank offering meeting, at which all of the women of the congregation are invited, will be held on Tuesday, October 18th. Mrs. Emily Hartwell, who for many years has been a missionary in China, will speak to us at that time. Please keep this date in mind and plan to attend.

Bruce Scott was the delegate sent by The Women's Assembly to the conference for the Congregational Young People of Minnesota, at Tipi Wakan on Lake Minnetonka, July 12 to 19. At the regular meeting of The Assembly on August 31st, he gave a very comprehensive and enthusiastic report, and very strongly urges that five or six delegates go from our church next summer without fail. It is time and effort more than well spent.

Sunday, September eighteen
Nineteen hundred and twenty-one

When you made your will, did you leave anything to Pilgrim Church? The church will be here long after you are gone. Its work can be extended and added to wherever funds permit. You can have your money do after you are gone what it is doing now while you are here.

At a special meeting of the Women's Assembly, held after services last Sunday, it was voted to present Mr. Edwin H. Lemare in Organ Recital, on Friday evening, September 30. Mr. Lemare, is said, by many, to be premier of organists. He has been municipal organist in San Francisco, and is on his way to take charge of the municipal organ at Portland, Maine.

No one attending the Harvest Sale, Tuesday, September 13th, has gone hungry this week. The perfect vegetables and flowers from the gardens of the Congregational folk were displayed in profusion. The display of the R. E. Johnson Farm was unusual for variety of the exhibit. Special mention could be given each exhibit for all showed that thought and careful preparation had been given to each. The Autumn Supervisor was entirely responsible for the success of the sale, which netted $48.42. Mrs. J. S. Prisk had charge of the vegetable sales and Mrs. S. E. Matter of the sale of the flowers.

In every respect the Harvest Home Supper was a great success. In the generous way in which the ladies of the Autumn Group spread the tables; in the welcome accorded Mr. Mitchell just back from Europe; in the attendance that was hardly affected by the storm; in the beautiful quiet and calm that prevailed throughout the evening and that was at its quietest and calmest when the minister of the church tried to extract certain informations; and in the resolution of all present to rally on Rally Sunday.

Many thanks to Mrs. McGonagle and those assisting as follows: Mrs. M. J. Gochey, Kitchen; Mrs. C. E. Wallace, dining room; Miss Jennie Moody, table service; Mrs. F. D. Orr, hostesses; Mrs. E. J. Collins, decorations; and Mrs. W. G. Hegardt, tickets.

Beyond the heights of cloud-swept hills,
Past battlements of somber ills,
Within the reach of human wills,
Is Light.

Above the battle-lines of creeds,
Past hearts aflame in passion's breeze,
Fulfilling all our inmost needs,
Is Love.

Higher up, beyond all sorrow,
Calling clear for all to follow,
Glorious with each tomorrow,
Is Life.

—Wm. Lord McKinney.

Next Sunday is Rally Sunday.

Try coming to midweek service. Wednesday at eight.

You can at least risk one Wednesday evening on a midweek service.

Send for your church letters and join Pilgrim Church November 6th.

If you will help in the Sunday School speak to Mr. Berkhesier.

There is a place for you within the fellowship of Pilgrim Church.

You will never have a better day to greet the folks in the pew in front of yours.

The next Church Night is set for October 12th. The N's and O's and P's have charge.

To Mrs. Grawn has been committed the task of compiling the information for the new Address List. If your card has not been filled out, this afternoon will be a good time to tend to it.

Pilgrim Church needs the strength you can bring as a member of the church. Be thinking about your obligation to keep alive and awake an institution that wants to bless and help the world.

The trustees of Pilgrim Church are: Oscar Mitchell (Chairman), Alexander Anderson, W. N. Hart, W. G. Hegardt, and A. W. Frick.

Midweek service Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Topic: "Another Summer". Vacation impressions. New Friendships. New books. New ideas. New faith. New courage. Resolutions for the new church year.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the Spring Group, at the home of Mrs. Bagley, Wednesday afternoon. A number of booties and bonnets were finished for the Red Cross. Amusing incidents of how the dollars were earned were recorded.

PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Duluth, Minnesota.

Friends of Pilgrim Church:

Next Sunday is RALLY SUNDAY. That may not mean very much. Or it may.

If every member of the church should make frantic efforts to appear in person next Sunday morning at ten thirty and the church should be packed;

And - if every member should appear in person again in the afternoon at five and the church should be packed;

And - if every member of the church should interest himself or herself in such neighbors as are not attached to any church and should make frantic but tactful efforts to have them appear in person at either or both the morning and afternoon services and the church should be packed still more;

And - if every member of the Sunday School - officers and teachers and pupils - should be in his or her place and the Sunday School Room should be crowded to the doors;

And - if every member of the Sunday School should bring some one who did not go anywhere to Sunday School and the Sunday School Room should be worse than crowded to the doors;

And - if the young people should be compelled to hold an overflow meeting in the evening at six o'clock;

That would make - RALLY SUNDAY - a pretty good Sunday.

It occurs to me that that sort of a Sunday is worth working for. Suppose we try it.

But RALLYING is something more than mere appearance in person at various services next Sunday.

It involves a very hearty welcome to such strangers and newcomers as find themselves in Pilgrim Church.

I heard the other day of two teachers who went to a Duluth Church ten times in succession without being spoken to. On the occasion of their eleventh visit they were spoken to. By mistake. The one who spoke to them told them that it was by mistake.

I suggest that we make a lot of "mistakes" Sunday.

RALLYING is a good deal more than a host of "mistakes" on Rally Sunday.

It provides for an endless number of "mistakes" through the year.

And this also: There ought to be more Rallying Wednesday afternoon when the Womens' Assembly welcomes these strangers and newcomers just mentioned and when good-bye is said to Mrs Larson who after much faithful service goes to Washington to live and when Dr. Mary McCoy is greeted after her year in Europe.

There ought also to be yet further rallying that same evening when the hour for the midweek service arrives.

And on Friday evening when Edwin H. Lemare, the great San Francisco Organist, plays Pilgrim Church organ there ought to be no end of rallying. This is an opportunity that comes very seldom. And again - the church must be crowded.

It turns out to be more than RALLY SUNDAY.

It turns out to be RALLY WEEK.

Very well: RALLY WEEK.

Cordially,
Noble S. Eldarkin.

Music lovers of Duluth will be greatly interested in the announcement that Edwin H. Lemare, San Francisco's famous municipal organist, and who is about to accept the position as municipal organist at Portland, Me., will appear at Pilgrim Congregational church, Friday evening, Sept. 20, when he will appear in a concert sponsored by the women of Pilgrim church under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. A. McGonagle.

Her. Sept. 16

The master organist, Edwin H. Lemare, who is to appear in a recital at Pilgrim Congregational church Friday evening, Sept. 30, has won the approval of Boston's brilliant musical critic, Philip Hale. Mr. Hale says of him: "Mr. Lemare has studied assiduously his chosen art. He has great facility, a fine sense of color, a cool head, a modest and dignified bearing. He plays with authority, nor is it to be denied that he gains at times surprising effects as the result of his experiments in registration. He is not unduly sensational; he is not a slave to exaggeration." Mr. Lemare is accustomed to overflowing audiences in the big elvish auditoriums and concert halls of England and America. "The manager, Orr, who is in charge of arrangements, says that the number of tickets will be necessarily limited, owing to the comparatively small size of Pilgrim church auditorium." "The Ames memorial organ of Pilgrim church is one of the finest in the Northwest, and those Duluthians fortunate enough to gain admission have an unusual treat in store for them."

Music lovers of Duluth will be greatly interested in the announcement that Edwin H. Lemare, San Francisco's famous municipal organist, and who is about to accept the position as municipal organist at Portland, Me., will appear at Pilgrim Congregational church, Friday evening, Sept. 30, when he will appear in a concert sponsored by the women of Pilgrim church under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. A. McGonagle.

Her. Sept. 16

The master organist, Edwin H. Lemare, who is to appear in a recital at Pilgrim Congregational church Friday evening, Sept. 30, has won the approval of Boston's brilliant musical critic, Philip Hale. Mr. Hale says of him:

"Mr. Lemare has studied assiduously his chosen art. He has great facility, a fine sense of color, a cool head, a modest and dignified bearing. He plays with authority, nor is it to be denied that he gains at times surprising effects as the result of his experiments in registration. He is not unduly sensational, he is not a slave to exaggeration."

Mr. Lemare is accustomed to overflowing audiences in the big civic auditoriums and concert halls of England and America. "The management here regrets," said Mrs. F. D. Orr, who is in charge of arrangements, today, "that the number of tickets will be necessarily small, owing to the comparatively small size of Pilgrim church auditorium."

The Ames memorial organ of Pilgrim church is one of the finest in the Northwest, and those Duluthians have an unusual treat in store for them.

Program Announced for Organ Recital By Edwin Lemare

Edwin, H. Lemare, who since 1917 has been San Francisco's municipal organist, at a yearly salary of $10,000, is to appear in Duluth Friday night, at Pilgrim Congregational church.

Mr. Lemare has resigned his position in San Francisco to accept a similar one in Portland, Maine, and has an extensive booking en route to his new position. His first recital in Portland will be on the twenty-sixth of October.

That San Francisco is sincerely mourning the departure of Lemare for Portland was testified at a recital arranged as a testimonial by the San Francisco public and attended by more than three thousand persons. The mayor, James Rolph Jr., and C. C. Moore, president of the Panama-Pacific exposition, made brief speeches in which they expressed the city's regret at losing Lemare.

"Lemare, much affected by the high praise given him, said that he would express his thanks in the last number of his program, which was an improvisation on a theme submitted by the audience. He did so amply. Every beautiful effect of which the organ was capable, every variety of melodic beauty which Lemare could produce, he brought to the audience. He brought to the audience of San Francisco the music of San Francisco."

His program in Duluth follows:

Bach, "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor."
Debussy, "Sylvine."
Mendelssohn "Sonata, No. 8"
Songs by Donna Riblette
Wagner, "Prelude from Lohengrin"
Improvisation on a theme submitted by the audience.
Lemare "Concert Fantasia on Tune Hanover."

A MEMBER OF RECITAL COMMITTEE

MRS. W. A. MCGONAGLE.

MRS. MCGONAGLE is a member of the committee of the women of the Pilgrim Congregational church who is working under the direction of Mrs. F. D. Orr for the success of the Lemare organ recital.

EDWIN H. LEMARE
Organ Recital
Pilgrim Congregational Church
Fourth St. and Twenty-fourth Ave. E.
Friday at 8:15 O'clock, Sept. 30
ADMISSION $1.00

Edwin H. Lemare, the brilliant British master of the pipe organ, who is to appear at Pilgrim Congregational church next Friday evening, stands pre-eminent alone in the art of improvisation. During Mr. Lemare's engagement at the Panama exposition, where he played 12 daily recitals, one of the most interesting numbers was his daily improvisation. Many people, pressed for time, would pay admission for this number alone. Interesting as well as amusing incidents are related in connection with this number. During the exposition the lights on the stage suddenly went out and Mr. Lemare was in darkness at the organ and was unable to see the themes that had been submitted to him for the improvisation. The name of the electrician was Kelly and when he was rushing about asking for Kelly, an inspiration occurred to Mr. Lemare which would allay any further delay. He gave out his own theme, "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?" It was whistled by a soft-string tone, then the flutes took it up, then the left hand got busy with big diapason tone and both hands worked together on the theme. Then the pedals thundered out "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?" and finally the whole theme was being worked out in pure, fugal style. Needless to say, the audience was convulsed and by the time the fugue came to an end Kelly was much in evidence by the return of the lights.

Her. Sept. 27,

TUESDAY MORNING.

President Aids Recital Committee

MRS. EDWIN COLLINS.

MRS. COLLINS, who is the president of the Women's assembly of the Pilgrim Congregational church, is among the women who are on the committee in charge of the organ recital to be given at the church Friday night by Edwin Lemare.

Her. Sept. 27,

THE MUSIC COMMISSION of Portland, Me., has accomplished a big thing in securing as municipal organist the renowned British musician, Edwin H. Lemare, generally recognized as the world's greatest organist of the present day. Mr. Lemare, who is en route from San Francisco, where he has been municipal organist for five years, will take up his work in Portland, and give a concert in Duluth on the beautiful Swiner organ at Pilgrim Congregational church, Friday night, Sept. 30, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. Mrs. F. D. Orr, director of the September unit of the assembly in charge of the arrangements. Assisting her are Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, Mrs. Edwin Collins, Mrs. J. A. Frisk and Miss Ruth Alt. Rogers. Miss Donna Riblette will be the vocal soloist at the concert, tickets to which may be obtained by calling Mrs. Collins at Melrose 2315.

N.T. Sept. 28,

EDWIN H. LEMARE
"The Paderewski of the Organ"
Will Appear in Recital at
Pilgrim Congregational Church
(Cor. 23rd Ave. E. and 4th Street)
Friday, Sept. 30th, 8:15
Tickets $1
Call Mrs. E. J. Collins, Mel. 2315.

N.T. Sept. 27,

Edwin H. Lemare, who will be presented in an organ recital at Pilgrim Congregational church at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Pilgrim church, will offer the following program:
Bach, Locata, and Fugue in D minor; Dubois, Sylvine; Boccherini, Minuet in A; Mendelssohn, Sonata No. 4.
Songs, Donna Riblette.
Wagner, prelude from Lohengrin; improvisation on a theme submitted by the audience; Lemare, concert fantasia on tune, "Hanover."

Her. Sept. 27,

Edwin H. Lemare, who is to appear in a recital at Pilgrim Congregational church Friday evening, will follow here his custom of improvising from themes furnished by the audience. Several patrons have already decided upon themes to present. One of the suggested themes is "The Limitation of Armaments." The possibilities of such a theme with Mr. Lemare's ability to produce effects can be easily imagined and it is hoped that many of the audience will unite in requesting it.

It is desired that the new Address List contain the family names of every member of the church. Married women will help Mrs. Grawn greatly if they will see that she has this information. In other cases family names are within easy reach.

The latest News Letter from Rev. Ray Phillips is dated June 18th. It reports his activities with moving picture machines. He travels a thousand miles a month in his parish. The Chamber of Mines of South Africa have interested themselves in this particular phase of his work to the extent of $30,000 a year. The arrival of Ruth Marjory Phillips on April 25th is reported. Some may care to know that Ray Phillips was brought up in Pilgrim Church and is now a missionary of the American Board in Johannesburg, South Africa.

On Wednesday, September the 28th, the regular Women's Assembly meeting day, the President and the Autumn Group will entertain at a Rally Afternoon Reception in the church parlors. The new church people and new people interested in the church—Mrs. O. J. Larson, who leaves soon for Washington, and Dr. Mary McCoy, who returned the eleventh from a year abroad, are the honored guests. This is the program for the afternoon. From two until three o'clock social gathering, at three o'clock short business meeting in Sunday School room, informal musical program, a talk by Dr. Mary McCoy, and Afternoon Tea.

The following notice, taken from the New York Churchman, will be of interest in view of the coming recital by Edwin H. Lemare in Pilgrim Church, Friday evening, September 30th at 8:15.

"Mr. Lemare came unheralded by any advertising agent, and won for himself a host of friends and admirers during his stay of less than one week, whose earnest wish will be for his speedy return . . . He vanquished every technical and manipulative difficulty, and at once took by assault, one might say, the same position among organists that Paderewski holds among pianists . . . We have all heard and admired M. Guilman's fine Improvisations with the dainty effects and contrasting fugato passages; but it remained for Mr. Lemare to extemporise a true tone-poem—perfect in every way and a source of joy to every listener."

MRS. COMAN C. AMES

Mrs. Coman C. Ames, who passed away on September 8th, in St. Paul, was born in Fox Lake, Wisconsin, in 1846, the first white baby born for many miles around. When a little girl, the family moved to Oswego, New York, where Mrs. Ames grew up. In 1867, she married Mr. Coman C. Ames, and their early married life was spent in Oswego, but in 1888 they moved to Fargo, N. D., where they became very active in the struggling Congregational Church of that little city. In 1893, they moved to Duluth where they lived until 1908. During these years, both Mr. and Mrs. Ames were closely associated with the Pilgrim Church and their letters have never been taken from this church which they loved so well.

Mrs. Ames is survived by her husband, a sister, Miss Harriet Strong of this city, a daughter, Mrs. James T. Hale of St. Paul, and a son, Albert S. Ames of Whitehall, N. Y.

CHURCH NOTES

Really rally.
 Vespers this afternoon at five.
 Rally about the afternoon service.
 Parsonage Monday evenings are resumed tomorrow.
 Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are at home Monday evenings.
 Mrs. J. Floyd Massey of New York City is our contralto today.
 The Autumn Supervisor will be out of the city until October first.
 Just $50.00 is the latest report from The Harvest Sale of Vegetables and Flowers.
 Bound volumes of last years Bulletin may be secured for $3.00. Speak to the minister.
 Names and address of Pilgrim young folks away at College are wanted. Use the Information boxes.
 Letters were issued last Wednesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Homan to the First Church of Cedar Falls, Iowa.
 If your fountain pen works and your bank account is in fair condition and your church pledge is in arrears, all you need is Mr. Nichol's address.
 The clerk of Pilgrim Church is Brewer Mattocks. His address is 911 Woodland Avenue. The membership lists and the church records are in his hands.
 The treasurer of Pilgrim Church is H. W. Nichols. Checks sent to 2141 Woodland Avenue or 227 West Superior Street will find their way into the Church Treasury.
 Tickets for the organ recital by Edwin Lemare, one of the foremost organists in the country, may be secured at the close of today's services if you will see Mrs. Orr.
 Those whose names begin with N and O and P are asked to meet in the front of the church at the close of the morning service. An important decision needs to be made.
 Midweek meeting Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Topic for discussion, "The Attraction of Christ". Read Mark 12: 28-34. The common people's estimate of Jesus. With whom was Jesus unpopular?
 Less than fifteen copies of the Congregationalist reach Pilgrim homes. An attempt to shatter this record will be made October 9th. There are a lot of worse things in this world than a religious magazine. Be plotting to take one. The Congregationalist will bestow itself in your home every week for one year in case you can find $2.75 somewhere.
 Letters sent out by the American Board in July asking for special personal gifts from 3,000 friends of the Board brought 3,400 responses. Checks totalling $124,000 were enclosed. Gifts from churches increased 191,000 last year. Reduction in appropriations added other sums to the treasury. So that a debt of $242,000 which threatened to increase to $400,000 has been reduced to $161,000.
 The Young Women's Christian Association cordially invites you to attend their open house which is in the form of a Free Excursion through the Y. W. C. A. Building on Tuesday evening, September 27th, 1921. All phases of the work will be presented and the building will be open from dormitories to swimming pool. Special features in a gymnasium exhibition and a swimming meet. All friends of the Association, both men and women are welcome.

Are there any members of Pilgrim Church who would like to send a copy of some good new book to a missionary just for the joy of the thing along toward Christmas? Names of the missionaries and suggestions about the books gladly given by the minister of this church.

There will be an all day meeting of the Spring Group at the Parish House, Friday, October 7th. We must begin work for the Fair which will be the very first of December. Everyone in this Group is expected. Luncheon at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. B. F. Davis, Mrs. W. F. Arndt, Mrs. W. W. Trener, and Mrs. G. M. Cannon, will be the hostesses.

Very, very delightful hours were spent Wednesday in the prettily decorated rooms of the Parish House, when the Autumn Group and the President entertained The Women's Assembly. Miss Hobbs, Mrs. George and Mrs. Larson gave several very delightful numbers. Dr. McCoy's talk on her trip to Europe was very instructive and wrought with many amusing incidents. Mrs. Gochey and Mrs. Allen were responsible for the delicious afternoon tea served in the kindergarten room.

Now is the exact time to sort over your summer clothing, taking thought of the barrel which is to be sent to Miss Hodges who is working among the colored people of Moorhead, Mississippi. Mrs. Pinneo, 1227 East Third Street will receive these articles any time this month. The barrel must leave before November 1st. Nearly everyone understands that Miss Hodges, the superintendent of the School, sells the contents of the barrel for the benefit of the School. Shoes—for men, women and children—are wanted.

CHURCH NOTES

The Philathea class meets this noon in the parlors.
Pilgrim Church needs fifty new members in November.
Rally Day services in the Sunday School were largely attended.
Send for your church letters and join Pilgrim Church in November.

Miss Emily Hartwell of China may be expected in Pilgrim pulpit October 16th.

The New Members committee will meet this afternoon at five o'clock in the Study.

Mrs. M. J. Gochey is director for the month of October. She will do anything for anyone.

If you are thinking of uniting with Pilgrim Church November 6th, speak to the minister or the deacons.

"The set of any life is infinitely more significant than its setting."

The Friends in Council will meet Monday evening, October 3rd, at the home of Miss Husted, 221 23rd Ave. East.

If there are any hymns you think we ought to sing note them on a card and drop the card in the Information Boxes.

Change in plans for the midweek service. Come out Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock and learn what they are.

Letters were issued last Wednesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schroeder who are today uniting with the First Church of Faribault.

New members will be received at the Communion Service November 6th. Letters should be sent for today. It takes time to get church letters.

The Church time Kindergarten meets at 10:30. It cares for the children of those who wish to attend the morning service. Mrs. McDonald has charge.

The Duluth Association meets with the Aitkin Church October 10th and 11th. Pilgrim Church will send five delegates. Help elect them Wednesday evening.

Scores of things you ought to know about slip into the Congregationalist each week. Be planning to invest $2.75 in a year's subscription on October 9th when the national drive is on.

The ladies of the Church wish to have a jelly shower for the old ladies at the Poor Farm. Please keep this in mind and bring jelly or jam to the Thank Offering Meeting—October 12th.

Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Carter, Miss Johnston and Mrs. Collins are responsible for saying that every nook and corner of the Church is in perfect order, and invite inspection.

Dr. John E. Bushnell of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Minneapolis, speaks at the men's lunch in the city Y. M. C. A., Tuesday, 12 o'clock. Tickets, fifty cents, from H. L. George today. Pilgrim Church allowed 20 seats.

There will not be any meeting of The Women's Assembly in October, but there will be Group meetings. Consequently make a special effort to attend your Group meeting as the work of the Fair will be discussed at these meetings. You are needed.

When you made your will, did you leave anything to Pilgrim Church? The church will be here long after you are gone. Its work can be extended and added to wherever funds permit. You can have your money do after you are gone what it is doing now while you are here.

The next Church Night Dinner will occur in mid November. The N's, O's, and P's met last Sunday noon and appointed the leaders of their committees. Mr. Pearce will look out for the group meetings. Mrs. Neimeyer will head the reception committee. Mrs. L. E. Paddock was chosen as chairman of the Dinner Committee.

EACH IN HIS OWN TONGUE

A fire mist and a planet—

A crystal and a cell—

A jellyfish and a saurian,

And caves where the cave men dwell;

Then a sense of law and beauty,

And a face turned from the clod,

Some call it Evolution,

And others call it God.

A haze on the far horizon,

The infinite, tender sky,

The ripe, rich tint of cornfields,

And the wild geese sailing high—

And all over upland and lowland

The charm of the goldenrod—

Some of us call it Autumn,

And others call it God.

Like tides on a crescent sea beach,

When the moon is new and thin,

Into our hearts high yearnings

Come swelling and surging in—

Come from the mystic ocean,

Whose rim no foot has trod—

Some of us call it Longing,

And others call it God.

A picket frozen on duty—

A mother starved for her brood—

Socrates drinking the hemlock,

And Jesus on the rood;

And millions who, humble and nameless,

The straight, hard pathway plod—

Some call it Consecration,

And others call it God.

CHURCH NOTES

The Philathea class will meet in the church parlors this noon.

The New Members Committee meets this afternoon at five in the Study.

The Boy Scouts under Mr. Prisk and Mr. West meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Scout Rooms.

Have you sent for your church letters yet? Pilgrim Church wants you within the circle. There will never be a better Sunday than November 6th.

The Standing Committee of the Church will meet next Sunday after service to welcome such as wish to unite with Pilgrim Church November 6th.

Remember, please, the request for jelly or jam to be brought with you to The Thank Offering meeting at the church, October 18th, Tuesday, for the women at the Poor Farm.

A very important meeting of all who are interested in adult classes will be held in the Boys' Y. this afternoon at three o'clock. Dr. Worth Tippy of New York is the speaker.

Meeting of The Autumn Group in The Parish House, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock promptly. Every one of this group is expected as work for the Fair is pressing.

The midweek meeting is for all those who feel the need of an hour of prayer and meditation. Read Matthew 9:34-38 and I. Timothy 2:1-8 before you come. The topic is "Intercession". Wednesday at eight.

There will not be any meeting of The Women's Assembly in October, but there will be Group meetings. Consequently make a special effort to attend your Group meeting as the work of the Fair will be discussed at these meetings. You are needed.

The second installment of addresses of Pilgrim young people who are away at school and college is published today. We should like to complete the list next Sunday. Information ought to be telephoned to Mrs. S. Y. McGiffert, Hemlock 374. Unless parents help us, bulletins will not reach all our young folks each week.

Pilgrim's delegates to the meetings of the Duluth Association are F. L. Berkheiser, Mrs. P. J. Frost, Rev. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball, Mrs. W. A. McGonagle and the minister. The conference begins tomorrow at 2 o'clock and continues through Tuesday evening. Programs are available for those who wish them.

The Annual Thankoffering meeting of the Women of Pilgrim Church is a meeting for all the women of Pilgrim Church. Miss Emily S. Hartwell of China has been secured as the special speaker. The date is Tuesday, October 18th. The hostesses are Mrs. Hawkes, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. C. A. Duncan, and Mrs. Hegardt.

Some of the topics to be discussed at the Aitkin meeting of the Duluth Association tomorrow and Tuesday are: "The Road to Better Sunday Schools", "How much longer may we neglect the Sunday School and have a church tomorrow", "The young people of the church", "The Audacity of the Christian Religion". Room for others in Pilgrim Church delegation.

The week beginning October 9 will be The Congregationalist Week. If you do not take our national paper, subscribe when the opportunity is given in this church. The Congregationalist is published for the benefit of the people of our churches without profit. The features for the coming season will be especially worth while. Rates $3.00 a year or $2.75 in church clubs.

The Concert Friday evening, the 30th of September, was a success in every way. Our wonderful Ames Memorial Organ was enjoyed by the people of Duluth. Mr. Lemare was at his best and thoroughly enjoyed his audience. Expenses are more than covered.

We thank Mrs. Orr, Miss Rogers, Mrs. Prisk, Mrs. Sanford, and all the officers of the Women's Assembly. Also Miss Rogers, Mrs. McKindley and Miss Carlotta Simonds who served on the program committee.

Everywhere throughout the denomination this is "Congregationalist Week". All our churches are urging their members to subscribe for the denominational magazine. In Pilgrim Church the young folks of the Christian Endeavor Society will make the canvass. As far as they can they will call at every Pilgrim home. They will offer you the Congregationalist for one year (fifty-two numbers) for $2.75. A large commission will find its way into their treasury.

ONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1921

Miss Sydney Thompson Wins Enthusiastic Praise

Pilgrim Congregational church was packed to the doors on Saturday night when Miss Sydney Thompson presented a most unique and interesting program of dramatic elocution.

In her first group of original playlets, Miss Thompson presented to perfection the part of the wife and diplomat in "The Letter of Introduction." The tale had a thrilling theme and the artist's visualizations of the other characters were so clear that the audience had no trouble in carrying the thread of the plot.

Miss Thompson was thoroughly charming in her second group, which was composed of old ballads. She made a lovely picture in her medieval costume of blue and rose brocade when she recited the "Lay of Marie de France," a ballad written in 1180. In her last numbers, which contained the atmosphere of Gascony, Piedmont and other provinces of France and Spain, Miss Thompson wore an artistic peasant's costume. She was truly refreshing, and her exquisite grace and musical voice charmed her audience so that they were reluctant about letting her go.

It is the hope of all those who heard her that Miss Thompson will again visit Duluth and give some more of her delightful recitations.

Soldier of Fortune Reported Shot as Spy to Lecture in Duluth

Like "Mark Twain," Major Gustav H. Schoof, soldier, scout, mounted policeman and war correspondent, who was reported to have been executed at the Tower of London refuses to be dead and will speak in Duluth today. He will speak at the Pilgrim Congregational church, Twenty-third avenue East and Fourth street, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Missions as Seen by a Sailor in Mexico, Africa and Canada." He arrived in Duluth yesterday morning.

He became known to every one during the latter part of July 1917, when a story detailing his execution as a German spy in London was published. It was later found that a German spy who was shot in London, gave his name as G. H. Schoof.

Major Schoof now is game warden in the Rocky Mountain district of Alberta, appointed by the Alberta government. He is an officer of the Canadian reserves, subject to recall for active duty.

Dear Mrs Collins,
The men of the Duluth churches.
Special fifty cent dinner.
Thursday November 17th.
6 p m.
No beef loaf.
But any other thing under heaven that can be eaten. Even onions.
To raise the budget of the Inter Church council.
Or to disband the council if that seems the wise and proper thing to do.

We are asking the women of Pilgrim
Church to handle this matter.

This is merely a reminder of our telephone conversation of last evening.

OCTOBER 18, 1921.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK is being observed throughout the nation beginning today. The main purpose of the week is to concentrate on the raising of money to pay the scout expenses. This year the Duluth Girl Scouts are not observing the national week, but plan on raising their share of needed funds later in the year.

However, on Saturday afternoon the semi-annual track meet of the Girl Scouts will be held at the Armory. This event is held on the third Saturday of October and of April each year, at which time badges are awarded and scout activities are demonstrated.

The program will be as follows:
Formation—Singing of "America, the Beautiful."

Knot-tying contest.
Drill—While drilling inspection for neatness and form will be made.
Merit badges awarded.

Races.
Formation—Repeating Scout laws and singing "Star Spangled Banner."
Rev. N. Elderkin will give a talk after the drill. The court of honor, which awards the merit badges consists of Mrs. E. A. Silberstein, Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, Mrs. Otto Swanson, Mrs. H. Hutter and Mother Mary Elsner, O. S. B. of Corpus Christi house, Miss Elizabeth Wood will present the candidates for badges.

Local History.

Girl Scouts are the American outgrowth of the Girl Guides of England. Though springing from the same source as the Boy Scouts of America, and sharing the same ideals of citizenship and service, the two organizations on the advice of Sir Robert Baden-Powell, the father of both, were made entirely distinct. When Sir Robert organized the Boy Scouts, he found among those seeking membership no less than 6,000 girls. To organize these he called upon his sister, Miss Agnes Baden-Powell, who formed them into troops after the same general plan as the Boy Scouts; and called them Girl Guides. Interested with Miss Baden-Powell in this work was Mrs. Juliette Low, an American woman long resident in England. When in 1912 she returned to her native city of Savannah, she was urged both by Miss Baden-Powell and by her brother, Sir Robert, to form troops of American Girl Guides. She formed the troops after the plan suggested, but the matter of a name was taken out of her hands. The girls insisted on being called Girl Scouts and Girl Scouts they became, and are so incorporated at Washington.

In November 1917, six girls gathered at the home of Rev. Thorpe of the Pilgrim Congregational church and laid plans for the organization and laid plans for the organization of the first Girl Scout troop in Duluth, now Troop 1. The troop was formally organized a short time afterward, Miss Florence Wade being chosen captain. Troop 2, was organized in December 1918 with Miss Penelope Turle as captain. Since that time the development of the Girl Scout work has been constant; today there are 13 troops in the city with a total membership of 300.

During the past few months the first steps in the formation of a closely knit city-wide organization have been taken by the formation of the Duluth Girl Scout council, composed of one representative from each troop, two representatives from the Scout Officers' association; and one representative each from the Catholic, Jewish and Protestant Women's organizations. The council is organized for the purpose of promoting and supervising the welfare of scouting in the city.

Troop No. 1 of the Girl Scouts, which is the oldest troop in the city, will entertain the newest troop No. 13, at a Halloween supper party on Wednesday night at Pilgrim Congregational church. Scouts and games will feature the evening's entertainment.

Troop No. 1, Girl Scouts, will meet at Pilgrim Congregational church tomorrow at 4 o'clock. Miss Grace Elwell and Miss Gertrude Hegardt are the leaders.

The Kindergarten Department and all children between three and six years in the parish will be entertained at a Halloween party, October 29th. The excitement begins at two o'clock and will be over by four. Mrs. H. F. Sleepack and Mrs. E. A. Vivian are assisting the directors of the department.

The Annual Thankoffering meeting of the Women of Pilgrim Church is a meeting for all the women of Pilgrim Church. Miss Emily S. Hartwell of China has been secured as the special speaker. The date is Tuesday, October 18th. The hostesses are Mrs. Hawkes, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. C. A. Duncan, and Mrs. Hegardt.

ADDRESSES WANTED—Mrs. Mary A. Baker, Echo Marie Barker, Mrs. E. G. Batte, Mrs. C. A. Bennewise, Martin Brown, Lina E. Cameron, Mrs. Emma Conklin, Mrs. Edna M. Durkan, E. N. Edes, Mrs. Josephine Barnard Edwards, Paul Flaig, Frank George. Please telephone all information to Mrs. Grawn, Hemlock 488.

Our speaker this morning has been in China for 37 years. For 25 of these rich years her support has come from the Congregational women of Minnesota. So notable has been her service in China that the Chinese Government has seen fit to decorate her with the only medal ever given a foreign woman. Miss Hartwell will help us to understand China's claims to fair treatment when the Conference on the Limitation of Armaments meets in Washington, November 11th.

