... were writing to a friend, the first good ...ng we should say of Duluth would be, that we had seen as much good land within a radius of eight or ten miles around this city, as could be found within an equal distance of Portland, Philadelphia, Boston or Baltimore.

Within the past two weeks several of our young yet sagacious buisness men have taken up "homesteads" on Government lands, now laying within five miles of the Town, but eventually to be within the city limits of Duluth. Their names are J. Kimball, from Maine; William S. Brison, Newark, N. J. E. Y. Adams, Iowa; William Thompson, Chicago, M. J. Forbes, Boston; W. S. Woodbridge, do.

The number of acres entered under the Homestead Act at the U. S. Land Office in this City for the month of November amounts to 3.320 acres.

At the meeting to organize a Congregational Church in Duluth, held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday evening, Mr. W. S. Woodbridge was chosen Chairman, and Geo. Spencer, Secretary. After some discussion it was voted to organize a Church, and committies were appointed to prepare a constitution, and to rent a suitable building for worship. Upon the permanent organization, the Rev. Dr. Salter of Minneapolis will be called to preside over the Society.

William Rogers, Esq., of St. Paul arrived in town last evening. It is his first visit to the Metropolis.

THE WAR NEWS.

The English Cabinet is still divided between peace and war; Queen Victoria holds out in favor of peace. Several engagements between the French and Prussians are reported to have taken place on Saturday and Sunday, in each of which the French were victorious.

The fighting begun at two o'clock in the afternoon, when the Prussians attempted to turn the left flank of General Palladine's forces, posted along the Chartres and Vendome Railroad, under Gen eral Garnett. The Prussians were repulsed, suffering great loss, and were persued until midnight. They retreated toward Chateau d'Un. Two guns were captured.

The government has dispatches announcing engagements along the whole front and each of the flanks of d'Aurell's line, all of which are victories for the French.

FIGHTING ON SUNDAY.

Tours, Nov. 27—Evening.—Fighting has been going on all along the line. The French have carried everything. The Prussians tried to turn the right of the French, but were repulsed with great loss.

DIED. Yesterday afternoon at 3½ o'clock, of croup, Carrie J. daughter of Thomas Davy, aged 3 years and 10 months.

A correspondent asks why STORY was buried with so great haste. We don't know, but take it for granted that the parties having the body in charge acted upon telegraphic advice from relatives of the deceased.

As we go to press we have the report of a failure of one of our prominent merchants, the name of whom we with-hold until further developments.