The barrel for the American Missionary Association School at Moorhead, Mississippi, must be sent this month. Mrs. Pinneo will be in the foyer after service to tell you what she thinks you ought to do. The contents of the barrel are sold to help the colored folks of the community to needed clothes and to help the school to extra funds wherewith to purchase extra equipment. For thirty years the school has been doing a notable work in that district. You need not ask whether or not it is worth while to contribute. It is.

MEETING OF THE DULUTH ASSOCIATION Aitkin, Minnesota.

F. L. Berkheiser was elected moderator for the ensuing year. Miss Emily Hartwell spoke twice to the great profit of everyone.

It is planned to hold next year's meeting with the church in Grand Marais.

It was reported that no church in the Duluth Association is without a pastor.

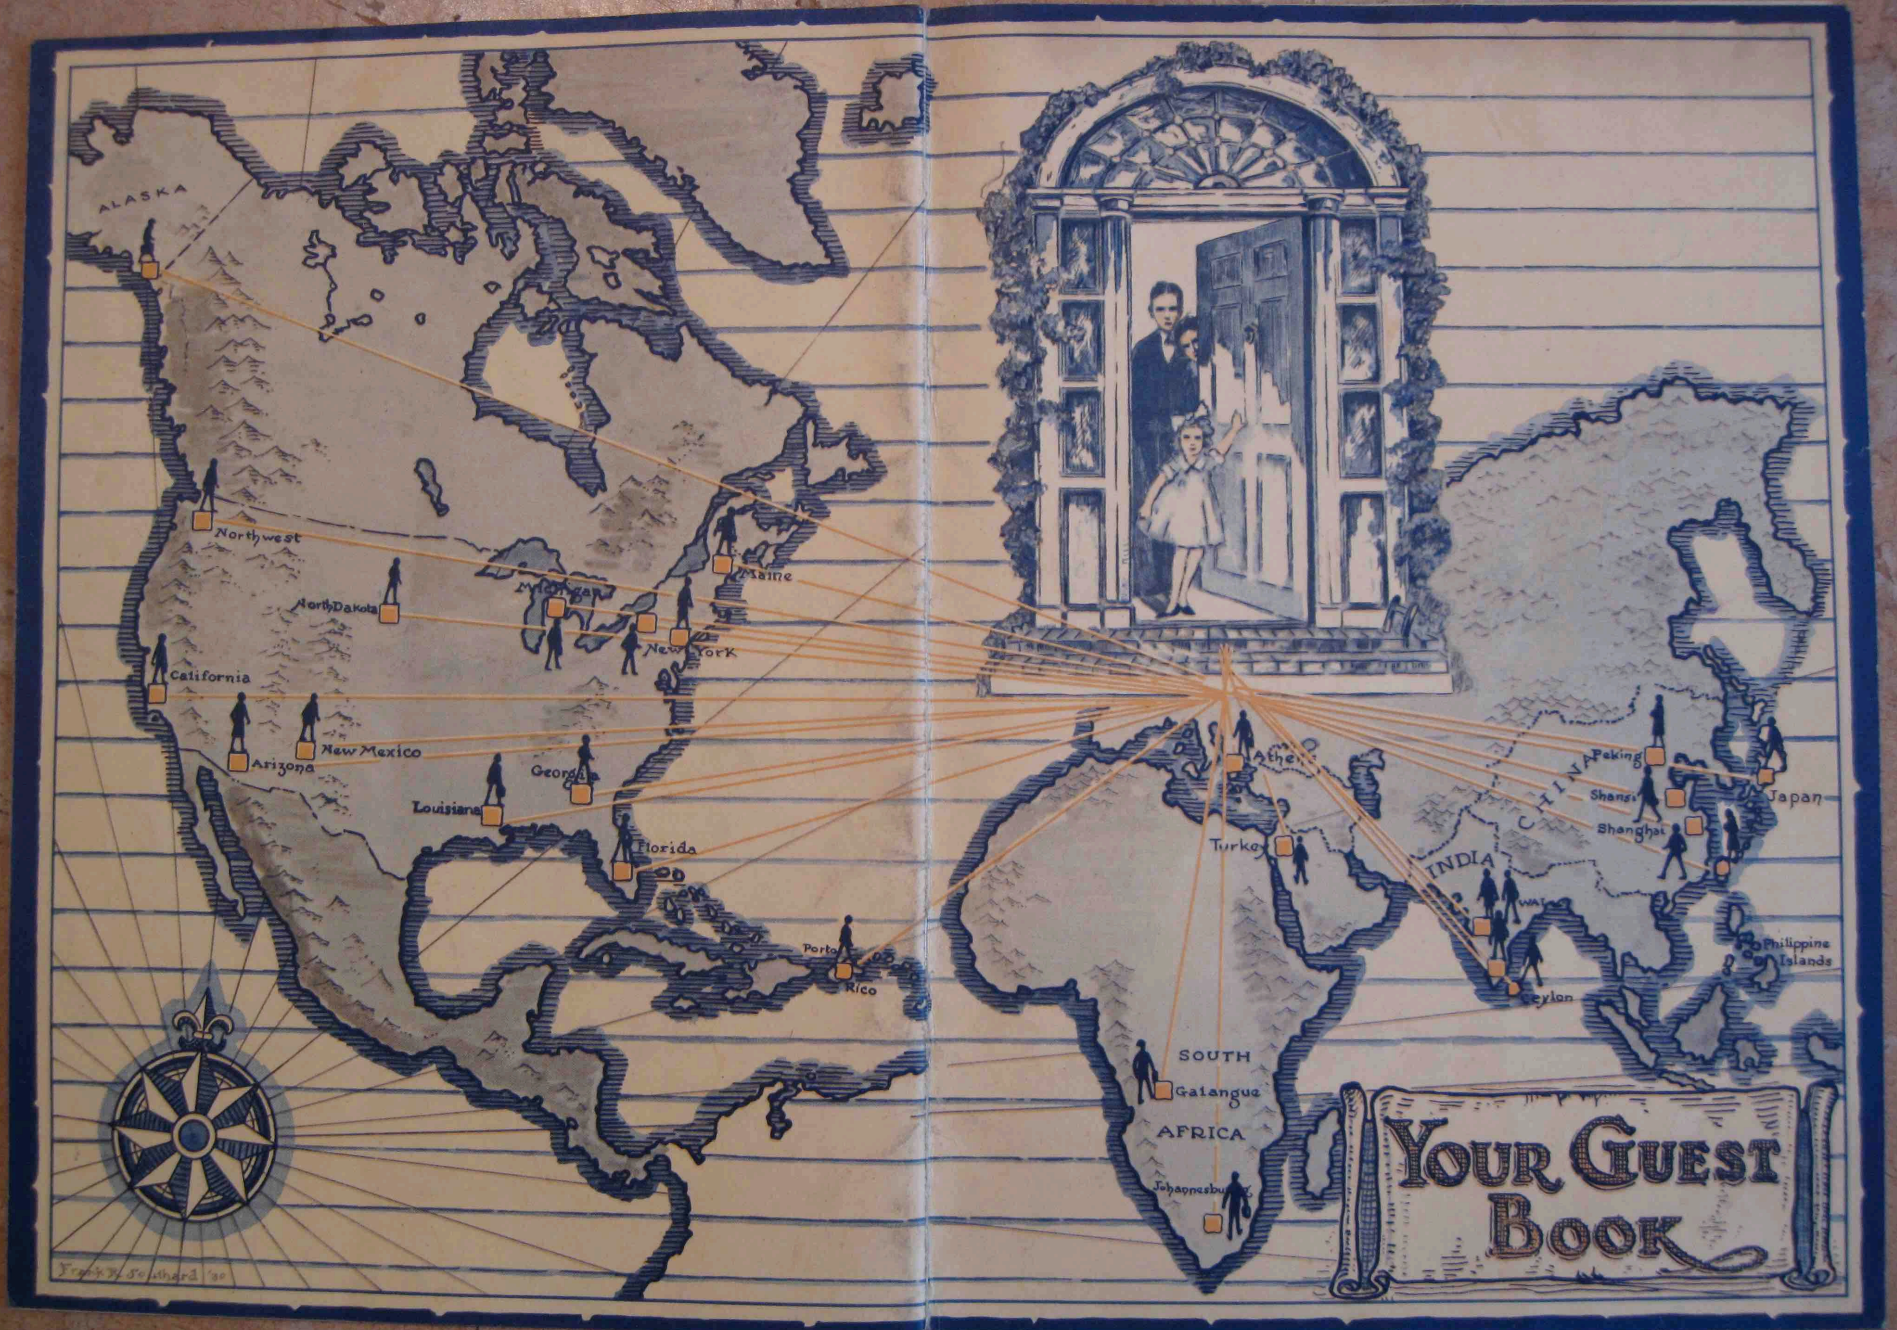

W. W. McMillan and C. A. Duncan were appointed on Association committees.

Mrs. W. A. McGonagle presided over the meetings of the Women's Missionary Society.

Pilgrim Church was represented by Jeremiah Kimball, Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, Mrs. J. S. Prisk, F. L. Berkheiser and the minister.

The general theme of the conference was "The Church of Tomorrow". The Sunday School, the Young People's Society, rural work, the foreign field claimed attention.

The sermon of Rev. W. E. Hammond on "The Audacity of the Christian Religion" and the address of Rev. Malcolm Dana on "The Larger Parish" were exceptionally brilliant and stirring.

WORLD TRAVELLERS Are Coming to Be Your Guests!

From many parts of our United States and from many lands across the ocean they are coming to let you see, through their varied personalities, the work which your church is doing to build tomorrow's world.

Each day for four weeks you can, in imagination, have one of them in your home to bring you evidence that the good in the world can win when it is given a chance by those who follow the Christ.

These guests are representatives of nine thousand men and women across the world whose full time is given to the work of your church. Some are missionaries, some come from the nations which the missionaries serve, all are ambassadors of friendship and good will.

How to Use the Guest Book

Many readers of last year's edition passed on valuable suggestions on how best to use it. During the fall and winter concrete suggestions for using the Guest Book in new and unusual ways will appear in the missionary magazines. The Guest Book offers a new page to read each day throughout a month. Some will want to have the page for each day read by a different member of the family, in rotation. The younger members may like best to pretend to be guests—one by one. These imaginary conversations are intended to be read aloud. They are best used one at a time—not read all together like other books.

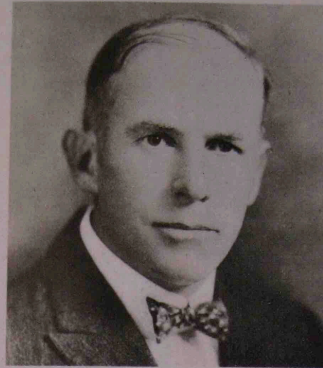

How to Secure Further Facts About Guests

If you want to know more about the guest for each day, you can consult the "Who's Who" at the back of the book. There you will find interesting information. If you want to know about others who work with your guest, or more about the kind of things your guest is doing, you can write to the nearest office of the Commission on Missions: 287 Fourth Avenue, New York, 14 Beacon St., Boston, or 19 S. La Salle St., Chicago. If you are at a distance, please allow plenty of time for a reply.

When your pastor talks about "our missionaries at home and abroad" he is talking about real men and women like these interesting folk which this little book introduces to your home. This book is a part of the Plan of Advance. It is to help advance your knowledge of just what your church does in world service and to make plain the things which can be accomplished through the sending out of men and women who demonstrate in their own lives the worth of Jesus' way of living. These men and women cannot go on working without the support of homes like yours.

Fifth Day

Ernest W. Riggs, Secretary for Africa, brings Ray Phillips, modern miracle man, to your home today

What wizards of old did by necromancy, and prophets did by signs, Ray Phillips does with the silver screen in the heart of South Africa. Champion of educational recreation for the miners, his work has always served the highest Christian ends

"Mr. Phillips and I have come together to see you because I wanted to introduce him to you in a way that his modesty would forbid were he here alone! I imagine you are a bit surprised to hear me say that he is a movie missionary. You might think of some of the absurd caricatures you've seen on the screen of solemn looking individuals in black. You have only to look at Mr. Phillips here to see that he's not that kind.

"But movies are his special stock in trade. Down in South Africa where he lives, there are more than 180,000 black boys working as contract laborers in the gold mines. They are almost prisoners for the months of their contract. Among them Mr. Phillips directs twenty movie machines, with his pick of the world's best films, and puts on recreational and educational programs to amuse, educate and stimulate these hard workers. Imagine giving three hundred shows a month! He reaches 125,000 workers every week. Of course, there are comedies that make them roar and educational films and classes that develop their minds, and then pictures of the life of Christ in color with simple religious talks and Bible classes in their compounds.

"Tell our friends a bit about your work, Phillips!"

"Well, I hardly know where to commence. You probably wonder how we got started. It wasn't my idea to begin with. The late Dr. Bridgman, a great missionary with amazing foresight, began it after studying the needs of the hundreds and thousands of mine workers who come and work a while and then go back to their homes in the bush. He saw that anything done for them would be carried all over the country and help change the life of their primitive villages. But how? There were many languages to contend with, shifting groups, lack of funds and workers. Movies did the thing nothing else could do. They are a sort of universal language.

"You ought to see the crowd gather when dark comes and the portable projectors begin to hum. We've stopped riots, developed a spirit of cooperation, begun mass education, and planted the seeds of helpful new ideas about religion and character. At first the mine owners and the Chamber of Commerce had to be shown; but once they saw a few demonstrations they were with us heartily. They put up the funds too—to the tune of more than $30,000 a year.

"In addition to showing the films in mine compounds, we provide programs in fifty other places. It takes a year for the films to complete the circuit on which many of them reach from a quarter to a half million young Africans every week. The movies serve a real purpose in more abundant living for starved lives; they also bring real results in changed lives. From the mines have gone pastors, volunteer preachers, evangelists—all laymen—back to their home villages.

"In Johannesburg itself we have a social center. It means wholesome recreation of all kinds, not only to manual laborers but to other Africans as well, including lawyers, business men and merchants. It is doing a varied work through forum discussion, night school, Bible classes, mass athletics, music and personal interviews. Not your idea of what missions were like! Perhaps not, but don't you think it is doing the old work in a new way?"

WHO'S WHO

Beals, Rose Fairbank and Lester Hayes. Dr. Rose was born in India of missionary parents, graduated from Smith College and Johns Hopkins University, returning to India in 1900. Dr. Lester was born in Grand Blanc, Michigan, graduated from University of Michigan, B.A. and M.D., did Y.M.C.A. work in India, then was appointed to Wai in 1901. Married in 1905. This remarkable couple is but one of several in medical service under the American Board. In all there are 45 physicians, 14 of them women, in 27 hospitals and 51 dispensaries in 12 countries. Over 600,000 treatments are given yearly. An important part of the Board's medical work is in the training of assistants.

Blakesley, Robert I., was born in Northampton, Mass., and went to Amherst and Union Seminary for his education. During the summers, while still a student, he served in Florida, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and South Carolina. The total number of students commissioned similarly under the Eastern Division of the Church Extension Boards has been 296. Some have served more than one summer, and the total number of commissions issued since the service was inaugurated in 1920 has been 379.

Board of Ministerial Relief. The guests presented by the Board of Ministerial Relief are genuine persons who have given their lives to the Congregational ministry. Both are beyond four score years. One is spending her last years in a small New England town where she is still actively engaged in church work; the other has sought the milder climate of California, where even at 84 years he still wants plenty of work to "keep from being bored." It is not the custom of the Board of Relief to mention by name those who are the honored recipients of its benefits, but we ask our Congregational public to bear in mind the great family of the Board of Relief, numbering with the affiliated societies 819 members. Inasmuch as the minister generally is married and many of the widows have little children, the total membership of our Board of Relief family must be fully 1600. In this number are included 359 ministers and widows past 70 years of age and 123 children under 18 years of age. With the present giving of the churches, the average grant, including the Christmas remembrance, is but $392 to a minister and $309 to a widow.

Bull, Wilbur I., born at Carlisle, Mass., is a Dartmouth and Hartford Seminary graduate. He was ordained in 1913 at Billerica, Mass., where he first went to school. Since then he has been steadily at work in Maine. He was at Ashland from 1913 to 1925, being on the staff of the Aroostook Larger Parish from its beginning in 1922. Since 1925 he has been on the staff of the Oxford County United Parish. The "larger parish" idea, which has found wide application in rural regions where the churches are small and in need of aid, is in part his. Mr. Bull and many other state and national home missionaries are demonstrating that rural America need not become pagan.

Chelliah, J. V., who was educated from his early youth in Congregational mission schools, demonstrates the fact that these schools in foreign lands raise up a splendid leadership for coming generations. He is one of a great company few of whom are ever known by the American churches. As a keen scholar of mature wisdom he has written several books. He is likewise editor of The Morning Star, a Christian weekly, next to the oldest newspaper in Ceylon; member of the Board of Education for Ceylon; member of the Road Commission; Vice-principal of Jaffna College; and Moderator of the South India United Church.

Ch'eng Ching-yi (in Chinese the last name is written first) was born in Peking. He was educated in the London Mission (Congregational) schools in Tientsin, going later to England with Mr. George Owens to translate the Bible into Chinese. Studied in Scotland and later at Union Seminary and Columbia, New York City. Since the Edinburgh Missionary Conference in 1910 he has become increasingly a world figure among Christian leaders. He, like Professor Chelliah, represents the new leadership of the young churches of the East. There is no finer evidence of the effectiveness of missions than such personalities.

Coe, Estella L., is an Ohio girl and an Oberlin graduate. Her work in Japan along social lines has drawn the attention of the government which recently offered her a position as an official adviser in social work. She did not wish to lessen her Christian social activities and so declined. In 1928 she was invited to the Pacific Relations Conference at Tokyo as an official interpreter. In her proficiency in her chosen line of work, as also in the language of her adopted country, she is true to the great tradition of the American Board. Her mission is now united with the Christian Mission in Japan.

Dickinson, Rhoda Jane, is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and of the Minneapolis Y.W.C.A. Training Center. Following a period of high school English teaching, she went to Montana, where she spent several years serving the churches at Glasgow and at Roundup as an ordained minister. In 1925 she was moderator of the State Conference. She is now in her native state serving as Field Secretary of the State Conference. She is spending her time primarily visiting the churches in the interest of the state missionary program.

Frame, Alice Browne, Lit.D., widow of Rev. Murray S. Frame, was educated at Cambridge Latin School, Mt. Holyoke College (1900), and Hartford School of Religious Pedagogy. She went to China in 1905. She is now dean of the Women's College of Yenching University, which is one of thirteen union enterprises in higher education in China. The Chancellor and several other members of the faculty are Congregationalists. Presbyterians, English Congregationalists, and Methodists make up the remainder. Mrs. Frame is supported by Mt. Holyoke students and alumnae.

Fry, Earl C., is a Rhode Island man. Foster was his birthplace, Providence his later home. At nineteen he began preaching and studied for the ministry at the Christian Biblical Institute, Stanfordville, N. Y. He graduated in 1890, was ordained, and became pastor at New Bedford, Mass., moving later to Woodstock, Vt., where his first wife died. Later Mr. Fry was appointed to Japan. On the boat going over he met the woman who afterwards became his wife. Together they started a new work at Sendai in Northern Japan. He later went to Utsonomiya and began work as the only resident missionary in a district of 1,000,000.

Grey, Fred, now secretary of religious education for the Congregational churches of the Pacific Northwest, was born in Louth, Lincolnshire, England. His education was in Louth, Grimsby, and London Interdenominational Missionary Institute. After traveling with Dwight L. Moody in England and Scotland, he came to this country and was commissioned as a home missionary by the Congregational Home Missionary Society in 1894. Following pastoral work in Kansas he was commissioned by the Education Society. He is one of six specially trained experts in religious education under the Society in different parts of the country.

Leeds, Paul, is a native of the state of Michigan. As a young man he went to Dallas, Texas. Feeling the call to enter the ministry, he went to Kinder, La., where he has been hard at work for 37 years. For a number of years he served without regular salary but more recently has been under appointment of the Church Extension Boards. This type of work among neglected groups or under-privileged races is carried on throughout the United States.

Levonian, Loutfi, is an Armenian, educated in American Board schools in Aintab and at the American University at Beirut. He was likewise a Fellow of Pembroke College, England, and now occupies the chair of Old Testament and Islamic Studies in the School of Religion in Athens, where workers are being trained for Christian leadership in the Near East under the American Board. He has lectured on Moslem mentality at leading universities in America, is the author of several books and many pamphlets both in English and Turkish. He admirably represents the second generation of Christians in mission lands.

McDowell, Henry Curtis, and his wife represent the Negro Congregational Churches. Graduates of Talladega College, they are themselves products of home mission higher educational work among the colored people who constitute one-tenth of America's population. Mr. McDowell received his training for the ministry at Yale, which was originally founded to train Congregational ministers. The McDowells are two of the American Board's 111 missionaries in Africa. They are building part of the new educational system of that land, and training a sturdy leadership for the growing church.

Moore, Elizabeth B., principal of Dorchester Academy, McIntosh, Ga., is the daughter of a former superintendent of colored church work in the South. She was graduated from Fisk University, later studied methods there, and was a successful teacher in A.M.A. schools for six years. She then served as Supervisor of Home Economics in Nashville City Schools for almost a decade before accepting the principalship at Dorchester, a very difficult field. Miss Moore has personality, perseverance, and pluck, and the improvement in school and community during her administration is marked.

Moore, James A. G., was born in Geneva, N. Y. He was educated there at Trinity College. After graduation from Colgate Rochester Divinity School, and two years of War Work, he took the post where he now is in religious work among students at Cornell University. The Education Society, the local Congregational church, and the New York State Conference originally shared in this work which is now wholly under the two latter organizations. Throughout the country at state colleges and universities there are men and women in similar work helping to keep the Christian colleges Christian through contact with the students.

Nash, George Williston, native of Wisconsin, graduated from Yankton College, Minnesota University, and University of Leipzig, becoming professor of mathematics in his Alma Mater, and principal of the Academy. Later he was State Superintendent of Public Instruction, resigning after three years to become president of the Northern Normal and Industrial School, nine years later head principal of the Washington State Normal School at Bellingham. While there he was chosen president of the Congregational Foundation for Education in 1921. Four years later he accepted the presidency of Yankton College.

Nilson, Paul E., comes from Rockford, Ill. Graduate of Beloit, Ill., and Hartford Seminary, '18. Commissioned to Turkey, '19. He is head of the American School for Boys at Talas. He spends much time in a new kind of country evangelism. He is representative of the vast work in elementary education and rural extension carried on by the American Board. There are 315 teachers among the 650 missionaries of the Board. Many of them have other duties and all seek, as does Mr. Nilson, to find effective ways of opening the minds of the underprivileged to new ideas.

Outerbridge, Leonard Mallory, born in Warwick, Bermuda, was there trained in agriculture, becoming officer in charge of the Department of Agriculture there. Later studied at Wabash College, Chicago University Divinity School, and Queen's Theological College. He was appointed to China in 1925 and has served both in the South and North. While deeply committed to the teaching of agriculture, he sees in it a means to self-support for the local churches, and combines a true ministry of religion with the ministry of scientific service applied at the point of China's great need. He, like many other missionaries, frequently re-enacts under God the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand.

Peterson, C. M., represents the little-known group of State Conference workers who are home missionaries in all but name. Born in Chicago, educated there and at Wheaton, Ill. He is an ordained minister with solid experience in rural work and a thorough grasp of the cooperative idea as worked out in the "larger parish" plan. He is now located in Michigan amidst forests where wild animals still abound. Into his section come many thousands of people from the cities for the hunting and fishing season. That usually complicates the religious problem in backward communities and puts an extra test upon the resourcefulness and leadership of the missionary. Mr. Peterson is the kind of man who can meet such a test and win the respect of everyone—country or city bred.

Phillips, Ray Edmund, of Hawthorne, Wisc., has had college and seminary training at Carleton and in Geneva, N. Y. College. After her Divinity School, he took the post among students of the New York and the latter organization at state colleges and women in similar Christian colleges the students.

ethorne, Wisc., has at Carleton and Yales likewise experience in bookkeeping and law. He went to South Africa in 1918 and soon found himself deep in the work of social service which Dr. F. B. Bridgman had begun. Besides his vast influence through the skillful use of the motion picture, he is a writer for the influential press of South Africa (both white and black), a preacher, and a discoverer in the field of race relations. He had led in the formation of interracial committees and the awakening of a new social science. It is no accident that a missionary leads in the technique of reconciliation and understanding. It is true around the world.

Pratt, Jennie F., social worker and kindergarten teacher at Ellis Island, is of Italian parentage, and was born in Newark, New Jersey. She was educated in the public schools of that city and spent a year in one of its hospitals with the idea of becoming a nurse. She was brought up in the Catholic faith. She decided to go into Christian work and entered the Baptist Missionary Training School, graduating in 1912. Afterward she trained at the Kindergarten College of Illinois and took a social service course in New York City. Since 1921 she has cared for the mothers and children of the newcomers at Ellis Island under the commission of the Church Extension Boards.

Riggs, Frederick B., principal, has spent forty years at Santee Normal Training School, representing the third generation of Riggs' in the Indian Service of the A.M.A. A graduate of Yankton College, his Alma Mater has conferred upon him the degrees of B.A. and L.L.D. because of his ability and achievements. He writes and speaks the Dakota language fluently and knows Indian conditions all over the United States. The Bureau of Indian Affairs, Indian missionaries and the Indians themselves regard him as an authority on Indian questions, as well as a friend and adviser.

Rowland, Annie Graham, is a daughter of the name. Her father, Dr. C. H. Rowland, is pastor of the Christian Church, Greensboro, N. C. When she was born he was in charge of a church in Franklin, Va. She graduated from Elon College and from Boston University School of Religious Education, '29. She is a member of her father's church and last year received appointment under the Home Mission Board of the Christian Church and the Home Missions Council as Religious Work Director of the Roosevelt Indian School in Ft. Apache. She is one of a group of home mission workers in government schools—a real part of the homeland task of the churches.

Valencia, Jesus J., is peculiarly fitted for his work among the Spanish-speaking people of this country, for he is himself of Mexican ancestry and birth. He was born at Hermosillo, Mexico, on November 25, 1875. After completing his course at International College, Springfield, Mass., Mr. Valencia was ordained to the ministry by the Congregational Chihuahua Council of Mexico in 1905. Since that time he has served several churches in Old Mexico; Fuerte, Chihuahua, and Guadalajara, coming to his present work at El Paso, Texas, in 1921. Mr. Valencia is married and has seven children, the oldest of whom is fifteen years old.

Watson, James, was born in England, where he received his early education; later he was graduated from Yankton College, a Congregational home missionary college in South Dakota. The University of South Dakota gave him his M.A. and B.S. in medicine, after which he held several successful pastorates in South Dakota. He served in France during the war and later was pastor of Millard Church in Chicago. Intensely interested in medical missions he definitely prepared for service at Northwestern Medical School, Evanston, Ill., graduating with honors in 1924. Since 1925 he has been physician-in-charge at Ryder Memorial Hospital, Humacao, Porto Rico. In a peculiarly happy way he combines skill in teaching, preaching, and healing—three great functions of the church.

Wolsted, Clarence Edman, comes from Harmony, Minn. He was educated at North Dakota Agricultural College, Chicago Theological Seminary and Chicago University (M.A.). He had two years with the A.E.F. in France, and went to India in 1922. He is a supervisor of churches and in charge of a leper asylum, and his method of helping the people to a higher level of life is in part through agricultural training and demonstrations. His versatility as a preacher-agriculturist-administrator suggests the adaptability of the missionary to the varied demands of life in underprivileged areas of the world.

WHAT THE GUESTS REPRESENT

These twenty-eight men and women represent, as you were reminded in the introduction, twenty-three hundred missionaries of the Congregational and Christian churches at work all over America and around the world. Perhaps you have not known much about them. Some of your questions may be answered here.

How many missionaries have we?

About seventeen hundred at home and six hundred and fifty abroad. That means on the average less than one half of one missionary per church, since there are seven thousand of our churches in America.

What does it cost to support this work?

A little over five and three quarter million dollars yearly, including state, national, and overseas work.

Where does the money come from?

$1,081,339 from gifts and payments made by those among whom the missionaries are working.
$3,751,327 from living donors in the churches.
$1,809,543 from legacies and interest on gifts of past generations.

What is the overhead expense?

Administration and promotion cost from 12% to 15% in the various departments.

Who is responsible for this work?

Twenty-three self-supporting State Conference organizations.

The Home Board (national work) through four main divisions: Church Extension Boards, American Missionary Association, Ministerial Boards, Education Society and Foundation.

The American Board (overseas work) in twelve countries.

(The Commission on Missions is the agency of the churches for the effective coordination of all missionary work.)

How do the churches control these agencies?

By election of the majority of the directors through the voting delegates of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches.

What attitude is taken toward church union?

Every effort is made to avoid competition and over-lapping. Generally speaking, the Congregational and Christian Churches lead in church unity. The Boards seek cooperation through interdenominational and union agencies both at home and abroad.

WHAT IS THE MOTIVE AND PURPOSE?

"Our message is Christ. He is the revelation of what God is and of what man through Him may become. . . .

"Our true and compelling motive lies in the very nature of the God to whom we have given our hearts. Since He is love, His very nature is to share. Christ is the expression in time of the eternal self-giving of the Father. Coming into fellowship with Christ we find in ourselves an over-mastering impulse to share Him with others. We are constrained by the love of Christ and by obedience to His last command. He Himself said, 'I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly,' and our experience corroborates it. He has become life to us. We would share that life.

"Christ is our motive and Christ is our end. We must give nothing less, and we can give nothing more. . . ." (Jerusalem Conference Message.)

The Commission on Missions

OF THE CONGREGATIONAL AND CHRISTIAN CHURCHES
287 FOURTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

Dear Friends:

Courteous people like the guests in this book would write "bread and butter" letters after visiting in your home. This is obviously impossible since they have been entertained in over a quarter of a million homes. Therefore, we who introduced them to you now acknowledge for them your hospitality. They came under no ordinary circumstances. They have told their story so that you might share with them the joys of accomplishment. Some of them, and others like them, face the possibility of having to give up the work they love unless you feel the urge to do more toward their support.

The Guest Book is a vital part of the Plan of Advance which has grown out of a determination of the Congregational Fellowship not only to continue supporting world service, at home and abroad, but, beginning in 1930, to increase that support by at least 20%--or $600,000 over the giving of 1928. This means to advance from three million to three million six hundred thousand in total annual gifts.

Unless all of our Churches, large and small, actually do their share, there is no hope of making a success of this. Individuals are being asked and have gladly offered to make large gifts toward a third of this advance. But their gifts are conditioned upon the raising of the remaining two thirds--$400,000--through the Churches. Six thousand Congregational Churches, and their individual members, will be answering "yes" or "no" in the next few weeks.

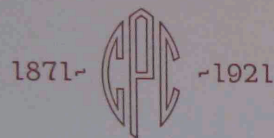

You are the home partners of these men and women who have been your guests. You, with them, can do much toward building tomorrow's world after the mind of Christ. He waits for those who will make possible his wider conquests of human hearts through their own devotion.

Yours faithfully,

The Editor

"The Church and Transient Populations" is the topic discussed in the third chapter of H. P. Douglas' "From Survey to Service". Part of Wednesday evening's meeting will inquire into his argument.

"Let not the authority of the writer be a stumbling block, whether he be of great or small learning; but let the love of pure truth draw thee to read. Enquire not who wrote this or that, but mark what is spoken."

Messrs. Nichols, Gray, Mattocks, George, Berkheiser, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley and the minister represented Pilgrim Church at the Finnish Congregational Church last Sunday evening when Rev. Alexander Muhonen preached his first sermon.

The party for little children between the ages of three and six planned for next Saturday afternoon begins at two thirty and lasts until four thirty. Mrs. Hadden would like to have the names of any children in the parish of suitable age not now attending any Sunday School. She will invite them.

If one were given to truth speaking, one would be compelled to whisper quietly herabouts that the attendance at midweek service is nothing to brag about. It might be contended with a good deal of cogency that it was not at all what an honest-to-goodness church like Pilgrim is "able for" as Tom Hitch would say.

The annual Thankoffering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society last Tuesday was a success in every way. Miss Hartwell's talk was the best of all her good talks in Duluth. The envelopes appeared to have $118 in them. Those who chanced to be absent may wish to know that the treasurer is not too tired to handle a few more envelopes.

Are there any members of Pilgrim Church who would like to send a copy of some good new book to a missionary just for the joy of the thing along toward Christmas? Names of the missionaries and suggestions about the books gladly given by the minister of this church. One response so far. This appears to be a vote to drop the matter.

ADDRESSES WANTED—Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hillic, Harriet Jeffery, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kuehl, Mrs. Eva E. Leahy, Mrs. C. A. McFadden, Mrs. Mary MacFarlane, Ella McFarlane, Mrs. Ida McKenzie, Amelia Fawcett Riedel, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Romaine, Echo Marie Barker, Mrs. E. G. Batte, Lillian Zerby Bennet, Martin Brown, Lina E. Cameron, Frank George. Mrs. Grawn thanks those who helped her with last Sunday's list and craves the same kind of interest in dealing with this list.

The barrel for the American Missionary Association School at Moorhead, Mississippi, must be sent this month. Mrs. Pinneo will be in the foyer after service to tell you what she thinks you ought to do. The contents of the barrel are sold to help the colored folks of the community to needed clothes and to help the school to extra funds wherewith to purchase extra equipment. For thirty years the school has been doing a notable work in that district. You need not ask whether or not it is worth while to contribute. It is.

CHURCH NOTES

November ninth ought to be reserved.
Suppose every one treated the church as you do.
Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are home Monday evenings.
Be sure to keep November ninth for the November Church Night dinner.
"If there be any good in thee believe that there is much more in others."
Special Vesper services in Pilgrim Church at five o'clock, Sunday, October 30th.

The Girl Scouts with Miss Elwell and Miss Hegardt directing meet Wednesday at four.

Mrs. H. F. Sleepack is in charge of the Cradle Roll Department from this day forward.

The Boy Scouts under Mr. Prisk and Mr. West meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Scout Rooms.

Mrs. Paddock heads the committee of N's, O's and P's who will make November ninth memorable.

A church cannot exist without members any more than a Masonic lodge can exist without members.

Talk over the matter of joining Pilgrim Church with the Standing Committee in the parlors this noon.

Mrs. S. Y. McGiffert, Hemlock 374, ought to be told about Pilgrim young folks who are away at college.

The Winter Group will meet in the Kindergarten room of the Parish House Monday at 2:30. Hostess, Mrs. L. E. Paddock.

The Standing Committee meets this noon in the parlors to welcome such as may desire to unite with the church November 6th.

Cases of illness ought to be reported promptly to the minister. Don't assume that others are reporting any case of serious illness.

In common with the churches of the city, Pilgrim Church will hold a special service Armistice Day (November 11th) at 11 o'clock.

For fifty years Pilgrim Church has been able to do its work because men and women who believed in the Christian Way rallied to its support.

"What is happening to the family?", "What may we expect from modern pagan homes?" Part of the midweek service for such questions. Read Luke 11:1-13.

Mrs. Hart, supervisor of the Spring Group, requests that all members of that Group who have aprons to finish and return to her, please do so as soon as possible.

Pilgrim Church had three representatives at the first session of the Duluth Community Training Schools last Monday in the Y. W. C. A. Which is NOT as it should be.

The men of the Congregation who think it might be a profitable thing to resume the sessions of the Bible Class are asked to gather in the center of the church at the close of the service.

Wednesday, October 26th, the March Unit will meet at two o'clock in the Parish House. Sewing will be done for the Bethel Home and Children's Home. Mrs. W. R. Dougherty will act as hostess.

Fifteen to twenty youngsters are cared for in the Church-time Kindergarten each Sunday while their parents attend the morning service. You might tell your friends who have small children.

Pilgrim Church opens its doors and its heart to any who feel that the church is too good an institution to be allowed to perish. And who realize that the church cannot exist without members.

The N's, O's and P's will meet at the close of the service to make final arrangements for Church Night.

One hundred and thirty-seven dollars were found in Thank-offering envelopes. Not too late even now. As Mrs. McGonagle will tell you should you ask.

If the person who slipped a five dollar bill into the Information Boxes last Sunday will indicate to the minister its intended destination, it will be speeded on its way.

Major G. H. Schoof of the Canadian Mounted Police is our special speaker this afternoon. He has travelled extensively in Mexico and is able to tell us "the Truth about Mexico."

It is hoped that every organization in the church will arrange for a group conference Church Night. Mr. Pearce will make room reservations for you if you will speak to him.

Pilgrim Church opens its doors and its heart to any who feel that the church is too good an institution to be allowed to perish. And who realize that the church cannot exist without members.

The Winter Group is invited to meet with Mrs. C. A. Duncan on Tuesday, at 2:30. The women are asked to bring their own work or come prepared to sew on other work. Members please pass the word along as no other notices will be sent out.

Three hundred tickets are available for the November Church Night Dinner. Those who want to make sure ought to purchase them today. Messrs. Pearce, Nelson, Prisk, and John Neimeyer will be in the foyer and vestibule after service this morning. The price is fifty cents.

The Spring Group will hold an All Day Sewing Meeting in the Parish House, Friday, November 4th. Will each one who has taken home an apron to finish, kindly bring it to this meeting? Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mrs. Newton De Forest, Mrs. C. E. Adams, and Mrs. David Davis are hostesses.

Mrs. Grawn needs your help in locating the following members of Pilgrim Church: Harriet Jeffery, Mrs. Eva E. Leahy, Mrs. C. A. McFadden, Amelia Fawcett Riedel, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Romaine, Echo Marie Barker, Lillian Zerby Bennewise, Mrs. C. H. Wright, Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Whitney.

The women of the church will pack a barrel in November for a Congregational family in Northern Minnesota. The family consists of father and mother and eight children whose ages range from two to fifteen. Five of these are girls and three are boys. Mrs. McMillan knows a good deal about the plans.

Father and Son week is now a national affair. Pilgrim Church plans to observe the occasion by having a table for fathers and sons at the Church Night Dinner. Will the fathers of the parish when they purchase their Church Night tickets today secure tickets for the lad or lads who ought to share in the evening.

THOMAS JONES DAVIS 1849-1921

A long brilliant life came to a close suddenly and quietly when Thomas Jones Davis passed away at sunset Friday October 28, 1921.

Simple services were held at the family residence, on Sunday, October 30th, and the remains were taken to Lee, N. H., and laid to rest in the family burial grounds just across the road from the old home. The services there were conducted by his old pastor Reverend Edward M. Noyes of Newton Center, Massachusetts.

Accompanied by his wife, Mr. Davis had returned Thursday from Lee, where he had spent the summer at the old homestead in the very house where he was born. Visiting boyhood haunts and renewing old friendships he enjoyed with unusual zest those simple pleasures from which not only his active life but also ill health had long debarred him. He was in unusually high spirits at getting home to his family and grand children one of whom he had never seen before.

Thomas Jones Davis was born October 22, 1849, the son of Nathaniel C. and Elizabeth Jones Davis. Before he was eighteen years of age he taught school. Later he studied at the Normal School in Farmington, Me. He became principal of the New Market, N. H., High School, and while acting in that capacity he studied law in the office of Judge Small of New Market. Mr. Davis, after two years of law at Ann Arbor, Mich., was admitted to the bar at Pontiac, Mich., and there practised law with Mr. W. N. Draper. He was married to Julia Bennett of New Market, N. H., and to them, one son, David Davis, was born. Mr. Davis' first wife died in June, 1885, and the following year he came to Duluth, where he first practised under the firm name of Draper and Davis. Later this firm became Draper, Davis, Hollister & Hicks, still later Davis & Hollister, and in more recent years Mr. Davis practiced with his son David Davis. Ever since his arrival in Duluth, Mr. Davis was very much interested in the growth of his city and state. He was the founder of the Duluth Bar Library Association, and for twelve years struggled as President, to build up for lasting use this splendid monument. He was an active member in the State Forestry Board and was instrumental in the establishment of Itasca State Park.

In 1889, Mr. Davis was married to Martha Mills of Mayville, Michigan. They were the parents of three children, the only surviving one of whom is Mrs. Frederick D. Raymond (Millett Davis).

STORY TELLER HAS HER ENGAGEMENTS EXTENDED IN CITY

Miss Grace Hemingway, who will speak at 3:30 Saturday afternoon at Pilgrim Congregational church under the auspices of the Duluth Kindergarten club, is considered one of the most accomplished story-tellers of the country. Increased interest in the story hour for children, which will be given by Miss Hemingway without charge has made it necessary to have three gatherings of the children. Miss Mary D. Davis, supervisor of the primary department of the city schools, announced this morning. There will be a story hour at Central high school auditorium, 10:45 to 11:30, and the schools who will attend at that time will be announced later. The other story hours for children will be held at 3:30 Friday afternoon at the Lincoln junior high school and from 9:30 to 10:30 Saturday morning at the Central auditorium.

"Whether parents now have the art of story-telling to the little folks, or not, it will be a work of love to listen to both the theory as well as practice in this one of the oldest of the arts," is the opinion expressed on one who has heard Miss Hemingway.

Imbued with the idea that if her work was to be of the greatest effect she must learn the folklore of the nations she was representing, she journeyed through England, Scotland, Germany and other European countries making a study of the child mind.

Monthly Dinner at Pilgrim Congregational Church

The monthly church night dinner of Pilgrim Congregational church will take place next Wednesday at 7:15. The regular meeting of the women's assembly will be held after the dinner in the church parlors.

SUNDAY MORNING—The Duluth News Tribune.

Saturday Story Hour Attended By 2,500 Pupils

Twenty-five hundred Duluth school children were present at two story-telling hours given by Miss Grace Hemingway, story teller and lecturer yesterday morning at the Central high school auditorium.

Miss Hemingway delighted two gatherings with extraordinary tales of adventures and realities, told in

Meetings

The Winter Group of Pilgrim Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Duncan this afternoon to complete plans for the Christmas fair, which will take place Dec. 1. The Winter Group will have charge of the luncheon, which will be served on the day of the fair.

N.T. Nov. 22.

Many Duluth women are taking advantage of the opportunity offered by Pilgrim Congregational church women, who will serve an attractive luncheon at the church on Thursday noon at 12:30 o'clock. Reservations for luncheon parties may be made by notifying Mrs. Richard Northrup, Hemlock 407. This would be quite a novel and easy way to give a luncheon.

Her. Nov. 28.

her own novel way. Children packed the auditorium for both sessions and gave the speaker a tremendous ovation at the close. Chattered street cars conveyed the children to and from their neighborhoods.

Sincerity, sympathy, simplicity and spontaneity are the four fundamentals on which good story telling is based. Miss Hemingway told 150 teachers and guests at a luncheon at the Pilgrim Congregational church at 12:30 p. m., which was followed by a lecture to 600 persons in the church auditorium at 3:30 o'clock.

Proper story telling to children is a vital obligation of every parent, Miss Hemingway said. Stories for the moral good of the child will figure prominently in their after years, she asserted.

Children's Hour.

THE CHILDREN of Duluth are to have a story hour at the Central high school building at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning through the courtesy of the Duluth Kindergarten-Primary Teachers' club, who are taking Miss Grace Hemingway, social director and instructor of children's literature at the National Kindergarten college at Chicago, to Duluth. This story hour will be free and the children will attend under the direction of the teachers in the various buildings. Miss Hemingway will tell many of a stories in costume and among those to be told is "Hansel and Gretel," for which she will have piano accompaniment played by Miss Ruth Goehde, the Kindergarten from the Munger school.

At 12:30 p. m. the ladies of the Pilgrim Congregational church will serve luncheon for the members of the club at the church building. This will be followed by an informal talk for the teachers on the theory of story telling.

The general public are invited to attend the lecture to be given in the recreational hall of the Pilgrim Congregational church at 3:30 p. m. "Children's Literature" is the topic of the talk, which will be illustrated by story telling. Tickets are on sale at the Glass Block and at the book exhibit at the library as well as at room 312 Glencoe building.

These programs are planned with the idea of furthering the work of "Children's Book Week," which is being nationally observed this week. Miss Cora Schaeffer is chairman of the program committee. Miss Helen Staver of the luncheon committee, and Miss Mildred Boardman is in charge of the ticket sale.

CONGREGATIONAL

Pilgrim—At Pilgrim Congregational church, Twenty-third avenue East and Fourth street, Noble Strong Elderkin, minister, morning worship begins at 10:30. The sermon is on "The Building of Faith." There will be a special vesper service at 7 o'clock, with a sermon, "The Ice on the North Pole."

Miss Grace Hemingway Scores Success

Miss Grace Hemingway, lecturer and famous children's story teller, who is in Duluth in connection with Children's Book week, was successful in her mission at a luncheon of 150 guests at the Pilgrim Congregational church. Mrs. E. C. Collins was in charge of arrangement and was assisted by students of the Duluth State Teachers college, who served coffee and lunch. Miss Hemingway was the guest of honor at the luncheon. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Bentley, wife of the superintendent of schools. Miss Caroline Barber of the Superior normal school, Miss Woolford, president of the Superior Kindergarten club, and Miss Anna Dolan, primary supervisor of Superior schools. Following the luncheon, Miss Hemingway gave an interesting illustrated lecture on the Value of Children's Literature. Under the auspices of the Duluth Kindergarten-Primary club.

Increased interest in the story hour for children, which was given by Miss Hemingway without charge, made it necessary to have three gatherings of the children. Yesterday afternoon a story hour was held at the Lincoln junior high school and this morning there was one from 9:30 to 10:30 and from 11:30 to 11:59 in the Central high school auditorium. About 2,500 youngsters from all over the city were enchanted by the delightful stories that Miss Hemingway told. Special cars were furnished by the Duluth Street Railway company, so that the children from Lakeside, Woodland and West Duluth were able to attend. Miss Mary D. Davis, supervisor of the primary department in the city schools, has kept a list of the stories told by Miss Hemingway, and will have them mimeographed so that teachers in all of the city schools will have a copy and will be able to retell the stories to their classes.

Last night eleven former college mates of Miss Hemingway gave a dinner at the Commercial club in her honor.

Miss Hemingway's appearance in Duluth is regarded as a very fitting climax to Children's Book week. It is like saving the frosting of the cake for the last tidbit.

Proper story telling to children is a vital obligation of every parent, Miss Hemingway said. Stories for the moral good of the child will figure prominently in their after years, she asserted.

Children's Hour.

THE CHILDREN of Duluth are to have a story hour at the Central high school building at 3:30 o'clock Saturday morning through the courtesy of the Duluth Kindergarten-Primary Teacher's club, who are training Miss Grace Hemingway, special director and instructor of Children's literature at the National Kindergarten college at Chicago, to Duluth. This story hour will be free and the children will attend under the direction of the teachers in the various buildings. Miss Hemingway will tell many of her stories in costume and among those to be told is "Hansel and Gretel" for which she will have piano accompaniment played by Miss Ruth Geddes, the Kindergarten teacher from the Munger school.

At 12:30 p. m. the ladies of the Pilgrim Congregational church will serve luncheon for the members of the club at the church building. This will be followed by an informal talk

Miss Hemingway will give an interesting illustrated lecture on the value of Children's literature. The order the supplies of the Duluth Kindergarten-Primary club.

Increased interest in the story hour for children, which was given by Miss Hemingway without charge, made it necessary to have three gatherings of the story hour was held at the Lincoln Junior high school and this morning there was one from 9:30 to 10:30 and school auditorium. About 40,000 youngsters from all over the city were enchanted by the city stories that Miss Hemingway told, and special cars were furnished by the Duluth Street Railway company so that the children from Woodland and West Duluth were able to attend. Miss Mary D. Davis, supervisor of the primary department of the city schools, has kept a list of the stories told by Miss Hemingway, and will have them mimeographed so that teachers in all of the city schools will have a copy and will be able to retell the stories to their classes.

The general public are invited to attend the lecture to be given in the recreational hall of the Pilgrim Congregational church at 3:30 p. m. "Children's Literature" is the topic of the talk, which will be illustrated by story telling. Tickets are on sale at the Glass Block and at the book exhibit at the library as well as at room 315 Glencoe building.

These programs are planned with the idea of furthering the work of "Children's Book Week" which is being nationally observed this week. Miss Cora Schaeffer is chairman of the program committee. Miss Helen Slaver of the luncheon committee, and Miss Mildred Boardman is in charge of the ticket sale.

Sunday, November thirteenth
Nineteen hundred and twenty-one

Dr. E. A. Steiner of Grinnell chanced to be in the city for a few hours last Sunday morning. He was prevailed upon to give the Communion message. It was a great joy to welcome so distinguished a Congregationalist.

Church Night brought together 250 people. The dinner could not have been improved upon. Mrs. Paddock had plenty of excellent help. The conference arranged by Mr. Pearce had more snap than usual. More people stayed for the reports than ever before. Mr. Howard Underhill spoke to the men to their great profit. In every way it was a fine evening.

Clifford needs size 6½ shoes, Lloyd 5, Harley 4, May 4½, Nora 2, Clara 1½, Ida 11, Muriel 10, Theodore 9. The father requires size 7 and the mother size 5. These will be placed in the Christmas barrel which the Missionary Society is sending northward this year. Look over the fairly good shoes in that back closet and telephone Mrs. McGonagle.

MRS. DOLLY HOATSON COLLINS

Wednesday morning, November second, at the home of her son Edwin J. Collins, 2501 East Fifth Street, Mrs. Dolly Hoatson Collins passed gently from this life, after most patiently suffering for more than a year. Private services were held at the home on Friday, November the fourth and the remains laid to rest in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Born in Scotland April twenty-third, 1850, at the age of four years she came with her parents to the Bruce mines in Canada. Later her family moved to Ontonagon and Houghton Counties, Michigan, where her father, Thomas Hoatson, was identified with the copper mining industry, and for many years superintendent of the famous Calumet & Hecla Mine.

At Greenland, Michigan, November third, 1870, she was married to Lawrence Collins who died there October thirteenth, 1887.

Soon afterwards she moved to Calumet, Michigan, where she was an active member and deeply interested in the Calumet Congregational Church of which her father was one of the founders and treasurer.

For the past twelve years, being in very delicate health, she has spent the colder months away from Duluth, but has considered this her home.

She joined Pilgrim Church by letter, Sunday the sixteenth of January, 1921.

Mrs. Collins is survived by two sons, Thomas H. of Princeton, Mass., and Edwin J. of Duluth; three sisters, Mrs. T. F. Cole of Greenwich, Conn., Mrs. W. P. Harlow of Boulder, Colo., Miss Elizabeth Hoatson of Pasadena, Calif.; three brothers, Thomas Hoatson of Calumet, Michigan, James Hoatson of Hollywood, Calif., and John Hoatson of Ajo, Arizona.

Little James Robert Pinneo did not make it. No one ever fought more splendidly to stay among us. It seemed as though he had access to unmeasured resources. But last Wednesday very early in the morning those resources failed him. And he was gone. His father and mother will not easily know how deeply their many friends feel for them.

The Girl Scouts with Miss Elwell and Miss Hegardt directing meet Wednesday at four.

New members received in September and November were guests at the Church Night Dinner.

The Information Boxes did not do very well last Sunday when they ventured to interest themselves in the Deacons' Fund.

The Reverend S. M. Erickson, now back in Japan, may be addressed Southern Presbyterian Mission, Takamatsu, Sanuki Province, Japan.

The World Fellowship Committee of the Y. W. C. A. will give the Pageant: "World Fellowship" at their Vesper Service at 4:30 this afternoon.

On November 21st Mrs. Jane Clapp will enter her one hundredth year. Her friends in Pilgrim Church begin a week ahead to wish her every happiness.

Midweek service. Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Topic: "Bringing Harmony and Justice into Human relationships." Closing chapters of "From Survey to Service."

Mrs. Hart, Supervisor of The Spring Group, requests that the entire Spring Group meet at The Parish House, Wednesday, November 16th, at 2:00 to finish their work for the Fair.

This is Children's Book Week. There is an exhibit in the Library that will interest and help you. What finer gift can be given the children in our homes than a love for good reading!

The speaker this morning is associated with President Ozora Davis in building the new and greater Chicago Seminary which for more than 60 years has been training the religious leadership of the middle west.

Four are already in the group that will unite with Pilgrim Church New Year's Day. The church needs you and will make room for you in this group. Tell the minister today that you want to be counted in.

Miss Grace Henningway of the National Kindergarten College, Chicago, will give a lecture in the Parish House next Saturday afternoon, Nov. 19, at 3:30 o'clock. Her subject will be "Children's Literature and Story Telling". The charge will be 50 cents.

If you think you have any shoes in the house that might do further work in this world, telephone Mrs. McGonagle. The Missionary Society is worrying about a family in northern Minnesota where there are nine children who can't very well go barefooted this winter.

The men of the congregation will resume their Thursday evening ball games this week. Mrs. Robert Johnson heads the special committee that will provide refreshments. All men from 20 to 75 years invited. Golf and tiddledewinks for those who require more violent exercise. Doors open at 7:30.

The young people of the church conduct two services at the County Home this afternoon. They leave the church by automobile at 3 o'clock. Mr. Kimball and Miss White are the speakers. Special music has been arranged for both meetings. In case your machine is asked for, say "Certainly. Thank you for asking me."

Mrs. John MacLeod will speak on "Thanksgiving" at the Thanksgiving Vesper Service at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon, November 20th, 4:30 P. M. Social Hour and Song Group.

The ladies of the Winter Group will have charge of the luncheon the day of the Christmas Sale, Thursday, December 1st. They wish to announce that table reservations with special place cards may be obtained by calling Mrs. Northup Hemlock (4007) before November 28th and giving names of guests in their party.

Pilgrim Church was one of the fifty churches in Duluth holding special services Armistice Day morning. The Sunday School room was crowded. The following resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote:

The congregation assembled on Armistice Day 1921 in Pilgrim Congregational Church in Duluth Minnesota, in special service, with a deep appreciation of the action of our President, Warren G. Harding, in calling the leading nations of the earth to a Conference on Limitation of Armaments, and in memory of the countless millions who sacrificed in the Great War, hereby expresses its conviction that war has been proven an absolute failure in the settlement of international difficulties. For thousands of years it has wrought havoc and destruction. It has been tried and found guilty in the court of Humanity. Its conviction, before Almighty God, demands its abolition. We believe the Gospel of Christ is applicable alike to individuals and nations. As Christians we urge that the teachings of Jesus Christ should be substituted for war. We join all believers in international good will in praying that the spirit of Christ may permeate the sessions of the Conference on Limitation of Armaments. And we beg the Conference to remain in session until an agreement for a definite substantial limitation of armament is reached as the first step toward the abolition of war.

These resolutions were ordered sent to President Harding, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Larson.

In acknowledging receipt of the resolutions, Mr. Larson says, "Kindly assure the congregation that I most heartily concur in the sentiments expressed in the resolution. As their representative in Congress, I will vote to reduce our armaments pursuant to the will of the Conference.

LIGHTING THE WAY.

The friendly rays that fall tonight
Down roads our trusting footsteps take,
Ages ago, from some vast height,
Left some bright star that may be dead.
So words go taking swerveless flight
To guide men's steps on some far way;
May only love and truth go out to light
Those brothers on that fateful way.

The Winter Group has been meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Duncan, every Tuesday for several weeks. In consequence work bags and many fancy articles are now ready for the Fair.

Mrs. R. E. Johnson with the members of The Winter Group assisting, will serve a delicious luncheon on the day of The Christmas Sale, next Thursday, December 1st. Table reservations with special place-cards may be obtained by calling Mrs. Northup, Hem. 4007, before November 28th and giving names of guests in the individual parties. Luncheon served at 12:30. Mrs. Northup has charge of the tickets and would enjoy hearing from you.

On Monday, November 21st, Mrs. McGonagle entertained the Supervisors and Directors of The Women's Assembly at luncheon. Later the officers in meeting voted to send a Christmas gift of $25.00 each to Mr. Irwin, Ray Phillips, and Rev. Swan Erickson. Thanksgiving baskets were not forgotten and were arranged for. The Fair was thoroughly discussed and plans perfected. If any one, after thoroughly perusing this bulletin, has any inquiries about the Fair, Mrs. Paddock will surely be glad to answer, for she is in charge.

Wednesday, November 16th, was a very busy day for the Women's Assembly. The Spring Group met in the Junior Room and finished work on very attractive and useful aprons for The Fair. In the Kindergarten room, The Summer Group held forth. Dolls and cuddly kittens for the little ones (if mother buys them at The Fair) kept many fingers busily stitching. Later all had afternoon tea. The same afternoon Mrs. F. W. Orr entertained her September Unit at her home. Luncheon sets for the Fair which the members have made were on exhibition. Also the wonderful bed-spread made and donated for The Fair by Mrs. Gazett.

The members of the Kindergarten and Primary Association voted the luncheon given Saturday, November 19th in The Parish House, a huge success. The Autumn Supervisor with the November Director and members of The Autumn Group were responsible for 172 being served. Mrs. Florada had charge of the dining room and Mrs. Mattocks had charge of the twelve students of The Duluth State Teacher's College who served in a very capable way. Directly after the luncheon, Miss Grace Henningway of The National Kindergarten College, Chicago, spoke to the teachers and at 3:30 spoke to the general public. Her subject was "Children's Literature and Story Telling".

What day is The Fair? Next Thursday, December 1st!

At what place is The Fair? Pilgrim Church Sunday School Room!

At what time is The Fair? Ten o'clock in the morning!

What is for sale at The Fair?

The Spring Group reports—Aprons, plain and fancy!

The Summer Group reports—Dolls, kittens and home cooking!

The Autumn Group reports—Luncheon sets, house-hold linens and fancy articles.

The Winter Group reports—An advertising booth, doll hospital, beautiful bags, table runners, sewing kits all outfitted. Christmas tree for the kiddies. In fact, something for all from Grandma down to the baby.

BAZAR WOMAN'S BOON AS HOLIDAY SEASON DRAWS NEAR; MANY SUCH AFFAIRS; NEEDLES BUSY FOR WEEKS

"Bazar" is on the lips of every woman in Duluth.

Like its sister word, it smacks of the fabulous—a street in India, gay colors, bustling, Persian shawls, Oriental rugs, ceramics, incense, the beautiful and the rare.

For in Duluth, with Christmas close at hand, "bazar" implies nothing of the fantastic or the romantic. The word was adopted for a commission more noble. Bazar was the key to unlocking the door to women's activities outside of the home. In a gentle and humble way it aided the work of the church, it promoted sociability and it made money.

For weeks needles have been busy and plans have been in progress and now that the holiday season is here, the bazars are on. Each year they seem to outdo their predecessors, each year they grow. Their scope now includes not only the women of the churches who foster them, but every department and organization down to the Boy Scouts. They display embrace more than fancy work and gift suggestions; decorations are more elaborate and church suppers are usually served as part of the fair.

The first of a series of bazars to be held in Duluth will open at the First Baptist church, Ninth avenue east and First street, next Wednesday. The entire basement of the church will be transformed into booths from which the most delicate bits of handwork, practical Christmas gifts or home baking will be sold. A turkey dinner will be served at 6 o'clock and the sale will continue through the evening.

Among the innovations will be the nut booth in charge of the scout troop of the Baptist church. This, it is believed, is the first time the boys have taken an active part in the work of the church.

Another novelty which is planned is the Japanese tea garden, which will be a lower of refuge for weary shoppers who are beginning their gift purchasing early.

A number of classes in the Sunday school volunteered to outfit several booths. One class will conduct a Christmas tree fishing pond. Many new ideas for Christmas gifts are to be displayed, among them the Jerry bags, made of raffia and woolen yarns in bright colors. These have not yet been carried on the streets of Duluth. Committee chairmen in charge of the bazar are: Mesdames Walter Paken, E. R. Fitch, O. T. Christensen, C. P. Meigs, C. M. Hanna, H. A. Devoe and Jay H. Vessels.

A great many interesting features have been planned for the annual sale to be given Dec. 8 by the guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Hans Christensen is the head. The guild is divided into nine circles, which will have charge of the following booths:

Mrs. Rollin A. Horr and Mrs. Gwin Whitney, who is president of Circle

No. 1 this year will be in charge of the candy booth, where tempting sweets of every variety will be for sale. They will be assisted by the younger married women and girls who are members of the circle.

A delicious noonday luncheon will be served by the members of Circle No. 2, of which Mrs. P. C. Hector is president. The luncheon promises to be particularly enticing, as the cost is so small in comparison to the delicious menu that has been planned.

Mrs. Fred Reynolds, who is president of Circle No. 4, will have charge of the delicatessen shop. Circle No. 5, of which Mrs. John Dunlop is head, will have the gift shop, where an array of charming hand-made articles will be featured; Mrs. W. N. Reynolds, circle will feature attractive clothes for children in their booth; Mrs. G. C. Hartley and Mrs. W. J. Olcott, who are the presidents of Circles No. 7 and 8, will have charge of the miscellaneous booth, and the members of Circle No. 9, with Mrs. Benson at the head, have arranged for the large Christmas tree, which will be heavily laden with trinkets to help fill the kiddies' Christmas stockings.

Following the bazar, dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock at the church.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Grace Methodist church will hold their annual supper and bazar Dec. 2. Mrs. Dole is chairman of the committee in charge of the kitchen, and will have assisting her, Mesdames Louise Gibson, Leontine Seane, Peine, Shortz, Kinney and Abbott. Mesdames Charles Clark, Willard, Edward Harper, Hanson, Rickford, Dodge and Will Harper will be in charge of the tables and Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Mooney will take care of the fancy work booth.

The Women's Assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church will open its annual Christmas sale at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Dec. 1, in the parish home. A splendid assortment of fancy and useful articles and home looking will be on display. By making arrangements with Mrs. Richard Northrup before Monday individuals and special parties may make reservations for the very attractive luncheon that will be served at noon.

The women of the First Baptist church will hold their annual bazar in the church parlors during the day and evening of Nov. 30. A turkey dinner served at 6:30 o'clock will be a feature of the day.

An autumn festival at the First Presbyterian church will be held on Tuesday afternoon. There will be a sale of aprons, handkerchiefs and many beautiful articles for Christmas gifts, arranged in booths for keepers. The tea room, where Mrs. F. W. Buck will preside, will be open from 5 o'clock to 6. Tea, sandwiches and cakes will be served. The turkey dinner at 6:30 will be in charge of Mrs. N. D. Molead.

Dr. Noble S. Elderkin will speak at the T. W. C. A. winter service Sunday at 4:30 p. m. His subject will be "Balaam Has Some Ideas." There will be special violin music by the late Jackson, Miss Myrtle Welandier, accompanied by Mrs. Plaster, singing. At the social hour the Quaker Girls of Endon Methodist church will sing. Mrs. John A. Stephens will be the serving. There will be group singing around the fireplace. Everyone welcome.

OUR BOW!

This publication comes in answer to repeated requests from friends for some form of printed matter, regularly issued, which will recount the work of the Duluth churches, denominationally and cooperatively. It is the intention of the Inter-Church Council to issue the Bulletin monthly. As far as space allows, news of recent happenings and plans for the immediate future, within the churches, will be published, together with information regarding moral movements and news of conditions in the city.

We ask the cordial cooperation of all the churches and that each denomination will name one person who will furnish the news of its churches. It is our hope that the Bulletin will strengthen the ties which bind and definitely help each church in its great work of bringing folks to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ,—“the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the World,” establishing in the hearts and lives of the people, the two great commandments of the Christ,—“Thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy mind” and “Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself.”

ARMISTICE DAY IN DULUTH

Deep significance marked the celebration of the Third Anniversary of the signing of the Armistice on November 11th. The burial of the unknown soldier with national honors at Arlington Cemetery, and the pending opening of the Conference on Limitation of Armament at Washington, furnished a challenge to prayer and Christian activity.

In Duluth 56 churches held services of worship and prayer at 11 o'clock. From these services, messages of appreciation of President Harding for calling the Conference and expressing a burning desire for the establishment of Peace and Goodwill between Nations, were sent to Washington. The request of the President for two minutes of silent prayer at noon was generally observed.

In the afternoon a parade such as has not been equalled since war-time, marched from the Court House Square to the New Armory. This display in behalf of peace was tremendously impressive and an enthusiastic patriotic meeting with Mayor Snively presiding, was held in the Armory. Addresses condemnatory of war, and sounding a fine spiritual note, were delivered by A. H. Vernon, former State Commander of the American Legion in Minnesota; W. E. McEwen, Editor of the Labor World, and Rev. Noble S. Elderkin, D.D., pastor of Pilgrim Congregational Church. A ringing resolution calling the Conference on Limitation of Armament to remain in session until it has taken the necessary first step towards the abolition of war, was passed unanimously.

DULUTH MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

Some of the ministers recently formed a class for the study of the text book, “What is the Christian View of Work and Wealth?” under the leadership of Dr. Elderkin. They meet every Monday morning at the Glass Block tea rooms and will welcome other ministers joining their ranks. The regular meeting for December of the Ministerial Association was held on the fourth, when Rev. H. E. Ramseyer gave an interesting account of the work of the Northern Bible Society.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Duluth Training School for Sunday School Workers has entered on its seventh year. The sessions are held on Monday evenings at 7:30 at the Young Women's Christian Association. The capable instructors are much appreciated by the students and the studies are attractive and valuable. There are two class periods each evening, and between the periods, a short lecture is given by a prominent pastor. More students are desired. The present semester closes on January 16th, 1922; the next semester will open the following week. Many could join now, with profit. Will you not urge your teachers and officers, and also prospective Sunday School workers, to enroll in this School?

The spirit of teacher training is not only “in the air” but is becoming a matter of actual practice, through the city; in addition to the Community Training Schools, several Sunday Schools are holding classes in elementary teacher training.

THE CONFERENCE ON LIMITATION OF ARMAMENTS

CHURCH RESPONDS TO PEACE CHALLENGE

Duluth churches, so far, have had a very definite part in creating public opinion favorable to concrete action for actual reduction of armament. Beginning on August 9th, the Duluth Inter-Church Council sent letters to New York, suggesting that the Federal Council request the churches of the nation to hold special services of worship and prayer on November 11th and that from every service, messages be sent to the Conference on Limitation of Armament. We believed that the churches of America had a distinct task for the three months before the Conference, and that ministers of the Gospel, everywhere, should preach "Peace on Earth" with new emphasis, while the Christian millions in our land, by earnest prayer and devoted activity, should help to put the necessary spiritual note into the Conference. It was our conviction that the Power of God would be manifest as we were faithful.

The matter was presented at the August Monthly luncheon and enthusiastically endorsed. Soon after this, the Duluth Herald published a masterly editorial on "The Church and the Conference." This was so timely and so much to the point that we obtained 1,000 copies and sent them broadcast through the country, to ministerial associations, councils of churches, editors of religious papers and other magazines, to bishops and other church leaders. Each copy was accompanied by a letter expressing our views, signed by Dr. Scouler, chairman of the Religious Work Committee and the Executive Secretary. Assurances of support of the plan were received from all sections of the country. Our action was a part of the mighty uprising of the Churches of America. Many publications joined in aiding the movement and editorially commented on it. The Literary Digest quoted a portion of the editorial of the Duluth Herald and a part of the Inter-Church Council letter. The Christian Century, commenting on the "earnest and enthusiastic response of the moral forces of the nation," said, "It now looks as if the opening of the armament conference will take place in an atmosphere of public feeling and aspiration that will be truly religious. The Christian ministers and churches of the land show signs of more vital interest in the cause of peace than they have ever manifested before. Beginning at Duluth, Minn.,  the church federations in practically all the larger cities have taken action calculated to fix public attention upon the Washington gathering with determined optimism."

The impassioned addresses, for peace and against war, the fervent prayers, the patriotic hymns and songs, the deep earnest devotion and worship of Almighty God, in the special services in the churches, the parade, the mass meeting, the ringing resolutions, all combined to make the observance of Armistice Day in Duluth such as to bring the utmost satisfaction to the followers of the Prince of Peace, who desire to see fear and hatred replaced by confidence and goodwill in the relations of nations.

Our work in this matter is not done; it has just begun. May we urge that individuals and groups will keep in touch with the Conference at Washington and continue to let the leaders know our heartfelt desires that it may accomplish the purpose for which it was called? If any reader has not written President Harding or Secretary Hughes expressing appreciation of their bold and courageous proposals and confidence in the Conference being held until specific favorable action is taken, we would suggest that such messages be sent at once; and that, during the progress of the Conference, if the stand of any Commissioner,—from the United States or other countries,—shows the need of support, that we immediately give it to him.

As to our responsibilities in the further effort to suppress war, we quote the Baltimore Federation: "There must be throughout the coming years a continuous educational program among the churches. The Committee on International Goodwill proposes to continue holding public meetings, to prepare and distribute pamphlets, and to recommend books on this subject for the guidance of public thought." We believe that Duluth should create a Committee on International Goodwill.

NEARLY TEN YEARS OLD

Duluth is one of the few cities which, immediately after the Men and Religion Forward Movement swept across the country, caught a vision of the possibilities through church cooperation.

In 1912, the Inter-Church Council was organized to get the maximum benefit for Duluth of the reunings of the Men and Religion Movement. The Inter-Church Council will be ten years old in the spring and an anniversary celebration is contemplated. This is a purely local church federation composed of representatives of the constituent Protestant churches.

For nearly five years, the work of the Council and the St. Louis County Sunday School Association has been combined in one office; the economy in overhead is causing other cities to adopt the Duluth plan.

There has been developed a delightful spirit of cooperation between denominations and between pastors and laymen, which has accomplished much in the furtherance of the religious and moral life of Duluth.

The work of the Council has been comprehensive. While much of the effort and result is of a character which cannot be tabulated, the following constitute some of the accomplishments:

Furnishing inspiration and executive forces for Campaigns for: City, County and State "Dry" elections;

European Relief;
China Famine Relief;
Near East Relief.

Bringing noted speakers and experts for addresses and conferences on various phases of church life and work;

Assisting in setting up and carrying out various forms of Good Citizenship observance;

Arranging for religious services at Nopeming Sanatorium; Industrial Home and other needy places.

Holding open meetings and monthly luncheons for the transaction of business and hearing addresses by men with special messages.

Securing the observance of:

Week of Prayer;
Simultaneous Evangelistic meetings;

City-wide Good Friday services.

Conducting:
Community Training Schools for Sunday School Workers;

Semi-annual Pastors' and Superintendents' Conference;
Older Boys and Older Girls' Conferences;

County Sunday School Convention and District Institutes;

Two city-wide Adult Bible Class Campaigns and Adult Social.

Financing and Promoting locally the State Convention of the Minnesota Sunday School Association; and providing for the payment of the apportionment of St. Louis County for the work of the State, International and World Sunday School Associations.

Establishing Daily Vacation Bible Schools and providing a training institute for workers therein.

Considering the great question of Week Day Religious Instruction and securing the services of a commission of thirty well qualified persons to report thereon.

Promoting:

Proper religious observance of Armistice Day;

Religious Publicity;

Law enforcement.

A well equipped office is maintained for all lines of cooperative church effort and for general religious information. The Executive Secretary is at all times willing to render service for any church and also welcomes to the office anyone who desires to discuss church problems or make suggestions for the welfare of the community.

INDUSTRIAL HOME

Splendid service is rendered each Sunday afternoon at the Industrial Home. On the third Sunday of each month, a Catholic priest conducts the service, and on the other Sundays the Inter-Church Council arranges appointments for pastors of various denominations. The girls appreciate very much the services of worship, prayer and song. The December appointments are:

December 4—Rev. W. J. Barr, Central Avenue M. E.

December 11—Rev. H. Robinson McKee, Central Baptist.

December 25—Rev. A. W. Ryan, D. C. L., St. Paul's Episcopal.

COMING OF DR. GOODELL

Arrangements are being made for the visit of Dr. Charles L. Goodell of New York for one week from February 12th to 18th, 1922.

Dr. Goodell is the executive Secretary of the Commission on Evangelism and Life Service. He will speak at noon meetings in the Lyceum Theater on each week-day. Dr. Wm. F. Scouler, Chairman of the Religious Work Committee has appointed a subcommittee to make complete arrangements for Dr. Goodell's work in Duluth, which will include conferences with pastors and lay workers in various sections of the city, on the subject of Evangelism. Further announcement will be made.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The spirit of goodwill in the Christmas season always makes it possible for many worthy causes to gain the benefit of the fine Christmas atmosphere. This year appeals seem more numerous and stronger than ever. The Near East Relief is continuing to care for the orphans which have been rescued from the attempted extermination of the Armenians. A large section of Russia is holding out its hands, piteously begging for bread. Unemployment is causing a serious situation at home; various social agencies, including the Associated Charities and the Salvation Army, are endeavoring to relieve the resultant distress. The Goodwill Industries, with the motto, "Not a charity but a chance," is helping the handicapped, and others, with emergency employment.

Uncle Sam recognizes the principle of Christian Stewardship by allowing exemption from income tax on contributions made to churches, and religious and philanthropic organizations up to 15 per cent of the income. When making your gifts this month, may we ask that the above agencies be remembered, and also that you will make a contribution to the work of the Inter-Church Council, A. C. Le Duc, Treasurer?

THE CHURCH SCHOOL SERVICE, 12:00

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE 6:00

MRS. MARY MACFARLANE

Mrs. Mary MacFarlane, a member of Pilgrim Church for 31 years, passed away November 28 in her 74th year, at the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. E. H. Storms of Minneapolis.
 She is survived by a son, John D. MacFarlane, of 3120 Minnesota Ave., with whom she has made her home for the past few years, and a daughter, Ella. A daughter, Edith, died some years ago. Mrs. MacFarlane has been a devoted member of the church and in the earlier days was a constant attendant at all its services.

The sympathy of the Church goes out to her children.

The Friends in Council will meet Monday evening, Dec. 5, with Miss Esther Bowen, 2407 East Third Street. Miss Aimee Fergusdus of the Y. W. C. A. will speak on "The Meeting Problems of Girls". A cordial invitation is extended to these home meetings to those who find it difficult to attend the day missionary meetings.

CHURCH NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin are home Monday evenings.
 Mr. Ashley's boys play basket ball at the Church Thursday evenings.

The offering for the Children's Home on Thanksgiving morning amounted to $208.00.

The Inter-Church Council holds its special dinner in Pilgrim Church Tuesday, December 13th at 6:30 o'clock.

Midweek service Wednesday. Topic, "Friendliness within the Church."

If you have church letters elsewhere and you plan to join Pilgrim Church New Year's Day, you ought to write for them today.

When you purchase Christmas Seals you help in the fight against tuberculosis. Use them on your Christmas letters and packages.

Plan to meet the Standing Committee next Sunday morning at noon if you would like to share in the task of building the Commonwealth of Christ.

New people in the congregation include Mr. and Mrs. Hill, who are living at 1818 Minnesota Avenue. They are members of our church in Mason City, Iowa.

The second chapter in Mr. North's book "The Kingdom and the Nations" deals with China. It will be discussed Wednesday evening in the midweek service.

Annual Meeting and Dinner Tuesday, January 17th, 1922. Pilgrim Church men will be hosts to the men of the city churches Tuesday evening, December 13th.

New members will be welcomed January first. The Standing Committee will meet next Sunday at the close of service to confer with any minded to unite at that time.

Friends of Mr. Noyes will be sorry to know that he played the heavy role in a serious accident a few weeks ago. He is still in the hospital in Newton Centre, Massachusetts.

This evening at 8 o'clock reception of new members and the Communion Service in the Finnish Congregational Church, Lake and Third streets. Pilgrim Church folks will find a welcome.

President L. D. Coffman of the University of Minnesota speaks Tuesday evening next, at 8:15 o'clock in the Central High School auditorium. No admission charge. And everybody invited.

Balaam comes up for discussion at the Y. W. C. A. Vesper service this afternoon at 4:30. The minister of Pilgrim Church undertakes to do the discussing. Special music. And a social hour after the service.

No one knows who won the ball game Thursday, but all who were there know that the doughnuts and coffee provided by Mrs. Robert Johnson's committee could not have been improved upon. It is a very grand idea and ought to be investigated next Thursday evening.

The following committee elected last Wednesday evening will nominate candidates for the various church offices which are to be filled at the election held at the time of the Annual meeting: C. E. Wallace (Chairman), Mrs. H. W. Nichols, W. W. Sanford, Mrs. W. R. Dougherty, C. W. Hadden, Mrs. T. H. Hawkes and R. M. Funck.

Christmas Matinee Musicales Program to Be Open to All

Under the able direction of Miss Mary Syer Bradshaw, the Matinee Musicales will give a Christmas program at the Pilgrim Congregational church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program contains many of the best selections and will be one of the most inspiring programs of the Christmas holidays. It will be open to all those in the city who are interested and a small admission fee will be charged for nonmembers.

The next feature attraction of the Matinee Musicales will be the concert by E. Robert Schmitt, the famous French pianist and teacher. He will appear in the city on the night of Jan. 11 at the First Methodist church. Mr. Schmitt will also give a lecture-recital to Matinee Musicales members on Jan. 18. The program for Tuesday afternoon goes as follows:

Christmas Matinee Musicales Program Warmly Received

The Pilgrim Congregational church was crowded yesterday afternoon with an enthusiastic audience to hear the Christmas program of the Matinee Musicales. Miss Mary Syer Bradshaw deserves much credit for arranging such a delightful afternoon.

Perhaps the most impressive number on the program was "Christmas in Sicily," an organ selection played by Miss Ruth Alta Rogers. Throughout the composition Christmas chimos echoed through the church and a spirit of peace and rest seemed to pass over the audience. As one glanced about it seemed as if a general expression of relaxation and enjoyment had spread over the faces of those who listened.

Carl Borgwald opened the program with a trio of organ numbers, including: Prelude and Fugue, A minor (Bach); "Benediction Nuptiale" (Dobols); and "Toccata" from Fifth Symphony for organ (Widor), of which the rippling rhythm of "Benediction Nuptiale" was particularly pleasing.

This was followed by "O Be Joyful in the Lord" by Cassir Frank, which was sung enthusiastically by the double quartet, and "Lord God of Heaven" by Spohr, which had delightfully clear open tone harmonies.

Miss Ruth Alta Rogers then played an interesting group of organ selections, including: Chorus—"A Rose Breaks Into Bloom" (Brahms); "Christmas in Sicily" (Yor); "A Song in the Night" (Yor); "Me From Sinking Down" (Yor); and "Negro Melody" (arranged by Otton).

"A Song in the Night" was almost as warmly received by the audience as "Christmas in Sicily" for it contained a fitting Eastern melody that was repeated throughout the piece.

The double quintet followed with two selections from the "Christmas Oratorio," which contains the famous "Hallelujah Chorus." Their voices blended well and it was a pleasure to hear so many local artists in one group.

Mrs. Louis Dworschak closed the program with a heavy organ number, "Variation de Concert," by Bonnet, which she played with careful execution and mastery.

Members of the double quintet included: Miss Reynolds, Miss Hobbs, Miss Hyland, Mrs. Sullivan, Miss

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Hagar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hagar, to Henry Rowland Halsey will take place at 8:30 Tuesday night at Pilgrim Congregational church. Rev. Noble S. Elderkin will officiate. Miss Christina McMurtrie will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Ruth Paul of New York, Miss Mary McGonagle, Miss Prudence Wardwell of Cleveland and Miss Harriet Harrison of New York.

Dr. R. C. Halsey of Lake Geneva, Wis., will be the best man. Ushers will be Gordon Hexardt, James D. M. Tibbets, all of Duluth; J. P. Fitch, Ushkosh, Wis., and Donald B. Ricker, Ushkosh, Wis., and Roger Wilson of Minneapolis.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception in the church parlors. Out-of-town guests will include Miss M. E. Halsey of Los Angeles, Miss Elizabeth Halsey of Lakeley, Mass., Mrs. R. E. Paul and Mrs. Roy Guild, both of New York.

In the evening the marriage of Miss Gertrude Hegardt and Henry Rowland Halsey will take place at 8:30 o'clock at Pilgrim Congregational church, followed by a reception in the church parlors.

At one of the prettiest Christmas weddings given in Duluth, Miss Gertrude Marie Heggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heggart, was united in marriage by her father, to Henry Rowland Halsey, at an impressive ceremony in the Episcopal cathedral church at 8:30 o'clock last evening.

The church was effectively decorated with evergreen and white. The choir loft and altar were completely banked with fir and evergreen trees making a background for the altar. The floor was strewn with candles festooned in southern smilax and sheaves of Easter lilies. The choir loft was also festooned with smilax. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ruth Alta Rogers played a program of organ music, of which "The Christmas Story" was particularly beautiful. Little Harry Roe sang an old carol and during the service an old ceding hymn was softly played.

"At their strains of Lohengrin's 'Eridal Chorus,' the ushers, including Gordon Hegardt, Theron H. Hawkes, and Donald R. Ricker of Minneapolis, J. W. Lauman of Minneapolis, Arthur McMillan and J. P. Fitch of Oshkosh, Wis., stretched white satin ribbons, and the bridesmaids, including Miss Mary McGonagle, Miss Ruth Paul of New York, cousin of the bride, Miss Prudence Wardwell of Cleveland and Miss Harriet Harrison of Oshkosh, wore white and white chiffon and chiffon taffeta with taffeta roses and crystal beading ornamenting the skirts. They carried sheaves of Easter lilies and wore charming

Next entered Miss Christina McMurtie, the maid of honor, charming in a gown similar to the bridesmaids' gowns. Her bouquet was also a sheaf of Easter lilies.

Miss Hegardt was a delightful picture in her bridal gown of ivory satin and point d'Espagne. The bodice was made with a round neck and the satin formed the upper part and the lace beneath. The skirt was made of slits near the waistline to reveal the lace. The train was of ivory satin and the same effect was carried out in the full-length court train, the upper part of which was a deep band of the lace. The train was ornamented with orange blossoms and satin ribbon.

Miss Hegardt's veil was held by a crown of Duchess lace with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Assisting Rev. Noble S. Elderskin in reading the marriage service was Dr. Roy E. Guild of New York, uncle of the bride. Following the ceremony which was performed impressively, a reception for 200 guests was held in the assembly room and the church parlors which were transformed by festoons of amilax, fir trees and dozens of hanging baskets filled with poinsettia.

The bride's table was set at the end of the assembly room where three large vases of Easter lillies and cathedral candles bound with white tulle made effective decorations.

Miss Hegardt, who is an active member and officer of the Junior League, is one of Duluth's most popular young women and is a graduate of Mount Vernon seminary. Miss Hegardt has also been most active in girl scout work and Duluthians are indeed fortunate that such an enthusiastic community worker will not be taken from the city by her marriage.

Her. Dec. 21.

Gertrude Marie Hegardt the bride of Henry Rowland Halsey. Concealing the choir loft and forming a solid mass of green about the altar and chancel walls were fir trees and festoons of southern smilax interspersed with standards of cathedral candles and tall vases of Easter lilies. Preceding the ceremony a program of organ music was given by Miss Ruth Alta Rogers and a Christmas carol was sung by little Harold Rowe. During the service an old "Wedding Hymn" was played on the echo organ.

At the processional "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," Miss Hearn preceded by her maid of honor and four bridesmaids, all dressed to match, on the arm of her father, to meet the bridegroom at the altar. An unusual and charming feature of the gowns of Miss Hearn and her bridesmaids was that no note of color broke the general scheme of white worn by the bride. Miss Hearn wore a gown of ivory satin and pointed sleeves. Her bridesmaids wore gowns of white satin with a green sash, a green tulle neck and the satin train. The bridesmaids were formed the upper part with slits near the waistline to reveal the lace underneath. The skirts of the bridesmaids were of white tulle, the upper part of lace and satin and the same effect was carried out in the full-length court train the upper part of which was a delicate lace, the lower part encrusted with white blossoms and satin ribbon.

Miss Hegardt's veil was held by a Duchesse crown with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Christina McMurtrie, wore a gown of white chiffon and chiffon taffeta with taffeta roses embroidered with rhinestones and crystal beading ornamenting the skirt which was worn short length. She carried a sheaf of Easter lilies and wore a charming head-dress of silver laurel leaves. Silver gloves were worn.

The four bridesmaids, Miss Mary McGonagle, Miss Ruth Paull of New York, cousin of the bride, Miss Prudence Wardwell of Cleveland and Miss Harriet Harrison of Duluth, were also gowned in white chiffon and tulle and carried Easter lilies. They, too, wore the bands of silver laurel leaves in their hair.

In reading the marriage service was read by Rev. Roy B. Guild of New York, uncle of the bride. Following the service a reception for the guests was held in the assembly room. The church was decorated and formed by a table which were trans- trees and dozens of similar, fig- with pinneilla blossoms in baskets and with the same blossoms were used about the parlor. At the end of the assembly room was a table of beau- tifully-appointed bridal table from which the bride and groom were seated. A program of music was served. The Ames Memorial organ played on the organ. Mrs. Rogers, assisted by Mrs. Frank Spry continued throughout the reception.

in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hegardt, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowland Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Halsey and Miss Elizabeth Halsey. Mrs. Hegardt, mother of the bride, wore a silver metallic cloth with chiffon side panels embroidered in crystal beads and silver thread. The girl was ornamented with French flowers and she wore a corsage of orchids and roses. Mrs. Richard C. Halsey of Lake Geneva, Ill., wore a mesh of peach chiffon beaded in blue and Mrs. Elizabeth Halsey was gowned in Harding blue satin.

Present at the ceremony and during the reception was the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. J. J. Everhard, who wore a gown of cream colored lace. Mrs. N. S. Everhard of Wadsworth who wore white chiffon. Mrs. R. E. Paul of New York, gowned in black velvet. Miss Marie Hegardt, in model of blue chiffon, beaded in rose and Mrs. Roy B. Guild of New York who wore orange chiffon and lace.

Besides Dr. Richard C. Halsey who was his brother's best man, the following young men were ushers at the ceremony and assisted during the reception: Gordon Hegardt, Theron H. Hawkes, James G. Nye, Dr. M. Tibbetts, Donald R. Ricker of Minneapolis, J. W. Bauman of Minneapolis, Arthur McMillan, and J. P. Fitch of Oakbrook, Wis.

Mrs. Halsey's traveling frock was of Byzantine red turtleneck trim with black satin and jet bead fringe. The girdle was formed of square beads embroidered on satin. What was worn a close-fitting hat of black felt and a wrap of Byzantine red trimmed with a shawl collar and beaver. Mr. Halsey and his bride left last night for a short wedding trip and will pass Christmas as guests of Dr. Richard C. Halsey. Mrs. Halsey at Lake Geneva. They will be at home immediately following their wedding trip at 2 East Sixth street.

Miss Hegardt who is an active member of the Junior league is a graduate of Mount Vernon seminary at Washington, D. C., and Mr. Halsey is a graduate of the University of Chicago. Mr. Halsey is the son of late R. H. Halsey, president of Oshkosh normal college, and was two years a member of the United States air force, serving as a pilot, not, however, having active service in France.

CHURCH NOTES

No more parsonage Monday evenings until February.
 Mrs. Spalding is general chairman of the Annual Dinner committee.

The Thursday base ball games are discontinued until after the holidays.

The April Unit met Friday with Mrs. Zachow to sew for the Children's Home.

At the Children's party on Thursday all gifts will be for the children of needy families in Gary.

The Duluth Choral Society of 150 voices will sing the Messiah, December 20th, at the First Methodist Church.

The nominating committee will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the residence of C. E. Wallace, 2101 E. 4th St.

Can any class in Sunday School report a better attendance at Church than Mrs. Walker's class? They average 60%.

If you have church letters elsewhere and you plan to join Pilgrim Church New Year's Day, you ought to write for them today.

The special Christmas party for the little children of the School will be held Thursday at 4 o'clock. It was felt that the evening hour on the 21st would not suit the tiniest folk in the Parish.

The latest reports of the money results from the Christmas sale is $954.44.

The regular December meeting of the Women's Assembly is postponed to Friday, December 30.

The flowers on the Communion Table last Sunday were a memorial for Donald Paddock, placed there by his father and mother.

Parents who wish to have their little children baptised Christmas Sunday morning should speak to the minister before next Sunday.

Their many friends in Pilgrim Church wish Miss Hegardt and Mr. Halsey much joy and happiness in the wonderful years that are before them.

Every one in the church, congregation and Sunday School will want to share in the exercises of Wednesday evening. But remember that the hour for beginning is seven.

Mrs. Haney is the new president of the Women's Missionary Society. Other officers are Mrs. Dunning, vice president, Mrs. Aspland, secretary, Miss Husted, treasurer, and Mrs. Adams, auditor.

Men from thirty two Duluth churches enjoyed the fine dinner provided by Mrs. Paddock and her committee last Tuesday evening. The gathering was a success in every way. Miss Rogers played for a half hour before dinner.

Please bear in mind that the Christmas exercises on Wednesday will begin promptly at SEVEN O'CLOCK. One hour in the Church auditorium. And a part of the second hour in the Recreation Room. Old folks, young folks, everybody come.

The Information Boxes are open this morning for such gifts as Pilgrim people may care to make toward the Christmas planned by the Beginners' department for the children of Gary. One hundred dollars would bring an endless amount of cheer.

The Cradle and Beginners' departments of the Sunday School unite in a Christmas party for children from 2 to 6 years of age to be held Thursday December 22nd at 4 o'clock. Mrs. E. A. Vivian, Mrs. T. F. McCarthy, Mrs. W. W. Rector, Mrs. N. J. Pearce and Mrs. J. S. Reich will assist.

Does the Finance Committee act within your wishes when it assumes that your 1921 pledge will be available for Pilgrim Church during 1922? If you insist upon increasing it, you ought to speak to Mr. Hegardt. If you feel like cutting it a little because the preacher misplaces his prepositions once in a while, tell Mr. Hegardt. Those who have made no pledges would do well to reach Mr. Hegardt before he reaches them.

Not many ought to miss the Christmas Vespers in Pilgrim Church next Sunday afternoon. Both the quartet and the Junior Choir will sing special Christmas carols. Miss Hori will read a very beautiful Christmas story. Come before five if you want to get in. You will be hard put to think of a better way to spend Christmas Sunday afternoon than in Pilgrim Church. A beautifully decorated and lighted church, happy Christmas carols, and a Christmas story read in such a way that you will never forget. Mrs. Nell Ames Horr will read a dramatization of Raymond McDonald Alden's story, "Why the Chimes Rang", at the Vesper services next Sunday afternoon. Bring your friends to Pilgrim services next Sunday. Let's repeat the Easter experience. FIVE O'CLOCK.

CHURCH NOTES

Base ball Thursday.

Buy Christmas seals.

You would like it better if your membership was in Pilgrim Church.

Mr. Ashley's boys play basket ball at the Church Thursday evenings.

See the Standing Committee this noon about membership in Pilgrim Church.

Now is the time to make your 1922 pledge for the support of Pilgrim Church.

The Primary Department of the Church School had a party yesterday afternoon.

What better way to begin the New Year than to join Pilgrim Church New Year's morning?

The Duluth Choral Society of 150 voices will sing the Messiah, December 20th, at the First Methodist Church.

Pilgrim Church has room for all who would like to share in the enterprise of building the commonwealth of Christ.

"Where does stewardship begin and end?" is the topic for discussion during the first half hour Wednesday evening.

"What's ahead in India?" Second half hour Wednesday evening. Chapter 3 of North's "The Kingdom and the Nations."

The annual meeting of the church will be held Tuesday, January 17, 1922. Reports are expected from every organization.

The first number of Pilgrim News will be issued next Sunday. Mr. Weaver is the editor. All copy must be in his hands today.

If you have church letters elsewhere and you plan to join Pilgrim Church New Year's Day, you ought to write for them today.

If you like Pilgrim Church's idea of keeping its finances out of the Sunday services, see Mr. Hegardt about YOUR 1922 pledge.

Mr. Hays asks all members of Pilgrim Church to have their out of town Christmas packages in the mail by next Saturday evening.

When you purchase Christmas Seals you help in the fight against tuberculosis. Use them on your Christmas letters and packages.

The Standing Committee meets this noon in the parlors to confer with those who plan to unite with Pilgrim Church New Year's Day.

Parents who wish to have their little children baptised Christmas Sunday morning should speak to the minister before next Sunday.

It did some good last Sunday to urge more enthusiastic support of the midweek service. But normalcy has not yet been achieved.

This is to warn presiding officers of every church organization that reports are expected from EVERY organization in the church at the annual meeting.

Big Inter Church dinner in Pilgrim Church Tuesday evening at 6:30. The whole church lighted for our guests. Miss Rogers plays from 6:10. Tickets 50 cents. Get yours today.

Those whose names begin with R, S, T, U, V, W, Y, and Z, are asked to remain for a few minutes at the close of this morning's service. Plans for the annual dinner will be talked over.

There ought to be a mass meeting in Pilgrim Church very shortly to protest against the plans of the Prisks to proceed to Minneapolis to live. Pilgrim Church never had two more loyal members.

Pilgrim Choir share in the concert to be given by the Finnish Congregational Church Thursday evening, December 15th, in the English Lutheran Church, at Lake and Third Streets. The tickets are 35 cents.

Many members of Pilgrim Church will be sorry to hear that Marjory Joy died very suddenly November 19th at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Terry, Jr., 833 North Academy Street, Galesburg, Illinois.

VOL. I DECEMBER 1921. NO. 1

CHRISTMAS

Our Sunday School Christmas party, December 21, will be held in two sessions this year. The Cantata, "There Was No Room in the Inn," with Christmas carols, will be rendered beginning at 7 P. M.

At 8:00 P. M. the High Jinks committee, with full authority, assume control with all that their name implies. To save the chair, cushions and furniture, their activities will be confined to the Parish House. A regular, old time Christmas party for all. Come.

FOR NINETEEN TWENTY TWO

I wonder if it would not do some good to set before ourselves a goal or two for the new year?

Suppose we said to ourselves, for one thing, that we would double the membership of the school.

How could that be done?

Well, there are several ways in which that could be done.

We might tell Mr. Berkheiser to go ahead and double the membership of the school.

Or we might tell the superintendents of the various departments to go ahead and double the membership of their departments.

Long ago we use to have a phrase, "Let George do it."

These suggestions belong to the "Let George do it" group.

Or we might say to ourselves—each one of us, from the tiniest to the tallest—"I promise during the year 1922 to bring one of my friends to Pilgrim Church School."

All right.

Now then, having promised, what am I to do?

And the answer might run like this: Look about among your friends. Pick out some one who doesn't go anywhere to Sunday School. (Don't ask anyone who goes to any other Sunday School.) Ask them to go with you next Sunday. See that they are made to feel at home. You will know what that means. Don't let them think they have dug into the ice around the North Pole. Call for them the next Sunday. Take them to any parties we may be having. Watch over them until you hear them say, "I like this place. This is where I belong. And this is where I stay."

How would it be if we published each month in Pilgrim News the names of those who had fulfilled their part of the plan to double the membership of the school by bringing in one of their friends?

Let's say that the one we bring must come at least four Sundays.

Let's have no other rules for the time being.

Whose name will head the list in the February Pilgrim News?

Noble S. Elderkin.

OUR PURPOSE.

In spite of many activities calling for the efforts and attention of the children and young people of our church, we are trying to build up around the life of each one of them a certain definite training.

We hope not to build our school by enrolling members from other schools. Nor do we aim to withhold the privileges of our school from everyone excepting those of our own homes.

We hope to make our Sunday School

JUNIOR CHOIR.

The Junior Choir was organized in Oct. 1921. At the first practice there were six people present. The number has now increased so that there are seventeen members:

Bernice Kloeppel,
 Eunice Spalding,
 Elizabeth Kerr,
 Charlotte Nichols,
 Dorothy Briggs,
 Beatrice Lockhart,
 Charlotte Grawn,
 Frederick Hadden,
 Lauren Nichols,
 Walter Meyers,
 Noble Ederkin, Jr.,
 Eleanor Lockhart,
 Helen Zachow,
 Sage Elderkin,
 Frances Gray,
 Celinda Hadden,
 John Wilson.

The choir has sung at two of the Vesper Services and is now practicing music for the Christmas Vesper services to be held on the afternoon of December 25th.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

After a big vacation this summer, the Christian Endeavor started functioning with the opening of school. At once began the work of replenishing our numbers, for many of the best workers had gone away to college. There are approximately thirty members and always room for more.

The officers for this year are: Bruce Scott, president; Elizabeth Adams, vice-president; Frances Ann McCarthy, treasurer, and Josephine Gude, secretary. The officers and committee chairman are trying to make this a red letter year for the society.

So far, we have had some very interesting meetings. Miss Emily Hardwell entertained us one Sunday night with the story of her work in China. Another time we held a joint meeting with the two Presbyterian Societies at their church. On November thirteenth, we all started from Pilgrim church at two-thirty in automobiles for the County Farm. Here we conducted two meetings, one for the women, at which Miss White presided, and the other for the men for which Mr. Kimble was the leader. I think this meeting did the society more good than they realized, because it brought home the great need for unselfishness; this amounts to service before self. Here, at least, was one place which needed help. We began to wonder what we could do for them. That is where the spirit of the Christian Endeavor comes in. Right here, we wish to thank the men who gave up their Sunday afternoon to take us out there in their cars. Nor do we forget the willingness that Miss White and Mr. Kimble showed when asked to conduct the meetings.

Three Christian Endeavor societies, whose members are of high school age, have formed an Intermediate Christian Endeavor Union. They are the societies from the Presbyterian, St. Paul Episcopal and Pilgrim churches. On November twenty-sixth, we all came together at Pilgrim church, adopted a constitution and elected the following officers: President, Robert Dunning (Pilgrim C. E.); Vice-President, Virginia Balus (Presbyterian C. E.); Recording Secretary, Jeanne Hugo (Presbyterian C. E.); Corresponding Secretary, Melvin Robie (Presbyterian C. E.); Treasurer, Robert Bloedel (Presbyterian C. E.). Refreshments were served by St. Paul's C. E.

Sunday, December eleventh, the Senior and Junior Union of this city conducted a meeting at the County Farm. Our Christian Endeavor furnished special music.

At the Christmas Fair, we had a special booth, at which candy was sold. We made ten dollars, which was very much needed. In this way we try to carry on our share of work.

BOY SCOUTS.

257 new Tenderfoot Scouts were added by the Duluth Council year just closed. All Duluth additions of new recruits except will register new boys before the active boy membership. The active boy membership of the State is now over 410,000. Duluth has over 600. Includes the National Organization 330,000.

Pilgrim Church Troop No. 1 with enrolling three new Scouts during the year. One has advanced from Tenderfoot Class and one from second class. Two members have won 2 during the year, and one has and Star Scout this being Duluth Troops having 10 members.

The troop won 4th place all troops held last February. The turnover of the troop by the fact that of a total of 14 during the year, 5 Tenderfoot, 1 Second Class Scout were the year, leaving the active 7 Tenderfoot, 3 Second Class or 14 altogether. Records at the Boy Scout Office show Sam Bover, Life and Star, 14 Merit Badges; Ephraim won 10; Irving Sliney Finch is a First Class Scout. Leonard Summerfield and are Second Class, and Jack Love, George Mueller, Raymond Scarlett, and Charles Wiley are First Class.

According to the last charter, the troop is a Men's Class of the church. Nichols, H. F. Manley, A. R. C. Duncan are the Troop. J. S. Prisk is the Scoutmaster.

Our Bow

The Pilgrim News makes it bow to the boys and girls of the junior departments of the Pilgrim Church with this issue. "We" hope with the loyal aid of the staff of excellent associates and reporters to have an interesting account of the activities of all the organizations and their members.

We want to reach all branches of the churchwork among the young people and record the news of their meetings, parties and entertainments, with stories of the hikes and lunches, and items of interest concerning the boys and girls composing the different groups.

The initial issue is an experiment, both in picking an editor and preparing the paper. When the Director of Religious Education arrives, he will relieve the present scribe. In the meantime your suggestions will be welcome. The list of those responsible for the "copy" of this number are published. See that the report of your class, club or society has all the news.

We will add other departments as occasion requires. A column for sports might attract attention or humorous section if Mr. Mattocks will accept the editorship.

Our purpose is to stimulate interest in Pilgrim church, Pilgrim school, and Pilgrim activities of all kinds. We hope the Pilgrim News will be help.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.

The outstanding event in the Primary Department is the party which took place Saturday, December tenth, in the Recreation Hall. Thirty-four children were present. After various excitements in the way of red caps, contests and games, refreshments were served at a long table bright with red candles, holly and Christmas decorations. Candy canes and Christmas balloons with a squeak were parting gifts at the door.

Mrs Joseph Prisk who for several years has been most active in the Primary Department is leaving the last of December for Minneapolis, where Mr. Prisk's business connections will be in the future. Too much cannot be said in regard to Mrs. Prisk's faithfulness and efficiency in this department, and her going will leave a real vacancy.

Kathryn Everhard proudly reports a new baby brother.

Jimmy Savage has been having a most unfortunate time with his ear drums, but we hope he will soon recover.

Mary Bagley and Leila Meldahl have been home with colds.

Melvin Bondelid, Jr., has also been ill with a cold. His version of the affair is as follows: "My mother told me to wear my coat at the Curling rink. But I took it off, and I took cold. I had to stay in bed two whole days. Next time I won't take it off if she tells me not to."

We regret that the illness of Patricia Foyle's mother has kept Patricia away for some time, but will be very glad to have her back again.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT.

The Junior Department includes all boys and girls in the church school between the ages of 8 and 12. In this department we start the more serious study of the Bible. As the boys and girls in the first year classes are now old enough to read we try to make the Bible a familiar and well known book by looking up references, reading and committing parts. We have 85 pupils enrolled in the Department under ten teachers and a superintendent.
 Ordinarily there are but eight classes, one class for boys, one for girls, for each of the four years, but as some of the classes have grown too large to handle it was thought better to divide them into small groups.

The Department is badly in need of a pianist and would be very happy if some one would volunteer.

We follow the Blakelee Graded Lesson Course, each class having a lesson assigned each Sunday to prepare at home for the following Sunday. When a pupil has been present every Sunday during the month with a prepared lesson they are posted on our Honor Roll. The Honor Roll for November follows:

Louise Gray, Dorothy Strong, Betty
 McCarthy, Helen Wilkes, Linnea Carlson, Katherine Arndt, Lavere Hagansen, Josephine Cannon, Margaret Ebmer, Katrina Houze, Evelyn Novak, Marion Murphy,

 aret Haney, Frances Carlson, John Wilson,

Mr. Ashley's class held a class election on Thursday, November 27. The following officers were elected: President, Oscar Mitchell; Basket Ball Captain, Herbert
 Maki; Manager, Wm. O'Dell.

The class meets every Thursday night for a basket ball game.

THE GIRL SCOUTS.

The Girl Scout troop of Pilgrim Congregational church was the first troop organized in Duluth, having been started in October 1917 under the leadership of Florence
 Wade, now Mrs. Hatchet.

After Miss Wade gave up the work Mrs.
 Ralph Puineo directed the activities of the scouts and was assisted by Mary I. Elwell, who later became the captain of the troop, known as Thistle troop. Mrs. Philip J.
 Frost, Elsa Zachow (Mrs. Russel Duncan), Gertrude Hegardt, Catherine Mac-Gregor and Christine McMurtrie as assistants have given very generously of their time and effort. Of these Miss Hegardt is the only one who has been commissioned by National Headquarters of the Girl Scouts. Mrs. Charles N. Thorpe, wife of our former minister, as chairman of the committee made possible the continuance of the work by securing leaders for it at a time when the scouting idea was very new and so little known of its workings that it was difficult to get leaders to assume the responsibility of trying to carry out the ideals of the organization.

Thistle troop has just had its fourth birthday and feels that it has accomplished some things, but there are many new and interesting things ahead of it. The new troop committee consisting of Mrs. S.
 E. Matter, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Prisk,
 Mrs. Benjamin F. Davis, Mrs. Reichmuth, and Mrs. Frank Murphy is giving very loyal support in the form of suggestions and actual work for the troop.

Every week meetings are held on Wednesday afternoon in the recreation room of the church. Games are played, tests are passed, hikes are enjoyed quite frequently, and occasionally suppers prepared by the girls are served.

The troop partly supports one French orphan, Catherine Perata, a little twelve year old girl who lives in Oran, Algeria, in the northern part of Africa. Last spring, by means of an entertainment, $65 was raised for the Chinese fund.

For two seasons the scouts of Duluth have gone to Camp Magney, the boy scout camp near Sawyer, Minnesota, during the last half of August. Camping is great fun and a great thing for scouts who love outdoor work and play.

PATROL I.

During the last business meeting of the Scouts, a committee as appointed to take care of the Christmas gifts for our French orphan. The committee has decided among, other things, the scout magazine for one year. When the troop was first organized, we chose, as our flower, the thistle. Miss McMurtrie suggested we send for these emblems; they are to be worn over the left breast pocket of the uniform.

PATROL II.

The Girl Scouts of the church have elected new patrol leaders and corporals. The girls in the first patrol are all first and second class scouts.

The patrol leader for the II. Patrol is Mary Louise Coventry and Elizabeth Turner is corporal. Other girls in the Patrol are Harriet Cheadle, Eleta Peterson, Marie Carlson, Marjorie Willis, Mildred Wiley and Mary Jane Grimes.

Patrol II. has girls that are almost second class scouts and will be soon.

PATROL III.

At a meeting of the Council it was decided to have the different captains turn in the names of the scouts who were prepared to pass tests including the first class and merit badges. The council will then arrange for the tests to be passed. In this way, there will be the same standard for marks throughout the city.

The following names have been sent in from our troop:

Virginia Lignell, Electrician, Needlewoman, Dressmaker and Citizen; Marian Weaver, Needlewoman and Laundress; Catherine Cheadle, Craftsman and Pathfinder and Bernice Kloeppel, First Aid and Home Nurse.

With only one copy of the magazine "The American Girl", it was quite hard for every girl to be able to enjoy it. Now we have decided to have a copy sent to each patrol, this every scout will have a chance to keep in touch with headquarter news.

PATROL IV.

The new members in patrol number four, our troop, are: Ruth Moore and Jean McCrae.

The troop is sending a magazine entitled "The American Girl" to our French orphan, Catherine Perata.

The commissioner of the Girl Scouts of Duluth, Mrs. Wanless, visited Troop I. last Wednesday afternoon and gave a brief talk to the scouts. Other visitors were: Mrs. Greene of the Duluth Council, Mrs. Frank Murphy of our own troop committee and three members of the Bethel troop.

"Girl Scout News"

October 22nd, at the Armory, our semi-annual Badge Day was held. The troops turned out in large numbers, and every one felt it was a well spent afternoon. Many scouts succeeded in winning badges, which were awarded by the Court of Honor. Dr. Elderkin of the Congregational Church addressed the scouts, and this was followed by drill, races, and games.

Thescouts are still urged to turn in names for our new "hiking base." So far no name has been decided upon, so there is a chance that your name for the site may be accepted.

At the last meeting of the Council, it was decided to have the captains turn in the names of the scouts who were prepared to pass tests, to the Council. They in turn would see that the scout was given her test. In this way, there will be the same standard for marks all over the city.

All those who were able to take part in the Armistice Day Parade must have caught the full significance of the day. It was the most successful and best parade Duluth has ever held of that kind. To have marched in procession with the soldiers of the Great War and to a band that has become famous, surely inspired every one.

November 13th to 21st is Childrens' "Book Week" at the Library. The Girl Scouts have a corner attractively arranged where one may find a varied assortment of books on scouting and other books, which girls of "scout age" would enjoy.

Editor, Virginia Lignell.

Troop I.

On November 19th, Miss Elwell and

Mrs. Prisk, as a representative of the troop committee, awarded class badges, attendance leader and corporal bars to the girls:

First Class—Ruth Moore, Cheadle, Virginia Lignell
Second Class—Celinda Weaver.

Gold Attendance Star—Cheadle, Virginia Lignell
Silver Attendance Star—

Patrol Leaders—Ruth Alcottson, Judith Elderkin.

Corporal Bars—Marjorie Wiley, Bina Lignell, Cheadle.

On November 2nd, a lowen dinner for Troop I. arrived about five o'clock and games until six. Then to the table which was Halloween style with lanterns, and Halloween favors. The places were that a Bethel girl sat our girls. The "get-together" worked very well. After more games were played o'clock the girls "fell" said good night.

Then the girls sat down to the table which was decorated in true Halloween style with pumpkins, jack-o-lanterns, and Halloween placards and favors. The places were arranged so that a Bethel girl sat between each of our girls. The "get-acquainted" plan worked very well. After supper a few more games were played. About eight o'clock the girls "fell in," saluted and said good night.

Committee on Religious Education

This committee with such an impressive name was appointed to act as an advisory board to the Director of Religious Education.

Mr. R. M. Funck is chairman and Mrs. Ben Finch, Mrs. Cannon and Roger Weaver, members. Mr. F. L. Berkheiser and Mr. Elderkin are ex-officio part of the committee.

The committee at its meetings has discussed the various activities of the junior life of Pilgrim Church. Those in charge of the different organizations and departments have been invited from time to time to meet with them, and plans and suggestions offered. The Pilgrim News is the outcome of its deliberations and other plans are being formulated. A womans' Bible class similar to the one Mr. Baldwin has for the men is contemplated. Several innovations for the opening exercises of the Intermediate Department of the school are in the air.

The committee realizes that it has a big job and is looking forward to a Director of Religious Education to help solve its problems.

THE PILGRIM DAUGHTERS' CLASS.

Last Spring Mrs. Willhad Matter's and Miss Hegardt's Sunday School classes went together to publish a small class paper, the "Spinning Wheel" by name. This fall we decided to drop this and have our "Spinning Wheel" corner in the "Pilgrim News."

On Tuesday evening, October eleventh, the kindergarten was transformed into a sort of restaurant with three long tables. Four large pancakes were then served for ten cents. There was also tea, coffee, and butter-milk. Over twenty-two dollars was realized, which is to go towards the purchasing of a rug for the tower classroom.

Suggestions to Correspondents

Write on one side of paper only. Write proper names plainly. Do not abbreviate. Do not trust to luck that the editor will catch errors. If possible use letter size paper. Get copy to the editor on time.

We regret that our own Boys' Scout troop is not represented in this issue. We had to rely upon Mr. C. W. Hadden, Scout Executive of the City, to give us some news of this organization.

The first department in point of age of the Church school has been officially designated as the Beginners' Department. The name Kindergarten is assigned to the church-time gathering of little ones under the supervision of Mrs. MacDonald.

The Girls' Scout troop of Pilgrim church is designated as Troop 1 of the city. There are four patrols of eight members each in the troop.

The Church Time Kindergarten under the supervision of Mrs. Duncan MacDonald is attended by eight to sixteen very young people while their mammas and daddys are enjoying Mr. Elderkins sermons.

The Committee on Religious Education holds its meetings at the Glass Block tea rooms. The members are becoming addicted to afternoon tea and ice cream sandwiches.

Director of Religious Education

For several years the plan of a Director of Religious Education has been developing. Thru the efforts of the Women's Assembly the necessary finances have been guaranteed and arrangements were made to secure the proper man. At present Mr. Elderkin is corresponding with a possible prospect and plans on a trip next month to look over a new crop that may be harvested.

CHURCH NOTES

A Happy Christmas.

Regular meeting of the Women's Assembly December 30th. The Junior Choir sings at Christmas Vespers this afternoon. The smaller children of the Sunday School had their Christmas party Thursday afternoon.

All the news that comes from Cleveland about William McMillan is good, and everyone is glad.

Miss Horr will read R. M. Alden's dramatisation of the story, "Why the Chimes Rang", this afternoon at five.

Look at the program for Vespers this afternoon and then decide whether or not you can afford to stay away.

Pilgrim Church welcomes its young folks who are home from college and university, and wishes them a happy vacation.

Miss Harriet Strong, a devoted member of Pilgrim Church, died suddenly last Wednesday morning. A funeral service was held Thursday.

The Information Boxes carried $41.13 last Sunday morning toward the fund for the Christmas of Gary Children. To this the Primary Department added $2.41.

The Standing Committee will meet Wednesday at 7:45 in the church parlors to confer with any who would like to unite with Pilgrim Church next Sunday morning.

Our Christmas decorations could not have been so beautiful if Gertrude Hegardt Halsey had not chosen a day in Christmas week for her wedding and if Mr. and Mrs. Hegardt had not arranged a church wedding for their daughter.

The Men's Class, over George Reifsteck's signature, sent Congressman Larson the following message last Sunday: "The members of Pilgrim Men's Class are very proud that one of its members has so prominently and effectively supported the Russian Relief measure now before congress. Congratulations and merry Christmas to the family."

At the November meeting of the Women's Assembly it was voted to appoint two committees composed of men and women of the church, one to investigate the proposition of completing the woodwork at the back and at the side of the pulpit and the other to investigate the matter of finishing the janitor quarters. The following are the members of these two important committees whose chairmen will give a report at the Assembly meeting, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Committee—Pulpit Finishing	Committee—Janitor Quarters
Mrs. E. Florada, Chairman	Mr. W. N. Hart, Chairman
Mrs. W. A. McGonagle	Mr. C. A. Duncan
Mr. W. G. Hegardt	Mrs. R. Whiteside
Mr. Oscar Mitchell	Mrs. C. E. Adams
Mr. S. E. Matter	Mrs. Geo. C. Spalding

The Christmas exercises of the Sunday School on Wednesday evening were enjoyed by a large company. The White Gift Service told the story of the manger birth in a way that brought the story home to all. Those who took part were: Mr. and Mrs. Kitts, Mr. Baldwin, Dr. Tibbetts, Mr. Dougherty, Mr. McDonald, Miss Taylor, Bruce Scott, Emmons Collins, Eunice Spalding and Miss Rogers. Mrs. McDonald directed. In the recreation room Mr. Hadden and his committee had marches and games for all. Later Santa Claus appeared with candies and gifts.

THE NEW CHANCEL

At their meeting on Friday, the Assembly by a unanimous vote decided to proceed with the finishing of the chancel. The Assembly will foot the bill. It is hoped to have the work completed by Easter Sunday, April 16th. The reporting committee consisted of Mrs. Florada, Mrs. McGonagle and Messrs. Hegardt, Mitchell and S. E. Matter.

CHURCH NOTES

Base ball Thursday evening.

The best of years to every member of Pilgrim.

"It is better to have hoped in vain than never to have hoped at all."

Last Sunday's offering for the Good Will Industries amounted to $88.25.

F. D. Raymond is chairman of what is called the "riot committee" for the Annual Meeting.

Mrs. C. A. Graves is the speaker at the Y. W. C. A. Vesper services this afternoon at 4:30.

Friends of Mr. Noyes will be glad to know that he is occupying his pulpit today for the first time in two months.

Mrs. Frost is gathering a fund with which to purchase more hymn books. It takes $1.35 to put a new book in the pews.

Miss Horr, Miss Rogers, the Quartet and the Junior Choir made the Christmas Vesper service a very impressive service.

Mrs. A. T. Dinsmore's name was omitted from the list of officers of the Missionary Society published in last week's Bulletin.

All whose names begin with the letters from R forward are asked to meet at the close of the service on the left of the church.

Will the leader of each organization in the church begin to worry about the annual report to be made to the church January 17th?

No member of Pilgrim Church who craves happiness in this world will miss the Annual Meeting. The date is January 17th. Mark it off in your new diaries.

The Congregationalist Hand Book will be found on a table in the vestibule today. If you take one you might leave four cents. Which is what they cost.

Midweek service Wednesday at 8. Topic, "Marks of the Kingdom of God". Also chapters IV and V in North's Book "The Kingdom and the Nations".

Mrs. G. A. Taylor will urge those who are expected to make reports at the Annual Meeting to prepare them ahead of time. She knows why and will tell you.

Week of Prayer services for the men of Duluth in the City "Y" each noon beginning Tuesday from 12:25 to 12:55. Speakers (in order) Messrs. Bennett, Elderkin, Arms, Erikson and Barr.

Mr. Irwin in thanking the Assembly for a generous Christmas check reports that his return to Turkey is still a problem. He is at present Director for Western Canada of the Armenian Relief Fund.

Those who desire to send gifts to the Quaker Fund for Relief of Russian Children should make their checks payable to Mr. Colin Thompson, treasurer, and send them to the Inter Church Office in the City "Y".

More than fifty children came to the Christmas party of the Beginner's department in the Church School, on Thursday afternoon, December 22nd. And for their little friends in Gary they brought 43 toys, 15 pairs of stockings, 7 pairs of mittens, 2 sweaters, 41 articles of used clothing, 38 packages of candy and nuts and $6.46 in money.

The annual meeting of Pilgrim Church for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held in the Parish House Tuesday evening January 17th, 1922, at 8 o'clock.

MISS HARRIET STRONG

Miss Harriet Strong, who passed away on December 21, after a prolonged illness, was born in Oswego, N. Y., on November 18th, 1855. As a child and young woman she lived there, but in 1888, she moved to Fargo, N. D., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Strong. In 1890, she with her family moved to Duluth and later Miss Strong became a member of Pilgrim Congregational Church. Although an invalid from early childhood, the influence of her life has been felt by a wide circle of friends who knew and loved her.

F. A. D.

Hers was not an easy life to live. As a little girl she met with an accident that doomed her (as we should say) to an invalid's life. She saw the boys and girls playing but she could not play with them. She saw young folks reveling in the joys of their youth but her youth must be spent in an invalid's chair. She saw others sweep into the richer days of manhood and womanhood doing great things in the world but for her it was an invalid's chair.

So she took the situation in her own hands and made a world of interests for herself. The interests of her friends became her interests. The interests of Pilgrim Church became her interests. Only once did she see the church or hear the wonderful organ. But she sat with us in spirit every Sunday.

And she found this world which she herself had created so full of interest that she had no time to complain of the hard requirements of her invalidism.

Many took their disappointments and discouragements to her for her touching and came away cheered and encouraged.

To be with her for a little while meant better life and better thoughts and higher resolves. She was a master of life.

Her difficult days had cast about them the very tender and gracious ministry of niece and nephew.

N. S. E.

MRS. MARY DANIELS

Mrs. Mary Daniels, wife of the late Amos Daniels, passed away at 5 p. m., on Wednesday, December 28th, at the Soldier's Home, Minneapolis, where she and her husband had made their home for the last ten years. Mrs. Daniels was born in New Bedford, Massachusetts, December 23rd, 1841, and had just celebrated her 80th birthday. She has been in very poor health for many years and her going was a blessed release. In May, 1874, under the pastorate of the late Rev. C. C. Salter, she united with Pilgrim Church and was an active member for many years. In the early days of Duluth she won a place in many hearts and homes, through her kindly ministrations in caring for the sick. Her kindly self sacrificing spirit will long be remembered by those whose privilege it was to know her. Although she has been away from Duluth for so many years her interest in the church was always keen and when friends from Duluth visited her she never failed to inquire after the church activities.

PILGRIM CHURCH IN DULUTH OBSERVES GOLDEN JUBILEE

The first annual meeting of Pilgrim Congregational church in its second half century was held last evening in the parish house of the church. A chicken pie supper under the management of Mrs. George Spalding was served 300 persons and afterwards the business meeting at which Dr. Noble S. Elderkin presided was held. Reports of the various organizations of the church were read. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Raymond had prepared stereopticon pictures of the officers and committee chairmen, some of them taken from old family photograph albums. Oscar Mitchell, chairman of the board of trustees, was shown sightseeing in Europe. F. L. Berkhelaser in his runabout; Henry Nichols hoeing his prize sweet corn at Woodland and C. E. Carlson during his early twenties. Mrs. George Spalding, W. N. Hart, Bruce Scott, W. O. Hegardt, Judge W. A. Cant, Miss Emma Longstreet, Mrs. E. J. Collins, C. W. Hadden and others were shown. This display won great applause. The height of enthusiasm was reached when a very beautiful girlhood picture of Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, president of the Woman's Missionary society, was shown. Between the reports a picture of Dr. Elderkin at the age of 4 was flashed on the screen.

The annual reports of the church showed a total membership of 564. During 1921 there were 140 additions to the roll. All obligations, local, state and national have been met and more than $6,000 has been given to benevolent purposes.

Plans for 1922 include the installment of a director of religious education, the furnishing of janitor's apartments in the church and the finishing of the chancel which was left incomplete when the church was built.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Deacons, Jeremiah Kimball and W. W. McMillan; trustee, Alexander Anderson; treasurer, H. W. Nichols; assistant treasurer, W. S. Horst; clerk, Brewer Mattocks.

Pilgrim Church in Second Half Century; Screen Shows How Folks Looked in Youth

The second half century of the existence of the Pilgrim Congregational church here, was begun last night when the annual meeting of the church was held at the parish house. Dinner was served to 300 in the recreational room and a business meeting followed in the chapel.

A feature of the meeting was the screening of photographs of officers and committee chairmen taken in their youthful days. These photographs were shown while officers read their reports.

A photograph of Dr. Noble S. Elderkin at the age of four was shown; also pictures of Judge W. A. Cant, summing at Ford the Lee, and W. O. Hegardt, in his "teens." Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Raymond arranged this feature.

A church membership of 1,684 is shown in the annual report with an increase of 149 members during 1921. During the year $6,136 was expended for benevolent purposes and all obligations to state and national congregational societies were fully met, the reports showed.

REPORT WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY of

- - - -

The present officers were elected to office at the Annual Meeting of the Ladies' Union, January 5th, 1921. All plans for the Anniversary week had been perfected and were announced at that meeting, so entire credit for the more than successful week is due the officers of 1920.

At a special meeting on February 23rd, called after a luncheon served to 175, an entire new organization plan was accepted and the name, Ladies' Union, changed to The Women's Assembly of Pilgrim Congregational Church. This plan called The Calendar Plan, consists of twelve units, each unit named for one month of the year. Each unit has a director. Three of these units together constitute a Group. These four Groups are named respectively, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter Group. Each Group has a supervisor. The officers of the Assembly are President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Auditor. There is also an Advisory Committee.

MEETINGS.

There have been nine Assembly meetings during the year and about thirty meetings of the Groups or Units.

CHURCH NOTES

Base ball Thursday evening.

Young People's meeting tonight at six.

Midweek service Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

"We are not what we think we are, but what we think, — we are."

Hear Miss Clark Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the Church Parlors.

"The only safe and sure way to destroy an enemy is to make him your friend."

The next number of Pilgrim News will appear in February. Roger M. Weaver is the editor.

Mr. H. U. Moore has had charge of the Sunday School during Mr. Berkheiser's absence.

F. D. Raymond is chairman of what is called the "riot committee" for the Annual Meeting.

Mrs. J. M. Barnes and Mrs. E. D. Field may be addressed at Hotel Morgan, St. Petersburg, Florida.

Not a dull moment in Mr. Baldwin's class for men which meets at noon. Up stairs in the study.

It doth appear that the Annual Meeting on the 17th will be the best thing of its kind ever perpetrated hereabouts.

Will the person who ordered Return Letter Stamps for Mrs. J. G. Daub, Trenton, Ohio, please speak to Mrs. E. J. Collins?

In 1567 a congregation meeting in Plumbers' Hall, London, was arrested. These were the first English Congregationalists.

Mrs. Richard M. Funck is the Director for January. With justice for all and malice toward none, she will conduct affairs.

Mrs. Taylor must have reports intended for the Annual Meeting in her hands by tomorrow night. She has to have them.

Dr. G. W. Arms of the First Presbyterian Church will speak at the Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

Pilgrim Church cannot have too many members. Be thinking of your responsibility to the Church. And plan to unite March 5th.

Will the leader of each organization in the church begin to worry about the annual report to be made to the church January 17th?

The Congregationalist Hand Book will be found on a table in the vestibule today. If you take one you might leave four cents. Which is what they cost.

It is sad but true that our lovely greenery had to fall before the tapeline of the architect, for the measurements for the new wood-work must needs be taken.

The report of the Nominating Committee on the last page does not end the matter. Any member of the church may nominate for any office at the Annual Meeting.

The American Board is the oldest missionary society in America, having been organized in 1810. It now has 813 missionaries and over 5,000 native helpers in its various fields.

"The only conclusive evidence of a man's sincerity is that he gives himself for a principle. Words, money, all things else, are comparatively easy to give away; but when a man makes a gift of his daily life and practice, it is plain that the truth, whatever it may be, has taken possession of him."

An open meeting of the Missionary Society will be held Wednesday January 11th at 3 o'clock in the Church Parlors. Miss Bertha Clark, Immigration Secretary of the North Central Field of the Y. W. C. A., will speak. Her subject is "What foreign born Gary needs from American Duluth".

After listening to a very convincing report from the chairman of the Janitor Quarters' Committee, at their meeting on December 30th, the Women's Assembly by a unanimous vote decided to take up as its work for the coming year, the finishing of these quarters. A note to this effect was mailed to Mr. Hart, chairman of The House Committee. The committee consisted of Mr. W. N. Hart, chairman, Mr. C. A. Duncan, Mrs. C. E. Adams, Mrs. R. Whiteside and Mrs. G. C. Spalding.

The annual meeting of Pilgrim Church for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held in the Parish House Tuesday evening January 17th, 1922, at 8 o'clock.

Oscar Mitchell,
Chairman Board of Trustees.

The committee of The Women's Assembly who will nominate president, secretary, corresponding secretary and auditor, also four Supervisors from the twelve directors, consists of Mrs. T. J. Davis, Supervisor Summer Group; Mrs. F. N. Allen, Director of November Unit; Mrs. R. E. Johnson, Director of February Unit; Miss Belle Simonds, Director of May Unit, and Mrs. C. A. Gray, Director of August Unit. This committee will report at the annual meeting of The Assembly on January 25th, 1922.

WHEN THE NEW DIRECTOR COMES

After a long search we have found a Director for Religious Education.

He will be here about March first.

He is coming to us from Wichita, Kansas. At present he is Director of Religious Education in the large First Methodist Church in that city.

He has a wife and a little girl who is ten years old.

On the Bulletin his name will be printed like this: "Rev. William M. Hall".

Mr. Hall will have charge of the Church School.

He will help carry out the plans of the Committee on Religious Education to have all the activities for young folks in Pilgrim Church center about the Church School.

He will help in our Scout Troops.

He will help in our Endeavor Societies.

He will organize the Boys' and Girls' Clubs that we have thought about for a long time.

He will see that Pilgrim Parish House is in use seven days in the week and three hundred and sixty-five days in the year.

In the summer we shall have a vacation Bible School.

Mr. Hall will see that Pilgrim young folks find their way to various young people's conferences.

We shall have as fine a Church School as there is in the city.

But of course Mr. Hall must have your help.

He can't do a great deal all alone.

It will help some if you will say to yourself, "I'll help".

Noble S. Elderkin.

FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

Progress.

The best news in the second issue of the "Pilgrim News" is the announcement and assurance of the selection of our Director of Religious Education. He is to have charge of our activities in the Parish House both at work and play.

We plan to arrange all of our activities to fit in with each other so that there will be time and room for all.

Now that he is to come so soon after we have looked for him so long, we plan to help him all we can to make his work with us as full of good measure as we have hoped all these months it would be.

F. L. Berkheiser.

PILGRIM PRIMARY NEWSETTES

Quite the nicest thing that has happened to us since last month is the return of Mrs. Jeronimus to our department. She has half of the third grade boys. We sing much more, too, when she stands up in front and helps us.

We are going to have a Monthly Honor Roll for the boys and girls who come every Sunday in the month. We aren't going to count January 29th because the Editor won't wait to find out how many of us were there before he publishes the News. When we remember that the first Sunday was New Years, and the last Sunday—January 23rd—awfully chilly for young noses and ears, we think this is a fine list:

Third Grade.

Russell Nordstrom
Hall Colton
Betty Holgate
William Carlson
Frank Crandall

Second Grade.

Betty Knowlton
Katharine Vince
Robert Works
Frank Manley

First Grade.

Ruth Ann Amundson
Barbara Finch
Mary Heimick
Jane Brown
Betty Boyd

We are sorry to lose Noreen Quinn from the First Grade Class. She is moving to Mandan, North Dakota.

Ruth Ann Amundson is very happy over a new baby sister, Margaret Louise.

The sympathy of the Primary Department is with Irene Nordvall who lost her little sister January 12th.

Maude Gillette, who has been sick with a cold and earache, was back with us Sunday.

So many of us have been having birthdays and our bank has become so full that our pennies will hardly go in. Our Superintendent, Mrs. Bradley, has opened it and taken some money out and we are going to send $5.00 from it to Mr. Ray Phillips from our church, who is a missionary at Johannesburg, South Africa, so that he can buy color cards and May flowers for his little girls and boys.

THE JUNIOR CHOIR

The Junior Choir sang at the Christmas Vesper Service.

The Choir meets every Sunday morning between church and Sunday School. We have been practicing music to sing at the next Vesper Service on the 29th of January. Jean Moore and Helen Wilkes have been added to the membership of the Choir.

CRADLE ROLL

Mrs. H. F. Sleepack, Superintendent of the Cradle Roll, has been called out of the city by the serious illness of her mother.

The Cradle Roll lost two of its members by death in January. Edith Dorothy Nordvall, age 2 yrs. and 2 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nordvall, 2501 E. 8th St., died suddenly on January 10th.

Virginia, nine months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Rabideau, 1618 E. 3rd St., died on Sunday, January 22nd, of valvular heart trouble.

The sympathy of Pilgrim Sunday School goes out to the bereaved parents and to Edith Dorothy's sisters, Irene and Evelyn, and to Virginia's brother Robert and sister Mary Jane, all of whom are regular attendants at Pilgrim Sunday School.

BEGINNERS' DEPARTMENT

Over fifty children attended the Christmas party given by the Beginners' and Cradle Roll departments, December 22nd. The gifts brought by the children for distribution by Mrs. Jeffrey of the Little Gray House in Gary, included 43 toys, 15 pairs of stockings, 7 pairs of mittens, 2 sweaters, 41 other articles of clothing, candy and nuts, and $6.46 in cash. This money, together with the contribution of the Primary department and the generous amount yielded by the information boxes totaled $50.00. Mrs. Arthur Dinsmore, chairman of the work at Gary, used this money to purchase shoes and other much needed clothing.

Jack Cowan and Dorothy Peterson have joined the department since the last issue of the Pilgrim News, making the present enrollment 47. The attendance has been unusually good so far this winter. Was 38 on January 8th. Twenty-eight Beginners braved the 30 degrees below zero weather of Sunday, January 22nd. One regular attendant, Bobby Lee of 2112 E. 4th Street, missed the Christmas party and has been absent ever since on account of illness. We hope he will be back soon.

Those who celebrated birthdays in January are: Barbara Vivian, Jan. 4th; Betty Pearce, Jan. 17th; and William Holgate, Jan. 23rd.

Beginners' Valentine party will be held February 11th from 2:30 to 4:30. All children from three years to six are invited.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

The Junior Department had twenty-seven pupils on the Honor Roll for November and have forty on the Honor Roll for December, making a gain of thirteen for this month. As there are eighty-eight pupils in the Junior Department, there is chance for even a better report next month. A special reward will be given each pupil whose name has been on the Honor Roll for three consecutive months, and a banner will be awarded the class making the best record for a month.

The names of the pupils who have won a place on the Honor Roll for December follow:

PILGRIM CHURCH

Mrs. Jeronimus' class has a new pupil, John Colman.

Paul Andersen of Mr. Neimeyer's class reports a new baby brother.

Miss Morey's Class.

Miss Georgia Morey's class had a party Saturday, January 6th, at two thirty, in the Recreation Room. The following committee was appointed to bring refreshments and to plan the games for the afternoon: Miss Morey, Mary Jane Rabideau, Helen Algotsen, Helen Bailey, Marian Murphy, and Mary Adams. Every one of the ten present enjoyed the games and charades for an hour, after which refreshments consisting of sandwiches and chocolate, ice cream with maple sauce and cake were served. Then each one had to do a stunt, some of which were very funny. Five o'clock came all too soon. The girls all agreed that such an enjoyable affair must be repeated often.

Betty Everhard is rejoicing over a baby brother, Edward, who arrived November 22.

Fourth Grade Boys.

Basket ball night has been changed from Thursday to Friday night. Herbert Maki has resigned as Captain of the basket ball team because of being unable to attend practice. Frederick Hadden was elected to Captain in his place. A very good time is had by all those that attend Friday evenings.

Mrs. Robert Johnson's class of boys have visited us several times on Friday nights. Frederick Hadden has been sick for the past two weeks with a badly sprained foot. Lauren Nichols has been suffering from a broken thumb.

Oscar Mitchell, Loren Nichols, John Milligan are leading in the attendance contest.

FROM MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Dear Editor:

You ask if there is any foundation to the rumor which has reached you that Pilgrim Church has a Men's Bible Class.

Well, there is just a basis—but it should not have gotten out that way, we were rather guarding the secret.

Now that it is out, why "I'll come through clean".

Yes—we have a good starting point for a Men's Class, sort of nucleus, don't you know. From 15 to 25 of us meet every Sunday at 12:05 upstairs in the study, and WE NEVER RUN OVER 1:00 O'CLOCK!

We are all old enough to know better than to stay, if we were not satisfied ENTIRELY with what we get, and the only reason that any of that 15 to 25 is absent is that he is sick or out of town.

We have a leader who has generously put his time against ours for a couple years past—Mr. Baldwin is the name, Albert Baldwin; he evidently is not very well known hereabouts, as evidenced by the numbers mentioned above.

Possibly there are other leaders just as good, but we don't think they make them any better. His preparation for the subject under discussion is as painstakingly and carefully worked out as though he were submitting a brief in a case carried up to the U. S. Supreme Court before which he expected to argue.

Our door is always open and should anyone break in and then find he didn't want to stay, kind of feel he was wasting his time, why he can leave any time without prejudice or "starting anything".

Why not suggest to your readers that they come up and "give us the once over". Two or three times would, of course, let them know if they wanted to quit coming, better than just making one curiosity visit.

Brewer Mattocks, Jr.

GIRL SCOUTS

Report of the Girl Scouts for the year 1921.

Since last January the Girl Scouts of Pilgrim Church have increased their membership from 19 to 31 active scouts. Of this number 10 were able to enjoy outdoor scouting at Camp Magney for a period of ten days last August. With the exception of the camping period and the first two weeks of September, regular meetings have been conducted every Wednesday afternoon. Drilling, tests, and games are usually parts of each meeting.

The Women's Assembly of the church appointed a troop committee consisting of Mrs. S. E. Matter, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Prisk, Mrs. Benjamin F. Davis, Mrs. C. L. Reichart, and Mrs. Frank Murphy to aid the scouts in every way possible. This committee has given us very fine support by providing demonstrations of first aid bandaging, table setting, bed-making, going with us to study birds, trees, and flowers, helping us to make our uniforms, entertaining us, and examining us for different proficiency badges, such as cooking, sewing, laundress, health winner, and First Aid. We wish to express our appreciation also of help given us by Dr. M. H. Tibbetts, Mr. H. Rowland Halsey, Mrs. Philip J. Frost, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. C. W. Hadden, Miss Christine McMurtrie and Miss Catherine MacGregor.

During the year we sent $20.00 to our French orphan, Catherine Perata, also a Christmas box and one year's subscription to "The American Girl", the scout magazine. Last spring when Mrs. Anderson directed the production of "The Enchanted Garden", we raised $65.00 for the Chinese Famine fund. At Thanksgiving time we provided a dinner for a family of three and at Christmas time we dressed three large dolls and made ten sewing bags containing scissors, thimble, needles, thread, and pieces of cloth for doll clothes, for the Children's Home. We have recently made ourselves a gift of 32 Thistle crests and 32 purple ties to wear with our uniforms so when you see purple ties and scout uniforms you'll recognize the Thistle Troop of Pilgrim Church.

PILGRIM NEWS

Respectfully submitted,
Mary I. Elwell, Captain,
Gertrude Hegardt Halsey, Lieut.
Patrol III.

At Christmas time we dressed three large dolls and made ten sewing bags containing scissors, thimble, needles, thread, and pieces of goods for doll clothes, for the Children's Home.

We very much enjoyed helping to serve the refreshments at the wedding of our lieutenant, Miss Gertrude Hegardt, to Mr. H. Rowland Halsey.

About fifteen of the scout girls went to St. Luke's Hospital Friday, January 6th, and saw a demonstration by Miss Hagan of the proper way to give a tiny baby a bath. We admired the skill with which it was done, but are not so sure now that we could do it ourselves.

Proficiency Badges.

The troop has been very busy passing tests for merit badges, and with the exception of one or two, the girls are members of Patrol I. A few girls are working for the Golden Eagle—the highest honor a scout can win. This requires twenty-one badges. The nearest any girl has come to that is one who has thirteen badges, and hopes to have the Golden Eagle by next April.

The following people have passed tests for badges:

Bernice Kloepful—First Aid.
Marian Weaver—Needlewoman and Laundress.
Judith Elderkin—Laundress.
Catherine Cheadle—Pathfinder and Craftsman.

The following girls will pass test in the next two weeks:

Judith Elderkin—Child Nurse.
Catherine Cheadle—Child Nurse.
Virginia Lignell—Child Nurse, Needlewoman, and Dressmaker.
Celinda Hadden—Health Winner.
Mary Louise Coventry—Home Maker.
Milder Wiley—Home Maker.
Ruth Murphy—Pathfinder and Scribe.

The Christmas Box for the Orphan.

A committee of four was appointed to take care of the box for "Catherine", our French orphan. The committee met on the sixteenth of December at one of the department stores to select the gifts. We first went to the ribbon counter, where we decided on a pretty blue plaid hair ribbon. We then went to the toy department, where a game of dominoes, a puzzle, a pencil box, and a picture painting book were purchased. A pound of Christmas candy and a card were bought at another store. We also had the box wrapped there. We hope she received it soon after Christmas but so far no word has come. We sent her the scout magazine, "The American Girl". Although she reads but little English, she is studying with a tutor and will probably enjoy looking at the pictures.

Patrol II.

Mildred Wiley and Mary Louise Coventry have passed their second class test.

A number of girls are making their own uniforms under the direction of Mrs. Murphy.

Patrol I.

On January 11, 1922, the following girls received their Tenderfoot Pins:

Ruth Moore
Jean Macrae
Millicent Niden
Margaret Arnes
Alice Brewer

Margaret MacArthur, the captain of troop three, visited the scout meeting held on January 11.

FROM DUTCHIE

The following letter was received by a boy in Pilgrim School from a boy in Dutchie.

Williams, Minnesota, January 7, 1922.

Dear Sir:

I received the books you sent to me for Christmas, and many thanks for them. Those were the only presents I got were the ones I got from Duluth. It is so hard at times up here this winter, and if it hadn't been for you folks in Duluth, I wouldn't have got any Christmas presents this year.

I go to Sunday School almost every Sunday. Boys from about eight years old to thirteen and fourteen have a class in Sunday School by themselves; it is called the Booster Boys' class. I am in it, too. There are nine in our class.

I go to school every day. I am in the sixth grade. I am eleven years old. How old are you? Are you a man that sent me those books?

Well, I am short of news today. I will close for this time.

With best regards, from

P. S. I got your name and address from the card you sent.

CONCERT AT FINNISH CHURCH

The concert of the Finnish Congregational Church at Christmas was a pronounced success. The pastor said the proceeds of $20.00 received would pay their rent of the church for one month. The orchestra of the Finnish Baptist greatly aided in the program. Much credit should be given our Pilgrim organist and choir for their generous aid. Their very appropriate selections rendered in American and Finnish were understood and heartily applauded.

Any articles found in the church should be given or reported to Mr. Anderson.

The next number of Pilgrim News will appear in February. Roger M. Weaver is the editor.

Live, snappy reports and the usual grand dinner at the Annual Meeting Tuesday evening.

Pilgrim Church will be 51 years old next Wednesday. Join the celebration Tuesday evening.

Inquire about lost articles of Mr. Anderson, the janitor, whose telephone number is Hemlock 415.

Closing chapters of Mr. North's book, "The Kingdom and the Nations" Wednesday evening at eight.

Not a dull moment in Mr. Baldwin's class for men which meets at noon. Up stairs in the study.

Even if you miss the dinner Tuesday evening, don't miss Mr. Raymond's stereopticon entertainment.

The new members received at the last Communion will be our guests Tuesday evening at the annual dinner.

Little children will be cared for during the church hour in the Church-time kindergarten, Mrs. McDonald has charge.

The third installment of Congregational Hand Books are on the table in the vestibule this noon. Leave four cents if you care to.

A year ago this morning Pilgrim Church added seventy-nine new members. It was the beginning of our 50th Anniversary Week.

Rev. and Mrs. Jeremiah Kimball and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson have been loyal and devoted members of Pilgrim Church for fifty-one years.

The comfort of our sympathy is given to Mrs. W. W. Huntley, whose father, Mr. C. O. Hoffman, passed beyond, Jan. 2, at his home in Sauk Centre, Minn.

The report of the Nominating Committee on the last page does not end the matter. Any member of the church may nominate for any office at the Annual Meeting.

At the beginning of her fifty-second year Pilgrim Church greets all her sons and daughters with grateful acknowledgement of their proved affection and asks them still to join with her in thoughts of changeless and enduring things.

Only those having tickets can be accommodated at the Annual Meeting Dinner, January 17. All those not yet having tickets either in hand or definitely engaged and wishing to secure them should get them TODAY from C. E. Wallace in order to assure accommodations.

NEW PRESIDENT GIVEN OVATION

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Women's assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church will be held in the parish house Wednesday. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock with Mrs. Richard Funck as director, the January unit in charge. The election of officers will be held, therefore a large attendance is desired.

N.T. Jan. 24,

MRS. T. J. DAVIS.

THE MEMBERS of the Women's assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church gave Mrs. Davis a great ovation as she took the chair as their new president for the coming year, following the annual elections on Jan. 25. Mrs. Davis has been one of the most active women in civic and club life in Duluth and has served as a member of the school board, so that the women of the assembly hope for guidance in their many activities during her term of office.

New Officers Chosen by Pilgrim Women

The annual meeting of the Women's assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church was held in the community rooms on Jan. 25. Mrs. Richard M. Funck was in charge of the luncheon which preceded the meeting. The 120 guests were seated at 12 tables, each one decorated to represent one of the months of the calendar.

Mrs. T. J. Davis was elected president, with Mrs. Benjamin F. Davis as secretary; Mrs. Carl T. Wise, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Willard B. Matter, auditor; the four supervisors will be Mrs. C. J. Zackow, spring group; Mrs. F. D. Orr, summer group; Mrs. C. A. Duncan, autumn group; Mrs. G. C. Spalding, winter group.

The retiring officers are Mrs. E. J. Collins, president; Mrs. W. N. Hart, Mrs. T. J. Davis, Mrs. W. A. McGonagle and Mrs. L. E. Paddock, supervisors; Mrs. C. F. Colman, vice president; Mrs. B. C. Wade, secretary; Mrs. W. E. Matter, auditor and Mrs. W. R. Dougherty, corresponding secretary.

N.T. Jan. 26,

What the Church Organizations Are Doing

The annual meeting of the Women's Assembly of Pilgrim Congregational church was held last Wednesday. A luncheon was served, with Mrs. Richard M. Funck in charge. Covers were laid for 120 and the tables were most attractive, each one being decorated to represent a month in the year. The January table provoked considerable comment with its toy hods of coal and a miniature fir tree banked in cotton snow.

The climax of the meeting was reached when the nomination of Mrs. T. J. Davis was announced. This was received with such unanimous enthusiasm that the formality of an election was really unnecessary. The four supervisors who will work with her are Mrs. G. C. Spalding, supervisor winter group; Mrs. C. A. Duncan, supervisor autumn group; Mrs. C. J. Zackow, supervisor spring group and Mrs. F. D. Orr, supervisor summer group; vice president, Mrs. E. J. Collins; secretary, Mrs. Benjamin F. Davis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl T. Nise; auditor, Mrs. Willard Matter.

The retiring officers are President, Mrs. E. J. Collins, and Mrs. W. N. Hart, Mrs. T. J. Davis, Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, Mrs. L. E. Paddock, supervisors; vice president, Mrs. C. F. Coleman; secretary, Mrs. B. C. Wade; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. R. Dougherty; auditor, Mrs. Willard Matter.

Recommend that the Advisory Committee shall consist of the President, Vice-President, the four supervisors and the twelve directors.

Recommend that the Director be treasurer of her unit if possible.

Recommend that the last paragraph under heading "Duties of officers" be changed to read thus-

Each Unit has a Treasurer who collects all pledges or moneys handled by that Unit. She shall turn over all funds received by her to the Supervisor of that Group. The Supervisor keeps an account for her group and turns over all money to the Auditor of the Assembly.

Voted, February 23rd, 1921, that the Assembly be responsible for the salary of the religious director for one year. This pledge has not been fulfilled.

A religious director is expected March first and the men of the Congregation look to the Assembly for his salary for one year. We have $1471.99 for this fund due July 9th, next. Assuming the Easter offering next April to be $1000.00, we will have $2471.99, which will pay the salary for nearly ten months. The remainder, ~~$522.00~~ ^{$329.01}, can easily be at hand when needed.

Voted, December 30th, 1921, to complete the Chancel woodwork. This bill will probably have to be met May first. We have $2837.41 on hand and bills for chairs, silverware, tables, shelves, etc., will amount to about $425.00, leaving on hand $2412.41, which can be applied to the woodwork which is estimated to cost $2500.00. $100.00 has been offered for this undertaking so that we will have enough to meet this obligation and ~~$22~~ ^{$9.11} over.

Voted, December 30th, 1921 that, providing the trustees of the Church desire to finish the janitor's quarters, the Assembly will assist financially as much as possible with this project during 1922.

CHURCH NOTES

Be good to "Goodwill" this week.

Midweek service Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Speak to the folks in your pew this morning.

Vespers next Sunday at five. Junior Choir. Pilgrim Quartet.

Vesper services in which the Junior Choir will participate January 29th.

Any articles found in the church should be given or reported to Mr. Anderson.

Inquire about lost articles of Mr. Anderson, the janitor, whose telephone number is Hemlock 415.

Closing chapters of Mr. North's book, "The Kingdom and the Nations" Wednesday evening at eight.

Little children will be cared for during the church hour in the Church-time kindergarten. Mrs. McDonald has charge.

Mrs. L. E. Paddock is the new chairman of the committee on the Chancel woodwork. Mrs. Florada resigned, as she is leaving the city until May.

All copy for the February issue of Pilgrim News must be in Mr. Weaver's hands before midnight tonight. Take it up on the boulevard at midnight if you feel like it.

Dr. John Walker Powell, who preached to us several times while we were without a pastor, will give a lecture at Endion Methodist Church, Monday, Jan. 30, on "America in World Leadership".

The Chairman of the Board of Ushers in his annual report said: "that perhaps it would not be out of place to suggest the trying out of a number of ladies for this work." This might be considered during the coming year.

The success of the Annual Dinner was due to the committee in charge—Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Zachow; Decorations—Mrs. Whiteside, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Shepardon; Dining Room—Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Sanford; Tickets—Mr. Wallace.

The annual meeting of The Women's Assembly will be held Wednesday, January 25th, in The Parish House. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 by The January Unit, Mrs. Richard M. Funck Director. A table will be reserved for each Unit, so it is for you to help swell the number at your Unit table. And also it is the election of officers for the ensuing year, so place this date in your engagement book.

On Monday, January 23rd, at 12:30 a luncheon will be given at the Masonic Temple to which all women interested in Christian education in the Orient are invited. Miss Ida Green of Chicago and Miss Wealthy Honsinger who recently returned from a trip around the world with Miss Margaret Slattery will speak of the seven Oriental Colleges for women in the Far East. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Claude Haney.

The new Publicity Chairman is Mrs. C. H. Dunning, 2108 Woodland Avenue, Hemlock 3866.

In handing over the work to the new chairman the retiring chairman makes these suggestions: First—Do not expect Mrs. Dunning to be a mind reader. If you want notices in the week end papers they must be in her hands as early as Thursday. Notices for Monday should reach her on Saturday. If the week's notices are not on the bulletin she must be informed in regard to them. Second—If the reporters call you for news refer them to Mrs. Dunning OR having given them the items, inform Mrs. Dunning AT ONCE that you have done so. This will help her to avoid waste of time and energy on something that has already been done.

ANNUAL MEETING

The fifty-first annual meeting of Pilgrim Church was held in the Parish House last Tuesday evening, January 17. Supper, in charge of Mrs. George Spalding, was served to 350 and was followed by the business session in the Chapel. The attendance was the largest, on such an occasion, in the history of the Church. The Pastor, Dr. Noble S. Elderkin, presided.

Reports of the various organizations of the Church and its officers were read.

A novel and amusing feature, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Raymond, was the putting upon a screen, youthful pictures of those making the reports.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read by the church clerk, Brewer Mattocks, Jr.

The report of the Clerk shows a present membership of 640, an addition of 140 in the year 1921. Letters have been granted to 19 and there have been 10 deaths.

The church Treasurer, H. W. Nichols, reported total receipts $25,288.69, and total disbursements $25,168.92, and that all obligations, local, state, and national have been paid.

The Chairman of the Finance Committee, W. C. Hegardt, reported as follows:

"From our treasurer's report, you will notice that our receipts last year were $25,288.69. If we deduct, however, the amount collected in 1921, account of Congregational World Movement and other special collections, namely $3,439.08, the net amount of our receipts was $21,862.94.

The Finance Committee is assuming that all 1921 pledges will be continued through 1922, but in order not to over-work the church Treasurer and the Finance Committee in 1922, we need some additional weekly pledges and an increase in some of the pledges we now have. The proposed budget for 1922 is $22,031."

Mrs. F. A. Grawn, chairman of the Church Missionary Committee, reported that the total amount for benevolent purposes for the year 1921 was $7,060.44. The apportionment for Pilgrim Church for 1922 is $4,784.

Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, president of the Women's Missionary Society, reported the society had furnished clothing for families in need, surgical supplies for a hospital in Porto Rico, and a box of clothing for the negro school in Moorhead, Miss.

The proceeds of the Thank Offering Meeting were $172.

The report of the Friends in Council, made by Gertrude Longstreet, its president, shows a year of varied activities. They contributed $160 to benevolences.

Mr. F. L. Berkheiser, Superintendent of the Church School, reported an average attendance of 240; and that a religious education committee has been organized. The Pilgrim News has published its initial number, Base ball and Basket ball teams have been organized among the boys and girls.

The report of Dr. M. H. Tibbets, Treasurer of the school, showed that $84.70 had been set aside toward the salary of a Religious Director, and $205.26 was given to missions, and $84.72 paid toward the expenses of the church.

The report of the Christian Endeavor Society, read by Bruce Scott, showed an active interest by the young people of the church in missionary study and religious work.

The Lookout Committee report was read by the chairman, Mrs. H. I. Pinneo.

An exhaustive report of the years activities of the Women's Assembly was given by Mrs. E. G. Collins, the president. Charitable work and other activities were engaged in and the financial statement shows the amount of receipts $5,771.30, disbursements $1,471.12.

A brief report of the Mens Club was made by its president, C. E. Carlson.

Judge W. A. Cant reported for the delegates to the Inter-Church Council and said that "One of the purposes of the Inter-Church Council was to co-ordinate the activities of the protestant church societies throughout the city and as occasion arises, to make the influence of the church membership felt in connection with questions of importance which affect either the religious or general welfare of the community" and he urged the continued and hearty support of the council by Pilgrim Church.

The Girl Scouts report was given by Mrs. Rowland Halsey and showed an increasing membership from 19 to 31.

Mr. C. W. Hadden reported for the Boy Scouts, Pilgrim Church troop No. 8. The troop is active and growing. The membership in the United States is 410,000 of which Duluth has 600.

The Chairman of the Board of Ushers, J. P. Johnson, reported and said "Ushers have been elected by the church each year since I have been in charge and they have been truly loyal and always on hand for duty".

The Building and Grounds Committee report was made by W. N. Hart, chairman. He referred to various improvements made and contemplated to the church buildings and grounds.

The Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Oscar Mitchell, reported that the Church is free from debt and has no difficult financial problems.

The Pastor expressed his appreciation of the co-operation of the members in the work of the church and voiced his hope that in 1924 Pilgrim Church would have a membership of 1,000. He announced that a Director of Religious Education is to be engaged very soon.

CHURCH NOTES

Easter Sunday is the first day of April.

Midweek service Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Topic, "Worship".
For all the people.

New members will be received at the Communion Service
February 4th.

The coffee served at the annual dinner was kindly donated by the Rust-Parker Co.

Remember your appointment for next Sunday afternoon at Five. Pilgrim Vesper Service.

Baseball begins tomorrow evening on the church lot at 7:45.
All men in the congregation invited.

Bulletins will be sent each week to those who are going away for the winter if they will leave their addresses.

For the sake of the record it shall be set down here that
Mr. Hall occupied the pulpit January 7th and 14th.

The church office will handle your subscription to the Missionary Herald ($1.00) and the Congregationalist ($2.75).

The Standing Committee meets this noon in the parlors to welcome those who would like to unite with the Church February 4th.

The Remer Church has received a check for $547. This is to help them complete their new building. And carries the good wishes of Pilgrim Church.

Word comes from the Clover Point Sunday School that everyone was delighted with the boxes sent thither at Christmas time by our church and school.

The men of the congregation who think they know how to play indoor ball are ordered to appear at the Church tomorrow (Monday) evening at 7:45.

Last Friday evening the members of the Christian Endeavor Society entertained at a sleighride, going to Helen Baldwin's cabin where they had dinner and returned home later in the evening.

Next Tuesday at a special election among other things you will be asked to say whether or not you want the city to appropriate $25,000 for improving the Moore Welfare Building.
Watson S. Moore has given this valuable property to the City to provide proper housing for all our welfare organizations. The Civic Council asks you to vote YES.

Notices for the Bulletin should be in the hands of the church secretary not later than three o'clock Thursday.

The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6 o'clock this evening. John Adams will lead. The subject is Evangelistic Missions at home and abroad. Luke 24:45-53.

Tuesday evening the following members of the church were issued letters of dismissal: Eva Chandler Caller (Mrs. F. E.) to the First Methodist Church of Rutherford, N. J., and Lloyd A. Hakes to the First Presbyterian Church of Akron, Ohio.

The Duluth Council of Churches bids the members of Pilgrim Church—men and women—to a pre-lenten dinner which is to be served in the First Methodist Church Tuesday evening January 30th at 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Blodgett has tickets. They are fifty cents each.

The Women's Assembly supervisors and directors for the year 1923 are as follows:

Winter Group—Mrs. C. T. Wise, Supervisor; December Unit—Mrs. E. H. Stevenson, Director; January Unit—Mrs. R. M. Weaver, Director; February Unit—Mrs. A. P. Barnes, Director.

Spring Group—Mrs. W. A. McGonagle, Supervisor; March Unit—Mrs. F. D. Orr, Director; April Unit—Mrs. C. H. Barnes, Director; May Unit—Mrs. J. W. Shepherdson, Director.

Summer Group—Mrs. R. M. Funck, Supervisor; June Unit—Mrs. E. F. Burg, Director; July Unit—Mrs. E. A. Grochau, Director; August Unit—Miss Cecilia Oppel, Director.

Autumn Group—Mrs. F. W. Roedter, Supervisor; September Unit—Mrs. W. F. Arndt, Director; October Unit—Mrs. David Davis, Director; November Unit—Mrs. C. H. Whitmore, Director.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

The fifty-second annual meeting of Pilgrim Church was held in the Parish House last Tuesday evening. Supper, in charge of Mrs. R. E. Johnson, was served to about 240, and this was followed by the business meeting. Dr. Elderkin was elected moderator. After the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting the various reports were given and the election of officers held.

The report for the Christian Endeavor Society, made by John Harlow, president, showed a membership of thirty. The society has held regular meetings through the year except during July and August, with an average attendance of twenty-five. One delegate went to attend the Northfield Conference last summer. A biweekly fellowship luncheon just preceding the Sunday evening meeting is a new and successful feature of the work this winter. The cabinet includes besides the regular officers committee chairmen to look after various special departments.

Reports by Miss Mary Elwell, captain of the Girl Scouts, and A. O. Rabideau, Boy Scoutmaster, showed the two troops of the church active and in good condition.

Report by R. C. Hawkers, treasurer of the Church School, reported a total expenditure of $867.38.

Judge R. M. Funck reported for the Religious Education Committee. This committee being new since the last annual meeting the chairman took occasion to define its function as to serve as the cabinet of the Religious Education Department. The Women's Assembly having guaranteed the expenses of the Department for the year, their president, Mrs. T. J. Davis, was invited to meet with the committee, as was the pastor. This committee held frequent meetings during the year with Mr. Hall to discuss and decide upon the policy of the Department. The chairman spoke of the budget asked for for the year 1923 as "not very much when the wide field for its expenditure is considered". The aim of the department is service to the children of the entire community.

The report of the Religious Education Department, Rev. W. M. Hall, Director, gave a brief account of the following activities among our children and young people: Vacation Church School, Boy and Girl Scouts, Christian Endeavor, Booster and Pijugi Clubs, Basbet ball for High School boys, Pilgrim News, Young People's Conferences, and the Church School. The Booster and Pijugi Clubs are lively organizations of boys and girls in the Junior Department, with service and recreation as their aims. High School Boys have played basket ball one evening a week. The ten issues of Pilgrim News that have appeared during the year have been very popular with the children and young people. Our young people have been well represented at several conferences in different parts of the State during the year and the delegates have come home with many new and valuable points of view. The Vacation Church School had an average attendance of 101 with 12 denominations represented, making it in a real sense a community enterprise. Mr. Hall reported the Church School as being in good condition, with 44 adult workers and an average attendance during the last three months of 1922 of 239.

Miss Effie White, president, reported for the Friends in Council. Several social meetings were held during the year, besides the annual Thank Offering meeting. With a membership of only ten, this society has paid $100.00 towards the church apportionment, besides $35.00 for other benevolent purposes.

The report of the Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. C. L. Hancy president, was read by the vice president, Mrs. C. H. Dunning. Eight meetings have been held during the year with an average attendance of 40. The ladies prepared and sent a box of surgical dressings to the Congregational Hospital in Porto Rico, and shipped two fine barrels, one to the Moorhead School, and one to Remer. Two delegates represented the society at the State meeting of the W. B. M. I. The Thank Offering amounted to $183.70.

Mrs. T. J. Davis, president, reported for the Women's Assembly. Among the achievements for the year are the purchase of new hymnals, putting in the reredos, starting the Duluth Occupational Therapy work, financing the Religious Education Department, serving the State Conference, the District Christian Ement, our own church people with 5,084 meals, giving the Goldthwaite organ recital at cost, and providing equipment and decorations in various parts of the building. Their disbursements amounted to $8,426.61.

Brewer Mattocks, Jr., church clerk, reports a membership of 685 at the beginning of the year, 54 new members received, 14 letters of dismissal granted, and 2 deaths, making our present membership 723.

W. N. Hart, chairman of the Building and Grounds committee, reported all church property, including the parsonage, in good condition. He spoke again of the need of janitor's quarters in the building.

The report of the Board of Trustees, Oscar Mitchell chairman, showed that all church property is free from indebtedness and that all bills and current expenses are paid. The church property is insured for $150,000. Formerly the premiums were paid once in three years. A plan has been worked out by the trustees by which the premiums will henceforth be paid annually, $668.34 in 1923, and $500 a year thereafter. The apportionment for 1923 is $6,292.00. A large number of the members of the church are still not represented directly or indirectly by a pledge for the church budget.

The report of the treasurer, H. W. Nichols, (W. S. Horr assistant treasurer), showed the total receipts for the year to be $28,697.05, disbursements $28,653.62, balance on hand $43.43.

The chairman of the finance committee, W. G. Hegardt, reported an estimated budget for 1923 of $26,928.00, and the necessity of getting $1,751.00 more in pledges if we adopt this budget.

The minister of the church in his message cautiously referred to the matter of attendance both at the morning and at the vesper services. And expressed his fondest hopes. He stressed the achievements of the Assembly and wished like fury that the men had an organization comparable to it. He explained how invaluable the church office had been. Told about the work of the Lookout Committee and explained why it would be best to continue generous contributions to the Deacons' Fund. Urged the church to stand behind the Duluth Council of Churches as it had been doing. He ventured to recall the splendid work of the whole church in entertaining the State Conference during the merry month of May while the ice was still in the Lake. And he closed by suggesting the appointment of a committee to take the entire apportionment problem under advisement.

Before the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the trustees it was voted to thank the News Tribune and the Herald for their many fine courtesies, to send the greetings of the church to Mrs. C. C. Salter a charter member who is ill at her home, to thank Mrs. Johnson and the J-O group for their part in making the evening a success. The new members of the church who were received at the December Communion and were guests of honor at the dinner were called upon to rise. The phantom tellers of the election were Messrs. Barnes, Finlayson, Hunt, Orr and Dr. Laird who would have done very well if there had been any need of doing well.

The report of the nominating committee was read by Mr. Sanford, and the election of officers and committee members resulted as follows:

Deacons for two years—G. A. Gray, H. I. Pinneo.
Deacons for three years—Albert Baldwin, C. G. Scott.
Trustees for three years—A. W. Frick, W. N. Hart.
Standing Committee—Mrs. W. H. Cole, Mrs. R. A. Webster.
Treasurer—H. W. Nichols.
Assistant Treasurer—W. S. Horr.
Clerk—Brewer Mattocks, Jr.
Missionary Committee—E. G. Chapman, Mrs. W. B. Matter, Mrs. R. W. Northup.
Religious Education Committee—F. L. Berkheiser, Mrs. T. H. Hawkes, Miss Jennie Moody, H. S. Newell, R. M. Weaver.
Music Committee—Mrs. P. J. Frost, Miss Belle Simonds, C. E. Wallace.
Lookout Committee—Mrs. H. I. Pinneo, Mrs. Albert Baldwin, Mrs. W. R. Daugherty.
Pilgrim Church Representatives in Duluth Council of Churches—Albert Baldwin, F. L. Berkheiser, C. A. Duncan, G. A. Gray, E. L. Kimball, L. H. McMurtrie, Andrew Nelson.
Ushers—J. P. Johnson, chairman, F. E. Blodgett; R. C. Duncan, F. W. Falk, D. W. Frick, T. A. Gall, A. L. Goodman, C. F. Graff, W. Gordon Hegardt, W. S. Horr, H. G. Manley, Brewer Mattocks III, J. C. Neimeyer, R. W. Northup, R. I. Pinneo, G. A. Taylor.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE

CHURCH NOTES

Midweek service Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Speak to the folks in your pew this morning.

The February number of Pilgrim News is out today.

Bring someone to the Vesper service this afternoon at five.

Word comes that the Sanfords have a new grand-daughter in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Any articles found in the church should be given or reported to Mr. Anderson.

New members will be received March 5th. It is none too early to write for your letters.

Inquire about lost articles of Mr. Anderson, the janitor, whose telephone number is Hemlock 415.

The Committee on Religious Education lunches together at the Glass Block tomorrow at 12:15.

The thermometer was 26 degrees below at church time last Sunday morning. But 215 souls risked it.

Little children will be cared for during the church hour in the Church-time kindergarten, Mrs. McDonald has charge.

Miss Mildred G. Evans will read J. M. Barrie's play, "The Will", this afternoon at 4:30 at the Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service.

Little Virginia Rabideau, nine months old, died very suddenly last Sunday morning at her home, 1618 East Third Street. Her brother and sister are in Pilgrim Sunday School.

Report all odd jobs you can create to the Mayor's Committee. Create a job a month around your house and ask the Mayor's Committee to send you someone.

What happened on the church ball lot last Thursday evening cannot be comfortably reported. But it is hoped that the team which comes next Thursday evening will not be so set on winning as the Methodists were.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the hour of beginning the morning service. Many have assumed various hours and have timed themselves accordingly. For the benefit of the confused perhaps it ought to be said that the hour is ten thirty.

Letters were granted last Wednesday evening to Mrs. J. M. Conklin to the North Park Christian Church of Indianapolis, and to Miss Esther L. Austin to the First Church of Appleton, Wisconsin. Mrs. Conklin joined Pilgrim Church in 1885 and has always been a devoted member. Miss Austin's membership dated from 1919.

Dr. C. L. Goodell of New York is coming to Duluth in February for a series of special meetings in the Lyceum Theatre. Pilgrim Church cooperating committee is headed by Mr. Jeremiah Kimball and is composed of Messrs. Anderson, Moore, Colman, Oberg, Hadden, H. W. Nichols, R. E. Johnson, Kerr, Councilman, Heimick and Dr. C. M. Wilson. Our committee joins other church committees at the City Y this afternoon at 3:30.

Dr. John Walker Powell, who preached to us several times while we were without a pastor, will give a lecture at Endion Methodist Church, Monday, Jan. 30, on "America in World Leadership".

A special meeting of Pilgrim Church is called for Sunday morning, January 29, 1922, at 11:45 o'clock, to hear the report of the committee seeking a Director of Religious Education and to take such action as may be deemed wise.

Oscar Mitchell,
Chairman Board of Trustees.

The new Publicity Chairman is Mrs. C. H. Dunning, 2108 Woodland Avenue, Hemlock 3866.

In handing over the work to the new chairman the retiring chairman makes these suggestions: First—Do not expect Mrs. Dunning to be a mind reader. If you want notices in the week end papers they must be in her hands as early as Thursday. Notices for Monday should reach her on Saturday. If the week's notices are not on the bulletin she must be informed in regard to them. Second—If the reporters call you for news refer them to Mrs. Dunning OR having given them the items, inform Mrs. Dunning AT ONCE that you have done so. This will help her to avoid waste of time and energy on something that has already been done.

The report of the treasurer of the Sunday School, Dr. M. H. Tibbetts, for the year 1921 is as follows:

Total receipts	$778.38
Regular and special offerings including Easter and Children's Day.
Expenditures
Fund for Director Religious Education	$ 84.70
Sunday School Extension Society
(Children's Day offering)	84.72

Dear Friend:

As President or an active member of a woman's society, we are extending to you an invitation to a luncheon meeting at the Glass Block Tea Rooms, Tuesday, January 17th, at twelve o'clock.

Mr. Fred Ward will explain the work of the GOODWILL INDUSTRIES, its accomplishments and its needs, including the plan of a financial campaign.

The co-operation of the women is very earnestly desired as sentiment is created in the home and the women fill the Goodwill Bags.

Respectfully,

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES,

By Ross W. Adair

Dear Friend:

The first opportunity for you to assist the Goodwill Industries, with a money contribution, will be given the last week in January. We urge that a thoughtful, kindly hearing be given to the Goodwill solicitors who who will call on you shortly.

Goodwill furnishes employment to the needy and reclaims waste material. Its service was never more needed than now when men are depressed, women are in need, and little children suffer for food and clothes.

Goodwill has operated at 1701 West Michigan Street for nearly a year, without asking for a dollar from Duluth contributors. It has sold $12,000.00 worth of reclaimed articles. It has furnished employment to 150 different people. It has opened a lunch room and woodyard. At the latter a man may earn a bowl of soup or work for coat and mittens. It has demonstrated its usefulness and practicability.

Now it needs your help. On account of a slump in the wholesale price of rags and paper, as well as a limited market for reclaimed goods, because of unemployment, the receipts from the sales have fallen off, while the demand for employment is greater than ever.

$15,000 will carry us through the next 12 months. Make your subscription with the knowledge that your assistance will extend aid to many needy who are now out of work.

Respectfully Yours,

Fred Ward, Pres.

RALPH WELLES KEELER

DEPARTMENT OF CITY WORK
BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
1701 ARCH STREET - PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

The Goodwill Industries

THE Methodist Episcopal Church has added a new national institution to its varied ministry. Goodwill Industries, which had their inception in the vision of Dr. E. J. Helms at the Morgan Memorial Church, Boston, are now being duplicated in some fifty other cities. What was a venture of faith in the early days has become one of the most useful agencies for the demonstration of Methodism's practical interest in the pressing problems of the reconstruction of life. For here, where are brought together bags full of cast-off shoes, clothing, furniture and household equipment, is carried on jointly the process of salvaging material wreckage and human life.

The sale of the renovated goods furnishes another form of ministry to people unable to buy what they need at stores which deal only in new stock. The proceeds thus received are turned back into wages to be paid for further work of salvaging. It is only in the original purchasing of buildings, equipment and overhead in getting under way that the Church at large is called on to help. The after years see the Goodwill Industries self-supporting in most places. The name, Goodwill Industries, which Methodism has adopted, was first used by the Brooklyn City Mission Goodwill Employment Center for Men and Women. Their slogan is "Thrice blessed: Blesses the giver, blesses the employed, blesses the purchaser."

To be unskilled is a handicap to getting a job. To be both unskilled and bereft of that hold on life which gives inspiration to strive is a double handicap. And it is for the most part those who have lost their footing in the paths of life and who at the same time lack specific training for the specialized tasks of today, who knock at the door of the Goodwill Industries for the opportunity which they offer.

HANDICRAFT SCHOOLS OF THE CHURCH

In these Handicraft Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church this new ministry of equipping men and women to help themselves is now in full swing. And many of the trades taught are a process in the reconstruction of old shoes, broken furniture and cast-off clothing, as well as a development of the worker into a qualified unit in our great industrial system. Thus there is provided new goods for old for those unable to purchase in the stores where first users trade, and a sense of self-respect and independence for the toiler who finds the dream of other and better days of little practical value to him in the busy business rush of this after-the-war period.

The Goodwill Industries Cleveland

While sharpening tools—even the desperate effort to sharpen the carving knife for operating on a spring chicken has demonstrated that not everyone can do it.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF OPTIMISM

The mental reaction on a worker whose toil slowly brings the useless and discarded into a state of fitness is most wholesome. The evolution for which he is responsible is music for the song awakening within his heart. He chooses the material for upholstering the frame-work which he has repaired with a feeling for the home it is destined to beautify and serve. Springs are mended with a thought of those who will be made comfortable if the job is done well. And the careful cleaning of the woodwork before putting on the paint speaks of the larger lessons that are being learned along with the ability to earn bread and clothes and a home in which to live. It is a part of the optimism which the Goodwill Industries bring to a man who finds himself developing in the same fine way as are the materials with which he works.

But not all are cobblers of shoes, not all are repairers of furniture. The "curriculum" is varied. The operator of the freight elevator in your office building next year may have been trained for his task here. The man in charge of the by-products—waste paper, rags, bottles, rubber, etc.—of your business is quite likely to have learned his skill which is saving you hundreds of dollars, in a Goodwill In-

When the crowd comes in to purchase

The Goodwill Industries Boston

industries. Expert help for laundries and cleaning establishments is trained, not only to become a master of the technique of his task, he must also learn the formulas and prepare the materials for removing stains, bleaching, making soap and the blueing and sponging fluids for various materials.

School of Handicraft is the right name for these reconstruction agencies. Dressmaking and cutting have a place here. So also have millinery and cooking. For there are many unskilled among the women left dependent by the losses of war and misfortune. Salesmanship, accounting, stenography and typewriting are a part of the day's instruction, while first-class chauffeurs result as a product of the fine course in automobiles which is provided. Industrial re-education for both men and women is being given as rapidly as facilities can be provided.

IT ORIGINATED IN BOSTON

The Methodist Episcopal Church was prepared for such a need as this. For fourteen years there has been growing in Boston the Goodwill Industries of the Morgan Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. Originating in the prayers and faith of a man who has lived to develop that for which he prayed, a type Goodwill Industries

Looking over what you sent in

stood ready as a model and training school for those who would go out to man similar plants of Christian service throughout the land.

What precedes is a partial description of the wonderful institution that is making over things and men and women in a thoroughly Christian and scientific way, the institution that has made it possible to build Goodwill Industries from coast to coast without waiting for costly experimentation. For at Morgan Memorial the Goodwill Industries occupy two large six-story buildings and about 5,000 destitute people every year find self-respecting employment here.

The work of the Goodwill Industries differs from that of the so-called charity organization. The applicant is seeking work, not alms. He is not listed as a "case," but is treated with respect. He is put to work in a sympathetic, Christian atmosphere, and is helping some other unfortunate person by his toil. There is an easy and natural step from the Industries into the religious meetings of the church. Closely associated with the Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries is a Children's Settlement that ministers to fifteen hundred children of twenty-five nationalities, a Church of All Nations, and the Fred H. Seavey Seminary Settlement, where with the missionary is associated a physician, a psychologist, an industrial supervisor and a social secretary.

PIONEERS ON THE WESTERN COAST

Goodwill Industries did not become popular in a day. It took many years of labor for the Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries to reach the place that it holds today. And meanwhile, a man on the Pacific Coast with a like vision of service was going through the throes which the pioneer of faith and courage must experience even in the extending of the work of the kingdom of God. Rev. Samuel Quickmire, the pastor of the Howard Street Methodist Episcopal Church, San Francisco, California, started a free employment bureau in this downtown parish.

Unable to find employment for over eight per cent of those applying, his wife and he decided that they must provide a place that could give employment. They both went to Boston and spent three months working in Morgan Memorial. Then they returned to San Francisco to start their new work. But the vision of these two brave spirits was ahead of their time in that section of the country. One urged waiting. Others lacked the social vision necessary. Some of the officials of the local church did not want the church desecrated by old clothes, old shoes, old furniture and human derelicts.

It became necessary to part with the regular pastorate, to organize a board of directors of the Goodwill Industries of San Francisco, and to promise to work two years without salary. In addition, this Methodist Episcopal pastor and colaborer put $1,000 of their own money into the enterprise to get it started. On that $1,000 they did over $26,000 worth of business the first year, over $50,000 the second year, and over $80,000 the third year. Less than $300 has been given to this plant outside of the original gift of the founders. But now a new property is to be purchased in San Francisco and a building has been secured for a Goodwill Store in Oakland. The new day of the San Francisco Goodwill Industries will have the backing of the Methodist Episcopal Church at large, which has broadened its vision during the recent months of world change and unparalleled sacrifice.

The Goodwill Industries of San Francisco has been called by local writers "The Old Curiosity Shop." It employs about sixty people who average seventy years of age, twenty of whom are women. The forewoman is a white-haired woman of seventy-four. One woman is eighty-six. Not a woman in the place is under sixty. Two of the men employees are eighty-eight. One man, a shoemaker, is eighty-four but he thinks he is a mere stripling, as his father lived to be one hundred and ten. Why should his son stop work at such a juvenile age? At the morning chapel services an organist seventy-three years of age plays the organ. Sometimes an old lady comes in who is not able to do steady work, but not wanting to depend entirely on her children, she comes for half a day and sometimes not at all, but she is not dropped from the pay roll. She earns enough to pay for her clothes and room. Many of these old ladies are absolutely self-supporting.

WHERE THE SLOGAN CAME FROM

The old Acme Hall, famous as the headquarters of the radical socialists, houses the Goodwill Industries of Cleveland. Begun in 1916, as an Industrial Department of the Cleveland Methodist Episcopal Deaconess Home in connection with the West Side Community House, it was later transferred to a building in the rear of the Home, where in 1917 it was entirely wiped out by fire. Cleveland Methodism, however, responded to the emergency and provided new sewing machines, shoe repair outfit, tools and bags and the work was renewed. Then came the Centenary of Methodist Episcopal Missions and the national Goodwill Industries movement, and the local organization, now in larger quarters in the old Goodrich House, came into the broader relationship. When it did so, it gave to the Bureau of Goodwill Industries for its slogan, "Not charity but a chance," suggested to the superintendent of the Cleveland Goodwill Industries by one of the war magazines.

The Goodwill Industries San Francisco

Here, where the Federal Vocational Board sends wounded soldiers to learn a trade, the reclamation service which is the genius of the Goodwill Industries goes on with increasing usefulness. The new quarters permit of thorough-going, up-to-date equipment from office to disinfecting room, and the number employed grows daily. Chapel services are conducted every morning in the old bar room, when some worth-while principle of life is emphasized and words of encouragement are passed on to those in trouble. A Goodwill Forum is conducted once a month which has already vitally touched the heart of the industrial and economic situation in the city. Free moving pictures are provided for the children and parents of the Haymarket District, whose population is chiefly Italian, Slovak, Syrian and Russian. On Sunday afternoon the children of the neighborhood are gathered together for the Goodwill Sunny Hour. At first the crowd that came divided automatically into gangs. Gradually, however, classes have evolved and a fine Sunday school, racially 100 per cent foreign, but loyally 100 per cent American, has been organized.

Two Goodwill Stores furnish the channels for the sale of the output of the factory. One is in the front of Acme Hall, where once was a saloon of evil reputation. The other is near the Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church of All Nations. A third store will be opened in the new West Side Community House when it is completed.

CONSTRUCTIVE CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE

The Denver Goodwill Industries is a part of the constructive program of Epworth Institutional Methodist Episcopal Church, Denver, Colorado. It is a little better than one half mile from the heart of the business center of the city of Denver on old Larimer, the one-time leading street for commercial activity, at the intersection of two car lines, one of which brings people from the packing-house residence section called Globeville.

It began in the church building, before the name Goodwill Industries was used and before a salesroom was rented. Then a vacant basement beneath, was rented, and the Goodwill Store started. An adjoining basement much larger is used for storage. The store room is well lighted and heated and allows sales space in front and work room in the rear, where all fumigating, sorting, pressing and repairing are done.

Mexicans and Italians comprise the two chief peoples patronizing the store, Mexicans being by far the best customers. The stock on opening day consisted of fifteen pairs of shoes, thirty-five men's suits and other articles of clothing and a few household furnishings. The sales amounted to $105. The first month's receipts, June, 1918, totaled $516.35. The receipts for December, 1919, were $1,542.36. On the opening day there were five employees, three of whom were folks who could not have gotten on without just such help as the Goodwill Industries scheme offers. The presser was a man sixty-five years of age, deaf and broken down in health. The cobbler was a man seventy-eight years old and a cripple. Another, a woman who began at sorting rags and who still does this work, is well on in years and almost totally blind. The man who drives the truck is tubercular and was given up by the doctors to die. He is regaining his health and taking on weight. Now there are sixteen on the payroll, while during 1919, $12,000 were paid in wages for opportunity labor.

A man with torn and dirty clothes is fitted out here after this fashion: suit of clothes, $4; underwear, 30 cents; shoes, $1; hat, 25 cents; shirt, collar, socks and tie, 45 cents; total $6.00. For such a small amount this man can cast aside his soiled, ragged clothes and have an entire clean outfit. A woman can fit herself and three children with summer underclothing and shoes for $5. This includes articles of outer clothing also, and the children are all suitably dressed to go to Sunday school.

When the army demobilized, many soldiers were fitted out without charge. The price to a returned soldier is always half price when he is unable to pay the full amount.

AMERICANIZATION ALSO

The Goodwill Industries of Lowell, Massachusetts, to be located one short block from the business and traffic center in property just purchased, is a part of a great Americanization program for this New England city of one hundred and twenty thousand people, forty per cent of whom are foreign, forty per cent of mixed and foreign parentage and only twenty per cent natives. Here, where the races of Europe, Armenia, Turkey, Japan and China toil as operatives in cotton cloth and hosiery factories, where the infant mortality rating among the cities of the United States is fifth from the foot, day nurseries with medical attendance for sick children; a dispensary featuring orthopedic, dental and eye, ear and throat clinics; supervised recreation; and the preaching of a warm-hearted Gospel will augment the salvage work of the Goodwill Industries. The recreational program is being developed in the old Central Methodist Episcopal Church, established in 1843, diagonally adjacent to the back of the new property. In the new property, in Central Church and in the former Worthen Street Methodist Episcopal Church classes and clubs will be conducted for Greek, Polish, French, Portuguese and Armenians, with weekly lectures in their own language, while similar clubs for young women of the same nationalities will be taught American domestic ideals.

Ministering to all colors and creeds, the aim here is set forth as "the reclamation, restoration, rejuvenation, reconstruction and redemption of the waste material of the earth—both men and things." Any surplus that remains after paying expenses will be turned over to relief, educational and settlement work. by mothers from the Italian colony who need to help in the support of the home. There are no import duties, thus goods can be sold at about half the price charged in fashionable shops. Any pattern is reproduced in any size desired. The temporary quarters are at 85 Railroad Avenue. A Children's Settlement and Day Nursery has developed from the work of the church, and a Women's Auxiliary to the Goodwill Industries of Hudson County was formed, which has undertaken to support the Day Nursery and assist in the distribution of bags. Local women's clubs are cooperating enthusiastically. The West Side Community House also has undertaken to solicit bags in its vicinity, which is about two miles from Goodwill Community Center. With wages high, it would seem as if any one willing to work should have no difficulty in finding a job, but the handicapped, unskilled and incapable continue to seek something to do beneath the roof of this House of Christ's Love.

AN AMERICAN NEIGHBORHOOD

Over thirty-six years ago mission work began in Cincinnati which took the name of The Freeman Avenue Mission. Later a Deaconess were supplementary and both strove to meet the needs of the community. It soon became necessary for both organizations to be united. After careful consideration a new location and plan of consolidation were agreed upon. The entire enterprise is now under the auspices of the Methodist Union and the name has been changed to the Freeman Avenue Institute Mission, popularly known as the Goodwill Industrial Mission. The superintendent is assisted by seven workers from the Deaconess Home. It is located in a community of chiefly native American population, there being Negroes in large numbers, but few foreigners. A large per cent of the adults are illiterate and the children are backward in school.

Nowhere is the high cost of living more keenly felt than among those who are down toward the lower edge of life's toil. The providing of clothing is a serious problem in many families, and as a consequence many are insufficiently clad. To shield the people from the evils inseparable from free donations, and to aid those whose self-respect forbids their being objects of charity, a store was opened in the mission. To obtain a stock of goods a worker canvasses different parts of the city, leaving with every one who will cooperate a large "industrial relief" bag to be hung in closet or basement for the reception of discarded clothing, old rugs, toys, dishes; in fact, cast-off articles of all kinds. By the utilization of this waste material the mission is trying to help and save the waste humanity that comes to its doors.

Bargain day in Philadelphia

The contents of the bags are carefully sorted, everything in proper condition being put on sale at once. Garments needing mending are put aside for the busy fingers of the workers and other women who volunteer for that work. Things totally unfit for use (for such are sometimes sent in) are sold to the rag-man or junk shop, so nothing is lost. Everything is sold at a price low enough to bring it within reach of all. A woman's coat, in good condition and costing originally probably fifteen dollars, may be bought for a dollar or two, and a presentable waist for twenty-five cents. Low as the prices are, the sales amount to fifty or sixty dollars a week, and help meet the expenses of the mission. People come long distances, some even from the Kentucky side of the river, to make their purchases here. The Goodwill Industries of Cincinnati, in connection with Freeman Avenue West Side Mission, is doubling its work and has just rented a new building of sixteen rooms in which to expand.

is a trade in itself*

The Goodwill Industries Philadelphia

INDIVIDUALS CAREFULLY STUDIED

In Philadelphia the Goodwill Industries is located on Ridge Avenue, in the center of a foreign-speaking population. Within three squares twenty-three nationalities are represented and less than three blocks away is the local Bolsheviki headquarters. Some 50,000 Goodwill Bags will be placed in homes throughout the city of Philadelphia during the year, and it is estimated that 275,000 articles will be saved from going to waste in the same time. The capabilities of each individual are carefully studied in giving employment to the old, to those not normal, and to those badly handicapped.

A soldier with only one arm and one leg finds employment as a telephone operator at a salary of two dollars a day. A disabled soldier, with wife and child, hobbled in on two crutches and asked for work. He had lost both limbs through machine gun wounds while going "over the top." He will be taught a trade and will earn fair wages while learning. A man with locomotor ataxia was given a temporary position. A father, with a wife and five children, who could not get work because he had lost all four fingers from his right hand, was given employment. A married man about sixty, with a crippled hand, sought something to do. A cripple dressed in rags asked the privilege of working for a pair of trousers. He worked six hours, was given a suit of clothes, an overcoat and eighty-five cents in money. A man about fifty-eight, with a crippled arm, a father of five children, came asking for a position. An Italian nearly blind, the father of five children, had been out of work for months. He had splendid recommendations, but as he speaks poor English, could not get a job. He was given cleaning to do.

The condition of laborers needing employment, especially those who are handicapped by age or misfortune, is pathetic. Some idea of the industrial condition will be seen from the fact that a small advertisement in a local paper for a truck driver brought more than fifty responses within twenty-four hours. Several of these men had families and were almost desperate because of their inability to find work.

The demand for the reconstructed goods is likewise almost unbelievable. During the first month after the opening of the store, four thousand and nine hundred articles were sold at a nominal price

Children who participate in Goodwill blessings in Cincinnati

to twenty-three hundred and eleven of these poor people, twenty to thirty of whom crowded into the store at one time.

One of the purposes of the Goodwill Industries here is to supply Sunday school teachers and Christian Social Service workers to the associated church. To this end, as far as possible, regular employees of the Goodwill Industries are engaged as missionaries. Already the local Goodwill Industries has eleven thoroughly competent employees who are available as teachers in the Fifth Street Temple Sunday school. Among these are four college graduates, one of whom is a trained kindergartner. Noon-day services are held in the store, the meetings beginning with a song service with piano accompaniment. A strong organization is being built up with a fine constituency of people who are devoting time and money to this constructive form of Home Missionary endeavor, which is conducted in connection with the Methodist Episcopal Fifth Street Temple. In Maennerchor Hall, the temporary building being used, there will be a gymnasium, public hall, moving pictures, an open forum, study rooms, club-rooms and rooms for the teaching of vocal and instrumental music.

WHERE DREAMS COME TRUE

In the famous "Strip," of Pittsburgh, the Goodwill Industries' dream of the Methodists of that city has come true through the Centenary. Organized as a Department of the Methodist Episcopal Church Union of Pittsburgh, its headquarters will be about three blocks from Trinity Methodist Episcopal Temple, where the work already has been started. About 19,000 people, for the most part Poles, Italians and Jews live in the immediate neighborhood. There are also some Negro and white Americans. Housing conditions here are lamentably inadequate and the air is always heavy with the dust and smoke from the steel mills.

A page from the record book tells as nothing else could, the value of the reclamation of things as well as of men and women.

The running of Goodwill Industries is no slipshod or haphazard matter. Everything is worked out on a strictly scientific basis. While a bag might look like a small matter it represents a considerable item of expense. The original cost of the bag and laundering, printing, hemming, stringing, numbering, tagging, wrapping and mailing, all total about twenty-five cents a bag. It is known within a fraction that fourteen per cent must be paid out for collection. This includes gasoline, drivers and helpers, repairs and depreciation of the truck. The sorting costs two per cent. Everything goes through the hands of an expert sorter, who divides the things into twelve classes, which go to twelve different departments for repairs or preparation for selling. These are repaired by unskilled labor under the direction of one expert foreman or forelady. The aim is to put the finished product on a higher scale than an ordinary rummage sale. Articles are cleaned and pressed and laundered if necessary, so as to give the maximum amount of work to those needing it.

The selling expense represents twenty-five to thirty per cent. After the articles are sold it is found that a profit of ten per cent should be made, which is used in furthering the various phases of social, welfare and religious work. Fully seventy-five per cent of the wages are given to what is known as opportunity labor, or those who are unskilled and could not hold down a job in commercial life. Where the Goodwill Industries keep him and make him efficient.

When a lazy, shiftless or careless boy is found who has been roaming from job to job, who cannot make good anywhere, the aim is to keep him in the employ of the Goodwill Industries and teach him the way to make good in commercial life. The same thing holds good in all departments where opportunity labor is employed.

A MEXICAN PROPOSITION

The program of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California, at Los Angeles, is educational, industrial and benevolent. It seeks to Americanize by educational and industrial welfare work the Mexicans who seek employment there. It also encourages thrift and helpful conditions of labor and living. It strives to prevent pauperism, and by means of Christian cooperation to relieve the temporary distress of the unfortunate. In the Munger Block, where it is located, it now has a corps of workers numbering fifty, who supervise and train those seeking opportunity labor. Most of these inexperienced workers are Mexicans, who are encouraged to secure positions elsewhere as soon as trained. Many are Mexican women, whose only other opportunity for work is the seasonal fruit picking,

Boys' Industrial Club, Goodwill Industries, Cincinnati

canning, and work in the walnut groves and chili and sausage factories. When the Mexican woman has fitted herself for factory work, she has materially bettered her own and her family's economic status. A polyglot constituency patronizes the two stores. Countless Mexicans and other Latin people live on the spot or close at hand. Chinatown is just around the corner. Little Italy is just Northeast. The Russian colony is towards the sunrise, just beyond Chinatown, and the Japanese are neighbors of the Russians. The one "drug on the market" in the stores is millinery. For these foreign women have not yet caught the American woman's notion as to headgear.

CHILDREN PROVIDED FOR

Old Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, in Michigan Avenue, is the religious center of this Christian philanthropy in Buffalo, New York. Property adjoining the church has been purchased, which, including the church, has a frontage of one hundred and thirty-one feet on Michigan Avenue and one hundred and fifty feet on North Division Street. Buildings on North Division Street will be used for the reclaiming of old clothing, old furniture, old shoes; in fact, anything and everything excepting tin cans and glass bottles. All the money derived from the Industries goes back to religious social service work and the opportunity wages of the folks employed. For the needy women with children there will be the kindergarten for the smaller children and settlement classes after school for the older children. The Children's Settlement provides classes in Indian pottery, basketry, sewing, cooking, music and sex hygiene.

The children from the homes in the neighborhood of Broadway and Pratt Street will be taught sewing, knitting, carpentry, chair-caning, printing and sign-painting in the Goodwill Industries in connection with Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Maryland. Sixty-five Minute Men conducted a speaking campaign to secure the names of people who would fill the four thousand "opportunity bags" distributed to bring in the "raw material" to work on. More adequate quarters are being sought to house this new venture, whose superintendent also serves as minister to the community. The unfortunate who wants to start life again is here given a fair chance to make good. The Goodwill Industries provides for him the opportunity again to get a grip on life through honest industry, where he is no longer a subject of charity but earns his way in the various industrial departments.

The children have a chance also at the fresh air farm in the timber section ten miles out from St. Louis, Missouri. For the Goodwill Industries of that city, connected with the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, located in a great industrial and polyglot community, makes such provision under the direction of the pastor who is also superintendent of the Industries. A Day Nursery also adds to the attractiveness of the institution, mothers being able to leave their babies here while at work in the factory.

A TALE UNTOLD

But who can tell the entire story? At St. Paul, Minnesota, a good start has already been made. Spokane, Washington, and Louisville, Kentucky, are perfecting their plans. Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Duluth, Minnesota, Portland, Oregon, and Kansas City, Missouri, are getting ready. Omaha, Nebraska, Syracuse, New York, and Des Moines, Iowa, will soon be able to repeat the story of the others. The record of the Industries in ten cities for one year shows a clientele of 115,000 homes and a total volume of business of $350,000.

No haphazard method has been followed in securing wise locations and efficient management for this great enterprise. The work in general is carried on under the direction of the Bureau of Goodwill Industries of the Department of City Work of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Each investment is made after the most careful survey of the conditions which seem to necessitate the establishing of a new plant. In addition, the men who become managers of the new Goodwill Industries have been given from five to nine months training in the Goodwill Industries at Morgan Memorial. They have been thoroughly acquainted with each department until able to manage it and finally have been given the management of the entire plant for two or three weeks before "graduating."

The work is being carefully standardized. Units of equipment have been adopted. In every place insistence is made that the work shall not be divorced from the church. Intense evangelism pervades every plant. A half hour of worship precedes every day's work.

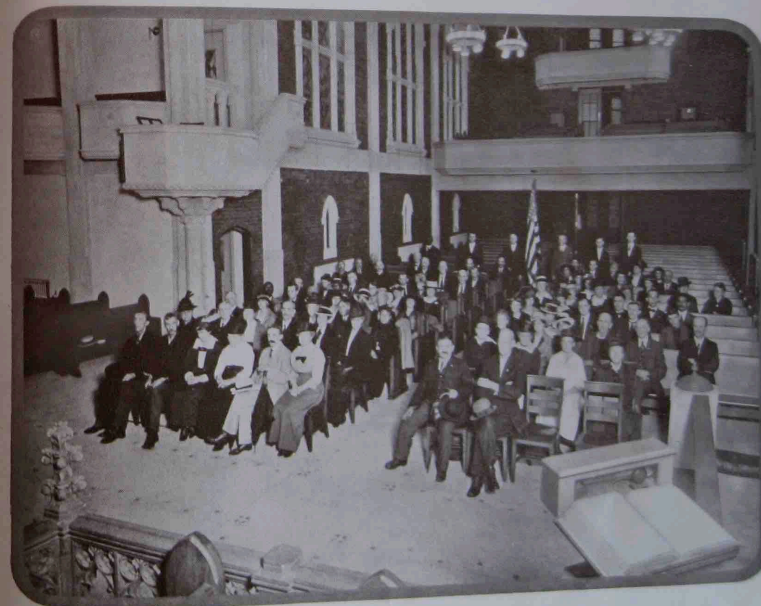

The Goodwill Industries

Hundreds of poor people in the cities of America are gathering in these Goodwill Industries chapels every week-day at eight o'clock for morning prayers before they enter upon their work. Many of them would never have entered the church if it were not for the self-respecting opportunity of self-support thus provided.

HOME MISSIONS INDEED

How different is this story of Home Missions from that which the pioneers on the Frontier tell of days gone by. It is pioneering on the new Frontier of industrial and economic need. It is the new Home Missions in the crowded city. It is the message of God's love in the only terms that those who are helped in this way can understand as dealing in a practical way with life. And it is made possible on this large and adequate scale because the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church responded to the challenge of the Centenary of Methodist Missions. Laying their gifts on the altars of the Church, they have put into the hands of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension funds with which to demonstrate in a new and needed way the same heroic sacrifice for others that has actuated its missionaries from the day the first one set out to minister to those who otherwise would not have known the joy of fellowship with Jesus Christ.

Thomas A. Kempis said long ago, "Be careful to avoid with great diligence those things in thyself which do most commonly displease thee in others."

The Missionary Society meets Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the church parlors. Mrs. C. W. Erickson has charge of the devotional period. The hostesses are Mrs. A. W. Kloeppel and Mrs. R. M. Weaver. Mr. Elderkin speaks.

At a special meeting of the church held last Sunday morning, the Reverend William M. Hall, of Wichita, Kansas, was called to the Directorship of Religious Education in Pilgrim Church. He is expected to take up his work here about March 1st.

Mrs. Rebecca Finch, for many years a very active member of Pilgrim Congregational Church, Superior, died Thursday evening, after a two weeks' illness. Her sons and daughters we know. We rejoice with them in the rich memories that are theirs.

The Beginners' Department will have a Valentine Party Saturday the 11th, from 2:30 until 4:30 in the afternoon. Department officers will be assisted by Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mrs. F. L. Berkheiser and Mrs. N. J. Pearce. Always a great time. See that the youngsters get there.

The ministers of the city churches are the guests of Pilgrim Church tomorrow. At 11 o'clock their class on "The Christian View of Work and Wealth" meets for discussion. At 12:15 lunch will be served by the ladies of the February unit. At 1 o'clock the regular meeting will be held and at 2 there will be a game of baseball between teams captained by Messrs. Berger and Keast.

New officers of the Assembly were elected at the meeting held January 25th. Mrs. T. J. Davis is the new president succeeding Mrs. E. J. Collins, whose administration has been a most remarkable one. Mrs. Collins was made vice president. Mrs. B. F. Davis is secretary. Mrs. Carl T. Wise is corresponding secretary and Mrs. Willard Matter is auditor. The new supervisors are Mrs. G. C. Spalding, Mrs. C. A. Duncan, Mrs. C. J. Zachow, and Mrs. F. D. Orr.

During the past two weeks, women representing Pilgrim Congregational Church have been active in the drive for the Goodwill Industries. Their efforts have been put to good use and our church stands well to the front. Posted on the Returns Board last Saturday Pilgrim Church had third place in a long list of organizations and churches. This work has been quite worth while and time well spent. Deep appreciation and thanks is tendered these workers by the Goodwill Campaign Committee and the Captain of the Pilgrim Church solicitors.

Mr. J. P. Johnson, chairman of the Board of Ushers announces the following appointments:

For February, March and April—J. P. Johnson, Chairman, W. S. Horr, D. C. Duncan, A. Laird Goodman.

For May, June and July—F. E. Blodgett, Chairman, G. A. Taylor, Gordon Hegardt, H. G. Manley.

For August, September and October—R. C. Duncan, Chairman, H. R. Halsey, Arthur McMillan, R. H. Pinneo.

For November, December and January—C. F. Colman, Chairman, J. A. Bradley, Rollin Hawkes, P. J. Frost.

CHURCH NOTES

Boy Scout Week—February 8-14th.

Midweek service Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Speak to the folks in your pew this morning.

Next Sunday's sermon will have to do with Abraham Lincoln.

Any articles found in the church should be given or reported to Mr. Anderson.

New members will be received March 5th. It is none too early to write for your letters.

Inquire about lost articles of Mr. Anderson, the janitor, whose telephone number is Hemlock 415.

The Committee on Religious Education lunches together at the Glass Block tomorrow at 12:15.

The new Publicity Chairman is Mrs. C. H. Dunning, 2108 Woodland Avenue, Hemlock 3866.

See if you can't give work one day a month to some one now out of work.

Blessed are they who come at eleven o'clock, but church begins at ten thirty.

Dr. Wilfred Grenfell will speak in Pilgrim Church Sunday afternoon, March 5th.

Congressman O. J. Larson is expected in Duluth within the next week or ten days.

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Harbison, members of Pilgrim Church for a year, have moved to Minneapolis.

Mrs. Edith M. Jeffrey (Douglas 62) should be phoned in case you have work for people in Gary to do.

Annual rally and inspection of Duluth Boy Scouts at the Armory February 10th, 8 o'clock. All invited.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nichols are leaving Duluth February 23rd to make their home in Spokane, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Romaine were issued letters last Sunday to the First Church of Glenn Ellyn, Illinois.

If you find yourself in need of someone to help you with an odd job, call the Mayor's committee at Melrose 285.

Noon day meetings in the Lyceum Theatre beginning February 13th. Dr. C. L. Goodell of New York speaks.

Mr. J. J. Lumm is one of the Directors of the Duluth Council of Boy Scouts of America. Mr. C. W. Hadden is Scout Executive.

Our own Boy Scout troop is sadly in need of reviving. And that is one of the jobs cut out for Mr. Hall when he reaches Duluth.

Pilgrim young people have charge of the service at Nopeming next Sunday afternoon. Suppose you are asked to supply an automobile.

Your old friend, Aristotle, once said, "When men are friends there is no need of justice; but when they are just, they still need friendship."

The Senior Philathea Class of the First Methodist Church will have charge of the Vesper Service at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

Hereafter Pilgrim News will appear on the first Sunday of each month. Reporters must have copy in Mr. Weaver's hands the Sunday preceding.

A lot of Pilgrim folks will want to attend the International Dinner to be given next Saturday evening (February 18th) from 6 to 8 at the City Y. W. C. A. for the benefit of the baby clinic at Gary. Four dishes characteristic of as many countries will be served. The tickets are fifty cents and may be secured today.

WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY

The new directors of The Women's Assembly of Pilgrim Church for 1922 are:

Winter Group—Mrs. G. M. Cannon, Mrs. C. E. Adams, Mrs. F. W. Roedter.

Spring Group—Mrs. W. P. Arper, Mrs. J. W. Neukom, Mrs. M. L. Jenks.

Summer Group—Mrs. R. A. Webster, Mrs. G. A. Taylor, Mrs. W. C. Hegardt.

Autumn Group—Mrs. C. F. Colman, Mrs. H. S. Newell, Mrs. O. N. Kurker.

The Winter Group of the 1922 Women's Assembly, which was the Spring Group of last year, will meet in the ladies' parlor at 2:30 Tuesday, February 14. Good time assured.

The Autumn Group of 1922, which was the Winter Group of last year, met with their supervisor, Mrs. C. A. Duncan, last Friday and discussed plans for the coming year.

Every woman attending Pilgrim Church, who is not already a member of the Ladies Assembly, is urged to hand her name to Mrs. T. J. Davis before Feb. 22, so that her name may appear on the new list about to be printed.

The Spring Group of 1922, which was the Summer Group of last year, will meet in the ladies' parlor on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock to plan their work and hear a message from Mrs. Arthur Barnes on Occupational Therapy.

Mrs. T. J. Davis, the new president of Women's Assembly, assumed office January twenty-fifth as did all the new officers with exception of the Supervisors and Directors, whose terms of office will begin March first. Mrs. L. E. Paddock is Supervisor of the Winter Group and Mrs. R. E. Johnson is Director of the February Unit.

The retiring president of the Women's Assembly, Mrs. E. J. Collins, appreciates the compliment in last Sunday's bulletin, but wishes to state that the item omitted credit due the workers for any success which may have crowned the past year's efforts. Owing to the enthusiastic support and cooperation of all the women of the church, the Calendar plan, put in effect a year ago has proven a success and has taken the responsibility and labor from a few, and distributed it among many. The four supervisors and twelve directors have worked with unremitting zeal, and the retiring president gratefully acknowledges their untiring efforts and faithful support, and the pleasure of having been a part of their official family.

Belief

Not what, but WHOM I do believe,
That, in my darkest hour of need,
Hath comfort that no mortal creed
To mortal man may give;—
Not what, but WHOM!
For Christ is more than all the creeds,
And his full life of gentle deeds
Shall all the creeds outlive.
Not what I do believe, but WHOM!
WHO walks beside me in the gloom?
WHO shares the burden wearisome?
WHO all the dim way doth illumine,
And bid me look beyond the tomb
The larger life to live?
Not what I do believe, but WHOM!
Not what, but WHOM!

Pilgrim Church extends its very best wishes to Miss Mabel Neimeyer and Mr. R. L. Mayall, whose marriage occurs Tuesday of this week.

Pilgrim ushers managed things at the Wednesday noon service in the Lyceum and Pilgrim choir and organist assisted in the Friday service.

Mrs. A. C. Schaefer's father died last Tuesday at her home, 521 North Second Avenue East. Pilgrim Church extends its sympathy and love.

At the Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service this afternoon, Mrs. A. J. Croft will be the speaker, and Mr. and Mrs. McKee will have charge of the music.

Dr. Wilfred Grenfell of the Labrador will speak in Pilgrim Church Sunday afternoon, March 5th, at 4:30 o'clock. Glen Avon Church unites in the service.

All the girls attending the Older Girls Conference will worship in Pilgrim Church next Sunday morning. A section of the church will be reserved for them.

The Friends in Council observes Washington's Birthday with a party Tuesday evening next (8 o'clock) at the home of Miss Alice Drew. Mrs. Roy B. Guild will speak.

The Church-time Kindergarten is primarily for children of kindergarten age. The problem of caring for the little children is complicated by the presence of the older children.

If you would like to talk to the minister about joining Pilgrim Church March 5th, put your name and address in the Information Boxes which happen to be in the Vestibule.

The regular meeting of The Women's Assembly will meet on Thursday, February 23rd, in the church parlors, to discuss work for the coming year. Music by The Women's Assembly quartet.

REV. WILLIAM M. HALL
Director of Religious Education.

WELCOME, MR. HALL

After all the months of searching and prayer, we rejoice today that you are with us.

We hope that you and your family feel as welcome as we know you are.

You will find Pilgrim folks to be willing workers. You will also find unselfish service among their assets.

We all plan to help you while you come to help us make our young people's work what we have hoped it would be.

F. L. Berkheiser,
Superintendent.

THIS COMING EASTER

Like as not some members of the Sunday school have fallen into the way of thinking that church-membership was only for grown-ups; that there was no room for those who were compelled to call themselves children.

But as a matter of fact there is room for both.

Sometimes it is forgotten that those who are now grown-ups were once upon a time children.

And any number of people in Pilgrim

Church who are now grown-ups joined the church when they were children.

And have grown up in the church.

They will tell you there is no better way.

Pilgrim Church would like to have a great company of young folks unite with the church this coming Easter.

Nothing would so brighten Easter time for the grown-ups as the sight of a great company of young folks committing themselves to the task of making the world more Christ-like.

It has been our custom looking toward Easter to have what is called a pastor's class.

This year we mean to keep the custom.

In that class the matter of church membership will be talked about.

We plan to meet each Sunday afternoon during Lent at 5 o'clock.

We shall hold our first meeting next Sunday.

Better ask your parents if they think it is all right for you to attend.

March 12th, 5 o'clock, in the Church parlors.

Noble S. Elderkin.

CRADLE ROLL REPORT

Beginning today, the first Sunday in March, we intend to make the first Sunday of each month, Cradle Roll Sunday in the Beginners' Department. On that Sunday we will enroll new members and be glad to have any of the members of the Cradle Roll as visitors.

The Cradle Roll Department is a very flourishing institution of the church. We have an enrollment of seventy already and with the seven new babies we put on the roll today brings the number to seventy-seven (77).

February Enrollment:

Oliver S. Andresen, Jr.—Jan. 8, 1922.

Margaret Louise Amundson—Dec. 16, 1921.

George Clinton Munroe Finch—Jan. 20, 1919.

Jane Murdock—Feb. 8, 1919.

The following will be enrolled today:

Elizabeth Louise Falk—Feb. 18, 1922.

Charles Philip Frost—Feb. 26, 1922.

Katherine Charlotte Hartman—Oct. 4, 1919.

Zoe Isabelle Hartman—March 19, 1921.

Mary Semmes McGiffert—Feb. 3, 1922.

Richard Black Bradley—Apr. 14, 1919.

William Craig Lee—Jan. 27, 1920.

We will have to take off our hats to the Second Graders. See what a fine long list they have?

Mrs. Nichols, our second grade teacher has been home for two Sundays and we miss her.

Miss Curtis is the new teacher for the first grade boys. She takes Mrs. Prisk's place.

Patricia Boyle, who has been living at her grandmother's at Lakeside, came back last Sunday. We are so happy to have her.

Marian Houghton and Mary Heimick have both had the Chickenpox, but are back at school now.

Everett and Ruth Thompson are two new pupils in our department.

Saturday, February the 18th, we had a George Washington Party. First we had a Grand March all around the big Recreation Room. Then we played "Going to Jerusalem" and had potato races. The winners were decorated with lovely red, white and blue badges. We all got red, white and blue cans, which the teachers had made for us. After we had put them on we played more games. We had a red candy hatchet in our ice cream, and red, white and blue cookies. The table was lovely with gay napkins, flags and red candles. Some of us had colds and couldn't come but a lot of us came and had a fine time.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

One of the most important happenings this month has been the election of officers. They are: John Harlow, president; Ethel Zachow, vice president; Josephine Gude, secretary; Frances McCarthy, treasurer. For committee chairmen, Betty Bohannon, Elizabeth Adams, Noble Elderkin, Stanley Strong, and Suzette Frazee.

In the early part of February the members of the society and their friends had a sleigh ride party to the Scott farm. Though the weather was none too warm, and despite the fact that only one toe was frozen, due to the fine supper (after some waiting) the party was a great success.

To get down to real business, the program committee has tried its best to have interesting all round meetings. Twice the supper committee has joined in and the result has been worthy of the effort. We hope with the help of Mr. Hall, whom we welcome today, that the Society will become one of the best.

the leader and presided during a very interesting hour. The topic was the Spirit of Christmas. The synopsis of several stories of this season were told by different members. John Harlow gave an interesting account of Christmases in the White House.
Ethel Zachow gave us some special music and that was the end.

New Year's meeting bid fair to be a splendid forerunner of the meetings for the new year. As is customary, the Society, as a whole, made some fine and worthy resolutions. It is to be hoped that they will be carried out and become a part in the Spirit of the Society, and not bare promises.
Ethel Zachow led the meeting in such a way that all came away with the brightest and highest hopes for the future. Perhaps this feeling was due to the eager participation of the members. Celinda Hadden gave us some excellent music on the piano.

Thru the efforts of Jim Elderkin, Ethel Zachow, and Jo Gude, a very pleasant evening was spent at the Church, January sixth.
It was a children's party. Children's games were played and refreshments were served.

And to come to the fourth day. It was last Sunday and who will forget the delicious supper of fruit salad and ice-cream cones which preceded the regular meeting, led by Frances Lyness? The Society has again adopted the abandoned plan of last year: to give supper once a month, for ten cents, and to have a social hour before the religious one. This plan has been in strong favor for a long time and we all hope it will succeed.

THE OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE AT VIRGINIA, MINNESOTA.

On Friday, January 13th, Pilgrim Church sent five delegates, representing the Church school to the Older Boys' Conference at Virginia. The five were, Bruce Scott, Wilbur Hadden, Noble Elderkin, Jr., John Harlow, and Emmons Collins.

We arrived at Virginia at 6:30 in the evening just in time for the splendid banquet at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Immediately after, we were addressed by S. S. Gay of Cloquet and by George Arms of Duluth.
We were also introduced to some new sons.
A nominating committee was appointed, which presented the following officers (who were unanimously elected). Wm. Watson, Duluth, president, Wm. Anderson, Cloquet, vice president, and Ed Finch, Virginia, secretary.

On adjournment we proceeded to the homes to which we had been assigned.

Saturday we met at the High School at 9:00 and were addressed by Mr. E. W. Peck of Minneapolis, on "The Need of the Hour", at 9:45 we went to the Church School Conference over which Mr. W. L. Smithies presided. After another address by Mr.
Bell of Mountain Iron, the picture of the assembled conference was taken.

We reported again at 1:30 and listened to a fine address by Mr. J. J. Runyan of Minneapolis. Then after Special Conferences again, we spent the rest of the afternoon in various forms of recreation.

After the basketball game in the evening,
N. D. McLeod of Duluth gave us a short talk and each delegation put on a stunt.

The delegates attended various churches
Sunday morning. In the afternoon our program was disarranged on account of the funeral of Mr. A. B. Coates being held also at the High School. Nevertheless at four o'clock we held an open meeting and Mr.
McLeod of Duluth gave up a peppy talk.

At 7:00 there was another open meeting and the speaker was Mr. Frank O. Koehler of Minneapolis. Promptly at nine we adjournd and went to our homes.

The Conference certainly was a success from all points of view and the people of Virginia were very kind and hospitable.
The five delegates from Pilgrim all derived real benefit from the Conference. The theme of the Conference was "Dare to Stand Alone" and each one of the speakers had a message which clearly brought home the point.

"FROM DUTCHIE"

To the Sunday School our school wishes to extend hearty thanks and words of appreciation for the "Christmassie" Christmas you made possible by your gifts. Many received no other gifts except those precious packages wrapped with such care by you people.

The two largest packages arrived Saturday, and were given out after the program.
Mr. Weaver had Mr. Olsen to act Santa's part, as he had so much to do. He came as a surprise, no one knew the gifts had come except the teachers, so you can imagine—

Mr. Olsen said he was all tired out coming from the Duluth Sunday School, and he was funny when he came to the grouchy crow—such a roar. There was no name on it, and no grouches present, so it was given to a man that has a pet crow. He was supposed to cheer it up, and when he opened the grown up box of balloons at the last, pantomime reigned, such merriment. It was a brilliant finish, and we are only sorry some of those who worked so hard could not have witnessed the gladness coming as a resounding echo from your glad hearts.

I must make special mention of the little embroidered bean-bag. I had a sewing class of little girls all summer, and I know how you worked putting in all those stitches for our little ones.

The little celuloid dolls made quite a sensation among the little ones. The third box came in the next mail, and the presents were given Christmas Day at Sunday School, so we really had two Christmases.

Every one was delighted with their possessions, and I marvel at your ability to suit strangers so well; boys with hatchets for instance, etc.

So for the school I say "Thank you", and, "May God's Blessing be with you all in your church, school and individual life, thru the New Year now with us", is our prayer.
Yours truly,
Mrs. G. Weaver.

For the gifts we received, Lloyd, Virginia and I, I send special thanks, especially to the little Marion Weaver for Virginia, for the dear doll. We had no money to spend, but we had a nice little tree and decorated the home, and the postman brought gifts from our friends and relatives out in the world, so we had a receiving Christmas anyway.

Clara Weaver.

THE JUNIOR CHOIR

The Junior Choir sang at the Vesper Service on January 29th, and they plan to help the service by their music on March fifth.

BEGINNERS' DEPARTMENT

On Feb. 11th, the Beginners' Department held a "Valentine and Jitney Party". The first part of the afternoon's fun was in charge of Mrs. Duncan McDonald and consisted of street car rides to various places of interest. Each child was given imitation nickels, with which to pay his fare. The first trip was to the "Zoo", where each one was permitted to chose his favorite animal and take it away with him. Next they were taken to a picture gallery, and then to a fish pond, where a pull on a line brought each one a valentine. After a short trip to the playground, where games were played, the trolley party wound up at the ice-cream parlor. Here Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mrs. N. J. Pearce and Mrs. F. L. Berkheiser served real valentine ice-cream with a red heart in the center, heart shaped cookies, some decorated with red frosting and some with white frosting and red hearts, and little cakes decorated with red candy hearts.

The tables were arranged in attractive form and at each place was a pretty napkin and a valentine. In spite of rather unfavorable weather, thirty-six children were present.

Eleven names are on the honor roll, their owners having braved the snow and cold and come to Sunday School every Sunday since the last issue of the News. They are as follows:—

Agatin Abbott
Dorothy Teraldson
William Berkheiser
Jack Lockhart,
Bobby Bradley
Betty Pearce
Jane Alworth
Nancy Finch
William Roedter
Edwin Collins
Robert Manley.

The following children celebrated birth-days in February:—

Frank Dinsmore—Feb. 10th.
William Rector—Feb. 13th.
Edwin Collins—Feb. 14th.
Mary Bradley—Feb. 15th.

Miss Anna Jenks, 2401 E. Fourth St., is a welcome addition to the teaching staff of this department.

Junior Taylor, 4417 Gilleat Street, and Jane Murdock, 2030 E. Fifth Street, joined the Beginners on February fifth.

A group of Pilgrims assembled at the Union Depot last Tuesday to greet Mr. and Mrs. Hall and their daughter on their arrival at Duluth.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

Mrs. C. E. Carlson entertained the teachers of the Junior Department at dinner in the Kindergarten rooms Friday, Feb. 3. There were nine present.

Miss Lintula has been confined to her home for several days by an attack of grippe and is greatly missed by her class of first grade girls.

Miss Lintula's class were so happy to have Dorothy Johnson in their class once more. She has been away for some time.

Everyone in the Department regrets that Mrs. Dougherty has had to give up her class. Mrs. Kitts is teaching Mrs. Dougherty's class of girls as well as her own this month.

On Saturday Feb. 25, Mrs. Kitts entertained her class of fifteen girls at a Washington's Birthday party. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock followed by an afternoon of fun and frolic, and this is the way they described it.

Hear a song of Frolic

To this very tune

Four and 'leven gay girls

Hopped into the room.

When the lunch was ready

Then began the fun

Wasn't that a happy sight

To greet the shining sun?

The tree is near the pillar

Flaunting forth the cherries

Its only hope is that

No one stops or tarries.

Each little maid

Armed with a hatchet

Looked on the tree

And said, "You'll catch it".

There were races and games

And all sorts of fun

Miss Morey's class as well as other classes have been having a bad time with the colds this month. Betty Kitts is back after winning a seige with them, but Eleanor Hulse is still having more than her share.
We are all so glad to see Helen Bailey back with us after being sick for three weeks.

The fourth year boys have not elected a president for their class to take Oscar Hull's place. Oscar has gone to California for several months, and while he is going to be missed from his class, the boys hope he will have a fine time in the land of sunshine.

This month the Junior Department starts a new credit system. The class obtaining the most credits is to be awarded a banner the month and is to be known as the winner class. The credits given are twenty-five points each for attendance, lesson preparation and class activities. Fifteen points for punctuality and ten points for department.

This month three classes have earned the most credits for class activities.

Miss Lintula's and Miss Morey's classes sent letters and valentines to a little shut girl.

Mrs. Ashley's class sent food and clothing to a poor family where there were five small children, the youngest a baby three weeks old.

Eleven classes are on the lookout for some one to help and will be very glad of suggestions.

The banner this month goes to Miss Morey's class of third year girls who have made a splendid record for the month.

The credits for each class are given below.

Miss Germond—172.
Mrs. Wilson—283.
Mr. Ashley—107.
Miss Lintula—275
Mrs. Kitts—243.
Miss Morey—312.
Mrs. Ashley—233.

Mrs. Wilson's Class.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson's class of Junior boys held a business meeting at the Church on Saturday afternoon, February 25th, and completed its organization as follows:

President—John Kitts.

Secretary—John Costello.

Reporter—Donald Slocum.

Missionary Committee—Lawrence Collins, chairman, Junior Jeronimus, John Councilman.

Monitors—John Wilson, Harold Johnson.

Class name—"Builders".

Class Motto—"Loyalty".

Class Song—"Loyalty to Christ".

Class Legend—"We build into our lives every day something the world cannot see".

Class Colors—Maroon and White.

The first year Junior boys had a skating party at the Longview rink on Saturday afternoon and at five o'clock were served a hot supper at the Church, by their teachers, Mrs. C. M. Wilson and Miss Dorothy Germond.

GIRL SCOUTS

Patrol I.

A meeting of the patrol leaders was called to order by Miss Wood on Feb. 18. Miss Louise Weis was elected president, and Katherine Donlay, vice president. They have planned many activities, among them a skating party at the Curling Club.

A Pre-Lenten Tea was arranged by the members of the Girl Scout Council. It was held on last Monday, between three and five o'clock. A delightful program was given, and enjoyed by all who attended. The purpose was to raise funds to carry on scouting in Duluth. Girls from this troop, who assisted were, Catherine Cheadle, Virginia Lignell, and Ruth Murphy, all first class scouts

Patrol II.

All of Troop I have uniforms now. Mrs. Murphy has helped by ordering cloth, patterns and helping a number of girls make them. When we have all our insignia and merit badges sewed on we will have a party to celebrate.

Patrol III.

Gold attendance stars, which are awarded for perfect attendance at thirty-two consecutive meetings and one year's membership in a Scout troop have been won by Catherine Cheadle, Bina Lignell, and Virginia Lignell. Judith Elderkin has earned a silver star which stands for 90% attendance.

Patrol IV.

Three new girls, who have availed themselves of the privilege of joining Thistle Troop, are Helen Zachow, Helen Dancer, and Sage Elderkin.

February 18th is the date of registration at National Headquarters of the Girl Scouts for Thistle Troop. This year our list includes 3 First Class Scouts, 11 Second Class Scouts, and 17 Tenderfoots.

For especially fine records in school work, Ruth Murphy and Celinda Hadden have been granted medals of merit by National Headquarters.

The next proficiency badge day will be April 22nd. Several girls have been working to pass the requirements for these badges. The following girls have made application to the Court of Awards to show their abilities in the subjects given after their names:

Mary Louise Coventry—artist, needlewoman, first aid, dressmaker.

Catherine Cheadle—health guardian, star gazer.

Judith Elderkin—pathfinder, craftsman, citizen, handy woman, star gazer.

Celinda Hadden—first aid, homemaker, home nurse, handy woman, health guardian, signaller, citizen.

Bernice Kloeppel—home nurse, handy woman, citizen, scribe.

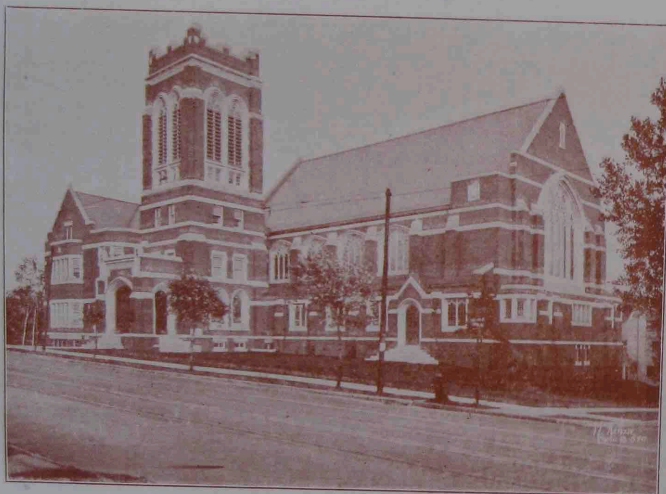

Virginia Lignell—cook, zoologist, economist, handy woman, star gazer, health guardian.

Ruth Murphy—health guardian, handy woman.

Mildred Wiley—signalling.

Mrs. William J. Beatty was summoned suddenly last Tuesday noon. She was 65 years old. For 40 years Duluth had been her home. Six children carry blessed memories with them. Her husband and one son, Thomas J., are members of Pilgrim Church. Friends in the church rejoice with them that the circle was for so long unbroken.

While Pilgrim Church is extending its greetings and good wishes today to Mr. and Mrs. Hall, and Miss Margaret, and to all the girls who are attending the Older Girls Conference, and to the members and friends and minister of Glen Avon Church who join in the afternoon service, and to those who upon confession and by letter join the Pilgrim circle today, and to the dear children of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor whom it blesses in the name of Christ, and to little Miss Falk and littler Master Frost, it would also assure Dr. and Mrs. Grenfell of its great joy in their presence among us. There are few pages in missionary history so thrilling or inspiring as those the Grenfells have written. May God incline our hearts to desire part with them in the righteous enterprise.

Letters were issued last Wednesday evening to Dorothy Bates Taylor (Mrs. H. R.) to the First Presbyterian Church of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and to Frederick H. Woods to the Community Church, Seattle, Washington.

The following little children are presented for Christian Baptism at the morning service:

Janet Mildred Taylor Born August 29, 1916
Alonzo William Taylor, Jr. Born June 15, 1918
Daughter and son of Alonzo William and Mildred Radeck Taylor.

The following are to be received into the fellowship of Pilgrim Church at the morning service:

On confession:

Antoine Oliver Rabideau.....1618 East Third St.
Alice Maycroft Rabideau (Mrs. A. O.)....1618 E. 3rd St.
Mildred Radeck Taylor (Mrs. A. W.).....4417 Giliat St.

By Letter:

Mrs. Adelaide Waugh Colton.....1802 East Fourth St.
First Church, Danvers, Massachusetts.

Castles Everywhere

"We are building every day in a good or evil way,
And the structure as it grows will our inmost self disclose
'Til in every arch and line all our faults and failings shine
It may grow a castle grand or a wreck upon the sand.

Build it clean and high and broad, build it for the eye of God."

State Conference local committees will be appointed at March Church Night dinner. Come and cheer the mention of your friends' names.

New membership lists were distributed last week. If you did not receive one through the mails, say something to Mr. Huntley or Mrs. Grawn.

Pilgrim Church extends its heartiest greetings today to Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Miss Margaret, who come to us to do a very important work.

The Supervisor of the Summer Group asks that all members reserve Monday afternoon March 20th for a work meeting at 2104 East First St.

The regular meeting of the Missionary Society set for this week will be merged with the meeting of the Womens' Assembly which meets March 29th.

The Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service at 4:30 this afternoon will be in charge of the Worldfellowship Committee. Stereoptican pictures of Japan will be shown.

There will be a special table for the young folks of the church at Church Night dinner March 15th. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will most likely grace this table.

The Church-time Kindergarten is primarily for children of kindergarten age. The problem of caring for the little children is complicated by the presence of the older children.

The offering for the Deacons' Fund has been omitted at the communion services for almost a year. Now there is need of a very generous response. The Information Boxes will receive your gifts this morning.

Church Night dinner. Group conferences. Welcome to the new members. Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Hall. All on March 15th. The A's and B's will ask you to declare your intentions this week. Have your answer ready. Say "Yes, we'll be there. With bells on."

The woodwork which will complete the chancel is to cost about a thousand dollars more than expected. Members of the church who had no chance to share in the building of the new church may welcome an opportunity like this. Mrs. Paddock is the one to see.

Pilgrim Church is happy today in welcoming the girls who are attending the Older Girls' Conference. They will also find a welcome in the Church School service which meets at noon. Any who care to be shown through the Parish House will be provided with ushers.

Elizabeth Louise Falk will be able in the years to come to reminisce about the great blizzard of 1922. But Charles Philip Frost will be frequently embarrassed. He will have to say he missed it by a few days. Elizabeth plans to observe February 18th as her birthday. Charles will use February 26th.

Please note that the Vesper services begin at 4:30 o'clock. Which is earlier than usual.

Ask your friends who go nowhere to church to attend Pilgrim services during Lent.

The Spring Group will have a food sale in the church Wednesday March 8th at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be guests of honor at the next Church Night Dinner—March 15th.

Mr. Hall will use the Study as his office. He plans to be there every day from 3:30 until 5:30.

It is none too early to send for your letters in case you hope to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday.

Mr. Hall will be welcomed at the Church School services this noon. Everybody invited. Crowd the chapel.

Glen Avon Church merges its Vesper service with ours this afternoon at 4:30 in order to hear Dr. Grenfell.

Lenten services Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The room was full last Wednesday. And next Wednesday—?

The Committee on Religious Education will meet with Mr. Hall at the parsonage tomorrow (Monday) evening.

The minister's class for young people who are thinking of church membership meets this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the church parlors.

New membership lists were distributed last week. If you did not receive one through the mails, say something to Mr. Huntley or Mrs. Grawn.

The Summer Group which is Mrs. Orr's group will operate a food sale beginning at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning next in the Parish House.

The Supervisor of the Summer Group asks that all members reserve Monday afternoon March 20th for a work meeting at 2104 East First St.

Mrs. Sabrina Shores Gochey died last Tuesday. She was 82 years old. For the past 18 years she had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Gochey.

There will be a special table for the young folks of the church at Church Night dinner March 15th. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will most likely grace this table.

The Reception Committee for Wednesday evening is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Berkheiser.

Every organization in the church is asked to arrange for a group conference next Wednesday evening. Speak to Mr. Berkheiser who will assign quarters.

Those who have not yet secured their Church Night Dinner tickets may find it profitable to speak to Mr. Anderson or Mr. Blodgett or Mr. Berkheiser this morning.

At the Vesper service last Sunday afternoon there was contributed toward the Grenfell Endowment Fund the sum of $500.76. Duluth's total contribution amounted to $2800.

The Information Boxes did not do very well last Sunday. They pleaded for $100. They received $30.03. If you disapprove of this report march by the boxes today.

Miss Rhoda Martin, an aunt of Dr. Martin's is planning to spend five or six months at St. Mary's Hospital. Her room is on the second floor. She can stand Congregationalists.

The Chapel was crowded for the Sunday School service last Sunday noon. Mr. Hall was welcomed and spoke briefly. Mrs. Carlson ran a recognition service the way one ought to be run.

As Mr. Berkheiser relinquishes the general superintendency of the Church School, something shall be said about his faithful service. When he came to the office it was with the understanding that he should serve for two or three months. That was more than a year ago. He has kept at the task realizing that eventually the promised Director of Religious Education should be found. But the school does not lose his fine service. He assumes leadership of the Intermediate department.

A fine program has been arranged for tomorrow afternoon when the fund for an Occupational Therapy Aide will be started. Tickets are fifty cents.

Fewer than two hundred gathered for the March Church Night dinner last Wednesday. Dr. Eklund and Mr. Hall were the speakers. Mrs. Anderson led the A's and B's.

Mr. Rabideau is the new Scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts, and all boys who desire to belong to the liveliest troop hereabouts, should be at the church next Thursday evening.

It was announced on Wednesday evening that the Easter Offering this year would go toward Pilgrim Church's work for young folks. You are asked to plan to share in a gift of $1,000.

Mrs. A. O. Carlson passed away last Tuesday evening. She was seventy-three years old. She leaves six sons and five daughters. One of her sons, Charles E., is a member of Pilgrim Church.

Last Sunday (March 12th) Mrs. Longstreet observed her eightieth birthday anniversary. She has been a member of Pilgrim Church since 1873. Through the long years she has been a most faithful member.

Pilgrim Church has no younger member than Mrs. Drew, who celebrates her 89th birthday next Thursday (the 23rd). Her church to which she has been attached since 1874 rejoices with her in the fullness of her good years.

It was altogether a remarkable thing Pilgrim folks did last Tuesday when they served dinner to 800 Masons in the Temple. Mrs. T. J. Davis was the engineer. Hereafter dinners for three or four hundred will be mere child's play.

The Musical Tea to be given tomorrow afternoon (March 20th) by the Womens' Assembly is for the benefit of the fund being gathered to employ an Occupational Therapy Aide. Tickets are fifty cents. It is suggested that parties be arranged. Every penny goes to a good cause.

Mr. Theron Hawkes is chairman of the General Committee on the State Conference. His illness has kept him from making any appointments. But before long there will be some machinery. Probably 250 delegates will attend. Churches still retain the ancient American custom of being genuinely hospitable when it comes to the State Conference. Delegates are entertained in the homes of the parish.

Every day during the last five years (not every Sunday but every day) 2,173 persons joined the various churches of America. The total church membership of America is 45,597,199 of whom 17,885,646 are Roman Catholics. The Catholic statistics include all baptised children; the Protestant churches report only communicants. Connected with American Churches there are 93,858,096 persons of whom 74,795,226 are Protestants. But even so—Pilgrim Church needs YOU. See the Standing Committee today.

WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY.

For March the Women's Assembly came in like a lamb and is going out like a lion.

March 1st Mrs. Spalding had an all day meeting of the Winter Group. The time was devoted to making aprons.

Come out and hear the reports of the month's activities at the Missionary-Assembly meeting Wednesday. Luncheon served promptly at 12:30 o'clock.

Two very successful food sales were conducted at the church this month. One by the Summer Group (Supervisor, Mrs. Orr) and the other under Mrs. Zachow's leadership for the Spring Group. The two netted big returns.

The four supervisors, Mrs. Zachow, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Spalding, and Mrs. Orr have each entertained their groups this month and had lively meetings outlining the work for the year.

Remember to come to the interesting joint meeting of the Missionary Society and the Women's Assembly Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock. Fine luncheon, fine program, and fine reports. They will all please you.

Pilgrim folks performed a remarkable thing March 14th when they served a luncheon at noon for 200 and a banquet that night to more than 800 Masons. The report on this affair will interest you.

Just as marvelous was the success of the Musical Tea given at Pilgrim Church for the benefit of the fund being gathered to employ an Occupational Therapy Aide. The Tea far exceeded expectations. Returns will please.

Each director should phone her group members and report by Monday noon how many will attend the luncheon Wednesday.

The program Wednesday will interest you. Miss Elizabeth Waddell from China will speak. Music by the Assembly Chorus.

The Summer Group will meet at the home of Mrs. T. J. Davis Monday afternoon.

We think the entire Women's Assembly went over the top this month.

The Standing Committee will meet this noon in the parlors to confer with those who plan to unite with Pilgrim Church Easter Sunday.

If you have letters from other churches and plan to present them here, meet with the Standing Committee this noon in the Church Parlors.

The ministers class for young folks who want to know about the Christian life and church membership meets in the Parlors this afternoon at five.

Mr. Hall will be in Chicago this week attending the sessions of the Religious Education Association where the special theme under discussion will be "Week Day Religious Instruction".

Membership in Pilgrim Church is open to any and all who believe in the work of the church and who realize that the institution to be effective must have those who are pledged to further the work.

Mrs. Louise L. Olmsted (Mrs. McMillan's mother) will confess to 87 years after tomorrow (March 27th). She has been a member of Pilgrim Church since 1876. Her church greets her and wishes her every good.

The Anti Saloon league of Minnesota (322 Hennepin Avenue, Minneapolis) would like to have five members of Pilgrim Church contribute $5.00 each toward the special fund to insure a Congress that will uphold the eighteenth amendment.

Look over the house and count the rooms that you can place at the disposal of the Conference Committee for the May meetings. Then go up in the attic and count the extra beds that could be set in case of necessity. And be ready with a generous answer when the committee gets around to you.

PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Twenty-third Avenue East and Fourth Street
DULUTH 5, MINNESOTA

February 25, 1953.

Dear Member:

This leaflet, "The Parable of Hoab Hartlie" will tell you the story and give you the facts concerning the Church Building Loan Fund Campaign in which our denomination is now engaged. May I urge you to take the time to read it carefully. This effort is one of unusual significance for our Congregational Churches.

The quota for Pilgrim Church is $3,747. At the Annual Meeting of the Church in January we voted to accept this quota as our minimum share in this large undertaking. We hope we can exceed this figure.

To accomplish this we will need substantial gifts and participation by all members of the Church. We have received our first gift in the amount of $400. We will need others to match this for generosity, ranging from $25 to $250 and upward. We hope that most of these contributions will be immediate gifts or pledges to be paid in the next few months. However, if more time is needed to make the substantial gift which you would like to make you may take up to 24 months for the payments.

A pledge card and return addressed envelope is enclosed. Pledges and contributions will be received and dedicated at the service next Sunday morning, March 1. If you cannot attend the service you may mail your contribution to the Church.

Please make checks payable to Pilgrim Congregational Church and mark them "For Church Building Loan Fund". All gifts will be acknowledged and promptly forwarded to the Church Building Society.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM A. NEWMAN, Chairman
Church Building Loan Fund Campaign
